

Modern Day 1331

Chapter 1331: Spacetime

Xia Wei had personally brought people to move the coffin away. Even Xiao Qiao and Xiao Yu did not know about this. When they were guarding the tomb outside, the coffin inside had been secretly replaced with an empty coffin.

Xia Wanyuan seemed to be pushed forward by a force. Wherever her original coffin was sent, she was pushed.

She was brought into the palace by her body.

Eunuch Liu carefully reminded Xia Wei, "Your Majesty, this person has already passed away. Will it be inauspicious to transport her back to the palace?"

Xia Wei suddenly turned around and glared at the eunuch. He had been raised by Xia Wanyuan, and when he looked at people now, he had the dignity of an emperor. The eunuch was shocked and immediately knelt on the ground to slap himself.

"I spoke too much!!! I deserve to die. Please forgive me, Your Majesty!!"

"Get up." Xia Wei glanced at the coffin behind him. "Find a few tight-lipped people and put the coffin in the underground ice cellar. If any news leaks, I'll cut off your head."

"Yes, yes, yes." The eunuch hurriedly nodded.

Xia Wanyuan watched from afar as her coffin entered the largest palace in the palace.

For some reason, she had a very bad feeling. She kept feeling that Xia Wei's actions were too strange. Could it be that the disappearance of the entire Great Xia Dynasty in history was related to Xia Wei?

The black-robed man came again. This time, Xia Wei summoned him into the palace and the two of them chatted for a long time.

In Beijing Hospital, looking at Xia Wanyuan's increasingly flat ECG, Shen Xiu's back broke out in cold sweat.

"Up defibrillation," the doctor shouted. When Shen Xiu brought the emergency equipment over, his hands were trembling.

The professionalism of a doctor was to be able to remain calm no matter what they faced. However, now, seeing Xia Wanyuan's vital signs gradually disappear, Shen Xiu's hands could not help but tremble.

Outside the ward, Jun Shiling seemed to have sensed something. He pushed open the operating theater door and barged in, ignoring the nurse's obstruction.

Then, the first thing he saw was an ECG that was almost in a straight line.

No matter how the doctors tried to save her, Xia Wanyuan's ECG did not fluctuate much. She was only hanging on to her last breath, as if her heartbeat would completely disappear in the next second.

“CEO Jun.” Shen Xiu sighed in his heart and walked to Jun Shiling. “We’ve tried our best. In the current situation, we can delay it for at most ten minutes. The fetus’ condition is also very dangerous. Once the mother’s blood stops flowing, the fetus will suffocate five minutes later...”

Looking at Jun Shiling’s expression, Shen Xiu did not dare to say the rest.

Looking at Xia Wanyuan lying quietly on the operating table, Jun Shiling walked over with a wooden expression.

The doctors were still doing their best to save her. Xia Wanyuan’s lively eyes were closed, and her pale face was pale.

Jun Shiling walked forward and held Xia Wanyuan’s hand, half squatting in front of the operating table.

“I won’t allow you to leave me.” Looking at Xia Wanyuan’s side profile, Jun Shiling could not hide the pain in his heart.

At this moment, Jun Shiling could not say anything. He only kept repeating, “You’re not allowed to leave.”

Only he knew Xia Wanyuan’s identity and background. He was afraid that Xia Wanyuan would never return after leaving.

Jun Shiling had always been extremely domineering in front of everyone. However, at this moment, everyone saw Jun Shiling with red eyes.

The doctors continued to work in silence, and the entire ward fell into a sad atmosphere.

The doctor told Jun Shiling that although Xia Wanyuan was unconscious, her hearing was still there, so Jun Shiling kept talking to her.

In the Great Xia Dynasty, Xia Wanyuan had been floating above the palace for nearly half a month. Her soul seemed to be bound to this world. As long as she took a step, she would be reflected.

She could not hear what others were saying and could only count the people coming and going in the palace aimlessly.

On this day, everyone in the palace followed Xia Wei’s instructions to the front door. The black-robed man and Xia Wei transported Xia Wanyuan’s coffin out of the palace.

Xia Wanyuan could finally walk forward with her corpse. However, just as she floated out, Jun Shiling’s suppressed cry suddenly sounded in her ear.

“What do you want me to do if you leave?”

“Didn’t you say that you wanted to eat little glutinous rice balls last time? When you wake up, I’ll make it for you immediately, okay?”

Other than Jun Shiling’s voice, Xia Wanyuan also heard the fans’ prayers and the calls of all sorts of friends.

These voices seemed to have gathered into a force that pulled Xia Wanyuan's corpse. Xia Wanyuan was squeezed in the middle and was pulled here and there.

At this moment, more and more people went to the temple to offer incense, and more and more people prayed at home.

In the operating theater, no matter how much Jun Shiling said, Xia Wanyuan still maintained her closed eyes. Her eyelids did not even tremble.

The defibrillator continued to pressurize, but no matter what he did, Xia Wanyuan's condition was as usual.

The ECG gradually calmed down, and even the slight fluctuations began to disappear.

Jun Shiling's sorrow overflowed like a mountain.

Xia Wanyuan's soul floated in midair. Through time and space, she could sense Jun Shiling's despair.

Xia Wanyuan's heart ached. She looked at Xia Wei, who was not far away. Xia Wei seemed to have sensed something and turned around.

The prayers of the people in China became louder and louder. In the end, they finally surpassed the suction force of Xia Wanyuan's corpse on her soul and completely pulled her back.

Sensing that gaze suddenly disappear, Xia Wei frowned. "My royal sister left."

"Your Majesty, the Eldest Princess will return to where she belongs."

Xia Wei turned around. "Let's go."

In the operating theater, the doctors had already begun to cover Xia Wanyuan with a white cloth. At that moment, the operating theater door was kicked open and Xia Yu walked in with a box.

"Brother-in-law, someone sent this over just now. He said that this is AS medicine."

After Xia Yu finished speaking, the gazes of the entire operating theater gathered on his hand.

"Hurry up and use the medicine!" Less than half a minute after Xia Wanyuan's heartbeat disappeared, the doctors took the medicine and rushed to inject Xia Wanyuan.

Jun Shiling stopped her weakly. He subconsciously wanted to confirm the safety of the medicine first, but on second thought, Xia Wanyuan was already like this. It did not matter if she was safe or not. It was fine as long as he could save her.

In Continent F, after surgery and bandages, Wei Zimu finally woke up from his coma. The first thing he did when he woke up was to grab Yu Qian's arm, his eyes unable to hide his anxiety.

The corners of Yu Qian's lips curled up slightly. "There's no need to look. Your Sister Wanyuan is already dead."

Chapter 1332: Life-saving Medicine

Wei Zimu's eyes instantly froze. The light in his eyes shattered, as if he had suffered a huge blow.

Yu Qian was originally looking at Wei Zimu's expression leisurely. Suddenly, Yu Qian stood up and pinched Wei Zimu's chin. "Do you want to die?"

Wei Zimu looked straight into Yu Qian's eyes quietly. Then, he reached out to brush Yu Qian's hand away, stood up, and walked out.

Jayce looked at Wei Zimu at a loss and then at Yu Qian. "Boss, should we get someone to watch him?"

Yu Qian chuckled. "Go and prepare the glucose injection for him."

"Okay."

Wei Zimu went out for a while and came in with a pen and paper. He wrote on the paper, "You sent it over?"

Yu Qian glanced at it. "What else?"

"Thank you."

Yu Qian clicked his tongue. "I really don't know. What do you treat her as? Do you treat her as your biological sister? You want to save her so desperately. Did you save me so desperately back then?"

Wei Zimu's hand that was holding the pen instantly stiffened.

"Oh, right." The corners of Yu Qian's lips curled up. "How could you think of saving me? You were only playing with your kite."

With every word Yu Qian said, Wei Zimu's face turned paler.

Jayce had already brought the glucose over. Yu Qian looked at Wei Zimu. "Stretch out your arm."

Wei Zimu unbuttoned his shirt and cufflinks. Yu Qian pushed the needle in. As the glucose entered, Wei Zimu's face gradually became less pale than before.

He looked at Yu Qian, picked up a pen, and wrote a line of words on the paper. "Thank you. Can I make red date steamed buns for you tonight?"

Looking at the words on the paper, Yu Qian's eyes narrowed.

He and Wei Zimu were both from the north. When they were still a happy family of four, what he wanted to eat the most every New Year was the red date steamed buns made by his mother.

Wei Zimu was smart and often made many buns from books. Every time his mother cooked, Wei Zimu would secretly make a few.

Although he made them very ugly, after they were out of the pot, he would always give Yu Qian the steamed bun he had made. On the small steamed bun were the memories of the brothers' childhood.

Yu Qian's gaze landed on the void. After a while, he finally sneered.

"Brother, do you want to play the family warmth card? There's no need. I'm not interested in your warmth card."

With that, Yu Qian stood up and left.

Looking at Yu Qian's departing figure, Wei Zimu sighed softly.

The wound on his tongue had already been stitched up. Wei Zimu could feel the wound healing quickly.

He picked up a pen and paper and wrote a line of words. "When did you send the things over?"

Jayce's attitude towards Wei Zimu was even more respectful. "Young Master Wei, the boss got someone to send the medicine first before operating on you. According to the speed of the emergency, the medicine has probably arrived in Beijing."

In Beijing Hospital, everyone was busy in the operating theater. Jun Shiling stood at the side and waited, his eyes fixed on the ECG.

The moment the AS drug was injected into Xia Wanyuan's body, everyone could see her heart beating slightly.

Although the frequency was very slow, it finally gave everyone hope.

As the medicine gradually took effect, the electrocardiogram in the room gradually changed from a straight line to a curve.

"CEO Jun, the situation is gradually stabilizing. Why don't you go out and wait first? We'll inform you after the surgery."

Jun Shiling nodded and turned to leave.

Shen Xiu casually glanced at Jun Shiling's back and his gaze froze.

Jun Shiling was wearing a shirt and suit jacket when he entered. Now, one could see from his back that it was soaked in cold sweat.

When he left the ward, Bo Xiao and An Rao were also standing outside.

An Rao wanted to ask but did not dare to. In the end, Bo Xiao asked, "Is she okay?"

Jun Shiling nodded reluctantly. "Her situation is gradually stabilizing."

An Rao and Bo Xiao clearly heaved a sigh of relief, especially An Rao. She was about to pinch her palm until it broke. Now that they had heard some good news, they were finally relieved.

"I'll wait here for Yuan Yuan to come out." An Rao sat on the sofa and waved at Bo Xiao.

"Mm, I'll be with you," Bo Xiao said as he sat beside An Rao.

Jun Shiling turned around and looked at the lights of the operating theater quietly. He stood for two hours.

Finally, he waited for Shen Xiu and the rest to come out. Seeing the relieved smiles on the doctors' faces, Jun Shiling's heart finally relaxed.

"The mother and child's condition are temporarily stable. As for the follow-up and whether there are any side effects of the medicine, we have to wait for the subsequent examination."

"Okay, thank you."

Jun Shiling followed the doctors and pushed Xia Wanyuan to the ICU.

After the doctors left, Jun Shiling looked at Bo Xiao and An Rao. "You guys go back too. I want to stay quietly for a while."

"Alright, if you need anything, just call us."

Bo Xiao and An Rao left the ICU and the entire ward fell silent.

Jun Shiling reached out to pull Xia Wanyuan. Feeling the warmth of her palm, Jun Shiling finally pursed his dry lips. "Fortunately, you're fine."

That night, Jun Shiling focused on the oxygen mask on Xia Wanyuan's face.

The oxygen mask was covered with a layer of white fog, then dissipated, and another layer appeared...

Such a simple and boring action was a symbol of Xia Wanyuan's normal breathing.

When the doctor came for a ward round the next morning, he confirmed that Xia Wanyuan's condition was continuing to improve.

"CEO Jun, do you want to rest?" The nurses stood at the side, at a loss. They had been sent to take care of Xia Wanyuan, but they could not interfere at all. Jun Shiling had personally done everything for Xia Wanyuan and was quite professional and meticulous.

"No need." Jun Shiling shook his head. "You guys can go down. I'll take care of her myself."

This care lasted for nearly a week.

During this period, all of Jun Shiling's activities were in the ward. He did not look at documents or deal with work. He spent a lot of time talking to Xia Wanyuan every day, regardless of whether she could respond to him.

Fortunately, Lin Jing was in charge of the Jun Corporation. In addition, Old Master had returned to the company to help take care of it, so nothing bad happened.

However, because of Jun Shiling's sudden disappearance, many guesses arose in the media.

Something had happened to Xia Wanyuan first, and then Jun Shiling had completely disappeared. It could not help but make one think more.

For nearly a week, the Jun Corporation was leaderless. This was inconceivable to outsiders.

Many people discussed behind his back.

Could it be that something had really happened to Xia Wanyuan? Jun Shiling did not even care about the Jun Corporation. Was the blow too great?

Just as everyone was guessing, a message suddenly came from Beijing Hospital.

Xia Wanyuan had become a vegetable. Jun Shiling had suffered too much and had already brought Xia Wanyuan abroad to recuperate.

Chapter 1333: Jiang Kui is Floating

At first, everyone was skeptical about this news.

Although the video of Xia Wanyuan being implicated in the accident was very real, that was the Jun family. No one believed that Jun Shiling could not save Xia Wanyuan.

However, slowly, this news became more and more real. Someone even obtained first-hand information from the nurses in Beijing Hospital.

"I really didn't expect this." Jiang Kui sat on the sofa and smoked smugly. "I accidentally let you succeed."

Initially, he had been a little guilty these few days. After all, they were Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan. He was worried that his subordinates were not clean enough.

From the looks of it, it was unintentional.

"Something happened to Xia Wanyuan. A heartless man like Jun Shiling will probably cry at home for a few years for a woman. Alright." The more Jiang Kui thought about it, the happier he became. He even clapped his hands.

At this moment, Zou Man walked forward. Seeing Zou Man, Jiang Kui raised an eyebrow at her. "How is it? Are you happy? I avenged Xia Wanyuan for you."

Zou Man glanced at Jiang Kui indifferently and did not reply.

"I'm talking to you. Are you mute?" Ever since the power of the Jiang family fell, Jiang Kui's temper had become stranger. Now, facing Zou Man and Liu Tanyu, he began to be violent for no reason.

Zou Man's chin was red from Jiang Kui's grip. She sneered. "You're so smug now. Aren't you afraid of hurting your waist?"

In the past, Zou Man had also treated Jiang Kui as a good person. However, looking at the man in front of her now, Zou Man felt as if she did not know him anymore. The current Jiang Kui had already become another stranger.

"B*tch." Jiang Kui grabbed Zou Man's chin tightly. "Take your things and get out of the Jiang family now."

With that, Jiang Kui stood up and threw Zou Man to the ground. Zou Man was caught off guard and knocked her head on the corner of the table. Blood kept flowing out.

At this moment, Liu Tanyu brought the child over and massaged Jiang Kui's legs gently. The three of them seemed to be one family, while Zou Man was like an extra person.

Zou Man clenched her fists and went upstairs to pack her things before leaving.

She had once entered the Jiang family for money and fortune, but when she really stepped in, she realized that money was nothing much.

The butler quickly sent the divorce agreement over. Zou Man signed the agreement without hesitation, then carried her luggage and left the Jiang family without looking back.

Feeling the sunlight on her face, Zou Man looked up at the blue sky. It was very similar to the sky she had seen when she first entered university.

At that time, she saw the longing for the future in the sky. However, time passed and she did not know when it began, but she did not look at the blue sky above her again.

Watching Zou Man leave, Jiang Kui sneered. "She's pretending to be noble. I want to see what she can do without me, Jiang Kui."

Liu Tanyu fed Jiang Kui a grape. "Then nothing will work, just like Xiao Yu and me. Without you, we don't know how to live."

When one was at a low point, people were most used to such adoring words.

Jiang Kui glanced at Liu Tanyu. "I didn't realize you were so sensible in the past. Since Zou Man has already left, I'll find a chance to talk to Father about letting you in."

Liu Tanyu's eyes widened slightly in surprise. "Really?"

"Of course." Jiang Kui patted Xiao Yu's shoulder. "Xiao Yu is the legitimate grandson of our Jiang family. No matter how biased Father is towards Jiang Yun, he has to leave an asset for our Xiao Yu."

Liu Tanyu smiled at Jiang Kui and snuggled into his arms obediently.

In a place where Jiang Kui could not see, the corners of Liu Tanyu's lips curled up slightly.

Just as the two of them were feeling warm, Jiang Kui's phone suddenly rang. He picked it up and saw that it was Father Jiang.

"Father, why are you looking for me?"

"Come over immediately."

"Okay, Father." Hearing Father Jiang's order, Jiang Kui immediately stood up and packed his things.

"Hubby, is there anything on Father's side?" Liu Tanyu gently held Jiang Kui's hand, her gaze entangled Jiang Kui like a secret net.

"Mm." Jiang Kui nodded. "I'll go over and tell Father about us to seek his opinion."

"Okay, then I'll wait for you to come back." Liu Tanyu smiled at Jiang Kui, making his heart itch.

He kissed Liu Tanyu on the cheek and turned to leave.

Half an hour later, Jiang Kui's car arrived at the company.

Walking into the meeting room and seeing that all the shareholders were present, Jiang Kui looked at Father Jiang in surprise.

"You're here?? Come, sit here." Father Jiang waved at Jiang Kui.

The seat Father Jiang pointed at was beside him. It was a seat that Jiang Yun had never sat in. Jiang Kui could not understand Father Jiang's intentions.

He sat down hesitantly beside Father Jiang and looked at the shareholders in front of him.

“Everyone is here today.” Father Jiang began to speak. “Please be witnesses together. My child is still young. If there’s anything he doesn’t understand in the future, please take care of him.”

From the moment Father Jiang said the first word, Jiang Kui was a little stunned. Even after Father Jiang finished speaking, Jiang Kui still could not believe what he had heard.

Could it be that Father wants me to be the successor? But Jiang Yun...

Before Jiang Kui could think, everyone had already begun to speak to him.

After Jiang Kui chatted with all the shareholders, Father Jiang brought him into the office.

Before Jiang Kui could speak, Father Jiang seemed to know what he was going to ask. “Do you want to say why I didn’t hand the Jiang family to Jiang Yun?”

Jiang Kui’s expression was a little unnatural as he nodded slightly. “Father, you seem to think highly of Jiang Yun recently.”

“She’s capable, so I naturally think highly of her,” Father Jiang said as he walked forward and opened the safe in the office. “But her ability is limited.”

Jiang Kui clearly did not understand what Father Jiang meant. “Then why, Father...”

“There are many capable people. These people can be used by you and become stepping stones for the Jiang family’s success. However, you’re the only direct descendant of my Jiang family. The entire Jiang family is still yours.” Father Jiang patted Jiang Kui’s shoulder. “Now is a good opportunity for you to quickly gain a foothold in the corporation.”

Father Jiang had already sent someone to investigate. Xia Wanyuan was indeed critically ill, and Jun Shiling’s care day and night was useless.

Now that Xia Wanyuan was paralyzed on the bed, Jun Shiling had no mood to manage the Jun Corporation.

At this moment, he let Jiang Kui take over the Jiang family and take a dimensional attack on the leaderless Jun Corporation.

To be able to severely injure Jun Shiling, just this matter could allow Jiang Kui to quickly stand firm. Father Jiang placed all his hopes on Jiang Kui.

After hearing Father Jiang’s explanation, Jiang Kui’s eyes lit up. “Father, you’re right.”

Chapter 1334: Idiot

The day Jiang Kui took over the Jiang family, social news was flooded by him.

As one of the top families in China, any change in the Jiang family was the focus of the world, let alone the change in the head of the Jiang family. Not only did it surprise all the families in the country, but the netizens were also enthusiastically talking about it.

On Weibo, the official Weibo account quickly informed the public of this news. Similarly, his divorce agreement with Zou Man was displayed.

[Can I say something not too good? There's a saying in China that goes, 'Promotion, wealth and a dead wife'... Is Jiang Kui considered to have three happy events at the same time?]

[Zou Man is so pitiful... It was not easy for her to accompany the crown prince until the end. Now that the crown prince has ascended the throne, she has been abandoned herself. What immortal love? This immortal love is too shabby.]

[Back then, the two of them were already very fake when they went on variety shows together. Now, can they finally not pretend anymore? Zou Man is so pitiful...]

Just as the netizens had said, Jiang Kui was now smug. After he became the successor, he first launched a large number of attacks on the Jun Corporation.

Just like the information he had obtained, the Jun Corporation was leaderless. Although Lin Jing was barely holding on, under the full pressure of such a huge Jiang family corporation, they still retreated step by step.

Over the past few days, the shares of the Jun Corporation had decreased and fallen into the lowest period in its history.

All sorts of rumors in the country began to spread that Jiang Kui was about to take the opportunity to destroy the Jun family and lead the entire Jiang family to become the strongest family in China.

Looking at Jiang Yun, who was packing up and preparing to leave, Jiang Kui smiled smugly. "Sister, you didn't expect this, right? Are you preparing to be the successor?"

Jiang Yun turned around and glanced at Jiang Kui. "I know you're stupid, but I didn't expect you to be so stupid."

Jiang Kui frowned. "What do you mean?"

Before Jiang Yun could speak, Father Jiang looked at the thing in her hand, his eyes filled with displeasure. "Where are you going?"

"Jiang Kui asked me to leave."

Father Jiang looked at Jiang Kui reproachfully, then squeezed out a smile and walked to Jiang Yun's side. "Yun'er, there are still many things in the company that can't do without you. You're the only person your brother can trust. If you leave, what will happen to your brother?"

Jiang Yun sneered in her heart. "Then what do you think I should do?"

"How about this? Stay and help your brother. As long as you don't mention leaving, the Jiang family's corporation will always open its doors to you. A family is closer than outsiders after all."

Jiang Yun could barely suppress the mockery in her heart. Open the door? Open the door and let me work for the Jiang family. Let me be Jiang Kui's stepping stone.

This was a big family. As long as a man existed, no matter how outstanding a woman was, the final inheritance would fall into the hands of a man. The women in the family had to become a stepping stone for this man.

Jiang Yun's expression was very calm. "Okay, then I'll stay."

With that, Jiang Yun sat down again. Father Jiang pulled Jiang Kui outside. "Who asked you to chase her away?? Don't you know your sister's work ability?"

"Yes, I know I was wrong." Jiang Kui lowered his head.

"Although I handed the Jiang family to you, you still have to learn how to manage and use people."

Although Jiang Kui was unconvinced, he still nodded. "Yes, I understand."

Father Jiang sighed and finally shook his head and left.

Looking at Jiang Yun, who was working inside, Jiang Kui's eyes were filled with disdain.

What was the use of a woman with strong work ability? My foundation is still unstable. When my foundation is stable, no one could stop me.

Jiang Kui was now an influential figure in the Beijing circle. Countless social events came knocking on his door. Soon, a dinner invitation was sent to Jiang Kui. Jiang Kui threw the company's matters to the back of his mind and happily went to the appointment.

In Beijing Hospital, Lin Jing was reporting the situation to Jun Shiling. "CEO Jun, our business has been completely controlled by Jiang Kui."

"Mm," Jun Shiling replied as he wiped Xia Wanyuan's face. "Continue."

"Yes."

After Lin Jing left, Xia Wanyuan, who was on the bed, slowly opened her eyes.

"Are you rested?" Jun Shiling turned around and grabbed Xia Wanyuan's hand. "Do you want to lie down for a while more?"

Xia Wanyuan shook her head gently.

Two days ago, Xia Wanyuan had successfully woken up. After all sorts of tests, the AS medicine sent from K was completely normal. There were no abnormalities.

Under the protection of strong medicine, Xia Wanyuan's body gradually recovered. Now, she could already say a few simple words.

Looking at Jun Shiling's slovenly appearance, Xia Wanyuan's lips moved slightly. "I'm sorry."

Jun Shiling's expression darkened. "You're telling me nonsense."

A smile appeared in Xia Wanyuan's eyes. Her fingers curved slightly and hooked Jun Shiling's palm.

Sensing this small action, for some reason, Jun Shiling's heart softened. The strength he had been holding on to for the past few days collapsed in Xia Wanyuan's small action.

He turned around and secretly wiped the tears from his eyes. After calming down, he turned around again. "Fortunately, you're back."

The time he stayed in the operating theater and watched Xia Wanyuan's heart stop was probably a moment Jun Shiling would never want to recall.

Xia Wanyuan blinked and the corners of her lips curled up slightly.

In the outside world,

The Jiang Corporation was in the limelight for a while. They crazily annexed and bought over the Jun Corporation's businesses and even snatched all sorts of businesses from the Jun Corporation. Their momentum was strong.

"Master, CEO Jiang called again just now." The butler walked into the courtyard and reported the situation to Lin Qingyuan.

Lin Qingyuan took a sip of tea, and disdain flashed across his eyes. "Idiot."

"..." For a moment, the butler did not know if Lin Qingyuan was scolding him or Jiang Kui. "Then..."

"You don't have to answer Jiang Kui's calls in the future. Such an idiot with a pig-like brain." The usually elegant Lin Qingyuan rarely used vulgarities, yet he did this time.

Chapter 1335: The Mantis Catches the Cicada, Oriole Behind

"Okay." The butler bowed respectfully. "I'll give the orders now."

The response he received from Lin Qingyuan was always that he was on a business trip. After many times, Jiang Kui muttered in his heart, "Didn't the Lin family always want to ally with me? Why haven't they answered my calls?"

Xuan Li glanced at Jiang Kui from the side. "CEO Jiang, the Lin family is the boss of the south. You're now the boss of the north. The king doesn't see the king. Even if you were allies in the past, I'm afraid the Lin family's head hates you the most."

Xuan Li's words reminded Jiang Kui. He was enlightened. "You're right. Then I shouldn't look for Lin Qingyuan anymore. It's embarrassing."

Xuan Li smiled and did not say anything.

Jiang Kui was smug for a while before looking at Xuan Li. "You contributed to this incident. I'll get someone to send you what I promised you."

"Then thank you, CEO Jiang." Having achieved his goal, Xuan Li stood up. "If you need my help in the future, just ask."

Jiang Kui waved his hand indifferently. "Alright, leave."

Time gradually passed. The official exchange meeting would not stop because one or two people were absent.

However, the lack of Xia Wanyuan and Jun Shiling in this exchange made Jiang Kui stand out.

He was active among the major factions and had already treated himself as the core of China.

Social media at home and abroad focused the camera on Jiang Kui. The tide of news reports pushed Jiang Kui to the world stage.

Even the entertainment industry, which had never paid much attention to the changes in the business circle, sensed how strong Jiang Kui's wind was. [Why do I feel that he used a little too much strength... The Jun family hasn't completely left the market, right? Why does Jiang Kui look so impatient?]

[After all, Jun Shiling will always be someone else's child. Under such a shadow for a long time, Jiang Kui's mentality will probably be problematic...]

[So something really happened to Xia Wanyuan. According to Jun Shiling's usual style, how could he let Jiang Kui be so arrogant?]

The news of Xia Wanyuan's accident appeared more often in the news media. The fans who once had hope gradually became silent as the Jun Corporation retreated.

In fact, in many places, the fans had already begun to silently mourn Xia Wanyuan.

The shares of the Jun Corporation continued to fall and fell to the lowest price in the market. In stark contrast, the shares of the Jiang Corporation rose.

Under such circumstances, a hundred billion project suddenly looked for Jiang Kui.

Jiang Kui was in the villa when he received the project book. He was about to take a closer look at the project when Liu Tanyu kept acting coquettishly at him.

No one could reject such gentleness. Jiang Kui's passion grew with Liu Tanyu and threw the project book aside.

"Hubby, you're already so amazing. Who would dare to fool you?" Liu Tanyu looked at Jiang Kui in admiration. "Isn't such a small project easy in your hands?"

Because of Liu Tanyu's flattery, Jiang Kui felt a little smug. "Alright, I'm not reading anymore. Let's go upstairs."

"Mm." Liu Tanyu held Jiang Kui's arm and went upstairs.

Things had been too smooth recently, so Jiang Kui drank a few more glasses with Liu Tanyu in his joy.

After drinking the wine, Jiang Kui was a little drunk. At that moment, his assistant called.

Liu Tanyu handed the phone to Jiang Kui. "Hubby, your assistant asked if you've signed the contract."

"What contract?"

Liu Tanyu took a document from the table. "It's this project. Didn't you say that there's nothing to worry about for a small project? Can you sign it now?"

Jiang Kui was extremely drunk. He took the contract and took a look. "Oh, this is it. There's nothing to consider. Sign it directly."

Previously, when the two of them were talking, Liu Tanyu had muted the phone. However, when Jiang Kui said this, Liu Tanyu let go of the silence. The assistant clearly heard Jiang Kui's words.

With that, Jiang Kui took the pen from Liu Tanyu and signed it.

Liu Tanyu hung up the phone and put away the contract, then made a call.

"Yes, Special Assistant Lin. It's all done."

Chapter 1336: Karma

"Mm, you've worked hard."

"It's not hard." Liu Tanyu looked at Jiang Kui, who was lying drunk not far away, her eyes filled with hatred. "I should thank you for giving me this opportunity."

Hearing Liu Tanyu's voice, even Lin Jing felt a little uncomfortable.

"After this matter is completed, we'll send you back to your hometown. Don't worry, as long as you don't want anyone to find you, we won't let anyone find you."

Tears welled up in Liu Tanyu's eyes. "Thank you."

"You're welcome."

After hanging up, Liu Tanyu sat on the sofa and looked at Jiang Kui quietly. Her palm was gradually scratched by her nails, but she did not seem to notice.

Xiao Yu secretly poked his head out of the bedroom. Seeing Liu Tanyu's sad expression, Xiao Yu walked towards her. "Mommy."

Liu Tanyu smiled at Xiao Yu. "Good child, we can go back soon."

Xiao Yu reached out to wipe Liu Tanyu's tears and nodded. "Okay."

Liu Tanyu gently stroked Xiao Yu's side profile. Through him, she seemed to see the man who always had a smile.

Jiang Kui was an impatient person and in business as well. Sometimes, if he did not reach the expected profit goal, Jiang Kui would use some special channels to obtain huge profits. This would involve many illegal processes.

Liu Tanyu's fiancé was originally just an ordinary police officer, but during a routine inspection, he discovered something fishy about the Jiang Corporation's transportation line.

He reported according to his duty. Who would have thought that his superior had long colluded with Jiang Kui? As his superior comforted her fiancé, he found an opportunity to lure him into the mountains and completely silence him.

To people like Jiang Kui, who stood at the peak of power, a life was just a simple sentence and tens of thousands of compensation.

However, to Liu Tanyu and the rest, the disappearance of the pillar of the family was the pain of the three families for the rest of their lives.

By chance, Liu Tanyu looked for Lin Jing.

A rural girl who had never been to school had taken her child through more than three years of training and made herself into her current flirtatious appearance.

Everything she did was to avenge her fiancé, who had died an innocent death.

Jiang Kui might have treated many people as opponents, Jun Shiling, Lin Qingyuan, and Xia Wanyuan, but he would never have thought that one day, the person who could make him expose his greatest mistake might be the most ordinary and normal country girl.

Jiang Kui woke up after sleeping for a while. Liu Tanyu was sitting beside him massaging him. There was a gentle charm in her lowered eyes.

Jiang Kui held Liu Tanyu's arm. "Honey, did someone call me just now?"

"Mm." Liu Tanyu took the towel and gently wiped Jiang Kui's face. "It's your assistant. He seems to be talking to you about some project. You told him that there's no problem and even signed for the butler to send it out."

Jiang Kui frowned, clearly unable to remember what had just happened. "Project?"

Could it be that big project?

Jiang Kui pinched the space between his eyebrows. "That project can't be settled so quickly."

A hundred billion starting funds was a rather important core project. If anything happened, the Jiang family would be in big trouble.

However, it was too late for him to go back on his word. He had slept for almost three hours. Two hours ago, his assistant had already sent the document with his name to the board of directors. Now, all sorts of starting procedures had already begun.

In Beijing Hospital, Jun Shiling was very calm when he received the news from Lin Jing.

Xia Wanyuan turned to look. "Jiang Kui?"

"Mm." Jun Shiling nodded, his eyes cold.

The mastermind of this accident was Jiang Kui. He had injured Xia Wanyuan so badly, and Jun Shiling had given a death order. This time, he wanted to send Jiang Kui completely to prison and never be able to turn things around.

Xia Wanyuan blinked. "Where's Xuan Sheng? How's he doing?"

Jun Shiling was silent for a moment. "The situation isn't very good."

Chapter 1337: Obsession; Breaking Words

When the explosion happened, Xuan Sheng was in the center of the explosion. Xia Wanyuan was only affected by the aftershock and was already so seriously injured, let alone Xuan Sheng, who was in the middle.

When they carried Xuan Sheng out of the scene, his flesh and blood were already blurry. His side had taken even longer than Xia Wanyuan's surgery.

After the AS medicine arrived, Jun Shiling gave half to Xia Wanyuan and sent the other half to Xuan Sheng's operating theater.

With this life-saving medicine, Xuan Sheng survived. However, until now, Xuan Sheng was still unconscious and showed no signs of waking up.

Xia Wanyuan blinked. Jun Shiling understood what she meant. "You can't move yet. You can't visit him now. When you feel better, I'll accompany you."

Xia Wanyuan nodded gently.

Unlike Xia Wanyuan's side, which was surrounded by all sorts of family and friends, the front of Xuan Sheng's ward on the third floor was cold and cheerless. Only Lu Li was walking around outside.

The doctor brought the nurse to do a ward round. When he saw Lu Li, he was a little surprised. "Young lady, why aren't you waiting inside?"

Lu Li looked at the doctor carefully. "Will I disturb him?"

The doctor shook his head. "Of course not. Although the patient is unconscious, his hearing is still sensitive. If you can talk to him enough, you might be able to wake him up."

"Okay." Lu Li nodded heavily. After putting on the protective suit, she followed the doctor into the ward.

Xuan Sheng was injured by the explosion in the entire capital. At this moment, only his eyes were not wrapped in gauze. Seeing him like this, Lu Li's eyes instantly turned red.

After the doctor finished his examination, he left Lu Li in the ward. Lu Li sat by the bed and whispered to Xuan Sheng.

"CEO Xuan, I just went downstairs to visit Sister Xia. She's recovering quite well. She's very concerned about your condition. When will you recover?..."

The doctor had just said that the patient's hearing was reactive. Lu Li chatted with Xuan Sheng non-stop and repeated all the topics. When she did not know what to say, she would sing for Xuan Sheng.

Later on, as time passed, Lu Li realized that when she mentioned Xia Wanyuan, Xuan Sheng's ECG would always fluctuate.

She was now Xia Wanyuan's personal assistant and often followed her. Hence, she picked out all sorts of small details of Xia Wanyuan's life and told Xuan Sheng.

She said that Xia Wanyuan liked to drink iced Americano, liked to eat ice cream when the weather was hot, liked to eat pork and not beef...

The Xia Wanyuan Lu Li was talking about was a side that Xuan Sheng would never see.

The more Lu Li spoke, the more Xuan Sheng's ECG fluctuated. Lu Li was encouraged and turned on the television in the room to show Xia Wanyuan's movie.

In a place that no one had noticed, Xuan Sheng's little finger trembled slightly. The arc was extremely small, so small that no one noticed it.

Downstairs, Xia Yu paced around the door of Xia Wanyuan's ward. Seeing that Xia Wanyuan could talk to Jun Shiling normally, the worry in his heart finally dissipated.

He stood outside the door for a while, then closed the ward door and walked to the other side of the hospital.

However, just as he entered the ward, Xia Yu realized that something was wrong. The bed was empty, and the blanket was folded neatly. He strode in and saw a letter neatly placed on the folded blanket.

Xia Yu opened it and his expression changed.

The envelope contained the divorce agreement signed by Lin Yi and a very short letter.

"Thank you. Goodbye. I'm fine. You don't have to look for me."

Xia Yu called Lin Yi, but no matter how many times he called, the other party could not get through.

At this moment, in the Beijing airport, a plane was cutting through the blue sky and heading towards Continent F.

In the Beijing Hotel, Su Yao was sitting by the window, staring blankly at the plane outside.

Chu Yi sat on the sofa at the back and dealt with work. Occasionally, he would look up at Su Yao and see the obvious loneliness on her. Chu Yi frowned slightly. He was about to say something when his phone suddenly rang.

It was a call from the old residence in Continent F. "Young Master, our people cracked some of the words in the coffin."

Chu Yi sat up straight. "Say, wait a minute. I'll go back now and talk when I get back. It's not safe on the phone."

"Yes."

Chapter 1338: Jade Pendant

After hanging up, Chu Yi stood up to pack his things and leave.

Sensing the movement behind her, Su Yao turned around. "Are you leaving?"

"Pack up too and come back with me."

"Okay."

As Su Yao spoke, she was about to get up. However, just as she moved, she sensed that something was wrong not far away. Something flashed in her eyes.

As someone who had received all sorts of anti-tracking training since she was young, Su Yao immediately realized that something was wrong.

At this moment, gunshots sounded in the distance.

Before Su Yao could react, her body had already blocked Chu Yi.

Chu Yi suddenly looked up and saw Su Yao's bloody chest after being pierced by a bullet.

Chu Yi pulled Su Yao over and brought her to the ground.

At that moment, the secret guards beside Chu Yi rushed in and surrounded the window.

Looking at Su Yao with her eyes closed, a rare hint of panic appeared in Chu Yi's eyes. "Send her to the hospital!!"

In order to do his best to treat Su Yao, other than Chu Yi's doctor, the expert group from Beijing Hospital was also sent to the operating theater.

Fortunately, Su Yao was sent in time and her life was not in danger.

"Young Master Chu, although Miss Su's life is not in danger, her wound is very deep after all. It's best not to rush back and forth for the time being. I suggest she recuperates," Shen Xiu instructed Chu Yi.

"I understand. Doctor Shen, you've worked hard."

After all the doctors left the ward, Chu Yi looked at the bed quietly for a while before getting someone to call his personal doctor in.

"Young Master."

"Tell me."

"Miss Su's blood type and various body parameters are different from Miss Feng's." As the doctor spoke, Chu Yi's expression darkened visibly. "There's only one old injury on Miss Su's body. Take a look at this."

The doctor handed a light tablet to Chu Yi. From the light tablet, one could clearly see a shallow mark on Su Yao's right ankle bone. It looked like a wound from many years ago.

Chu Yi's eyes suddenly darkened. "Other than here, is there nowhere else?? Nothing on her left shoulder?!"

The doctor shook his head. "No."

"Alright, I understand. Go down." Chu Yi waved his hand. After the doctor left, he looked at the light film in his hand for a long time, his eyes dark.

At this moment, downstairs, Shen Xiu was reporting the situation to Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan.

“As you expected, Chu Yi indeed got his doctor to do a full checkup on Miss Su. We already changed Su Yao’s report.”

“Did you find anything else on Su Yao?”

“From all the signs, Su Yao is Feng Wuyou. Furthermore, we discovered that there seems to be half a very small jade pendant on Su Yao’s back. That jade pendant should have been implanted since she was born and has already fused with the surrounding flesh and blood.”

“Don’t let Chu Yi find out.”

“Okay.”

After Shen Xiu reported his work, he left the ward. Thinking of his words just now, Xia Wanyuan was puzzled.

Jade pendant?

She looked at Jun Shiling, who was also thinking. His eyes were dark, and he clearly did not understand what was going on with Su Yao.

Just as the ward was silent, a commotion suddenly came from outside.

The secret guard walked in. “CEO Jun, the young master of the Jiang family is here. He knows that you haven’t left China and wants to barge into the hospital with his men. He said that he’s here to visit Madam.”

Chapter 1339: Collecting the Net

In the past two days, according to Jun Shiling’s instructions, Lin Jing had the Jun Corporation continue to act conservatively.

The Jun Corporation had always been domineering to the outside world. When had there been such a phenomenon of retreating and not retaliating?

Some people in the Jiang Corporation felt that something was wrong and wanted to remind Jiang Kui, but these people who reminded Jiang Kui happened to be those who were usually closer to Jiang Yun.

Regarding their suggestion, Jiang Kui only felt that Jiang Yun knew that the Jun Corporation was about to lose and did not want to see him so smug, so she sent someone to disrupt his plan.

The more Jiang Yun’s people persuaded him, the more Jiang Kui felt that his work was going smoothly and that the various projects were advancing faster.

As he had expected, not only did the Jun Corporation not resist, but they even vaguely had the intention of giving up the overseas market.

At this moment, Jiang Kui learned that Jun Shiling had not left China.

He could not wait to see how the former CEO Jun had become his defeated opponent. Ignoring everyone’s objections, Jiang Kui rushed straight towards Beijing Hospital.

“Where’s Jun Shiling?” Jiang Kui looked in smugly. “Could it be that he’s hiding and doesn’t dare to see me?”

Facing Jiang Kui’s provocation, Lin Jing was calm. “Our CEO Jun is busy. CEO Jiang, if there’s anything, you can tell me first. I’ll tell CEO Jun.”

Looking at Lin Jing’s calm expression, Jiang Kui suddenly leaned closer. “Special Assistant Lin, your name is like thunder in my ears. As long as you’re willing to come to my Jiang family, I’m willing to pay double the price Jun Shiling offered you.”

Lin Jing glanced at Jiang Kui. “Even if CEO Jun doesn’t give me money, I’ll always serve him in the Jun Corporation.”

Jiang Kui frowned. “What benefits did he give you to make you so loyal to him?”

As Jiang Kui had said, Lin Jing was quite famous in the entire business world. He was extremely capable and loyal to Jun Shiling. Countless people could not poach him even if they wanted to.

Seeing that Lin Jing was stubborn, Jiang Kui sneered. “Then follow him to the streets to beg for food. I want to see if you’ll still be as loyal as before if Jun Shiling loses the Jun Corporation.”

“Then you don’t have to worry.”

Jiang Kui stopped talking to Lin Jing and barged into the hospital with his men. “I heard that Madam Jun is recuperating here. I should come and take a look.”

Lin Jing did not stop them. Jiang Kui and the bodyguard rushed in. Seeing that Xia Wanyuan’s ward was not far away, Jiang Kui’s eyes lit up.

Jun Shiling and Xia Wanyuan had been pressing on his head for so long. He could not wait to see how the two of them would look after being attacked.

At that moment, the ward door opened and Jun Shiling walked out.

The Jun Corporation had clearly lost to him and Jun Shiling was nothing to be afraid of in front of him. However, the moment he saw Jun Shiling, he still felt a sense of fear.

“CEO Jiang, what’s the matter?” Jun Shiling slowly walked towards Jiang Kui.

Jiang Kui forced himself to calm down. “I just came to see Miss Xia.”

“She’s resting.”

“Really?” Jiang Kui’s eyes revealed obvious mockery. “I wonder if she’s resting or unconscious?? I know some masters who do good rituals. I wonder if CEO Jun needs it?”

Jun Shiling shook his head indifferently at Jiang Kui’s provocation. “Instead of worrying about me, CEO Jiang, you might as well worry about yourself.”

“Me?” Jiang Kui clicked his tongue. “CEO Jun, don’t tell me you still think of yourself as the high and mighty head of the Jun family?? I’m afraid your mind isn’t clear from taking care of women. Now, in the big families in China, the person who can control the situation is me, Jiang Kui!”

“Really?” Jun Shiling replied calmly.

Jiang Kui was originally here to see Jun Shiling make a fool of himself, but no matter how he provoked Jun Shiling, he looked calm and composed, making him look like a joke. Jiang Kui frowned and was about to say something when his phone suddenly rang urgently.

“What?!” The other party had just said a few words when Jiang Kui’s expression changed. He hung up and glared at Jun Shiling. “I have something on now. Let’s wait and see.”

Jiang Kui was arrogant when he arrived and left in a hurry.

After Jiang Kui’s back disappeared around the corner, Jun Shiling turned around slightly and looked at Lin Jing. “Rein the net in.”

“Yes.”

Chapter 1340: Jiang Kui Caught

As Jiang Kui walked out, his phone kept ringing.

After Jiang Kui took a few, his expression had already completely darkened. “You bunch of trash!! You can’t even do these things well!!”

“CEO Jiang, most of the investors who had agreed to cooperate have gone back on their word. We’ve invested too many projects recently and can’t support them anymore.”

In fact, the assistant wanted to say that Jiang Kui had been too high-profile recently. Now that there was a problem, there were many people who added insult to injury, causing the already bad situation to become even worse.

“Wait for me to go over!”

Half an hour later, Jiang Kui arrived at the company. In this half an hour, the situation had been deteriorating rapidly.

Jiang Kui’s projects during this period of time had been too weak. Now that there were problems, the projects fell like dominoes.

“What about the oil project we cooperated with abroad?” Jiang Kui did not even look at the mountain of documents in front of him. What he was most concerned about was the hundred billion project that had just been signed.

“CEO Jiang.” The assistant’s expression was quite ugly. “Something happened. The company we’re working with is a paper company. They forged all sorts of documents. Now, the company is an empty shell. Our funds are tied up.”

Jiang Kui’s face immediately turned purple. “Contact the bank first...”

Before Jiang Kui could finish speaking, the assistant received a call. After hanging up, the assistant’s face turned pale. He looked at Jiang Kui in shock. “CEO Jiang, we were deceived by Jun Shiling.”

Jiang Kui had a bad feeling. “What did you say?”

“There’s nothing wrong with the Jun Corporation at all. They only did it on purpose a while ago. Now that there’s a problem with our funds, the Jun Corporation is fighting back. CEO Jiang?!”

Halfway through the assistant’s sentence, Jiang Kui had already collapsed on the seat. “Damn Jun Shiling!!!”

I should have thought that Jun Shiling was such a cunning person. How could he be defeated so easily?!

“Gather the people quickly. I have a meeting.”

“Yes,” the assistant replied as he walked out. He had just reached the door when it was opened from the outside and a team of police walked in.

“You are?”

The police unfolded an arrest warrant in front of his assistant. “Jiang Kui is suspected of breaking the law. We’ll arrest him according to the law.”

With that, the police forcefully handcuffed Jiang Kui.

“How dare you!!” Jiang Kui wanted to break free from the handcuffs angrily, but he was forcefully suppressed by the police.

“Do you know who I am?! How dare you arrest me?! Just you wait!!” Jiang Kui was brought downstairs by the police. Along the way, he passed by the office area. Seeing that Jiang Kui had been arrested, the employees were shocked.

Soon, the news of Jiang Kui being arrested by the police spread throughout social media.

[The reversal in the past few days has stunned me. Wasn’t Jiang Kui representing China at the exchange a few days ago?? Why was he captured?]

[I heard from my relatives in Beijing that the Jiang family has a corrupted foundation in doing business. Someone from a big family like Jiang Kui must have something dirty on his hands. It’s just that no one investigated in the past.]

[F*ck, how can what the young master of the Jiang family did be considered a matter? He’ll probably be released after drinking three glasses of wine as a punishment.]

However, things were not as simple as the netizens had imagined. After Jiang Kui was brought to the police station, the police brought people to interrogate him overnight.

Jiang Kui originally wanted to deny it and wait for the Jiang family’s lawyers to save him.

However, after staying in the interrogation room for two minutes, Jiang Kui’s psychological defense collapsed.

“I received a report that you were involved in smuggling five years ago.”

“I received a report that you colluded with the officials three years ago and illegally won a bid, as well as all sorts of bribery.”

“I received a report that four years ago, you instructed someone to transport an unapproved batch of raw materials. During this period, because you were discovered by an unrelated police officer, you gave the order to silence him...”

The police read out what Jiang Kui had done one by one. What made Jiang Kui collapse even more was that the police actually had a full set of evidence!

“Jun Shiling asked you to do this, right?!” Jiang Kui could not defend himself and went completely crazy. The handcuffs on his wrists shook loudly. His eyes were red as he looked at the police officers angrily. “No matter what you say, I didn’t do it!”

Even in the face of mountainous evidence, Jiang Kui refused to admit it. He knew very well what was going on. He knew that as long as he waited for the lawyers to help him, he would definitely be able to successfully escape.

As he had expected, from the moment he entered the police station, Father Jiang had sent someone to hire the best lawyers in the world to fight the lawsuit for Jiang Kui.

The first step was for everyone to destroy the police’s authority in the public and pressure the police.

Hence, that night, all sorts of rumors spread. The lawyers deliberately weakened Jiang Kui’s capture into a family fight and the police station was used.

This way, Jiang Kui’s crimes faded in everyone’s hearts and became a dispute between two families. It was a grudge between rich families.

At the same time, the lawyers had also found many people to anonymously report online that the police station Jiang Kui was in was Jun Shiling’s private hall. Jiang Kui received a personal threat the moment he entered.

The perfect explanation made by a group of elite lawyers naturally frightened the people who did not know the truth.

Everyone saw that even someone as powerful as Jiang Kui was being bullied. If ordinary people like them went in, wouldn’t they lose their lives?!

Instantly, many people began to speak up for Jiang Kui. Many people called the police to report him.

The police station was already very busy, and now, they had to answer all sorts of insults and calls. Some police officers could not withstand the psychological pressure, and the atmosphere in the entire area was a little gloomy.

The lawyers took advantage of this time to frantically help Jiang Kui collect whitewashed evidence and even asked to bail him out.

After the operation of the lawyers, Jiang Kui would be able to come out immediately.

At this moment, a user registered as “Liu Yanping” posted a Weibo post.

“Hello, everyone. Four years ago, my name was Liu Yanping. Now, my name is Liu Tanyu.”
