

Modern Day 1451

Chapter 1451 Emperor Xia Yuan Awakens

Xia Wanyuan looked straight into Yu Qian's eyes. "Do you like me?"

Xia Wanyuan was not so narcissistic, but she was indeed a little curious why Yu Qian's attitude towards her was so strange.

According to Yu Qian's personality, it was impossible for him to have such a high tolerance for her. However, the current Yu Qian had a high tolerance for her.

There was no fluctuation in Yu Qian's eyes. He looked at Xia Wanyuan as if she was ice. "You're quite narcissistic."

Xia Wanyuan also sensed that Yu Qian did not have any romantic feelings for her. In that case, Yu Qian's actions were very strange. She could not guess his motive.

The subordinate came over to rush her again. Yu Qian glanced at Xia Wanyuan. "I hope I can see a satisfactory answer when I come back later."

With that, Yu Qian strode away.

The subordinate watched Yu Qian speak to Xia Wanyuan coldly from afar, thinking that Xia Wanyuan had angered Yu Qian. "Boss, do we need to lock Xia Wanyuan up??"

Yu Qian looked at his subordinate indifferently. "You care so much."

The subordinate was new and thought that Yu Qian was really praising her. She subconsciously humbled himself. "Boss, you flatter me."

Yu Qian sneered. "Get lost."

The subordinate widened her eyes. "What?!"

However, before she could plead with Yu Qian, the others had already surged over and dragged her down.

About half an hour later, Yu Qian arrived at the open sea of Continent F. Sea Shark was waiting for him on the boat.

Seeing Yu Qian appear, the subordinate behind Sea Shark subconsciously stood in front of him.

After all, Wei Zimu had died under the joint scheme of Sea Shark and Chu Yi. Although in the eyes of outsiders, Wei Zimu and Yu Qian's relationship was shallow, and Yu Qian even hated Wei Zimu a little,

However, Wei Zimu was Yu Qian's subordinate after all. In Sea Shark and the rest's opinion, they had to look at the owner to hit the dog. Yu Qian might find trouble with Sea Shark.

Sea Shark looked very calm. He pulled his subordinate away and waved gently at Yu Qian, who was walking over. "Boss Yu, long time no see. How have you been recently?"

Seeing Sea Shark, Yu Qian narrowed his eyes. A rare hint of killing intent appeared in his usually silent eyes. "How dare you appear."

Sea Shark laughed out loud. "Boss K, isn't it just a brother? Back then, my entire family died. Didn't I still talk and laugh with the enemy who killed my father? As long as there are benefits, family is nothing."

Yu Qian stood coldly at the side. The strong wind on the sea came with a chill, causing his clothes to flutter. "What's the matter?"

Sea Shark took two steps closer to Yu Qian with an obvious smile on his face. "Brother, your power has fallen drastically recently. You've almost lost your right arm. What did you do to provoke Jun Shiling to this extent?"

"It has nothing to do with you," Yu Qian replied coldly. His side face had a shocking coldness that kept people away.

However, Sea Shark turned a blind eye to Yu Qian's cold attitude. Sea Shark smiled, causing the scars on his face to tremble. He stared straight at Yu Qian. "Have you caught Xia Wanyuan? Now that no one can find her, Jun Shiling is attacking your industry crazily. Have you gotten Xia Wanyuan?"

During this period of time, Sea Shark and Chu Yi had also been looking for Xia Wanyuan. Actually, they were not the only ones. The entire world was looking for Xia Wanyuan, but Xia Wanyuan seemed to have disappeared into thin air and could not be found at all.

What made Sea Shark even angrier was that he was as anxious as an ant on a hot pan. Jun Shiling had attacked Yu Qian on a large scale and even suppressed Sea Shark's power.

Sea Shark had already guessed that Xia Wanyuan had been taken away by Yu Qian, which was why Jun Shiling had taken such a fierce revenge. Now, Sea Shark had done nothing, but he was taking the blame with Yu Qian. No matter how Sea Shark thought about it, he felt uncomfortable.

In the end, he decided to personally investigate Yu Qian.

From Yu Qian's current attitude, Sea Shark was certain that Yu Qian had definitely taken Xia Wanyuan away.

Yu Qian sneered. "What has it got to do with you?"

"Don't you know that legend?" Sea Shark's eyes lit up, and he was even more certain of his guess. Xia Wanyuan must be in Yu Qian's hands. "Someone told me that Xia Wanyuan is the key to opening the spatial gate. As long as we can capture Xia Wanyuan, we can find endless treasures."

In this world, who had never regretted it? Who did not have regrets? Back then, when they became old, time could not be reversed. However, now that the key to changing time and space was placed in front of them, no one could resist such temptation.

As long as he could capture Xia Wanyuan, he could return to any time he wanted. At that time, unifying the world would be at his fingertips. Thinking of that scene, the light in Sea Shark's eyes intensified.

"Who did you hear it from?" Yu Qian's eyes narrowed. "That black-robed man?"

Sea Shark looked at Yu Qian warily and was not prepared to expose the black-robed man. He stared straight at Yu Qian. "Just tell me if you're willing to hand Xia Wanyuan over. I'm willing to exchange half of the route."

Yu Qian raised his hand and turned the ring in his hand slightly. The corners of his lips curled up slightly. "I didn't know Xia Wanyuan was so valuable."

"Then..." Sea Shark had just said that word when he suddenly acutely sensed a red light sweep across his face. Sea Shark fell to the ground. In the next second, the bullet pierced through the deck under him.

Sea Shark scrambled to his feet, his face clearly filled with anger and embarrassment. "Yu Qian!! Just you wait. Do you really think I don't dare to do anything to you??? Just you wait!!"

With that, Sea Shark hid in the boat that came to pick him up and quickly sank into the sea to leave.

Looking at Sea Shark's retreating figure, Yu Qian chuckled. "Heh, change time and space."

At this moment, in a deep mountain in Continent F, a strange girl was looking curiously at the man lying on the bed.

"Strange, why isn't he awake yet??" The girl looked at her father, who was standing at the side. "Father, isn't it said in the history of the clan that the person who barged into the clan a thousand years later is the person we have to protect? We fed him all the sacred medicine. He won't wake up, right? Did we get the wrong person??"

The middle-aged man stroked his beard. "Impossible. When that medicine entered his body, there was clearly a golden light flashing. According to the history of the race, this is that person."

"But he's still not awake." The girl poked Xia Wei's face in confusion and sighed. So there was such a young and good-looking boy in this world.

Just as she was about to take a closer look, the person on the bed moved.

.....-

Chapter 1452 Oath of the Vast Seas and Multiverses

Xia Wei had not moved for so many days and had always been in a living dead state. The village chief and the young lady thought that this person would not wake up.

Unexpectedly, he suddenly opened his eyes today and looked very energetic. He did not look like someone who had been unconscious for many days.

It was as if this young man had closed his eyes previously and had woken up.

Because Xia Wei suddenly opened his eyes, the young lady and the middle-aged man were shocked. The young lady was timid and hid behind the middle-aged man. "Father, is he awake or is he a zombie?? Should we run straight away??"

The middle-aged man went forward to check on Xia Wei's condition and checked his pulse. Then, he nodded. This person's health was much better than the day before.

It was amazing. Because of their special physique, the people in their place belonged to the category of people whose wounds recovered very quickly. He did not expect this young man's recovery speed to be even faster than his. He did not look like an ordinary person at all.

"Yueyue, go and get the medicine." The middle-aged man looked at Xi Yue beside him. "He's awake."

Xi Yue could not think of any medicine at this moment. She looked at Xia Wei on the bed in a daze, her eyes filled with amazement.

Xia Wei and Xia Wanyuan came from the same lineage and had top-notch looks in the world. In addition, he had imperial power on him and had a noble aura that ordinary people could not compare to. Just lying there quietly made one feel as if they could see the sky.

Xia Wei opened his eyes. Because he had not seen the light for a long time, his eyes were not used to such light for the time being. He stared at the roof for a while before turning his head and meeting a pair of bright eyes.

Xia Wei's throat hurt a little because he had not spoken for a long time. Now that he opened his mouth, he felt as if his throat was on fire.

Xi Yue seemed to have reacted. She ran to the side and brought Xia Wei a glass of water, then handed it to him.

There were not many people in this place. Xi Yue had played with them since she was young and did not have any guard against men and women. However, now that she looked at Xia Wei's gentle side profile, Xi Yue seemed to have gained enlightenment without being taught. She blushed and did not dare to look at Xia Wei's handsome eyebrows, but she could not help but look at Xia Wei.

His throat was too painful to speak, but although Xia Wei could not speak, he bowed briefly to Xi Yue with the demeanor of a gentleman. Then, he took the water and drank the entire cup.

The water here had not been polluted by any impurities for nearly a thousand years. Hence, when it spread in his throat, not only did it have a faint sweetness, but it also had a rare feeling of comfort.

In just a moment, Xia Wei felt that his throat was more comfortable. Xia Wei finally spoke, his voice still a little hoarse. "Where are we? Who are you?"

"This is the hidden..." Xi Yue had just opened her mouth when she was stopped by a middle-aged man. He looked at Xia Wei. "We picked you up in the dark river. We're small people in the mountains and have lived here for generations. Young Master must have never heard of our clan's name. There's no need to say it."

Xia Wei could naturally tell that the middle-aged man was on guard. However, he had unintentionally fallen here. To them, he was an outsider. They had already done their best to save him. Xia Wei could understand their vigilance.

Similarly, he had clearly died a long time ago, but when he opened his eyes again, he was here. Xia Wei was also on guard against his surroundings.

He was worried that these people were all traps set by the enemies. Similarly, he was worried that the two people in front of him had ulterior motives, so Xia Wei hid his identity.

Xia Wei nodded, then asked, "Then I am??"

Xi Yue's eyes widened. Wow, is there anyone in the world who doesn't know who they are?? "You don't know who you are??"

Xia Wei replied with confusion in his eyes. "I don't know. Do you know me?"

Xi Yue looked at her father. "Father, did he break his head in the dark river??"

The middle-aged man stroked his beard. "Maybe the dark river is filled with reefs. He probably hit his head and was injured."

Xi Yue looked at Xia Wei's handsome face and blinked her beautiful eyes. A plan formed in her heart. She quietly pulled the middle-aged man's sleeve and whispered into his ear, "Father, I'm almost at the age of marriage. Anyway, he has lost his memory. Can you let him be my husband??"

Xi Yue thought that her voice was very soft and her actions were very hidden, but in this small room, unless you spoke ventriloquism, no matter how soft you were, you could hear the other party's voice.

Furthermore, Xi Yue only thought that her voice was very soft, but in fact, it was not soft at all. Hence, Xia Wei heard everything she said.

Xia Wei did not have any special reaction. At his level, he had already mastered the ways of the world. It was normal for girls to be aroused.

Hence, Xia Wei only raised an eyebrow and did not point it out.

The middle-aged man had always doted on Xiyue, but this time, he scolded her angrily, "What nonsense are you talking about!!! You can choose the men in the clan. This man can't."

As soon as he finished speaking, the middle-aged man seemed to be worried that his loud voice had disturbed Xia Wei. He nodded at Xia Wei respectfully, then turned around to scold Xi Yue.

Xi Yue had only said it casually because Xia Wei was good-looking. Now that she was scolded by her father, she snorted aggrievedly and ran out.

After Xi Yue left, the middle-aged man closed the door and knelt down to Xia Wei. "Master."

An inexplicable glint flashed across Xia Wei's eyes. He looked at the man in front of him in confusion. "Sir, why are you doing this?"

The middle-aged man pulled open his sleeve, revealing a faint golden pattern on his arm. "Our race has historical records. When we meet someone with a complete golden pattern on their body, they're our master who we pledge our loyalty to."

For thousands of years, the people here had never gone out. They guarded an almost empty oath. The world had changed, and the people in this land had changed batch after batch. The person recorded in the genealogy had never appeared.

It was so long that everyone began to wonder if this was a joke or the truth. The person with the golden auspicious dragon on his arm finally appeared.

The middle-aged man looked at Xia Wei excitedly. "We're loyal to you."

Xia Wei took a step back. "Sir, please get up. I'm not your master. I only have one request. Can you send me back to my original place?"

Chapter 1453 Karma

The middle-aged man nodded. "Since it's your order, I'll definitely do it. It's just..."

However, there were many people who wanted to leave this eternal place before him, but they failed.

When he was very young, he had even seen an old village chief being washed to the bottom of the cliff by the waves because he wanted to leave.

That incident had once left a considerable psychological trauma on the young village chief. Until now, sometimes, when he dreamed at night, he could see the hands that kept struggling in the water.

"What's wrong?" Xia Wei smiled kindly at the middle-aged man. However, he had too much power. Even though it was a very kind smile, it pressed down on the middle-aged man like a mountain.

The middle-aged man subconsciously bent down. "We've been trapped here for generations and have never gone out. To be honest, we've also tried to leave this place, but the people who went out to explore have never returned. Later on, we gradually gave up."

Xia Wei replied with an "oh" and lowered his eyes to hide his deep thoughts.

This place was too strange, and he could not wait to go out and see what this world was like. He could not stay here for long.

The middle-aged man thought that Xia Wei was disappointed. Xia Wei had a golden dragon on him. According to the ancestral teachings, as long as it was something Xia Wei had instructed, the clansmen had to complete it without flinching. Otherwise, they would be punished by the heavens.

He took a step forward. "But don't worry, we'll continue to find the exit."

Xia Wei looked up with a kind smile in his eyes. "It's nothing. The environment here is quite good. It's not bad to stay here. Thank you for saving me. I've troubled you enough."

The middle-aged man hurriedly waved his hand and smiled very honestly. "You're too kind. I'll get someone to prepare dinner for you. There are all plain food here. I hope you don't mind."

"Thank you." Xia Wei nodded slightly at the man.

After the man left, Xia Wei lifted the blanket and stood up.

Everything here was still the same as a thousand years ago, maintaining the antique decorations. This was a corner that had been missed by the entire world. Here, there were no traces of time.

Xia Wei walked to the side and knocked gently on the wall twice. As expected, a hollow sound came from inside. Xia Wei's eyes darkened.

He did not know what year it was or where he was. He felt that he had slept for a long time, but looking at the surrounding decorations, it was as if he was in the Great Xia Dynasty.

Just as he was deep in thought, there was a knock on the door. Xia Wei restrained his thoughts. "Come in."

He slowly walked to the bed and sat down. He reached out and tidied his messy collar. His sister had taught him to dress properly no matter where he was.

Thinking of Xia Wanyuan, a hint of longing flashed across Xia Wei's eyes.

He did not know where his sister was and if she was living peacefully.

Looking at the blue sky outside the window, Xia Wei felt melancholic. He did not know when he would be able to find Xia Wanyuan.

It was Xiyue who entered. The young lady got angry quickly and calmed down quickly. She placed a few plates of food on the table. "Eat quickly. Father treats you so well. We usually only eat mutton during the Spring Festival."

The geographical conditions here were superior, and the cows and sheep raised here were also the best. The steamed mutton on the table was only boiled in plain water, but the fragrance of meat kept wafting out, tempting people.

Xia Wei glanced at the food on the table and nodded at Xi Yue. "How should I address you, Miss??"

"Xi Yue. The moon by the stream¹." Xiyue smiled at Xia Wei. Her dark eyes were indeed easy to associate with the moon by the stream.

It was clean and pure, as if it was stained with water. There were no impurities.

Xiyue had lived in this isolated village since she was young and had never experienced human affairs or been tainted by the wind and frost. She had always yearned for the outside world, but she did not know how many people envied her literary innocence.

"Miss Xi Yue." Xia Wei walked to the table and picked up his chopsticks to taste the food. He asked Xi Yue casually, "I heard from your father that you've always lived here?"

"That's right." Xi Yue nodded. "Let me count. It's been almost a thousand years since the first generation. Let me tell you, here, we..."

Xia Wei no longer knew what Xi Yue was saying. His attention was completely attracted by the "1,000 years" in Xi Yue's words.

The chopsticks in Xia Wei's hand fell to the ground. He stared intently at Xi Yue. "A thousand years?"

"Mm." It was rare for her to have a new companion, so Xi Yue enthusiastically told Xia Wei everything she knew. "I heard that our ancestors were sent overseas by their emperor. Later on, they were washed here because of the storm and have multiplied here since then."

Listening to Xi Yue's explanation, Xia Wei suddenly thought of something.

He looked into Xi Yue's eyes. "Then do you know which emperor sent your ancestors out back then?"

Xi Yue nodded. "Of course. It's Emperor Xia Yuan. According to the ancient books in our race, that emperor is still very young. I heard that he's very capable. During his reign, he did many things that benefited the country and the people..."

Xi Yue told Xia Wei everything she knew. However, even if Xi Yue praised him like a flower, Xia Wei did not have the mood to care.

Because Xi Yue's explanation evoked his memories.

It turned out that he had personally sent this group of clansmen left behind by the world back then.

Back then, after his royal sister passed away, he had heard all sorts of secrets from Jiang Qing. There were also many capable people who came to give suggestions. Everyone said that Xia Wanyuan carried great merit. The soul of such a person would not easily dissipate in the world. As long as he could find a way to recall her soul, he could revive Xia Wanyuan.

Xia Wei had once heard of the legend of reviving the dead in many secrets of the royal family, so he believed it. When his government was stable, he began to revive Xia Wanyuan.

A thousand years ago, he had once sent ten fleets to all over the world to find a way to revive the dead.

Later on, nine fleets returned one after another. The last one completely disappeared.

From the looks of it, that last one had not disappeared, but stopped here.

"Hello?" Xi Yue waved her hand in front of Xia Wei. "What's wrong with you?? Are you listening to me??"

Xia Wei smiled at Xi Yue. "Yes, I haven't gone out for a long time. Can you accompany me out to take a look?"

Xi Yue was shocked by Xia Wei's smile and could not help but nod. "Okay."

Chapter 1454 Way Out

Xi Yue brought Xia Wei out and pushed open the door. The scene outside made Xia Wei suddenly feel that he had arrived at Jiangnan Water Village.

The natural environment here was quite good. There were flowers and green grass, and the lake was connected. It was spring plowing, and the faint fragrance of grass came from the air.

What was most strange was that hundreds of flowers were blooming here. In some seasons, peach blossoms and chrysanthemums shone together. Willows and cedar stood proudly together. Lotus stretched on the water surface, and fish swam leisurely in the water.

Not far away, someone was farming, some were picking, and some were casting nets to fish.

Xia Wei found the climate here strange. What puzzled him the most was the sky here.

The sky here did not seem to change. It would always be blue sky and white clouds.

Over the years, the position of the clouds in the sky had not even moved. This was the peach blossom garden that those scholars could not reach in their lives.

Xi Yue did not find the scenery here strange at all. She had grown up here, but Xia Wei was very curious about the scenery here. As he followed Xi Yue out, he looked around.

Seeing that he was interested in this place, Xi Yue took the initiative to introduce the situation to him.

“It never rains here. Do you see that river? That place is endless. We use well water for living. We usually use the water in this river to irrigate.”

Xia Wei glanced at the river and looked upstream. The river seemed to have come from the sky and he could not see the source.

There was no source of water, but the energy constantly provided water for his clansmen for thousands of years. A hint of obvious surprise flashed across Xia Wei’s eyes.

He was really curious about what kind of place this was to have such a magical environment.

“Do you know that lotus flower? It’s especially sweet. There’s fruit meat inside. I’ll pluck one for you to try later.”

Xia Wei replied and continued to look around. Perhaps because the natural environment here was very good, most of the people had long lives.

At a glance, the seventy to eighty-year-olds were quite healthy and could still work in the ground.

This place had been closed for a thousand years, and no one had ever seen an outsider. Now that they saw Xia Wei, everyone sized him up curiously with some vigilance and hostility.

However, at the same time, there was an obvious probing. Everyone did not even do farm work and looked carefully at Xia Wei, wanting to know how he had entered this place.

After so many years, they had tried all sorts of methods but could not get out, but this outsider had come in. Could it be that there was a secret passage that we had not found?

Sensing everyone’s agitation, Xi Yue waved at everyone. “This person was saved by my father. He’s a good person. Everyone, don’t worry.”

Every clan leader had absolute prestige in the village. When they heard that they had been saved by the village chief, everyone’s hostility towards Xia Wei decreased greatly.

Many children even leaned over to play with Xia Wei, but Xi Yue pushed them away.

“Stop fooling around. This brother is injured. Go to the side and play.”

The young girls looked at Xia Wei shyly. Although the people here had good physiques, there was no lack of handsome young men.

However, it was still rare to see someone as handsome as Xia Wei. Everyone pushed each other, wanting to go forward and talk to Xia Wei.

Xi Yue saw everyone's enthusiasm and stood in front of Xia Wei. "Alright, alright. Go and work. I'll bring the guests around."

With that, Xi Yue jumped onto the boat and looked at Xia Wei beside her. "The lake here is connected to the outside world, but the underground river over there is overgrown, and there's a huge cliff. No one has ever returned from there alive. I'll bring you over to take a look."

Xia Wei boarded the boat and bowed to Xi Yue. It was the standard ancient thank-you gesture. "Thank you, Miss Xi Yue."

"You're welcome." Xi Yue was a little embarrassed by Xia Wei's salute. "What's your name?"

Xia Wei's eyes narrowed. "My surname is Xia, Xia Wan."

"Xia Wan." Xi Yue repeated the name in her mouth and felt a little strange. Why does it sound so much like a girl's name? However, it sounded quite nice. "It's quite nice. Let's go."

With that, Xi Yue rowed out with Xia Wei. Xi Yue was very familiar with this place, so she brought Xia Wei around the corners.

This place was not big. Xia Wei estimated that it was only the size of a small town. It was surrounded by mountains on three sides and faced water.

Xi Yue brought him to look afar. There was a huge fault in the north of the town. Just hearing the hollow sound of the water falling, one could tell that it was bottomless.

Xia Wei looked at Xi Yue. "You've never left this place??"

"Right."

"Then you don't know what happened outside either?" Xia Wei was not sure if it was a thousand years later. If I could revive a thousand years later, did that mean that Xia Wanyuan was???

Thinking of Xia Wanyuan, Xia Wei frowned slightly. He had to quickly think of a way to leave this place. If he could only nest here for the rest of his life, he would rather never wake up.

Looking at the man in front of her, Xi Yue felt a little strange.

Xia Wei was the most handsome man she had ever seen and the strangest man.

She was curious about Xia Wei and liked to follow him all the time. However, after following him for a few days, Xi Yue was even more puzzled. "What are you looking at??"

Ever since she brought Xia Wei around here last time, Xia Wei had always rowed the boat and sat by the cliff in a daze. It was unknown what he was thinking.

However, Xi Yue knew that Xia Wei was different from the men she had known since she was young. There was a light in his eyes that no one else had.

Xia Wei stepped forward and touched the stone that had rolled down from the mountain. Then, he picked it up and sniffed it. "It's saltpeter."

"What?" Xi Yue looked at Xia Wei in confusion. "What's saltpeter?"

“I’m going to look for your father.”

With that, Xia Wei ran towards the village chief’s room.

Now, the village chief fulfilled Xia Wei’s request like an imperial edict. Xia Wei said that he wanted to mine the ores on the mountain. With the village chief’s order, everyone stopped what they were doing and began to help Xia Wei mine the saltpeter.

Time passed day by day. After processing the mined saltpeter, they obtained a batch of gunpowder. Xia Wei got someone to place this gunpowder in the middle of a relatively thin rock layer in the southeast and forcefully blew up a narrow passageway that could be climbed up.

Xia Wei spent an entire day climbing up. However, to his disappointment, the mountains in this place were layer by layer. It was impossible to climb out.

Just as Xia Wei was disheartened, he realized that on the other side of the water, under the cliff, he could vaguely see the horizontal surface.

Chapter 1455 Mechanism Success

Seeing the water under the cliff, a glimmer of hope appeared in Xia Wei’s heart.

This water was not accumulated at the bottom of the cliff, which meant that there must be another place to go.

There were two possibilities. Either there were more cliffs under this cliff, causing the water to overflow, or there was a passageway to other places in the distance that could let him leave this place.

If he could cross that huge waterfall and reach the bottom of the cliff, he might be able to find the direction to leave with the water.

These two possibilities showed that there was a 50% chance that he could leave, and the other half was that he would die.

Xia Wei chose to try without hesitation. Instead of being trapped in this place, he might as well take a gamble. If he lost, he would die. Anyway, it was not like he had never died before.

Xia Wei told the village chief his thoughts. The village chief was not surprised at all when he heard Xia Wei’s words. It was as if he had long expected Xia Wei to leave forcefully.

After a long silence, the village chief sighed deeply. “Actually, I won’t hide it from you. Over the years, someone has thought of this method, and we were once only a step away from success.

We produce iron ore here. Back then, a village chief went out and got someone to forge iron into an extremely long root pillar. One side was fixed to the cliff, and the other extended to the waterfall.

However, it didn’t succeed. There are still mechanisms left behind back then.”

People were always restless and not satisfied with the current situation. For thousands of years, this family had been thriving here.

Most people were already used to such a life, but there were always some people who had all sorts of imaginations about the outside world beyond this small valley.

Everyone tried all sorts of methods to get out of the sky, water, and mountains, but no one had ever left this place.

It was as if this place had been cursed. The entire village was surrounded by a special barrier, turning this place into a paradise that stood aloof from the world. It was also an invisible cage.

Hearing the village chief's words, the hope that had risen in Xia Wei's heart decreased a little. However, he still did not want to give up. "Can you bring me over to take a look? Do you still have those mechanism diagrams?"

"Yes." Since Xia Wei wanted to see it, the village chief moved all the relevant information to Xia Wei.

After countless experiments by the predecessors, they realized that the water by the cliff was different from the ordinary water in the river in the village. The predecessors realized that the closer they were to the cliff, the stronger the corrosiveness of the water.

This was why so many people tried to approach and sank in the water.

In the experience manuals that had been accumulated by ancestors with their blood and lives, one could see that there were many mountains around the village. There was a special ore in the mountains. This ore contained a substance that could resist corrosion in the water.

Previously, a village chief had tried to build a ship with the ores in the mountains to the edge of the cliff.

However, over the years, so many clansmen had died on the cliff, and the clansmen had become more and more resistant to this matter. Back then, the village chief's actions had also been resisted by many clansmen.

However, the village chief insisted and brought the homemade boat into the cliff.

At that time, the current village chief was still a child. He had seen the village chief row the boat back then and approach the edge of the cliff step by step.

The corrosion in the water had been removed, but the former village chief did not expect the water to be too fierce. It disrupted his footsteps and pushed him towards the edge of the cliff.

In fact, at that time, if someone could help pull it from behind, perhaps the ship would not lose control and slide down the cliff. However, at that time, the cliff was classified as a forbidden area in the family. In such a huge place, other than the current village chief, who was hiding in the mountains and peeping, there was no one else.

The current village chief also wanted to try to save him, but he was still a child at that time and could not approach the previous village chief at all.

By the time he ran back to the village and called the adults over, the rapid water had already swallowed the previous village chief, leaving not even a trace.

From then on, this matter became a taboo in the family. However, as the current patriarch who had experienced it personally back then, he recorded this matter.

After Xia Wei flipped through all the information, he felt that this method was more and more feasible. He pulled up his sleeves slightly. "Listen to my orders."

Seeing the golden dragon in Xia Wei's hand, the village chief immediately knelt down in front of him.

"Do your best to complete this mechanism and send me out of this place."

"Yes." The village chief was uneasy, but he still bowed respectfully.

With Xia Wei's order, the entire village began to dig iron ores and iron-refining mechanisms day and night again.

The once calm village was now filled with the sound of iron being refined at all times.

Xi Yue handed Xia Wei the flowers she had picked from outside. "Here."

Xia Wei reached out to take it and smiled at Xi Yue. "Thank you."

"You're welcome." Xi Yue was stunned by Xia Wei's smile. She looked at Xia Wei in embarrassment. "Are you married?"

Xia Wei shook his head. "No, I still have relatives I haven't found. How can I get married?"

Back then, Xia Wanyuan had promised him that on the day of his marriage, Xia Wanyuan would be his witness. However, later on, Xia Wanyuan had left suddenly, and Xia Wei had never been able to accept this blow, so the harem was empty.

Hearing Xia Wei's answer, Xi Yue's eyes lit up. "Then what do you think of me?"

Xi Yue was very beautiful. After living in such a simple environment for a long time, she was as fresh and natural as her name.

Xia Wei did not hate her. He smiled at Xi Yue. "We're not suitable."

"Why??" Xi Yue turned to look into Xia Wei's eyes. "Do you think I'm not good-looking?"

"No."

"Then why?" Xi Yue was a person who would get to the bottom of things. Now, she looked like she would pester Xia Wei every day if he did not tell her the answer.

Xia Wei looked into the distance. "I won't stay here."

"Then I'll go out with you," Xi Yue blurted out. Sensing Xia Wei's gaze, Xi Yue patted her chest. "Really, I've always wanted to go out and take a look."

Xia Wei smiled but did not speak.

At this moment, a loud bang came from not far away, as if something heavy had fallen to the ground. Xia Wei narrowed his eyes and looked into the distance.

The mechanism was done.

Xia Wei stood up and walked over. The village chief welcomed him. "We've already prepared what you need and the sails. Are you sure you want to leave now?"

"Yes." Xia Wei nodded. "Let's start now."

He could not wait to see what the world was like.

Chapter 1456 Breaking the Array

Unlike Xia Wei's excitement, the village chief looked very gloomy. Even the usually rough Xi Yue realized that something was wrong with her father.

Her father was usually very serious, but that dull seriousness was not like now. His entire face was dark, as if something big was about to happen. Xi Yue could clearly feel that her father, who had always been calm, was actually a little helpless.

"Father, we're about to leave this place. Aren't you happy??" Xi Yue looked at the village chief curiously. "What does the outside world look like?"

"Xi Yue, I have something to tell you. You must remember it firmly." The village chief looked at Xia Wei, who was not far away, as if he had made up his mind.

"Mm." Xi Yue nodded. "Father, go ahead."

"Leave with Xia Wan later." The village chief handed a black stone to Xi Yue. "This was passed down by our ancestors. Take this and leave with him. No matter what happens later, don't look back, understand?"

Although Xi Yue always insisted on going out to take a look, looking at her father's serious expression, Xiyue's heart was filled with uneasiness. She grabbed her father's hand. "Father, I'm not leaving."

The village chief shook his head. "Listen to me. Leave with him."

Xi Yue wanted to say something to the village chief, but the village chief pushed Xi Yue away and brought the clansmen to the mechanism.

After seven days and seven nights of continuous work, what appeared in front of everyone was a hammer-shaped tool that could reach the clouds.

In a while, they would use this to let Xia Wei resist the huge pressure of the water and successfully reach the bottom of the cliff.

Xia Wei was already waiting by the cliff. Xi Yue walked to his side with the stone. "Is the outside world really exciting?"

"Not necessarily." Xia Wei turned around and looked at the peaceful scenery here. "This is actually a place that many people dream of."

For thousands of years, the paradise had been the ideal place for many people. People yearned for that quiet and harmonious living environment and simple interpersonal relationships.

However, the people inside had always been envious of the excitement outside. This was probably what humans were like. They were never satisfied with the current situation and were always envious of others. Little did they know that they were also envied by others.

“Then why did Father ask me to leave?” Xi Yue was a little unhappy. Could it be that my father found me too naughty and did not want me to continue staying here? “Now that I think about it, there’s nothing good outside. It’s good to nest here.”

Xia Wei’s deep gaze landed on Xi Yue and he said in confusion, “I’m sorry.”

“What?” The sound of the water beside her was too loud, covering Xia Wei’s voice. Xi Yue looked up in confusion. “What did you just say?”

“It’s nothing. I’m preparing to leave.” Xia Wei turned around, as if he was unwilling to talk to Xi Yue anymore.

As an emperor, the people in front of him were also his people, but emperors had selfish motives. If he wanted to save Xia Wanyuan, he had no choice but to sacrifice these people and this pure girl in front of him.

Xia Wei looked at the mountain range in front of him with a solemn expression.

Along the way, there were too many things that he had no choice but to do. He could only force himself to be tough and ignore all his weakness.

Seeing that Xia Wei did not want to talk to her anymore, Xi Yue did not pester him anymore. She pursed her lips. “Alright.”

She followed Xia Wei to the other side of the mechanism. The rest of the clan were at the top of the mechanism. Everyone used the speed of the water to slowly approach the cliff.

Although the people here had lived here for nearly a thousand years in the most primitive way and their technology was much behind that of the outside world, they could be considered exquisite in terms of mechanism skills.

It was unknown what technique this huge black mechanism had been forged with, but the mechanism that could enter the clouds was integrated. There were no traces of carving. The few dragons floating around were lifelike.

It was impossible to tell that it was artificially made. In the turbulent water, it was like a flood dragon turning into a dragon when it met water, making one’s heart tremble.

If this mechanism was placed in water, it could break through the huge water flow and draw a path out.

The originally fast water flow was broken by the mechanism with a loud roar. For thousands of years, the bottom of the valley had been calm and peaceful. Xi Yue had never seen such a scene. She subconsciously grabbed Xia Wei’s arm. Xia Wei looked down at her and reached out to protect her.

Sensing Xia Wei’s actions, Xi Yue blushed. She looked at Xia Wei shyly and moved closer to him.

The mechanism quickly broke through the waves in the water and advanced. However, when they reached the edge of the cliff, it was as if this place was blocked by an invisible barrier. The water, fish, and birds could fly over the cliff waterfall. Only they were blocked at the top of the cliff, as if they could be swept down by the rapid water at any time.

Xi Yue was a little afraid. Xia Wei covered her eyes with his hand. "It's nothing. We'll be fine in a while."

"Oh." Xi Yue leaned towards Xia Wei in panic and subconsciously glanced at her father not far away.

Her father was also looking at her, his deep eyes containing emotions that Xi Yue could not understand.

Xi Yue, who had always been heartless, suddenly panicked for some reason. She looked at her father and opened her mouth to say something, but her father shook his head at her, then turned around and activated the mechanism with her clansmen.

The panic in Xi Yue's heart intensified. She turned to look at Xia Wei, wanting to gain some support from him.

However, looking at Xia Wei's deep side profile, the panic in Xi Yue's heart did not lessen much. On the contrary, she sensed a deeper sense of powerlessness.

As the village chief and his clansmen kept activating the mechanism, the wind howled. She felt the mechanism under her feet slowly fall, as if it could pass through that invisible barrier.

Because the impact was too strong, even the air was filled with sharp sounds.

The mechanism kept advancing, sending Xia Wei and Xi Yue to the edge of the cliff step by step. Xi Yue could clearly feel the moist air that was different from the calm mountain village and the wind outside the village.

Xi Yue happily moved Xia Wei's hand away, wanting to see with her own eyes what the other side of the waterfall was like.

Xia Wei did not expect her to suddenly push him away. Caught off guard, he took a step back and revealed the view behind him.

Xi Yue, who had been excited a second ago, widened her eyes when she saw the scene behind Xia Wei.

The originally clear water was actually dyed red, and above the water was a strange array of people she knew. Blood flowed out of their bodies continuously.

Chapter 1457 Boiling

The mechanism had already begun to fall down the cliff. As if sensing Xi Yue's gaze, the village chief in the middle of the array looked at her and smiled kindly at Xi Yue.

The surrounding water was rapid. Xi Yue could not hear what her father had said to her, but she could only come out from her father's mouth. What his father had said to her was, "Go on. Take good care of yourself."

Xia Wei, who had been silent, pulled Xi Yue's wrist. "I'll be fine..."

Before he could finish speaking, the soft silk on Xi Yue's sleeve was flung out. She struggled to throw and wrap it around the stone by the cliff, then left the slowly falling mechanism.

Xi Yue's actions were too fast. Xia Wei could not stop her even if he wanted to.

Fortunately, she was not far from the top of the waterfall. When Xia Wei gradually landed at the bottom of the waterfall, Xi Yue finally climbed to the top of the waterfall.

Watching Xi Yue's back disappear in front of the cliff waterfall, Xia Wei's eyes were a little moved.

He had been an emperor for many years, and the only softness in his heart was reserved for his family.

He maintained a high level of vigilance and defense against everyone around him.

He had accidentally entered this paradise and had been hiding his identity because he was worried that this was a trap set by the enemy.

He wanted to go out. Even though he knew that he had to sacrifice the blood of his clansmen to the heavens to break the array here, he still gave the village chief an order.

His original plan was to treat Xi Yue well after leaving and comfort the old village chief's spirit in heaven. However, he did not expect Xi Yue to turn around so decisively.

Even if the heart of an emperor was moved now, it would only be for a moment. Xia Wei stood on the spot for a while, and his eyes were filled with gloom again.

He turned around and continued down the river.

At this moment, another half a month had passed in China. Jun Shiling was still active in the public eye, but Xia Wanyuan still did not appear.

The topic of "Where did Xia Wanyuan go?" had already fermented to the maximum.

[Where did Xia Wanyuan go? Even if she's missing, she has to give an explanation... She's not some third party. She's the representative of China, the wife of the richest man!! Why hasn't anyone reacted after she disappeared for so long!!]

[What puzzled me the most was that... CEO Jun actually acted as if nothing had happened... In the past two days, I relived the variety show they participated in together. I began to wonder if the two of them were acting lovey-dovey back then.]

[I've already told you that Xia Wanyuan and Jun Shiling are faking their marriage. You still don't believe me, right?? Li Na, the daughter of the Blue family in America, is already preparing to marry Jun Shiling. What bullsh*t love is nothing.]

Among the many comments, there were some scandals about Jun Shiling and Li Na.

Everyone thought that the haters were spreading rumors. Unexpectedly, not long after, Li Na personally arrived in China and registered a Chinese social media account.

The first person she followed on Weibo was Jun Shiling. She even posted a post.

@ Li Na: "@ Jun Shiling, I'm very happy to walk the rest of the way with you."

When this post was posted, the entire Internet erupted.

[F*ck, what did I see... This is too much. As expected, men are the most honest when they are hung on the wall. I really didn't expect even Jun Shiling to have a change of heart.]

[So, I can't see Xia Wanyuan now because Xia Wanyuan and Jun Shiling are divorced? It's shocking my entire family.]

[From the looks of it, the reason why Xia Wanyuan disappeared is very easy to understand... Is it because Jun Shiling had a change of heart and she was too sad and hid?]

[I don't believe in love anymore... Men are really dogs. Even Jun Shiling has a change of heart. What man won't change his mind???]

In the Beijing Hotel, the staff tried to stop Li Na from posting on Weibo, but in the end, they could not stop her.

"What are you afraid of?" Li Na was very calm. "Xia Wanyuan is missing. What's there to worry about? Behind me is the entire Blue family. I don't believe Jun Shiling isn't tempted."

"But Miss." The assistant had seen Jun Shiling once and had a deep impression of him. He kept feeling that Jun Shiling was not an easy person to control. "Will this anger him?"

"Didn't I just post a status?" Li Na rolled her eyes. "If he wants to be calculative, I'll say that I'm talking about the cooperation between the two families in the future."

At this moment, Jun Shiling did not have the time to pay attention to Li Na. The ordinary people did not know where Xia Wanyuan had gone, but to many powerful forces, they vaguely received the news.

Xia Wanyuan was taken away by K.

No matter who took Xia Wanyuan away, to these people, Xia Wanyuan's departure was equivalent to exposing Jun Shiling's huge weakness.

Countless forces joined forces to surround the Jun Corporation. Jun Shiling slept less than three hours a day on average.

After an international meeting, Jun Shiling walked to the office and looked up to see Old Master Jun standing at the door.

Jun Shiling nodded slightly at Old Master. "Grandpa, why are you here?"

The old master did not look good. He turned and walked to the office. "Come in alone."

After Jun Shiling and Old Master entered the office, Lin Jing went forward to help close the door. The moment the door closed, Lin Jing clearly heard the slap in the room.

His expression froze. After closing the door, he guarded it and did not let anyone approach.

In the room, even though he had been slapped, Jun Shiling's expression did not change.

Old Master Jun looked at Jun Shiling with red eyes. "Do you want to die???! You don't want your home anymore, right?? The butler said that you haven't returned to the manor for an entire month."

Jun Shiling lowered his head and did not meet Old Master's gaze. "Home? How do I have a home?"

Home was where Xia Wanyuan was. Now, every blade of grass and tree in the manor would only remind him of Xia Wanyuan, so he was unwilling to go back.

Looking at Jun Shiling's expression, Old Master sighed. "I know you're sad. How can my heart not ache when Wanyuan leaves? But you still have two sons. Do you want Jiajin to become the Xiao Bao that no one doted on and loved in the past?"

Jun Shiling was silent.

Old Master Jun sat on the sofa trembling. He looked at the dejected Jun Shiling. "Take it that I'm begging you, okay?"

Jun Shiling looked up with a deep gaze. "Grandpa, I understand."

"There's one more thing. Are you preparing to find a stepmother for Xiao Bao??"

"What do you mean?"

"Go and look at the Internet." The old master shook his head. "Although Wanyuan isn't around, not everyone can touch the position of the mistress of the Jun family. Handle it properly."

Chapter 1458 Desert

After receiving Old Master Jun's reminder, Jun Shiling took a look at the news online.

However, before he could call Lin Jing in, Li Na called.

"CEO Jun." Li Na's voice was extremely gentle. In the middle of the night, it was so gentle that water could be pinched out.

"Miss Li Na, I'm CEO Jun's assistant," Lin Jing replied politely.

Li Na's voice instantly returned to normal. "Where's your CEO Jun? Give him the phone."

"I'm sorry, Miss Li Na. Our CEO Jun doesn't answer strange women's calls. Our Madam Jun doesn't like such actions."

"Pfft." Li Na smiled in disdain. "Madam Jun?? I advise you to respect me. It's not certain who Mrs. Jun will be in the future."

Hearing Li Na's words, even someone as calm as Lin Jing wanted to laugh. "Really? Then let's talk about it after Miss Li Na becomes Mrs. Jun."

With that, Lin Jing hung up and looked at Jun Shiling. "CEO Jun, I'll get someone to deal with it."

"Mm, is the chip reacting?"

"Not at the moment."

“Got it. Go out first.”

“Yes.” As Lin Jing walked out, he looked at Jun Shiling worriedly. In the end, he could not help but remind him, “CEO Jun, you still have a meeting tomorrow. Please rest early.”

Jun Shiling did not speak and only waved his hand.

Lin Jing sighed in his heart and finally left the office silently.

The huge office was empty. Jun Shiling sat on the sofa, took a brush from the side, and began to practice calligraphy on the rice paper.

And he had written three words, “Xia Wanyuan”.

In the dead of the night, the moon was quiet, and the entire world fell silent. Only the lights on the top floor of the Jun Corporation were not switched off the entire night.

The next morning, just as everyone woke up, they were amused by the Weibo post from the Jun Corporation.

@ Jun Corporation: “@ Li Na, no cooperation, no marriage, no interaction.”

[Good lord... Simple and crude. It’s indeed the style I’m familiar with, CEO Jun. Hahahahahaha.]

[I knew it... I can still believe in love... But where did Xia Wanyuan go? She’s already a world superstar, right... She’s already at the peak of the entertainment industry, but she disappeared. What a loss.]

[Li Na seems to have always been interested in CEO Jun... This is so obvious. Isn’t it awkward?]

Li Na did not expect Jun Shiling to embarrass her so directly. She brought people and barged into the Jun Corporation angrily, but she was personally stopped by Lin Jing.

Looking at Lin Jing’s cold expression, Li Na was furious. “Just you wait. When I marry Jun Shiling, I’ll get him to change you first!!”

Lin Jing made an inviting gesture and smiled. “Okay.”

Li Na had lost all her face in China. She left China angrily and returned to America to complain to Lin Man. However, just as she walked to the airport, she was stopped by Chu Yi’s subordinate.

“Miss Li Na, our young master invites you.”

Li Na was a little afraid of Chu Yi. She hesitated for a moment before nodding. “Okay.”

The plane carried them to Continent F.

In the vast desert, Xia Wei looked up when he heard the rumbling above his head. In the distance, a black thing that looked like a bird slid past his head.

Worried that it was a hidden weapon, Xia Wei lay on the ground and waited for the plane to pass before standing up.

He followed the underground river and left the bottom of the valley. What he did not expect was that at the end of the river was a vast desert.

He had been walking in this desert for a long time. Not to mention a figure, there was not even a living creature.

Xia Wei licked his dry lips. The sunlight had already made him a little dazed.

Thinking that there should be a water source in the direction the “big bird” was flying, Xia Wei forced himself to walk south.

Chapter 1459 Xia Wei Was Saved

After all, Xia Wei had never come into contact with modern matters. He thought that there would be a water source wherever the “big bird” flew over, but he did not know that where planes could cross, human strength could not.

The further south he went, the higher the temperature became. The endless desert seemed to have no end.

The scorching sun shone on his body. Xia Wei tried his best to swallow his saliva, but his throat was already as dry as wood dregs. There was no moisture at all. Even the act of swallowing made him instantly feel a sharp pain.

Xia Wei could not hold on anymore and sat by a rock. He looked at the slow yellow sand in front of him and finally could not help but close his eyes slightly.

I didn't even know what era it is and am about to die?

Under the scorching sun, Xia Wei's eyelids became heavier and heavier. In the end, he could not take it anymore and fell.

At this moment, a team of SUVs passed by in the distance.

In the yellow sand, Xia Wei was very eye-catching.

“Boss, there seems to be a woman in front.” Seeing the long hair behind Xia Wei, the subordinate subconsciously thought that it was a woman.

The person called Boss sat behind the car. She glanced at him from afar and said, “Bring her along. Take it as a reward for the brothers.”

“Yes.”

The car stopped and quickly brought Xia Wei over.

Xia Wei was wearing a long robe and his hair was tied up behind him. He was clearly dressed as a woman, but his handsome face that made one feel a strong sense of power even with his eyes closed did not make one doubt his gender at all.

“F*ck, it's a man.” The subordinate who had picked Xia Wei up threw him to the ground in disdain. “How unlucky. Let's go.”

“Wait.” At this moment, the person in the car spoke. Her gentle voice made one's heart turn cold. Everyone hurriedly stood aside respectfully.

A fair hand reached out of the car window. "Get his face up for me to see."

The subordinates hurriedly raised Xia Wei's face slightly for the people in the car to take a closer look.

After a while, the woman in the car chuckled. "He's not bad-looking. Let the doctor treat him. I wonder what he'll look like when he opens his eyes."

As soon as he finished speaking, his subordinates brought Xia Wei to the car behind and called the doctor to treat him. They also prepared enough food.

The SUV ran wildly across the vast desert. The starry sky sprinkled dark nets, and the morning star not far away flickered slightly.

Amidst the sound of wheels and fine sand, the person on the simple bed finally woke up.

The moment Xia Wei regained consciousness, he sensed that there were people around. He quietly opened his eyes slightly and took a look. Beside him, a person in white was taking a nap. Another tall man in dark green clothes was holding an unknown black thing in his hand and looking out of the window warily.

Although the current situation was unknown and everything was unknown, Xia Wei forced himself to calm down.

He could feel the pain in his body. He was alive, which meant that he had been saved.

If the old village chief and the rest were right, he should really be a thousand years later, and these people in strange clothes were people from a thousand years later.

In his long career in power, Xia Wei knew very well that harmless and non-threatening people were the ones who could earn others' trust the most.

He covered the darkness in his eyes and looked at the man in white. "Excuse me."

Chapter 1460 Gorgeous Face

Hearing Xia Wei's voice, the doctor, who had been taking a nap just now, instantly woke up. He glanced at Xia Wei, who was already awake, then patted the bodyguard's arm. "He's awake. Hurry up and report."

The bodyguard turned around and glanced at Xia Wei. Xia Wei coughed lightly and his face was pale, as if a gust of wind could blow him down.

The bodyguard stood up disdainfully. "I really don't know what's the use of saving such a useless person."

He walked to the car window in front. "Boss, the person behind is already awake. Should we bring him over?"

The woman in the car replied, "Bring him over for me to take a look."

Soon, Xia Wei was carried to the front.

In his previous life, Xia Wei was the most handsome man in the Great Xia Dynasty. Even though he was very haggard now, he could not hide his pride and elegance.

The woman in the car seemed to be very interested in Xia Wei. A fair hand pushed open the car door and the woman in the car walked out.

Amidst the lights, a woman who was as beautiful as flames and was wearing black hot pants walked out. Her fair and slender legs burned Xia Wei's eyes.

Her figure was extremely good, and her every frown and smile was charming. However, among the many men present, none of them dared to look her in the eye. In fact, if one looked carefully, they could discover everyone's fear of her.

Xia Wei acutely noticed this. He turned his head calmly and looked a little shy. "Miss."

The woman smiled. "What miss? My name is Chu Man."

"The moth-browed man's face is so beautiful that it's enough to topple a country." Xia Wei did not look at Chu Man's face and recited a poem.

Chu Man raised her hand and gently applauded. "I really didn't expect to pick up a scholar like you in this desert."

"I was just escaping from a disaster." As Xia Wei spoke, he restrained his aura. Not only did he not suppress Chu Man, but he also vaguely had the intention of lowering his head to her. However, the pride on his body was like a mountain.

Chu Man looked at Xia Wei quietly. "I picked you up. You're mine. Come with me."

Xia Wei looked angry. "I'm a scholar..."

Xia Wei's resistance aroused Chu Man's interest. She smiled like a rose blooming in the flames. "Aren't you considered a scholar by reading to me?"

With that, Chu Man returned to the car. "Go to the back and recuperate before meeting me."

Chu Man's car had already started. The bodyguard pushed Xia Wei. "You're so lucky. Hurry up and get back into the car. We're preparing to set off."

Xia Wei nodded obediently and followed the bodyguard into the car.

Xia Wei was unfamiliar with everything in front of him, but he was not unfamiliar with the human heart.

He chose the doctor in white as his target and asked him for a lot of information during their casual conversation.

The doctor was someone who had been poached from China. Usually, there was no one in the team who could talk. After all, this entire team was filled with people who played with guns. Chu Man was well-read, but he did not dare to chat with Chu Man.

Now that he had finally met a young man who spoke properly and looked innocent, the doctor wished he could tell Xia Wei everything he knew.

Xia Wei quickly filtered out information that was useful to him and did not sleep the entire night, thinking about how to escape.

The next morning, Xia Wei got out of the car at dawn. He wanted to familiarize himself with the surrounding environment.

However, Xia Wei was stunned when he saw the scene outside the door.
