

Chapter 431: My Mysterious Husband - Tips

0 8 minutes read

Chapter 431 As Extravagant As Before

“Come out now, go to gate, and wait for me for ten minutes.” Yulin said to Anna in a commanding tone.

Damn it, if she doesn't listen to me, she'll suffer. With a curse, Yulin sped off towards the school in a brand new Lamborghini.

.....

Anna really felt masochistic, for she did obediently what Yulin told her to do.

Then she said to herself, “No, I have to go back, otherwise he will bully me later.”

“Well? Isn't this Anna? Look at the headlines of our school, the woman hooks up with the president? The woman who flirts with two guys!”

Anna looked up and saw Qiaoqiao Su, the most beautiful girl in their college, wearing the most popular tasseled puzzle dress this year, with a tall figure and delicate features.

The girl beside Qiaoqiao saw Anna ignored herself and looked at Qiaoqiao instead, she got a little angry: Is she looking down on me?

“I'm talking to you, you little b!tch, who hooked up with the president!”

Anna didn't want to argue with them, so she ignored it and just stood quietly looking at her phone.

“You, b!tch.” The woman who spoke saw Anna ignoring her and felt a little embarrassed, so she walked up and pushed Anna.

Anna would resist even if she was a bit weak, “What are you doing, Jing Wu,” Anna glared angrily as she was pushed and nearly fell over.

Jing Wu crossed her arms, held her head high, looked down at Anna, who was much shorter than her, and proudly said, “what, I can do whatever I want, do you have a problem with that? You little b!tch.”

“You are the little b!tch, just know to follow Qiaoqiao Su every day, like a dog!” Anna glared at Jing Wu who was noisily shrewish and scolding.

“You ...” Jing Wu was instantly angry, she knew that in her classmates thought she was like Qiaoqiao’s dog, which she hated the most.

Jing Wu reached out to hit Anna, and suddenly her wrist was grabbed by a man and thrown away.

“Are you okay?” Yulin had just arrived when he saw this shrew about to reach out and hit Anna.

And Anna just stood there without a move, was she going to wait to be beaten by this ugly woman?

“I’m fine.” When Anna saw Yulin, her eyes became red, and she felt extremely aggrieved.

Anna hugged Yulin suddenly.

“Yulin, why did you just come, why are you so late.” Anna was sad. She hugged Yulin, and complained her aggression from yesterday to now ...

“It’s okay, it’s okay, don’t be afraid.” Yulin was a little surprised by Anna’s sudden hug.

That’s right, when Anna’s first reaction was to hug him, Yulin was elated and happy.

“Don’t be afraid, I’m here.” Yulin narrowed his eyes, looked at the three people in front of him, and shouted at them in a completely different tone, “Get the hell out of here!”

Jing Wu was shocked by Yulin’s eyes and stammered, “Hmph, don’t think you can be recklessly just because someone is protecting you.”

“Sorry, my friend may be a little excited, for seeing her favorite man being snatched away by others.” Qiaoqiao, who had not spoken from the beginning, said with a smile.

She was so elegant like a princess, with a smile all the time, she had never spoken until Yulin arrived, and just watched Jing Wu.

Yulin frowned and looked at Qiaoqiao, then at Anna in his arms.

“Get away.”

Yulin was very happy originally, but the happiness was worn down by Qiaoqiao’s words.

Yulin didn’t know what’s wrong with him, it seemed that as long as there’re something about Anna lately, he always cared about it without thinking.

Qiaoqiao, who just stood here to apologize for her friend, said that her friend's most beloved man was snatched away. By whom? By Anna?

If not, why did that shrew bullied Anna just now and called Anna a little bitch who seduced the president?

Yulin was angered by such a casual apology from Qiaoqiao.

Anna rubbed her head, looked up and asked Yulin, "Sorry, I ..."

Anna stammered, and slightly blushed, "I seem to have my snot on your clothes ..."

Yulin was speechless, what a silly girl. And the displeasure he had just felt was dissipated by Anna's words.

Well, how could Anna steal someone's boyfriend? She was too stupid and dumb to do such a thing.

"Let's go, I have to buy some clothes." Yulin smiled and rubbed the Anna's head.

Yulin's clothes must be very expensive, Anna looked at Yulin's clothes and frowned.

"Come on, what are you doing?" Yulin, who was already walking beside the car, said.

"Oh, okay." Anna looked at Yulin's new car and truly thought Yulin was a dude.

"Why do you get a new car again?" Anna asked Yulin curiously from the passenger side.

Why? Of course because of Anna. "I can change it whenever I want, I have plenty of money." But Yulin, such a proud person, would not tell the story about last night.

"Huh!" What a complacent man.

This new car was really good-looking, however, it was as extravagant and eye-catching as ever.

.....

"Wow, I've never been here before," Anna said as she followed Yulin to the city's most prosperous and luxurious mall.

Anna remembered a classmate who worked here, she went back and bragged that the coffee here was the best coffee, and it's free, because the people who spent here were the richest people in the city, anyone of their clothes was enough for them students to live for a year.

Now for the first time here, Anna's first impression was that it's so big, and then it's a little shaky with lights everywhere.

"Follow me, don't get lost." Anna looked so ignorant, but in Yulin's eyes, she's quite cute. It sounded crazy for Yulin.

"Okay." Anna looked around at the place, where her classmate had been bragging about.

Yulin walked ahead with a smile, Anna made him feel so happy.

They came to the Men's Section. The shop guide at the entrance had noticed Yulin early, and looked at him with a smile.

Anna felt that when these guides looked at Yulin, their eyes were glowing without any disguise.

Yulin picked out a shirt, and before he started to speak, a sharp-eyed saleswoman asked attentively, "Sir, this is the latest shirt, may I help you wrap it up?"

Perfect smile, perfect service, all of these seemed so perfect, but Anna just think that the saleswoman smiled very ugly, and looked ugly too.

Anna just didn't like the way she looked at Yulin.

"No." Anna walked over and took the clothes in Yulin's hand unexpectedly, and put it back.

The saleswoman froze, who was this ugly woman dressed in cheap, rustic clothes?

Yulin laughed, "Isn't that good?"

"It's not good, it's ugly. Let's go and take a look over there." Saying that, she took Yulin's arm and left that area directly.

Yulin wondered what happened to Anna, "What's wrong?" He smiled and rubbed Anna's head.

"Nothing, I just think I got your clothes dirty, so I should pick one for you by myself." Anna said in a somewhat awkward tone.

"Sure, then I'll wait for you to buy a clothes for me." Yulin laughed happily.

"I just saw a nice one over there, let's go to take a look." Anna looked at the store on the right and said.

Anna ran over with Yulin gleefully, picked up a clothing and looked at it, and instantly froze. Holy sh!t? Are they robbing? A clothing costs more than 10,000 RMB, which is even more horrible than robbing.

Anna looked at the price and did not know what to do.

She just said she would buy a clothing for Yulin, and now she was directly shocked by the high price.

She turned her head to see Yulin's smiling handsome face, and felt so embarrassed.

"Well, why are all the clothes here so ugly? I don't like it actually." Anna waved her hand and pulled Yulin to walked away.

The saleswoman was stunned, what did the girl in cheap dress say? Our clothes here are ugly? Come on, our clothes are of the latest style and the best fabric, how could she said the clothes here are not good?

"Who is that girl with Mr.Xiao?" A saleswoman curiously asked another person.

"I don't know, I haven't seen her before either." Another woman replied.

This girl had never appeared before, and Mr.Xiao indulged her so much, maybe she was very important to Mr.Xiao.

.....

Yulin had never seen this kind of place, with so many people coming and going, street stalls, pancakes, baked sweet potatoes, fruit ... you could buy almost anything you want here.

This place was completely comparable to a large supermarket, but the only drawback was that it looked so unhygienic.

Yulin frowned at the unhygienic food, and watched with disgust as various people walked past him.

"Hey, what are you doing there?" Yulin looked at Anna beside him, "I'm going to buy a pancake, do you want it?" Yulin looked at the cart that sold pancakes ... really disgusting.

"No." Yulin frowned.

"Then I'll have one." Anna walked to the stall and asked for a pancake. "Two eggs, one sausage, more chili, scallions and cilantro please."

"Okay."

Yulin still frowned, he did not want to stay in this place for a moment. The place was cluttered, noisy and made him particularly irritable.

But Anna liked this place, she seemed to come here a lot. Anna was holding the pancake in her hand and enjoyed it happily, which Yulin had never seen before.

"What are we doing here?" Yulin asked Anna, who was eating with a mouthful of oil.

"Buy clothes." Anna said with wide, blinking eyes.

"This place? What kind of clothes?" Yulin asked, frowning in confusion.

Anna noticed that Yulin had been frowning since he came here.

"Uh-huh, yes. Let's go, I'll take you there." Anna said and walked straight away.

Anna seemed to think of something, suddenly stopped and said with a smile, "Stay close to me, don't get lost, it's a big place."

Indeed, this place was very big, and if people who had only come here few times would sure to get lost, that's why Anna said so.

Yulin froze when he heard Anna say this, he used to be the one who said this to others, no one had ever said this to him before, but this feeling seemed so good.

Yulin finally stopped frowning and revealed a long-lost smile, "Hurry up." Anna urged.

The first floor of the market was mostly to sell school bags, and the second floor was to sell clothes.

"Here it is, go to pick one you like and I'll buy it for you." Anna held her head high and looked at Yulin with pride.

Yulin was obedient and happily went into a store and started picking a clothing in earnest.

Yulin remembered the women who had a relationship with him in the past, it was always he who said these words to those women, no one had ever spoken to him like this.

However, the girl behind him who was eating with oil on mouth said to him, "Choose whatever you want, I'll buy it for you."

This feeling seemed to be not bad. This stupid girl always brought him surprises.

“Look, how about this one, it’s nice.” Anna held up a blue shirt and asked Yulin.

Yulin looked at the shirt for a long time, then said: “Well, it’s really... special.”

Chapter 432: My Mysterious Husband - Tips

0 8 minutes read

Chapter 432 Approaching Cautiously

Anna Xie carefully held the pancake in one hand and carried the supposedly good-looking shirt in the other. She smiled with happiness and satisfaction.

This was the first time she bought clothes for a man and the first time she felt so relaxed.

In this way, Yulin Xiao and she would not owe each other anything, otherwise it always seemed like she had been causing him trouble.

But after a while, Anna felt that she had thought it wrong, it should be Yulin who did something wrong, and it should be Yulin who apologized to her, however, Anna didn’t mind.

“Look, how good it is.” Anna proudly looked at Yulin, “You know what, this is not worse than what you saw before, the clothes sold in that place are also purchased from here.”

Hearing Anna’s words, and looking at her proud look, Yulin was speechless, this silly girl even couldn’t distinguish what’s high-grade goods, or what’s a flea-market product?

However, at this moment, he quite enjoyed this feeling, especially when Anna said: “you can pick whatever you want, I’ll buy it for you.”

This girl was so cute!

“Yes, you’re right.” Yulin smiled in a good mood.

Then Anna laughed louder.

“Shall I try this?” Seeing Anna’s smile, Yulin felt that the gloom in his life ran away all of a sudden.

Anna looked at Yulin and suddenly blushed, shyly like a little girl who had just been loved by a boy.

“Tut,” Anna felt her left cheek become surprisingly moist.

"Yulin, you ...," Anna came back to her senses, and only then did she realize that Yulin had given her a kiss. Yulin was still looking at her with some affection, "I ... I just think the pancake looks delicious."

Yulin just said that, and then wondered how he had become so clumsy at the moment. He just kissed a girl. This city, thousands of girls wanted his to kiss, but he has to find a stupid reason to explain after kissing her. This was not his style.

Seeing Anna's shy look, the saleswoman seemed to understand something.

"Your boy friend is so elegant, girl, this jewel blue shirt is very nice for him. Moreover, you really have a good taste, this is our new shirt, but the price may be a little higher." The saleswoman noticed that Yulin looked like a rich man, so he said the price first. What's more, Anna seemed to usually hang around the wholesale market, so it was impossible to cheat her. However, the price should be said first, so that it was convenient to bargain later.

Jewel blue? Yulin heard this name and could not help but think of the host of the rural show, he had also been to the countryside because of the business, and happened to pass by a farming base of his company, where a performance was taking place in the countryside, and the host of the show was wearing this jewel blue shirt.

"Really?" Anna held the shirt while gesturing over Yulin, "Good, you're so handsome like a host."

As expected, Yulin guessed it. However, seeing Anna was so serious when she took the clothing and compared it to him, Yulin was even a little touched.

"How much is it? We'll take this one." Anna looked at the clothing with satisfaction and fussed over the material, "Well, it's not worse than those in the big malls at all."

Hearing Anna's compliment, the saleswoman smiled smugly, "Of course, we purchase the clothes from the same place, of course our clothes are not worse."

"200 yuan, the little girl is our regular customer, I'll give you a 20% discount, 160 yuan." The saleswoman said while nimbly handing Anna the wrapped shirt.

But Anna frowned, "Well, I remember last time the price tag of this shirt should be 100, right?"

Last time? Yulin didn't continue to listen to what Anna was saying. But, she mentioned the price tag of this shirt last time? That meant she had been here before? Whom did she choose clothes for? He had felt something was wrong.

“Child, you must remember it wrong, it should be a lake blue one, not a jewel blue one.” The saleswoman was very experienced, and how could she admit that she had altered the price.

“Okay, then 160 yuan, I’ll take it.” Anna finished, pulled out two hundred yuan bills from her wallet and handed them to the saleswoman.

“It feels so amazing to spend someone else’s money.” Yulin said with a tsk.

Anna gave Yulin a disdainful look, “Do you want to a pancake? I’ll buy it for you.”

It turned out that Anna thought Yulin was staring himself to death because he wanted to eat pancakes and fruit.

Yulin didn’t know how to answer, he didn’t believe that Anna was really a fool.

“Anna, whom exactly did you select the shirt for before? Why would you have come here before to see this shirt?” Yulin’s eyes suddenly became red, which made Anna a little confused.

“I’ll talk to you later.” Anna said as she ate her pancake.

Accidentally, the sauce inside the pancake dripped down.

“What?” Anna looked at her shoes annoyingly.

“What’s wrong?” Seeing Anna’s expression, Yulin frowned. This noisy place made people unwilling to stay long, and Anna was always in a lot of troubles.

“The sauce dropped on my white shoes.” Anna was wearing the latest popular white shoes, and the sauce of the pancake was the hardest to wash off.

Yulin felt speechless once again, it’s just a drop of sauce, what’s the big deal? Seeing the way she bargained with the saleswoman, he guessed this pair of shoes was not very expensive.

“Take it off!” Yulin couldn’t stand it and said in a domineering manner.

“Why?” Anna almost shouted out. Hearing this, many people around looked at her, which made her embarrassed.

Yulin didn’t care too much, picked her up straight away and headed for the car, threw her shoes in the trash by the way.

“Hey, Yulin, what are you doing?” Anna whacked him while struggling. She didn’t even know what had happened, and her shoes were thrown by him, just for a drop of sauce.

"The shoes are dirty, don't wear them anymore. And, you buy me the shirt, I'll buy you the shoes, so we'll be clear."

Hearing Yulin say this, Anna finally relaxed.

However, to her surprise, Yulin drove the car all the way west, straight to his apartment.

When they arrived at the apartment, Anna looked at Yulin incredulously, "What exactly do you want?"

"I don't know." Yulin didn't know what to do, but once thought that she had chosen a shirt for another man, he just wanted her.

They sat in Yulin's Lamborghini quietly in front of his apartment, and Yulin had mixed feelings.

"Yulin, are you in love with me?" Anna's sudden question made Yulin a little angry.

"Am I? If I say, I'm in love with you, and I also ... want you." Yulin was furious, this woman really didn't know her own identity. Being in love with her? So ridiculous.

However, Yulin admitted that he had been aroused by her, and certain forces were slowly awakening and surging upwards.

"You threw my shoes, you have to pay me one." Anna said to Yulin with her pouting lips, which looked like a girl flirting with her boyfriend.

Thinking about this, her cheeks surprisingly began to be red again.

In Yulin's eyes, her red cheeks were so charming and sultry.

"Go!" As a young man, Yulin didn't want to think about anything else at this moment.

Bang, the door of the Lamborghini was closed. Yulin regained Anna in his arms.

He didn't want anything else right now, he only wanted the girl in his arms.

The elevator kept rising until it reached his room, and Yulin carried Anna into his apartment.

During that time, Anna was stunned, she had never been forcibly carried by a man like this before, and by a man she hadn't known for very long. To be exact, she never been hugged by a man like this.

"What do you ... want?" Anna was so anxious that she couldn't speak clearly.

“Of course ... you.”

After that, he kissed Anna on her lips, proving what he just said in a dominant way.

“Yulin, you ... you go away.” Anna’s small fist smashed on Yulin, but this was only a massage for Yulin.

He wrapped his arms around Anna’s waist and kissed her.

“Mmm.” Anna desperately wanted to struggle, but her lips were covered by Yulin, and she could not utter any words at all, only a stammering voice.

Yulin kissed her, tasted a little salty of pancake ... and then, surprisingly, there was a hint of sweetness, this was the unique sweet of a young girl.

Anna was simply kissed by Yulin to the point of suffocation, with eyes closed, and a strange feeling, and she seemed to like this feeling.

“Lin...” Anna didn’t know how could she call Yulin like that at this moment, she had never called his name like that before.

“Well?” Yulin’s smile was charming and reckless, and his voice compelled Anna’s heart.

“Hmm...Lin.” Anna said, while moving her body towards Yulin and started to hug him involuntarily.

Yulin was satisfied with her hug, and a smile appeared on his face.

Suddenly, however, he stopped.

“Hmm?” Anna was curious, why did he suddenly stop?

Immediately after, Anna felt a chill on her back, only to find that her

T-shirt was tugged.

“Yulin, you ...!” Anna was furious, but she could do nothing about it.

The next second, Yulin broke out.

“Yulin!” Anna couldn’t take it anymore.

Never mind, just once, from now on, she did not want to see this person again. But right now, she wanted him, she didn’t care about the reason or anything else, she simply wanted Yulin now.

“Well? Am I great?” Yulin’s voice was so seductive that Anna couldn’t help but sink into it.

“I haven’t been with another man, so I don’t know!” Anna said as they continued.

“Lin ... Ah!” Anna leaned back.

Yulin hugged her. a room of romance. The room was full of romance.

Yulin liked apartments almost to madness, and bought many apartment suites. This apartment was on the top floor, the 33rd floor.

So, since they came in, he didn’t closed the curtains, firstly because both he and Anna were in a very emotional state, and secondly because he liked the feeling of the sunlight spilling over him.

Anna’s red cheeks were like apples in autumn, making people want to take a bite ...

The ginger sunlight shining through the window fell on Anna’s face, like a layer of golden light, looked unreal.

“Yulin ... you ...” Anna hadn’t finished speaking when interrupted by his movements.

“What? Do you like it?” Yulin whispered to Anna’s ear.

This early spring season also let the sweat seep out ...

With their wallow, the ginger sunlight outside the window turned banana yellow, and gradually, only the setting sun remained.

Anna felt wonderful when looked at Yulin’s perfect muscles.

“What? You want more?” Yulin’s smile was tempting to Anna.

Anna was ashamed of herself, this was what she wanted? What would she get from this man? Even after this, she still didn’t want to be his appendage, and didn’t want to live on a man.

And, there was no interest between her and Yulin. They just happened to meet each other and take what they needed.

She wanted nothing more from him.

As darkness fell, Anna realized that it’s late.

Chapter 433: My Mysterious Husband - Tips

0 8 minutes read

Chapter 433 I Used to Like Her Very Much

Finally, it's over ...

"Yulin, please buy me a pair of shoes, I need to go back to school." Anna Xie looked at Yulin Xiao almost pleadingly.

However, Yulin buried his head in Anna's arms as if he didn't hear.

He clung to Anna like a little child.

"You know what? I used to like her very much, very much..." Yulin said, looked up at Anna, Anna felt depressed as if something had hit her heart.

"You mean, the girl at the banquet that day?" Anna vaguely felt a little jealousy, that girl, with a good family and good looks, was also missed by Yulin for so many years.

"She once said to me very affectionately that when I return, was still a young boy in her heart. I also jokingly said, when she return was still my little girl." There was a little sadness in Yulin's smile. She gently reached out her hand to touch him, but then stopped.

What's she doing?

However, she couldn't help but take Yulin in her arms.

"Don't be sad, you are so outstanding, there will be many girls like you." Anna's voice was already sweet, and at this time, it was even more seductive and mesmerizing.

However, Yulin seemed not hear it and continued: "But, finally, she went abroad. She went away for a few years. When came back, she is still a little girl, but not the girl who loved me. She even said she wanted to marry another man."

Yulin said while the tears wet Anna's legs.

"Don't be like this, please don't..." Anna didn't know how to comfort Yulin, she just wanted to be by his side at this moment and made him feel better. At this moment, Anna felt like the happiest woman in the world. It was the first time to be relied on by a man like this.

"Anna, can you stay with me? always ..." Yulin angular face presented in front of Anna.

She had to admit that Yulin was indeed very handsome, not the kind of mediocre face and skin tone, but a distinctive angular face, as fascinating as a sculpture.

“I ...”

“I’ve been missing you ... in spring breeze”

Before Anna said the word “I”, Yulin’s cell phone rang.

When he heard the ringtone, Yulin jumped to the phone as if by reflex.

“Spring Breeze?” Anna frowned, this was one of her favorite songs, and she didn’t expect that Yulin also liked it.

But Anna accidentally glanced at the phone screen and saw that the caller ID written on it was “Wei Xu”.

Wei Xu? Well, whoever you think of would call you immediately.

Anna felt more despondent.

Yulin, however, gave Anna a look and took his phone into the bathroom. He seemed to have some secret that he didn’t want Anna to hear.

Anna sneered, she was just a tool for him .

“Yulin, I’m leaving.” Anna saw Yulin go to the bathroom to answer the phone, left a note, and walked out of Yulin’s apartment with bare feet.

She was getting more and more despondent. Forget it, it was just a dream.

Anna was like a hedgehog abandoned by the world, even without a pair of shoes.

“Anna, is that you?”

Just as Anna was walking along the roadsides feeling desperate, she heard someone call her name and looked back, then she was stunned.

“Dongzi?” Anna felt so lucky to run into someone she knew here.

However, at the moment she saw Dongzi, her eyes became dull again.

She was not wearing shoes, walking barefoot on the road, and her white T-shirt had the mud that was accidentally rubbed on it while passing through an alley earlier.

The apartments here were in a high-class villa area, so there were no small affordable stores nearby at all, and the shoes in the big stores were thousands of yuan.

“Anna, what’s wrong with you? Why are you barefoot?” Dongzi asked carefully, and he even approached Anna and picked her up. “How can you do that? What if you hurt your feet?”

At this moment, Dongzi could not care so much, just quickly carry her to the car. When he just passed by here, he saw a girl’s back some familiar, and did not expect that this girl was Anna.

“Dongzi, please don’t.” Anna felt so shy that her face was as red as a ripe peach.

This shyness made Dongzi a little dazed for a moment.

However, he shook his head, Anna was the boss’s woman, how could he think that.

Once he thought that Yulin let Anna walk alone on the road, but also barefoot, Dongzi felt some dissatisfied on Yulin. He would call him later and asked him what the hell was going on. He must teach Yulin a lesson. Although he knew that Yulin was originally a playboy, he really couldn’t stand that Yulin treated Anna like this.

“Anna, did Yulin bully you again?” Dongzi was furious with Yulin.

“No, it has nothing to do with him.”

Anna didn’t want to have anything to do with Yulin anymore, just to get rid of her relationship with him as much as possible. There were many gossips about her and Yulin. She didn’t want to let herself be affected by them anymore.

While Dongzi was holding Anna tightly, they didn’t notice that a pair of eyes were staring at them behind the green belt.

By the time Dongzi took Anna to a mall to try on shoes, it was already 8:00 p.m. and the mall was about to close.

“Dongzi, thank you.” Looking at the shoes on her feet, Anna knew that they must be very expensive, and she didn’t know how to thank Dongzi ...

“It’s okay, Anna. Let me take you back to school.” Dongzi was surprised to see Anna’s ruffled look, and was a little touched that no girl had ever said thank you to him.

This sincerity was what Dongzi had wanted for so many years.

“Okay. Dongzi,” Anna’s feeling was complicated, she didn’t know how to face Dongzi, didn’t know whether Dongzi knew about those posts on the school website, about Anna and Dongzi’s gossip, and what happened between Anna and Yulin.

However, seeing Dongzi’s so sincere, Anna had no courage to refuse, so she said yes.

On the way, Dongzi kept looking for topics of conversation, tried to cheer Anna up a bit, and Anna could only try to match Dongzi and laughed.

However, everything was filmed by someone who was following behind.

When Anna got out of Dongzi's BMW, she heard the students around were discussing.

"Wow, who is this? It's Anna who is kept by the president?"

"It's not President Xiao, right? So soon to be with another man?"

"What a pleasure."

The sound was getting louder, and Dongzi glanced at Anna with some concern.

"Anna, don't listen to them, let's go." Dongzi was afraid that she wouldn't be able to handle it and to do something stupid, and didn't want her to go back to the dorm by herself.

"Thank you, Dongzi, I'm fine. I'm sorry to get you involved." Anna looked at Dongzi apologetically.

They were apologizing to each other here like this, in others' opinion, however, they were saying goodbye reluctantly.

Yulin looked at their intimate expressions on the phone photos, his hand involuntarily clenched tighter, and his fist hit the bed.

He just happened to see the note Anna left at the bedside, and his heart felt like stuffed with a ball of cotton, blocked with panic.

"Damn it." Yulin's abdominal muscle rose and fell, seeming to swear his displeasure.

Anna sneezed uncontrollably.

"Anna?" Dongzi took out a tissue and handed it to Anna.

"Thanks." Anna took the tissue from Dongzi's hand, and heard someone scolding her.

The night was getting darker and darker, and everything seemed to be signaling that this night was unusual.

"Dongzi, you should go back, be careful on the way." Anna gave Dongzi a grateful look, "The money for the shoes, I'll pay you back later."

She didn't want to owe Dongzi anything, nor did she want anything to happen between them because of this incident, let alone cause any trouble for Dongzi.

When thinking about the last time she looked at the chicken wings in Dongzi's hand, and was told to be a fool, she was a little scared.

"No, you don't have to pay it, it's a gift from me." Dongzi said with a feeling of guilt in his heart, he wanted to stay with Anna for a little longer, but he couldn't.

"Then I'll go back first, take care of yourself, you don't need to care about what other people say." Dongzi was still most worried about Anna being troubled by those gossips.

Anna, however, smiled wearily, "Don't worry."

When Anna returned to the dormitory, Qiqi looked at her, wanting to say something.

"Qiqi, what's wrong?" Anna looked at Qiqi bewilderingly, although she had expected that she must have been slandered by those people again.

However, she did not know exactly how serious it was.

"No... nothing..." Qiqi covered up in a way that made Anna want to know exactly.

"Qiqi, let me see it." Seeing Qiqi kept blocking the computer, Anna became even more curious.

"Anna...Anna. "Qiqi acted so panic, Anna felt something strange, she pushed Qiqi away and sat in front of the computer, wanted to see what was going on.

Sure enough, whether it was the school's official website, college forums, or the city's local news, she was all the headlines.

"Story of A Female College Students And A Rich", "Female College Student and Young Man Kiss in the Street" ... and so on, countless.

Anna was so angry that she barely stood up, leaned against the wall, tried not to fall down. She tried to keep calm, but still felt her heartbeat picking up.

"Anna, Anna." Qiqi anxiously powered off the computer, "Sit down and take a break."

"Qiqi, do you believe me?" Anna's eyes were filled with tears, she surprisingly came up with Yulin now, would he also misunderstand her?

Anna laughed to herself, she was really crazy, at this time, she was thinking about that man. He was just a passing visitor in her life, in his eyes, she was nothing at all.

“Anna, I believe in you, always believe in you.” Qiqi knew Anna, she was definitely not the kind of person who would betray herself for money, unless it was for love ... although seeing the man send Anna back, Qiqi believed that Anna would definitely give her a reasonable explanation.

For some rumors on the Internet, Anna was still more or less concerned, although at this time she should not have such thoughts, but she can not control her emotions.

He could not do anything but talk to Qiqi about her grievances.

“Qiqi, do you believe me?” Anna cried out, she didn’t expect the result to be like this, she had thought that since then they wouldn’t have relationships anymore, but now, the rumors about them on the Internet were surprisingly overwhelming.

“I told you, I believe you.” Qiqi said, in fact, this was the second time Anna asked her this question.

However, Qiqi could understand Anna’s feelings at this moment.

“Wow, it turned out that the president’s little lover will also cry. Haven’t you enjoyed enough of the luxury life?”

“Look, She’s crying, it must be because she’s cheating on the president and was found out.”

“Yeah, it’s her honor to be with president, and she dares to hook up with another man.”

Anna was in the dormitory, when listened to their words, she felt so sorrowful. Yulin, you have made me miserable.

“Anna, don’t be like this, you still have me, you still have me, I will always be with you!” Qiqi didn’t know how to comfort Anna, or know much about Yulin’s situation now, just knew that Anna had been caught in the scandal of being raised by the president. What’s worse, another set of photos had been spread, which confirmed that Anna and Dongzi’s relationship was ambiguous.

“Thank you, Qiqi,” Anna said, and lied in her bed in exhaustion.

Chapter 434: My Mysterious Husband - Tips

0 8 minutes read

Chapter 434 She Was Mine

This night, she was so tired that she had a very good sleep.

Though the gossip and the rumor were getting more and more on the Internet, she didn't care at all.

Now, what she wanted was a good sleep. She hoped that Tomorrow would be a brand-new day.

Yulin Xiao, however, at this moment, was still holding the note Anna Xie left.

Was this she wanted? Did she really think this would make them square? What a stupid woman.

Humph! He didn't allow this to happen.

Yulin clenched his fist a little tighter and he had to take some action to make her understand that she was his. And she couldn't just walk away like this.

She made him so humiliated and he would let her know the consequences of betraying him.

The next morning, the sunlight came in through the curtains and fell on Anna's bed. The spring was almost over and she could feel the coming of summer.

Anna felt a bad headache, probably because she thought too much last night. But this offered her a good sleep.

"Ouch." When she was about to get up, she stumbled and fell back. It turned out that she had walked so much yesterday that it chafed her heel. Now Anna remembered that yesterday, she had come out of Yulin's apartment with bare feet and walked for a while. It was only after that she met Dongzi. Thinking of Dongzi, Anna remembered that she hadn't given Dongzi the money for buying her the shoes.

"Anna, phone!" Anna set her phone to mute after she came back, for she didn't want to be annoyed by the phone.

However, it was from Yulin.

"Yes, thank you." After hearing her classmate's mention, Anna took a glance at her phone nervously.

She was thinking whether she should answer the phone. In fact, she wanted to know what he was going to say.

After pressing the answer button, Anna's heart was beating fast, as if something had hit her.

“Anna, twenty minutes. Wash and dress yourself. After twenty minutes, make sure to show up at the east school gate. My license plate is...” Yulin ended with a fast speed, while Anna was stunned.

Although she disgusted Yulin, but now there was no way to get rid of him.

She was resisting, but every time she received his call, she would obediently follow his instructions.

“OK.” After a long silence, Anna finally spoke.

Yulin took a long breath. If she hadn’t spoken this time, he couldn’t guarantee he wouldn’t have rushed into his dorm and took her out.

“I’ll wait for you.” After a pause, Yulin spoke again.

There were many flowers in campuses, as well as Anna’s university.

Sitting in the car, Yulin looked at the flowers outside the window, and was reminded of a verse—I love the 100,000 acres of roses planted on your abdomen. He used to love this verse very much, and now, it seemed to be appropriate.

Looking at those flowers, he thought of the phone call from Wei Xu last night.

After Anna came out of the dormitory, she walked outside anxiously.

Before she reached the gate, she heard a “hiss”.

“Get in the car.” The man’s voice was rich and strong, and when she looked up, she saw Yulin’s handsome face, with some heroism and a little bit of arrogance.

It was impossible for her to say no. He completely overwhelmed Anna

“I...can you not come back to me in the future?” Anna’s voice was very small, like squeezing out from her throat, but Yulin still heard it clearly.

“Is that so? You don’t want me to come to you? Is it because you want to be with Dongzi?” Yulin’s voice was as harsh as a sword, stabbing straight into Anna’s heart.

It actually hurt her.

“No. You don’t know.” Anna didn’t know what Yulin was thinking. She just felt that she shouldn’t let Yulin misunderstand, especially her and Dongzi.

Yulin sneered, “Is that so? You kissed him and can you tell me it’s not true? I have the evidence.”

After saying that, he snorted, "Get in the car."

The veins on his hands popped out, highlighting his anger.

Anna did not dare to say more and followed Yulin to the car.

"Anna, be good." Yulin said while putting his foot on the gas. Then the car rushed out several meters at once, raising the dust. It's a sad thing for the air and for the environment.

"Where are you going?" Anna was a little scared, grabbing the safety belt tighter.

"Home."

"I don't want to go there." As soon as Anna heard Yulin say so, she strongly opposed. She wouldn't go home with him. She couldn't make it clear at the beginning and now, things got worse. What's more, Dongzi got involved. This all made her incredibly confused.

But, at the moment, Anna's cell phone rang.

Taking a look at the screen, she was not going to answer it.

"What? Answer the phone. Who is calling you?" Yulin said this with jealousy.

"Nothing. I won't answer it."

Yulin smiled, for he was actually a little happy. She now was considering his feelings. However, he glanced it and saw "Dongzi". He got irritated again.

Dongzi was Yulin's buddy, so how could he treat him like this?

Moreover, he called Anna, which really made Yulin a little annoyed.

"Answer it. Maybe it's urgent." Yulin clenched his teeth and said this unwillingly.

"Okay." Anna regretted when she said this. She did not sense he was sarcastic.

"Ah! A sudden stop made Anna almost hit the windshield.

In fact, Yulin had already been far away from her university and now he was at a crossroads.

"Get out." Yulin was wondering whether she had shame or not. Now, he was picking her out of school, but she still minded Dongzi's call. What did she want? Two men at the same time?

Anna couldn't figure out what was going on.

"Good." But she didn't allow herself to ask why.

After Anna got off, Yulin didn't stay for a moment and drove away, leaving the dust and the confused Anna.

After calling Anna, Dongzi found that she did not answer, so he felt it was strange, feeling something was gonna happen.

He sent a message to Anna, who replied that she was on her way.

Dongzi called again.

"Dongzi, don't worry about me. I'll just go back by myself later. No, you really don't have to come." Anna and Dongzi were talking on the phone, but she didn't notice that Yulin, who had changed his car, had actually been following her.

It turned out that Yulin still worried about her after leaving, so he changed a car to follow her.

However, he happened to hear her conversation with Dongzi.

"Humph, she really doesn't need me." Yulin punched on the steering wheel, deciding not to follow her. Since Dongzi would pick her up later, he should leave now.

She walked on the street and remembered her childhood when her parents and she often counted stars. It was indeed happy.

But now, she encountered so many difficulties.

However, she failed to anticipate, at this moment, the danger was approaching, little by little.

Several men suddenly appeared on the roadside, talking about something.

"Yes, it's her, we've seen the photos. The boss said, if we can really sell her at a good price, he would give each one of us an extra 20,000."

"Is she really the one the boss mentioned? We need to get the right person, otherwise, we will ruin ourselves."

"We won't." One bearded man said while touching his beard, as if the beard was omnipotent. As long as he touched, he would be able to get things done.

"So, let's get started now?" Another thin man asked.

“Guys, go!”

Anna walked while helplessly smiling. The rumor said she was adopted, but now she was left alone on the street. Sadness and sorrow overwhelmed her and no one could make her feel warm anymore.

Although Anna has told Dongzi not to come, Dongzi was still a little uneasy.

But in the next moment, after Anna hung up the phone, she felt she was choked out, as if someone knocked her down.

She fell to the ground, never to get up.

Immediately after that, she could see nothing.

What the hell was going on?

“Who are you? What the hell do you want?” Anna then realized that she had been kidnapped and someone covered her eyes. She also felt her arms and legs being restrained, and then they tied her up with ropes.

“What do you guys want? What exactly have I done to offend you?” Anna wanted to cry, for she had not offended anyone, so how could she be kidnapped?

“Do not speak, or we will fvck you.” A man sternly shouted. And Anna felt she was carried to another place.

Leaning forward, she knew she was in a car. Did they put her inside an illegal car? Anna couldn't help but think of the previous episodes on the TV.

But those were daughters of rich families. Was she the target? She was just a normal girl.

“Boss, it's done...”

In a daze, Anna heard them calling.

And at this time, Anna's phone also rang. She guessed that it was from Dongzi, because Dongzi said that he was coming to pick her up.

“Bi...” Anna's phone was turned off by them.

She got desperate, knowing that she had really been in trouble.

“Ha, ha. I didn’t expect someone was worrying about her.” One man, with a rough voice, said. Anna, with eyes being covered, could not see anything, only felt it’s bumpy. It seemed to be a mountain road.

The road was extremely bumpy, and they talked all the way, but Anna didn’t know what they were saying.

Anna was terrified, for she didn’t know what was going on.

“Okay, boss, got it. Let the boy go. The girl he said was caught and we will send her to the auction you mentioned. She was beautiful and had a good body, so I’m sure she will be sold at a good price.” Another man with a soft voice was answering the phone.

The auction, the girl, the boss...everything frightened Anna. The girl they were talking about was her, but what about the auction?

“Girl, be good. Don’t do anything, otherwise, we will throw you to the deep forest and beasts will eat you.”

After Anna heard their conversation, she sensed she was in danger, so she used her perception to move to the car door, but before she could move a few steps, she was discovered.

When Dongzi couldn’t get Anna through, he called Yulin in the end.

“What? You see her?” Yulin was mad at what had done. At least, Dongzi was also his buddy, but he tried to take his woman away.

However, although Yulin was angry, he was sure that there was nothing between them. what he was angry was that she didn’t care his feelings. Damn it, stupid woman.

...

The breeze blew gently, the birds were flying and the flowers were blooming.

Standing on the top floor of his apartment and looking out the window at the sunshine, he didn’t know the woman he cherished was in danger.

When Dongzi heard Yulin’s reprimand, he did not explain his emotions or the thing between him and Anna. He wasn’t in a good mood and he didn’t think it was necessary. Sooner or later, the truth would come out.

And at this moment, what he most wanted Yulin to know was that he could find Anna. He didn’t know where she was now, nor what was going on. Although he had talked to Anna on the phone before, he couldn’t get in touch with her all of a sudden. This made him think that something bad had happened.

“Hey, I don’t want to talk about this. Now, I can’t find Anna.” Dongzi deliberately used Anna’s full name to show they were not that closed.

However, Yulin was simply in great anger right now and he couldn’t make a right judgment on this. He even couldn’t make himself listen to him.

“Okay, stop, I don’t want to talk to you right now.” Yulin then hung up the phone.

Dongzi, stunned, didn’t know what he could do now.

Chapter 435: My Mysterious Husband - Tips

0 4 minutes read

Chapter 435 He Did Not Want to Lose Her

But now, if Yulin Xiao didn’t do anything, he simply could do nothing.

Who were they? What exactly had happened? Dongzi had no idea.

Yulin stood at the window for a long time and he didn’t know what was wrong with him. The laziest and the happiest Yulin was now bothered by a woman. What’ s more, it was because of her affairs with his friend, which was even more distressing to Yulin.

For him, if he wanted a woman, he would easily get her.

However, what he wanted now was Anna and her love. He even decided to confine her to his world, so that she could never get away from him.

However, this was all just his own wishful thinking. He had no idea of what Anna was thinking.

He thought for a long time before he turned around and thought of Dongzi’ s phone call just now, who told him that Anna couldn’t be reached.

Thinking of this, Yulin got panicked. What was going on?

Just now, he only focused on his own sadness and did not pay attention to what Dongzi had said.

And now, he seemed to miss something important.

After the phone call, he was a little worried and he didn’t know what Dongzi was going to do. He hoped that he didn’t act alone.

Anyway, Dongzi was also his good friend and even if Dongzi loved his woman, he was still his buddy. Men sometimes were very strange, for in their opinions, friends were friends and women were women.

“Yulin, listen to me, I called Anna before and she answered my phone. I said she was not safe on the road alone and I could pick her up if she wanted. Maybe the rumors on the Internet make her terrified. So, she refused me. Now, she doesn’t answer me.” When Dongzi said this, he was talking fast, sounded like he was about to cry, with sob in his voice.

“What are you crying about?” Yulin said disdainfully. In fact, he was blaming himself inside. He was one who caused this.

Because of seeing her answer the call from Dongzi, he kicked her out of the car. Was he a little too much?

While the two were on the phone, Anna had been pushed into a dark room.

Anna’s eyes, at this moment had been cover by a white cloth. So, just a moment of changing the cloth, she seemed to see some light, which was the limelight.

As a little star, Anna still knew this.

She did not know where she was, but at least this was a public place.

Thinking about this, she didn’t worry that much.

After being pushed and shoved along the way, Anna was finally set to a place where she was no longer moving.

“Girl, be nice or we’ll k!ll you.” Somehow, a woman was talking to her. Along the way, she was carried by several men. Now since she didn’t know exactly where she had arrived, nor did she know why a woman was watching her.

This, however, made Anna feel safe. Otherwise, she would have to worry about whether she would be r.aped.

“I see.” Anna’s voice was surprisingly calm, for she had been analyzing who exactly she had met?

She heard some music outside. Immediately after that, someone was talking.

“Hurry up, give her a light makeup and wash her body.”

“A bath? No way. She has just gotten here.”

Hearing the conversations, she realized that she was kidnapped. This kind of plot had only been seen in the movie before, but she didn't know it did happen in her daily life. And unfortunately, it happened to her. It was incredible.

“Who the hell is trying to harm me?” Anna's voice trembled, as if she was asking herself, but also those women around her.

“Women who come here often have only one end—slaves.” When these women said this, they didn't even bother to pay attention to Anna's emotions, as if they were like talking to a piece of wood and they didn't even treat her as a real person.

“What?” Anna got more scared after hearing this. She never thought that she would meet this.

“But I have nothing.” Anna wanted to say that she was not in a good shape, but what was the point of saying so now?

“Alas. You should blame your cousin.” These women looked at Anna with some regret and continued what they had just done. Oh, yes, they needed to obey the order to give Anna makeup, for only in this way, Anna could look better, which was exactly what they wanted.

At this time, Anna realized the situation. This was ridiculous, making Anna desperate.

She thought of her family, and what they just said now and it was not hard to see she was sold by her cousin...

However, Anna always took him as her closest relatives.

Once she thought of this, Anna's eyes were filled with tears.

“It's over.”

At this desperate moment, she actually thought of Yulin, his warm hands, his strong chest, and his bossiness. These were the things that Anna used to miss. Although Yulin liked controlling her and Anna was a bit annoyed with him, it seemed that she felt more comfortable staying with him, much better than it was now... If she went back, she would have chosen not to care the gossips and rumors.

Yulin always thought he would get Anna in the end, no matter how. But now, it seemed he was wrong.

“Mr. Xiao, I'm sorry.” The person on the phone said, with sorry.

“What?!”

Hearing his voice, Yulin was originally full of hope, but when he told him he didn't make it, he got gloomy.

“Say it again. I only want the result.” Yulin's voice was fierce and vicious, exactly like the winter, gloomy and damp, making people terrified.

Chapter 436: My Mysterious Husband - Tips

0 8 minutes read

Chapter 436 I Am Not His Girlfriend

“Mr. Xiao, I messed it up.” After he said so, Yulin Xiao just hung up the phone.

“Dongzi, check it for me. Who did this?” Yulin, at this moment, got to know that this seemed to be planned by someone, or, it was a conspiracy. Otherwise, things wouldn't get this worse.

Everything was related. But now, what Yulin was worried about was that he didn't even know what was the cause. How could he not know it?

He couldn't even know their identities.

“Okay.” Finding Yulin didn't look good, Dongzi naturally understood the final result.

However, at the auction, Anna imposed herself to smile at the gaze of the buyer.

She knew her situation, so the only thing she could do now was not to let others hurt her.

However, only by leaving a good impression could she not get hurt.

She had to protect herself, absolutely...absolutely...

The limelight turned into warm colors, making her warmer.

“Baby, I like your body.” Looking at Anna, the man smiled, meaningfully.

Though Anna's face was pale, she helplessly forced a smile. She told herself not to show any emotion to this person in front of her.

She could not figure out who this person was.

“It would be a pity if such a beautiful lady was gotten by someone with bad intentions.” The man stroked Anna's chin and laughed.

Anna turned her head to the other side. Originally, she wanted to pretend to smile, but in the end, she could not smile at the person who hurt her. However, this person was not the one who planned all this, but her cousin. If this kind of people did not exist, she would not have to be sold here by her cousin.

The more she thought about it, the angrier she was at her cousin. All this made Anna feel incredibly annoyed.

Dongzi, staying with Yulin got more and more desperate.

“Dongzi, any clues?”

“Yes, a man called Brother Six.” Dongzi then stopped halfway and looked at Yulin.

“Who?” The daggers shot out of his eyes.

“Brother Six, that’s him. It is said that he is very cruel.” Dongzi paused for a moment before using the word “cruel”. He had no idea which word could express the meaning.

“Is the man we’ve heard before?” Yulin frowned. He had heard of him long ago, as well as his legend.

However, he had never seen him in person and what Yulin knew was his stories.

But, now, he needed to face him.

“Right.” There was some pain in Dongzi’s eyes, as well as Yulin.

If it was just men coveting girls, they could save Anna by offering them a good price.

However, now they were facing Brother Six, not an ordinary person.

“Yulin, what should we do?” Dongzi hoped he could do something to help Yulin to save Anna out.

However, now it seemed that they have to take other measures.

It was something heavy in Yulin.

No matter what, as a man, he would not allow his woman to become another man’s toy.

It was said that Brother Six was the lover of ultimate transformation and there were countless women who had died because of him. But no one could stop him.

Yulin closed his eyes to think what he could do.

Brother Six, looking at the woman in front of him, was satisfied.

This was exactly what he wanted. The thing happening three years ago made him regret for life. Now, he wouldn't allow it to happen again.

And at the moment, when he saw this woman, he found that she really resembled her, and he swore that it reminded him of her again.

"Girl..." His voice suddenly became extremely gentle.

His gentleness made Anna a little uncomfortable, for he was fierce just now. But now he changed so fast, which was wired.

"Good, then today's girl will go to this gentleman. Let's congratulate this gentleman."
The host's voice charmed the whole house.

"Who's next?"

"Yes, let's see the next one."

Everyone on the stage was no longer interested in Anna because she had already been sold. Everyone was just looking forward to the next one.

Anna was taken to a car, and she tried to escape, but it was an RV, and no matter which exits, they were locked.

Seeing Anna look around, Brother Six slapped Anna.

Anna tried to move back, but she didn't make it.

The slap hurt Anna so much that she immediately cried out.

"Baby? Does it hurt?" Anna's tears just came out and the man in front of her asked.

Anna was so frightened that she dodged back, but unfortunately, no matter what she did, she still couldn't get away. This man simply didn't know how to get along with girls.

"Humph! Women are really the same. Don't you know to fight back when I beat you?"
The man looked her in the eyes.

"Ah!" Anna cried out. This man was so strange, for his eyes were purple. This made Anna got curious, but fear was still inside her.

Moreover, his eyes were pretty, making her worry more.

“Don’t move. I’m telling you, the reason I spent so much to get you today is not because you are beautiful. Don’t be complacent.” The man’s voice was seductive like a poppy and no one could resist, let alone the naïve Anna.

“Don’t. I...I have a boyfriend.” Anna didn’t know what to say, for she was panicked. But seeing his hand reaching her chin, she just said this without thinking.

However, then man smiled, “Really, is that so? You’ll soon lose him anyway.”

After the man said this, he took a glance at Anna.

Anna was shocked, regretting her recklessness. This man’s words did not seem like a joke, but rather like he really had the ability to control the life of others.

“Brother Six, we’re here.” Just when Anna regretted that she had just spoken without thinking, the driver said coldly. If it wasn’t for the fact that this car was an RV, even Anna wouldn’t have known that there was a driver in this car.

Until now, Anna was able to see that the driver in front of her was also black, as well as the car, and it was impossible to see where he was.

Now, with the light on, Anna realized that this driver was also handsome, but his look was too simple and he was not as soft as the other gloomy man.

“Good.”

So, his name was Brother Six, sounded powerful, so it’s better not to mess with him.

The way Brother Six looked at Anna surprisingly became gentle.

“Baby, you know what? You are really beautiful.” His voice also became unusually gentle.

This all got Anna caught off guard. What was going on her? He was just now very violent, but in a moment, he actually became such a gentleman, which really disgusted her.

Then the door of the RV was opened suddenly.

The sky outside the window was light green, hard to tell it was day or night. Or was it dusk or dawn?

Due to the bumps and the fear of being placed in a cage earlier, Anna was in a nervous state.

“Sir...” Anna thought for a while before choosing a right word to start. She could never offend this man.

“What? What do you want? Baby?” The man’s sudden change was puzzling, but Anna was now anxious to know where the hell she was. What time was it now?

She paused and thought for a moment, “Sir, I’d like to know, where exactly we are? I also do not know how I came back with you. Because, someone has set me up to be locked in the cage.”

Anna said with tears, for she hoped to arouse his sympathy. She did not expect him to let her go, but at least not to kill her.

“Come here!” Without answering Anna’s question, he ordered and opened his arms coldly.

Anna trembled and she really didn’t know him. But she knew the consequences of not obeying, so without any hesitation, she walked to him alarmedly.

“I know you are his woman.” Brother Six said this softly as Anna walked to him.

Anna looked at him in horror, “Who?”

“The young master of Xiao family. Hmph, I want him to know the feeling of his woman being stolen.” When he said this, his eyes were filled with cruelty, like it’s the deepest secrets inside him and people could easily catch it.

But today Anna didn’t catch it. Brother Six said it himself.

Anna then realized that he had spent 60 million to buy her. Was this only for teaching Yulin a lesson?

However, he made a mistake. She and Yulin just had one-night stand and they were not a couple at all. Although perhaps everyone thought she was Yulin’s woman, she knew it clearly that Yulin, such a playboy wouldn’t fall on her only. And she was just a dessert for him.

“Sir, maybe it’s a mistake.” Anna firstly wanted to tell him the truth that she and Yulin had no relationship at all, and secondly, she did not want to bring any trouble to Yulin because of her. That’s the thing she needed to tell him.

Therefore, Anna decided to explain to him.

“Mistake? No one can tell me I’m wrong. No one, ever. Baby, tell me.” Brother Six gently moved Anna’s hair. His fingers were long, elegant and charming. And it was obviously that he played the piano.

"I..." What he was doing was creepy. She didn't know how to deal with such a fickle man.

"I...am not Yulin's girlfriend." Anna blushed when she said this.

"Good, send it to Yulin. Did you record it when she was saying?" He glanced at Anna with satisfaction, "No more?"

Hearing his words, Anna glanced at him with fear. She simply did not know that this RV could record.

She could not imagine what Yulin would react if he heard this. Last time, Dongzi and she were photographed and this narrow-minded man scolded her. Now if because of other men, yes, he would misunderstand. In order to please other man, she said Yulin was not their boyfriend, which seemed to be a little too much.

Yulin, having no information about Anna now, was quarrelling with his people. But at this time, he received a video message.

For Yulin, he didn't want to miss any information about her, even if it's only some details. He missed her so much and also worried her so much.

He never knew that he would miss a woman so much, for he thought his love had died on that beach.

Ten years ago, on the beach, he remembered the turquoise blue sky and the beautiful sea view. But he almost drowned there, and at that time, fortunately, a girl saved himself. However, that girl was...

...

Thinking of this, he actually smiled. The joy was like the spring lake water.

"Dongzi, find the address of Brother Six." Yulin looked at Dongzi with a complicated look, as if there were something hard to tell. However, Dongzi knew nothing about it.

Although for Dongzi, he did not show any dissatisfaction, or the emotions that he should have before.

However, Dongzi knew that Yulin minded a lot his contact with Anna.

Now, Dongzi didn't want to argue about anything, for his only concern right now was when he could get Anna back from Brother Six.

That was the top priority of their conversation today.

“Okay, no problem.” Dongzi replied, taking a piece of paper to draw a series of graphics. And Yulin was a little puzzled, not knowing what he was actually doing. He seemed to draw a treasure map. Although Yulin was worried, this did not stop Yulin getting curious.

Chapter 437: My Mysterious Husband - Tips

0 4 minutes read

Chapter 437 I Built This Place for You

“Buddy, what are you doing?” Yulin Xiao asked.

Dongzi looked serious and keep writing, which made Yulin wonder what he was doing.

“These are the places where Sixth Brother often goes. Maybe if we go to these places we can find him as soon as possible.” Dongzi said.

Yulin was now a little anxious. According to the rumors, he was afraid that Anna Xie had been se.xually assaulted by Sixth Brother. He now had no more time to wait for Dongzi to find out the facts. He must now find a way to save Anna as soon as possible.

“No need to look at this. Let’s go straight to the auction house.” Yulin said.

“Do you really plan to go there? It is very dangerous.” Dongzi said worriedly.

“I’ve already decided. I have to find a way to save Anna. It’s no use to wait like this.” Yulin’s voice was slightly hoarse.

“Actually, there is no need to save her at the risk of your life.” Dongzi said. Although he was also worried about Anna, he did not want Yulin to save her at the risk of his life.

“Don’t you want to save her?” Yulin said. “I heard that a lot of people died in the auction house. Anna is in danger now.”

“The cost of rescuing her is too high.” Dongzi said.

“I had thought you cared about her. But now it seems you care more about your own life.” Yulin said. He was glad that Dongzi and Anna were not that close, and also disappointed that Dongzi was so cold to her.

In Dongzi’s opinion, it was obviously irrational to risk his life to save a woman he hadn’t known for long. And Dongzi just like Anna and he did not want to sacrifice anything for her. But in Yulin’s eyes, he felt increasingly that Anna was the woman he was destined to be with. The more he thought this way, the more he felt the pain of losing her.

However, while they all thought Anna was being treated cruelly by Sixth Brother, she was just visiting the basement with Sixth Brother.

She was taken to a lavishly decorated basement by Sixth Brother. Looking at the furnishings here, Anna thought it was a luxurious palace.

“Baby, get in.” Sixth Brother said gently. He was completely devoid of his previous harshness and gloom.

“I I” Anna wanted to refuse him, but she didn’t dare. She was afraid that refusing him would have bad consequences.

“You don’t want to go in, do you?” Sixth brother asked in a low voice. He was sometimes fierce and sometimes gentle, which made Anna a little uneasy.

It seemed that he would still continue this uncertain tenderness and madness. Anna simply did not dare to anger him. The only thing she can do now was to please him and make him let down his guard.

“No ...no ...I.....” Anna stammered.

“Come on, get in.” Sixth brother gently opened the door to the basement. There were lights inside illuminating the entire basement.

Anna followed him in with trepidation. As soon as she entered the basement, she immediately felt coolness. The temperature here was a little low.

“Is it good here?” asked he. He suddenly became like a child showing off his stuff. “Everything here is of my own design, how is it?”

There was a look of longing for recognition in his eyes.

Somehow, Anna pitied the man in front of her. She gently nodded her head, as if to encourage him to continue.

Sixth Brother looked at Anna deeply. “I built this place for you.” He said suddenly.

Then he cried, “Unfortunately, you are not her. You and she just look alike.”

Immediately then, his face changed. “I will make the person who harmed her get the harsh punishment. He killed my woman. I will also let him know what it is like to lose his loved one.”

Then he wrapped his arms around Anna like a madman, and frantically tore her clothes.

“Sir, I am not her.” Anna said nervously. “Please, don’t.....”

He suddenly stopped. “Yeah, you’re not her. She’s not as timid as you are.”

After all these years, he would still go crazy when he thought about her.

Anna continued to walk inside with trepidation. The place was lavishly decorated. Most of it was designed with two main colors, gold and black. Anna was surprised that he was able to use those colors to create a romantic atmosphere. Looking at the flowers placed on the table, she could feel that the designer was very attentive.

“It’s beautiful.” said she.

“Do you like it?” He became gloomy again, which made Anna feel scared.

Staying with such a gloomy person, she would go crazy sooner or later. What’s more, now she didn’t dare to say anything at all for fear of accidentally angering him.

“Yeah. I can see that you like that girl so much.” Anna said cautiously. Through the conversation between them just now, she could deduce that this basement should be built for a girl.

At this moment, Anna’s heart became heavy. She was now worried that he would take her as the one he liked and do terrible things to her. Then suddenly her tears sprang out from the corners of her eyes at once.

“What are you crying for?” said Sixth Brother. He was annoyed with Anna’s sudden crying.

“I’m not crying.” Anna was still sobbing. She was very afraid that he would kill her if he was not happy, but she failed to control her sobbing.

.....

And now Yulin and Dongzi were still arguing constantly over whether women were important or career was important.

“Dongzi, what the hell are you talking about?” Yulin was very angry with Dongzi. He didn’t understand that why Dongzi kept stopping him from saving Anna.

“You’ve put in a lot of work to get to where you are today. I just want you to think about how to save her instead of sacrifice everything you have for her.” said Dongzi.

Chapter 438: My Mysterious Husband - Tips

0 4 minutes read

Chapter 438 You And She Look Alike.

“I also want to save Anna, but our opponent is Sixth Brother. We need to plan how to deal with him.” Dongzi spoke very fast, but it seemed that Yulin Xiao did not listen to him.

“I feel that all the mistakes are caused by me. If it wasn't my fault, this wouldn't have happened.” Yulin said with regret.

“Yes, it's all your fault. It was you who leave her alone in the street.” said Dongzi. “But now is not the time to pursue whose fault this is.”

“We need to know why Anna was kidnapped and why she was auctioned off.” Dongzi continued.

He initially had the feeling that there was something strange about this matter, and now once he analyzed it, he felt even more strange about this matter.

Yulin also felt that this matter was a little strange. “Anna doesn't come from a wealthy family, what did others kidnap her for?”

“Since you say so, I guess you already know the reason, right?” Yulin asked

“She was sold here by her cousin who lost a bet.” Dongzi said suddenly.

“Actually, there is a rule in this industry. The person who is used to pay back the gambling money has no personal rights. This also means that we can't interfere in this matter.” he added.

“Dongzi, what exactly do you want to say?” Yulin was almost about to get angry. He always felt that Dongzi was strange today.

“You still don't get it? You can't save her.” Dongzi said sadly.

“Anyway, no matter what difficulties I encounter, I must get her out.” Yulin said determinedly.

However, he was a bit bewildered. Dongzi's attitude had changed so quickly that he simply had no time to react.

“Will you be good to her for the rest of your life?” Dongzi said.

“I just want to get her out now. What's happening to her now is all my fault. I just feel so sorry for her.” Yulin said. It was as if he was speaking to Dongzi, but also to himself.

"I must save this woman." Yulin repeated, and then he walked out.

When Yulin was gone, Dongzi sighed. "Anna, I can only help you so far."

.....

In the dark basement, Anna Xie was nervously dealing with Sixth Brother.

Sixth Brother wanted to turn her into the image of the girl he liked. He wanted Anna to model that girl to please him.

Faced with the current situation, Anna had to obey Sixth Brother's request, but she always thought of Yulin.

"Are you thinking of Yulin Xiao again?" Sixth Brother asked suddenly. Seeing Anna lost in thought, he already guessed that she was thinking about other men, otherwise, she wouldn't be oblivious to what was in front of her

Anna looked at him in surprise. She didn't expect him to see through her mind.

Sixth Brother raised his hand and gently ran his fingers through her hair which was messed up by the wind. His movements were quite gentle, as if he was fondling a treasure. Even so, his action also made Anna feel quite uneasy.

"Thanks." said she in a low voice.

"Juzi, you are so beautiful." his voice suddenly turned soft. His mood shifts especially made Anna feel that he was a little scary.

"What?" Anna raised her voice "Sir, I'm not Juzi, I'm...."

"Your name will be Juzi from now on. I don't care what you used to be called. Now you're mine, and just do what I say." He interrupted her. He was back to his old domineering ways.

"Okay, I get it." Anna glanced at him and stopped talking.

He looked at her with satisfaction. He kept looking at Anna's face that was almost the same as his beloved's.

"You and she look too much alike." he looked at Anna and murmured.

"This place has such a beautiful design here." Anna said deliberately. The only thing she could do now was to please him and find a way to get out of here.

.

“The design here is specially prepared for her.” said he softly.

“Don’t touch anything here, or I won’t be able to guarantee that you’ll get out alive.” he warned. He seemed to be implying that there was a trap in the design of this place; otherwise he didn’t need to emphasize this point on purpose.

“Yes, sir. I definitely won’t touch anything in here.” Anna said.

Sixth Brother glanced at her with complicated look, and then continued to show her the other furnishings of this basement.

Anna did not dare to say anything more, just silently followed him. It was too big and too winding, so she never found the exit at all. Now she was just trying to remember the way she came.

She didn’t know exactly how long she had been following him before she finally came to a resting place. Feeling tired, she found a chair and sat down.

“I didn’t even know there were chairs in this basement, but you found them. How about you stay here tonight?”

“Okay, thanks.” Anna replied casually. She was actually quite worried about what dangers were in here, but she was more worried about staying with him.

Sixth Brother was surprised that she would agree to stay in this basement. But he was also glad that she agreed, because her resistance would only make him angry.

He continued to walk ahead, while she followed behind. She looked carefully at this basement, hoping to find an exit. As she passed a door she noticed a brick that was unusual. She kept an eye on it so she could remember the way she came when she returned.

A dim light shone through the only window in the place. It was clearly at night.

Chapter 439: My Mysterious Husband - Tips

08 minutes read

Chapter 439 The Thing Happened on The Beach

“Sir, how big is this room?” Anyway, Anna Xie was still a naïve girl and she was still afraid of such a thing. Moreover, she had never seen such a big room, which was also underground, unbelievable. However, in this situation, she had no way to choose.

She could only follow Brother Six and keep moving forward.

“Girl, remember, no one will be nice to you for no reason.” Hearing the man across her saying this, Anna was a little puzzled. Why did this man buy her? If it was because of her beauty, he shouldn’t have gone to such great lengths to do all this, because there were too many beautiful girls in this world. It’s insane to spend so much to buy her.

“Okay, I see.” Anna behaved well at this moment, just like a girl living next door, which made him want to care for her.

Brother Six gazed at her, for she was like her so much and they both had a delicate smile, with the special and elegant charming.

“Girl, you are really like her.” Brother Six was wearing a smile, which was soft and warm, making Anna guard down, so she looked at Brother Six, smiling.

They now were like a couple in love and they only saw each other at the moment.

“What?” Anna, at this time, was only to understand that he liked her. He was nice to girls and was not as cruel as others said. It turned out that Anna was the replacement, otherwise, how could he be so kind to her?

Thinking in this way, Anna gradually understood that being alike to the girl he loved saved her. Otherwise, she would have already been killed somewhere.

Anna felt it’s funny, for she was relying on another woman to make herself survive. If he didn’t love that woman anymore, then Anna wouldn’t be so lucky.

But, no matter what, she still followed Brother Six and moved forward.

When they came to a dark place, Anna was suspicious. Was this another secret room? Because when they were walking, they had passed countless forks. Anna simply had no idea how big this was or how many secret rooms inside.

“Ah!” Walking into the darkness, Anna felt her arms grabbed, as if they were being pulled by something. She was unable to shake it off.

She was too weak to run away, so she was grabbed over like this.

In the darkness, there was no way to see the man’s face, and of course, she didn’t know what would be done to her. Subconsciously, Anna felt that it might be someone from the other side, because he was the only one who could get in here.

“Anna?” Brother Six seemed to feel the abnormality and he started to worry about her. However, no woman could make him worry before. Anna was the special one.

When he turned back, he found that she was not there and he didn’t know the direction where she was missing, so how could he find her?

“Well, it starts.” Brother Six was disdainful.

He knew everything about this woman and now, he just wanted to use Anna to draw the forces behind Yulin Xiao.

The man’s purple eyes were shining with strange lights. He gently raised his hand, wanting to put all the things back to their original positions, but he stopped. It turned out that his superpower was lost.

Now, he smiled bitterly. What had happened these days were not something he wanted. It was the disaster created the present him.

He could have gotten everything that Jingyan Ye got, but God caused him to miss everything, and made him go through the trials and tribulations that he shouldn’t have.

Was this because God didn’t love him? Was because he was a bastard?

When he thought of the word “bastard”, Brother Six slammed on the door frame next to him and it hurt.

His anger was from his hatred for Ye family, as well as his disdain for Xiao family.

He knew that if he wanted to draw Yulin, Anna would be the best choice.

And Anna had no idea what was going on, and she was more terrified because of Brother Six’s action.

“Anna, don’t say anything.” When Anna was curious about all this and wanted to use all her strength to escape, she found he actually knew her name.

This made Anna was a little curious. Who was this person? It was surprising that he knew her.

“Who are you?” Anna was frightened, but she still wanted to confirm again. Who was he and how could he find this place?

Those who could enter here were obviously not the ordinary people.

“Who the hell are you?” Anna was not familiar with his voice, so she didn’t know who he was. She was already in this situation now and things couldn’t get worse.

“Anna, you don’t know me. But, please believe me that I am here to get you out.” He was resolute, making Anna feel that he would definitely succeed.

However, Anna now did not believe anyone. Compared to be controlled by an unknown person in an unknown place, she'd better choose the man in front of her.

"Why should I believe you?" Anna didn't know how to trust him.

"Because of Dongzi and Mr. Xiao." The man seemed to have lost patience for Anna long ago, not wanting to explain more. He got irritated, for originally what he needed to do was to get her out and he did not expect this woman had so much to say.

When he was asked to help Yulin, he didn't know too much about this woman, so he surely didn't know she would ask so much.

Solving the irrelevant questions was never required in this industry. For Sansan, it was the first time.

"I only answer once, are you leaving or not? We've got no time." Sansan had no more patience for Anna.

God knew how much he wanted to leave. However, Yulin had spent a lot for Anna, so even if she was a dog, Sansan had to take her out. The only thing he could do now was to chat with Anna and make every effort to please her.

"Yes." Anna found he was a little impatient, so she stopped asking irrelevant questions.

Anna, along with Sansan, had passed many intersections, but in the end, they got back to the beginning. They had walked where they're walking now.

"This place is so familiar. Have we been here before?" Anna frowned, for this place was so familiar, yet incredible.

Sansan was with no expression the whole time. In fact, this was not about familiarity. They had walked before, but Anna didn't remember.

In fact, they just kept going round and round inside this big circle. Again, and again, they were back to the original point in the end.

"We haven't gone out yet and this is still the original point." Sansan looked at the sad Anna and chose to tell her the truth. Otherwise, she might still have been happy that she had gone out far.

"What? How is this possible? I'm obviously tired and I feel like I've walked a long way". For Anna, she had walked a long way, so how could she be at the beginning?

They were trapped in this small space, walking round and round. And Yulin, who was waiting not far away, was holding some tissues and wiping his sweat.

“Dongzi, do you think he will make it?” Yulin was wiping the sweat with the tissue, but suddenly, he stopped and asked Dongzi.

Dongzi nodded, “No problem. He will do it.”

Hearing Dongzi’s words, Yulin then put the tissue back away.

When she thought of Anna, there was another figure appeared at the same time in his mind who had saved him. Was there any connection between them?

He was now eager to know Anna’s identification, and then find out the relationship between her and that girl.

But behind this wall, Sansan and Anna were tired, trapped behind that wall.

“What should we do?” Anna was not afraid at all. Let’s say, she didn’t know the danger she was facing. She was too silly, naïve and stupid. She was now a bit depressed, for someone had come to save her, but they were trapped here.

“What to do? Don’t bother me, okay? Let me think about it. I really don’t know why Yulin would spend so much money to save a guy like you.” Sansan was very disdainful of Anna.

However, he still couldn’t take his eyes off her, afraid that if something happened to her, he couldn’t face Yulin.

Although he disliked Anna, he still kept looking at her.

“Am I very stupid?” Anna looked at Sansan somewhat apologetically. It seemed that after saying this, they were in a good mood.

“Yeah, it’s good that you know this.” Sansan looked at Anna, disdainfully.

Anna got annoyed by his attitude, so she simply started not to listen to him.

However, Sansan seemed to have a lot to say to Anna, but Anna kept walking forward. She thought that if she kept walking, she could always reach her destination.

“Anna, where are you going?” Sansan anxiously asked, for he still cared about Anna’s behavior. After all, he was experienced and he knew this was the man’s trap, but Anna may not know it.

Anna couldn’t figure out anything at the moment.

"I just want to try again and see when we can walk out." Anna was so confident that she didn't even notice Sansan's face and his helpless expression. She just walked forward on her own.

"Stop. This is a dead end. Moreover, we are already trapped here." Sansan just didn't understand how could this woman be so stupid? He had already made it so clearly, but she still wanted to have a try. Didn't she know how dangerous it was?

Anna looked at Sansan, dead end? What did he mean?

"You can't understand, can you? We have been trapped in a space set up by others." When he was saying this, even Sansan was in puzzle.

He had only heard of this before, so how could he know exactly what it was all about?

But, was this the long-lost one? It slowly disappeared in times. Originally Sansan wanted to see it, but he never expected to see it in such a situation.

Sansan knew something about it before, but most of them were hearsay. Today, he saw it with his eyes, but at the same time, he was trapped.

"Let me have a try." Anna once heard so, she automatically began to search in her brain. She also had studied before.

Although it had been a long time, she still remembered the basic thing about it.

Anna looked at Sansan with uneasiness.

How could here still be one to trap them?

It was not something early before the last century. Shouldn't it be something from a long time ago?

"Are you sure?" Anna's gentle voice was like breeze, making Sansan a little dizzy, but he still tried to explain to her.

"I suspect that we are being set up." Sansan said while thinking about how to find the opening. In fact, at this time, the only way to get out was to find it could they get out, instead of waiting here like two idiots.

However, inside the basement, Brother Six was sneered.

"Do you think you can get out of the maze I create? You don't know me." Brother Six crushed the glass in hand and the glass shatters stabbed into his hands, with blood oozing out. How much was Anna afraid of him? Why did she run the risk?

With eyes closed, Brother Six thought this was the riskiest bet.

He had been bet for many years and had never lost, so he wondered the result of this time. For this game with Ye family, he still couldn't decide what he should do.

However, for now, he had already taken the first step and there was no way back. Since it had already started, he must make every endeavor to win, in order not to waste his effort.

Chapter 440: My Mysterious Husband - Tips

0 9 minutes read

Chapter 440 Wonderful Arrays

Otherwise, it's all in vain.

All of it is just fate. Some things are just meant to be.

For example, the arrival of Anna Xie, the use of Anna as a sally port. For Brother Six, all those things were destined.

That was, perhaps, the beginning of Brother Six's rivalry with Ye family.

Seeing Brother Six is sad, Huzi gritted his teeth and said relentlessly, "Brother Six, how about blocking the road?"

"There is no one in the world who can make Brother Six unhappy. How can I allow a little girl to hurt him?" Huzi thought. It's illogical and not what Huzi wanted to see that a little girl made Brother Six so sad.

Therefore, Huzi transferred his anger on Anna.

Anna, however, didn't know that she's on the chopping block and her fate was in the hands of others.

Sansan is a minor celebrity in his circle, but compared with Brother Six, he is far behind.

As a businessman, Yulin Xiao knew nothing about the so-called array.

"No. Let them find their way out." Brother Six said. Brother Six waved his hand at Huzi, indicating that he should not make rash moves, because it's not the right time yet. However, Huzi made up his mind to block the way, because he could not stand to see Brother Six be influenced by the emotions of others.

Seeing Huzi moved along angrily, Brother Six seemed to think of something and said immediately, "Huzi, what are you going to?"

“Nothing, boss. I’m just going to answer the nature’s call.” Huzi said. Huzi knew what Brother Six wanted to say, but how could he admit that he would go to block the way?

“When my boss taught me about the array, he told him not to use it to harm people, but he didn’t say not to use it to stop bad people.” Huzi thought.

In Huzi’s eyes, anyone who makes his boss unhappy is a bad person, and anyone who makes his boss happy is a good person.

That’s his logic. Sometimes Huzi is such a headstrong person. He’s like this ever since he has been with Brother Six.

“OK. Huzi, don’t act recklessly.” Brother Six said. Looking at Huzi’s facial expression, Brother Six felt something’s wrong. Brother Six didn’t think things were that simple.

Huzi paid no attention to Brother Six’s persuasion. He had already rushed all the way to the eye of the array and wanted to play some tricks. Over the years, they rarely play tricks on the eye of the array, and Brother Six has never allowed him to do that.

Huzi knew clearly in his mind that the reason why Brother Six didn’t allow him to do that is Brother Six was afraid he would get himself trapped in the array.

In the past, Huzi has done countless such things, and Brother Six managed to get him out finally.

Of course, Brother Six ‘s concern is not out of thin air, but real.

Huzi walked to the eye of the array and pushed it gently with his hand. He picked up some stones at random and threw them at the eye of the array. Then, with a push of his hand, he changed the positions of some plants.

Huzi employed two arrays at the same time.

Huzi thought that the average person couldn’t get out of the array, unless he is as awesome as Brother Six.

After finishing all this, Huzi complacently looked at Sansan and Anna who were trapped in the array. “Just try you best to figure out how to get out of the array. I don’t think you can get out of the array for another ten days. Hum, you deserve to be trapped there because the girl made my boss angry.” Huzi thought.

Though Huzi was very hostile to Anna, he still took a look at Anna and walked straight away.

Huzi could see Sansan and Anna, but they couldn’t see Huzi, because the array had already obscured their vision.

“Sansan, is your name Sansan?” Anna said tentatively. Though she had heard him mentioned casually that his name is Sansan, she was not quite sure what to call him.

“Yes.” Sansan said. Sansan was irritable, and he hoped Anna could be quiet, rather than as noisy as now.

At that moment, Sansan couldn't find the exit as well as the eye of the array, and he had no clue at all. Therefore, he was a little irritable. However, there was no quick way to get out of the array. Everything he has now seems to have been bought with his life.

Sansan had thought he could make a lot of money this time, but to his surprise, the problem he encountered this time was even more intractable. It's a lot harder than what he had ever encountered before.

All these made Sansan don't want to talk to Anna, but Anna took the initiative to talk to him again and again.

“Have you ever encountered array before?” Anna asked. Anna didn't know how to ask Sansan, and the question's basically what she meant. She thought she had made herself clear.

“Before? When? Of course I have encountered array.” Sansan said somewhat absent-mindedly. But when he heard Anna say array, he was carried away. After all, array is a mysterious thing, and it was one of his favorite things.

Today, however, he seemed to have met a master and he couldn't unravel the array easily.

After looking around for several times, Sansan seemed to feel a breath blowing toward him. His intuition, as well as his past experience, told him that he's in the eye of the array. “I will have a try.” Sansan said.

Anna thought it's hardly justifiable if she doesn't help Sansan and let him be busy alone, so she said, “What can I do for you?”

Sansan took a look at Anna and said, “No. I can handle it myself.”

Anna obediently stood aside, watching him to unravel the array. Anna was curious about all this.

Sansan and Anna were trying hard to unravel the eyes of the array and get out of the array, while Yulin and Dongzi were sweating out of anxiety and didn't know what to do.

By rights, Sansan and Anna should have come out of the basement by this time. All of these maps show the distance between them.

So far, however, there has been no sight of them to be seen. It's just not normal and not what should happen in normal time.

Dongzi wiped away his sweat and walked to Yulin's side noiselessly. Dongzi wanted to comfort Yulin, but he didn't know what to say. Dongzi just took a look at Yulin and said in a soft voice, "Let's wait for some more time. They should probably be back soon."

Yulin did not say anything. He thought it's not so simple. Yulin didn't worry about the strength of Sansan. He just felt the one who set up the array is strong. This feeling is a kind of psychological intuition.

"It's not that easy for me to make such a large sum of money. Since Yulin gave me so much money, I must unravel the array, or I will ruin my reputation. I still need to make myself more viable in this society and so I can't give up so easily." Sansan thought.

The third time Sansan took the stone and smashed it into the trees opposite, everything seemed to change. "It's right here." Sansan said.

Anna saw the trees move out of place, change direction and even grow in reverse. The trees have been replaced with lush fruit trees, which are nothing like the bushes before.

"It turns out there is really an array. It's amazing." Anna said. Anna was surprised at how powerful Sansan is. She also felt she's ignorant.

Instead of being masculine, Sansan smiled gently.

"Thank you." Anna said to Sansan unfeignedly.

Sansan smiled shyly and said, "That's what I should do."

Anna looked at Sansan and was about to say "Let's go" when she discovered the place transformed again. It's so unexpected and it's not like what she thought. "Ah? Why it changed again?" Anna said.

This time, it's completely different.

"Oh dear! Our way is blocked." Sansan said. Sweat beaded rapidly on Sansan's forehead. This time, he was trying to get out, but the situation didn't allow him to do that.

Sansan found a quiet place and gestured to Anna not to follow. He had to figure out for himself how to unravel the array. Unraveling an array requires much energy and it makes people feel tired.

Sansan just unraveled an array, and here came another one. Just as the sayings goes, it never rains but it pours.

Brother Six was waiting for news in the basement. He knew something about the strength of Sansan and it's almost time for Sansan to unravel the array.

Sansan has some skills and he is the best among the younger generation.

However, it seemed that nothing happened for so long. Brother Six wondered if Sansan lost his usual skills.

Brother Six quietly walked out of the basement and went to array through the back of the bamboo trees.

"Oh? How do I feel something's wrong? This is obviously not the way it started out. It looks like it has changed completely." Brother Six thought.

All these made Brother Six suspicious.

Brother Six suddenly thought of what Huzi had said before and he wanted to question him. Did these really have anything to do with Huzi? All these made Brother Six feel hard to accept because he told Huzi not to do anything to the array.

"But why Huzi disobeyed me? Such bad arrays must be set up by Huzi. I wouldn't have made it so obvious even if I was trying to block someone else's way. It seems that Huzi is not skillful enough." Brother Six thought.

"Huzi?" Brother Six said.

"Brother Six, I am here." Huzi said. Huzi was scared, but he walked up to Brother Six along the wall. He knew he had to be responsible for his own mistakes.

Huzi still had some fear of Brother Six in his heart, but since he had done something for Brother Six, he wouldn't regret even if Brother Six scolds him. He didn't flinch because he didn't want to see his boss sad.

"What the hell is going on?" Brother Six said angrily and amusedly. "Huzi considers himself always right. Such arrays, which are crappy and full of loopholes, are apparently not set up by an expert." Brother Six said.

A person with some skills can unravel the array by mere careful deliberation.

However, the array didn't seem to be so easy to Sansan, because the array is difficult when it's set up by Brother Six first, and it became harder after Huzi added another two arrays.

After waiting for such a long time, Brother Six was impatient and he went to check what happened.

It turned out that Huzi had played some tricks.

“Boss, I think these two guys are out of line. How can they think poorly of you and want to escape under your nose? I just can’t bear to see you be bullied like this. You can beat me or curse me as you like.” Huzi said. After saying that, Huzi put on a desperate facial expression, which amused Brother Six.

Instead of being angry, Brother Six laughed. Brother Six looked at Huzi and said, “Huzi, you are versatile now. You even dare to threaten your boss. Go to unravel the arrays now and set up difficult ones. Such low-end ones make me annoyed.”

“OK.” Huzi said. After hearing what Brother Six said, Huzi turned around several times. “I am happy that my boss can’t bear to scold me. He still wants me to display my talent.” Huzi thought.

“Go ahead! Don’t make it so low.” Brother Six said with a smile on his face.

Sansan was moved inexplicably when Anna looked at him gently by his side.

Although they’ve only been together for less than two hours, Anna tried to make considerations for him. This’s the first time there’s one doing that for Sansan.

Sansan lives by himself and there is no one can do anything for him.

“Sansan, can I do something for you?” Anna looked at Sansan nervously and said. Anna spoke awkwardly, as if this’s a normal way of communicating between them.

Sansan, however, was not like that. He just looked up and took a look at Anna, and said no more.

Huzi was happy to see that his low-end arrays had trapped Sansan and Anna.

In the old days, Brother Six has never allowed Huzi to practice setting up arrays. Brother Six told Huzi not to use array frequently, because it will bring unnecessary troubles. Brother Six also told Huzi to be reserved and sheathe his talents, because perhaps only in this way can he stop making a fool of himself. Besides, setting up arrays is a skill that has long been lost in this world.

Just as the saying goes, the precious stone lands its innocent possessor in jail. Brother Six was afraid that Huzi would be kept an eye on by people with ulterior motives, otherwise, he won’t stop Huzi from handling everything through arrays.