

Modern Day 1471

Chapter 1471 Father

In the dining room, Little Xiaxia sat beside Xia Wanyuan and ate very consciously. She did not need anyone to feed her at all. She was completely different from when Xia Wanyuan was not around.

Xia Wanyuan often went out. When she was not around, Little Xiaxia began to be picky. Furthermore, only when Yu Qian fed her would she sit there obediently. Other times, no one here could coax her.

The three of them finished their meal in silence. Xia Wanyuan glanced at Little Xiaxia's dirtied clothes. "Let's go. I'll bring you to take a shower."

"Mm." Little Xiaxia nodded obediently, then looked at Yu Qian. "Goodnight, Uncle Yu. See you tomorrow."

Yu Qian nodded and watched Little Xiaxia's bouncing figure gradually disappear from his sight.

Less than ten minutes after Xia Wanyuan left, a subordinate came to report the situation to Yu Qian.

"Boss."

"Tell me."

"The D World is constantly expanding their forces. They've already reached our side. Yesterday, we even caught people from the other side at sea."

Yu Qian did not seem surprised at all. His eyes were calm, and it was unknown what he was thinking. His subordinate did not dare to speak much and could only stand quietly, waiting for Yu Qian's instructions.

After a while, Yu Qian finally said, "It's only a matter of time. Drag it out."

"Yes."

After the subordinate left, Yu Qian sat at the cold dining table and looked at the moon for a long time.

The moonlight shone faintly on the ground with a layer of hazy light.

In the dark night, it was as if someone had sighed softly. That sigh was as soft as moonlight and instantly fused into the night.

At this moment, on the second floor of the castle, Little Xiaxia had already been washed and placed on the bed. Xia Wanyuan sat beside her and wiped her hair.

"Mommy," Little Xiaxia called out to Xia Wanyuan in a childish voice.

"Mm."

"I have a question for you." Little Xiaxia turned her head and stared at Xia Wanyuan with her big eyes.

"Tell me."

"Why isn't Uncle Yu my father?"

Hearing Little Xiaxia's words, Xia Wanyuan paused and looked at Little Xiaxia very seriously. "He's not. Have you forgotten the name of your father I told you about?"

"Jun Shiling," Little Xiaxia blurted out. "Mommy, I remember, but why did Daddy never appear? He didn't treat you well at all and made Mommy sad."

When Xia Wanyuan was in the castle, Little Xiaxia basically slept with her. Sometimes, when she woke up in the middle of the night, Little Xiaxia would see Xia Wanyuan standing alone by the window.

Little Xiaxia still did not know what longing was, but she could tell that Xia Wanyuan was unhappy and very sad.

Xia Wanyuan pulled Little Xiaxia into her arms. "No, Daddy loves you very much and Mommy very much. It's just that for some reasons, we have no choice but to be separated. Don't say this in the future, okay?"

Little Xiaxia lay in Xia Wanyuan's arms and nodded obediently. She looked at Xia Wanyuan curiously. "Mommy, what does Daddy look like? Is he especially handsome??"

A smile appeared in Xia Wanyuan's eyes. "Mm."

Coincidentally, there was a pen and paper on the desk not far away. Xia Wanyuan took the pen and drew a simple portrait on the paper.

Little Xiaxia looked at it seriously. Although the person on the paper seemed to be flat, in a daze, she seemed to really feel her father looking at her quietly.

Chapter 1472 Leaving

Looking at Jun Shiling's deep eyes on the paper, Little Xiaxia reached out curiously to poke them. "Mommy, if we return to Daddy's side, will we be separated from Uncle Yu?"

Xia Wanyuan did not want Little Xiaxia's heart to be filled with hatred since she was young. Little Xiaxia did not know much about the grudges between adults, so in her opinion, Yu Qian was someone she had relied on since she was young.

Thinking of the animations and television dramas she had watched, there was only one pair of parents in the family. Little Xiaxia was a little sad. She did not know if it was for herself or for Yu Qian.

Xia Wanyuan did not know how to tell Little Xiaxia. She reached out and stroked Little Xiaxia's head. "I..."

Xia Wanyuan had just said a word when she was interrupted by Little Xiaxia. Little Xiaxia hugged Xia Wanyuan's arm and blinked gently.

"Mommy, you love Daddy very much, right?"

Xia Wanyuan nodded.

Little Xiaxia smiled at Xia Wanyuan with two dimples. "Mommy, I'm happy as long as you're happy. If you're happy when I return to Daddy's side, I'll definitely stay by your side obediently."

Little Xiaxia, who had grown up in love, enjoyed Xia Wanyuan's love for her and loved her unreservedly.

Although she was young, she already vaguely understood that Xia Wanyuan had separated from the person she loved because of her. Little Xiaxia could not bear to part with Yu Qian, but at the same time, she hoped that Xia Wanyuan would be happy.

Looking at Little Xiaxia's sensible appearance, Xia Wanyuan's heart ached slightly. She smiled and patted Little Xiaxia's back. "Good child, sleep."

"Mm." Little Xiaxia buried herself in Xia Wanyuan's arms and smiled at her. "Goodnight, Mommy."

"Good night."

At this moment, in the China manor, the lights in the study were on for a long time. At the door of the study, two small heads were gathered together.

"Brother." A beautiful little boy with red lips and white teeth leaned against Xiao Bao.

Xiao Bao was already more and more similar to Jun Shiling. Although he was young, his aura had already begun to appear. He, who used to love to smile, had already completely condensed a smile and was very serious.

However, when facing his younger brother, Xiao Bao's eyes still had a hint of warmth. "Shut up."

"Brother..."

Little Jiajin's name implied that he was a gentle gentleman. However, he had been pampered since he was young and was extremely lively. He was mischievous and loved to act coquettishly. Other than Jun Shiling and Xiao Bao, who could barely control him, no one else could do anything to him.

Xiao Bao turned to look at Little Jiajin. "Shut up."

"Brother, Brother, Brother." Little Jiajin circled Xiao Bao's arm. "When can I see Mommy?"

Speaking of Xia Wanyuan, sadness flashed across Xiao Bao's eyes. "I don't know."

"Brother." Little Jiajin looked at Xiao Bao curiously. "Is Mommy really as beautiful as on television?"

"Of course. Mommy is the most beautiful person in the world."

Little Jiajin's eyes were filled with yearning. "Can Mommy sing?"

"Yes, sometimes at night, she will coax me to sleep. Mommy sings especially well."

"Wow." Little Jiajin was envious. "She's definitely better than Daddy. Daddy is so fierce. He doesn't let me eat candy and even confiscates my toys. Hmph." As Little Jiajin secretly complained, he felt that something was wrong.

He turned around and saw that the study door had opened at some point in time. Jun Shiling was looking at them quietly.

Meeting Jun Shiling's cold eyes, Little Jiajin subconsciously pulled Xiao Bao's arm. He smiled sweetly at Jun Shiling. "Daddy, dear Daddy, I miss you so much. When are we going to sleep? I'm sleepy."

Jun Shiling snorted softly and picked Little Jiajin up from the ground. "What are you hiding in your pocket?"

Little Jiajin took out the candy. "Daddy, I specially saved it for you. I didn't eat a single one. I love you the most."

Jun Shiling took the candy and shook his head gently as he walked to the bedroom.

Who did this child take after? He was so mischievous.

The moonlight gradually enveloped the entire world. Xia Wanyuan, who had been running around outside for a long time, had long fallen asleep, but Little Xiaxia, who was leaning in her arms, opened her eyes.

Little Xiaxia looked at Xia Wanyuan's sleeping eyes and gently got up. She kissed Xia Wanyuan on the cheek before walking to the bedroom beside her.

Yu Qian rarely slept. Now, the light in his bedroom was still on. He sat at his desk and read. The light cast a shadow on his eyes.

The door was suddenly pushed open by a crack. Yu Qian was instantly vigilant and prepared the door with the gun in his hand. In the next second, seeing that it was Little Xiaxia, Yu Qian retracted the gun in his hand.

"Uncle Yu." Little Xiaxia skipped towards Yu Qian with a smile on her face. Yu Qian reached out and carried her onto his lap.

"Why aren't you sleeping?? Where's your mother?"

"Mommy is asleep." Little Xiaxia kept looking at Yu Qian with her big eyes. "Uncle Yu, I'll accompany you. Don't be unhappy."

Yu Qian was stunned for a moment. "I'm not unhappy."

Little Xiaxia hugged Yu Qian's arm. "You clearly are, Uncle Yu. I don't want to leave you."

Yu Qian's eyes were filled with warmth. He stroked Little Xiaxia's hair. "I won't let you leave me either."

Little Xiaxia nodded with curved eyes.

She listened to Yu Qian tell her stories in his arms. As she listened, she felt sleepy and could not help but fall asleep.

Looking at Little Xiaxia's peaceful sleeping face in his arms, a hint of darkness flashed across Yu Qian's eyes.

No matter how calm these stolen days were, in the end, we still had to return to our original tracks.

I want to stay, but I might not be able to.

The next morning, Xia Wanyuan woke up and realized that her arms were empty. Xia Wanyuan did not panic. After washing up, she was about to go downstairs to eat when she saw Yu Qian making milk for Little Xiaxia.

Seeing Xia Wanyuan come down, Yu Qian handed the milk in his hand to Little Xiaxia. "Good girl, go to the side and look for Uncle Butler. I have something to tell your mother."

"Mm."

Little Xiaxia carried the milk bottle and obediently walked to the side.

Xia Wanyuan sat at the dining table. Yu Qian naturally pushed the plate in front of her. Xia Wanyuan had just picked up her chopsticks when Yu Qian spoke.

"Let's go back to Continent F together tomorrow."

Xia Wanyuan's hand that was holding her chopsticks paused slightly. She looked at Yu Qian in surprise.

"You want to bring me back?"

"Mm." Yu Qian nodded.

Xia Wanyuan's gaze lingered on Yu Qian for a long time. She did not know what Yu Qian was thinking.

After living on this island for a long time, Xia Wanyuan realized that on the entire planet, unlike the world that people conventionally understood, nearly a third of the planet was completely hidden.

The world they were in had a very hidden entrance to the conventional world. If they did not take the initiative to leave, it would be very difficult for the outside world to discover this place.

Chapter 1473 Escape

In the past few years, Xia Wanyuan had already become Yu Qian's right-hand man.

Yu Qian's matters were basically spread out in front of Xia Wanyuan transparently.

Little Xia Xia gradually grew up and became more and more clingy to Yu Qian. Compared to Xia Wanyuan, Yu Qian spent more time with Little Xia Xia. He was basically the one taking care of Little Xia Xia, so the business under him was basically handed over to Xia Wanyuan.

She helped Yu Qian deal with many things in this world. Similarly, she had been searching for a way to leave.

However, she had never found a way to leave. Today, Yu Qian took the initiative to return to World D. Xia Wanyuan was worried that Yu Qian was going to play tricks.

Whether it was three years ago or now, Xia Wanyuan had never let down her guard against Yu Qian.

Although Yu Qian did not show any cruelty in front of Little Xiaxia and could even be considered very gentle,

There was one thing that Xia Wanyuan was quite grateful to Yu Qian for.

He was really treating Little Xiaxia well. She was not by Little Xiaxia's side all year round, and Little Xiaxia had never seen Jun Shiling before. In the absence of parents, Little Xiaxia could become so lively and sunny today largely because Yu Qian treated Little Xiaxia really well.

However, Xia Wanyuan knew very well that Yu Qian treated Little Xiaxia well because Little Xiaxia had been brought by Yu Qian's side since she was very young. She was really a piece of white paper. Yu Qian was not guarded against her, but if it were anyone else, Yu Qian would not be like this.

As if knowing what Xia Wanyuan was worried about, Yu Qian sneered. "Don't think too much. Wait for me here tomorrow. Little Xiaxia isn't going. She'll stay here. Come with me."

With that, Yu Qian restrained the emotions in his eyes and walked to the side to accompany Little Xiaxia for breakfast, leaving Xia Wanyuan thinking on the spot.

Xia Wanyuan was no longer in the mood to eat. She looked out of the window. The environment here had always been very good. The weather today was not bad. There was a blue sky and white clouds.

Xia Wanyuan suddenly had a flash of inspiration, as if she had thought of something.

Any territory had a check and balance of power. In this place, other than the continent under Yu Qian's jurisdiction, there were a few other forces arguing with Yu Qian.

Originally, this balance had been maintained very well. However, in order to quickly expand their forces, some people sought help from the D world outside.

In this way, the balance was broken. Yu Qian was forced to reestablish his connection with the outside world.

Glancing at Little Xiaxia, who was smiling until her teeth were out of sight, a deep meaning flashed across Xia Wanyuan's eyes.

Perhaps a large part of the reason why Yu Qian left the world this time was because he wanted to provide Little Xiaxia with a better environment.

Her eyes narrowed, and she did not know how to judge Yu Qian.

The next morning, while Little Xiaxia was still sleeping, Yu Qian and Xia Wanyuan had already boarded a large ship and embarked on the journey back to Continent F.

On the deck, the sea breeze blew Xia Wanyuan's hair. The fog slightly froze on Xia Wanyuan's curly eyelashes. Yu Qian glanced at her. "Xia Wanyuan."

Xia Wanyuan turned around. "What?"

"Are you very happy to go back again?"

"What are you trying to say?"

Yu Qian looked at the distant sea. "Nothing."

Looking at Yu Qian's cold side profile, Xia Wanyuan frowned slightly. "Is something going to happen???"

The fact that Yu Qian had taken the initiative to bring her out was very strange.

According to how much Yu Qian doted on Little Xiaxia now, unless it was absolutely necessary, he would not leave Little Xiaxia alone in the castle.

Yu Qian did not answer Xia Wanyuan. He looked ahead quietly. The morning glow rose and dyed his face a little color.

In the castle, as time passed, the sunlight passed through the French windows and quietly sent warmth in. The birds outside the window began to be active and kept chirping, finally waking up Little Xiaxia, who was sleeping on the bed.

Little Xiaxia opened her eyes and habitually looked for Xia Wanyuan, but she could not find her. Little Xiaxia sat up and ran to the bedroom beside her. Yu Qian's room was also empty.

Little Xiaxia ran downstairs. Only the servants were packing in the living room.

"Where's Mommy and Uncle Yu??"

Hearing Little Xiaxia's voice, the butler hurriedly welcomed her. "Miss, Young Master and your mother have already left. They have work to do."

Little Xiaxia widened her eyes slightly. "But they didn't tell me that. Uncle Yu promised me yesterday to bring me out to play today."

To put it bluntly, Little Xiaxia had always known that as long as Yu Qian agreed to her request, Yu Qian would bring Little Xiaxia along no matter how difficult it was. This was the first time Yu Qian had gone back on his word.

Little Xiaxia had always been pampered by Yu Qian. Now that Yu Qian had left but did not bring her, Little Xiaxia was very aggrieved. Tears began to well up in her bright eyes, making one's heart ache.

"Eldest Miss, don't be sad. They'll be back soon after settling their matters. Be good and stay at home." Little Xiaxia had always smiled happily. When had they ever seen her so pitiful? Even the servants felt sour in their hearts. The butler tried to comfort Little Xiaxia, but he failed. Little Xiaxia's eyes were already filled with golden beans.

"Uncle Yu lied. He clearly said that he wanted to accompany me today. Mommy lied too. She just came back yesterday. Why did she leave today? Boohoo."

Ever since Xia Xia began to be conscious of the world around her, Xia Wanyuan and Yu Qian had never left her at the same time.

Little Xiaxia wiped the tears from the corners of her eyes and ran upstairs.

Looking at Little Xiaxia's back, the butler sighed and shook his head. As sharp as he was, he naturally realized that Yu Qian and Xia Wanyuan had left chaotically this time. The world was probably going to change again.

"I'm afraid something will happen." The butler was helpless. He looked at the servants at the side. "Young Master is not around. You must take good care of Missy. Breakfast must be sumptuous. Go up and coax Missy."

"Yes."

When everyone finished preparing breakfast and sent it up, Little Xiaxia did not appreciate it at all. She closed the door and sulked alone in the bedroom.

In this castle, other than Xia Wanyuan and Yu Qian, no one else dared to do anything to Little Xiaxia. Since Little Xiaxia was unwilling to eat, everyone could only guard the door.

Time passed bit by bit. It was almost afternoon, but there was still no movement in the bedroom. The butler was afraid that Little Xiaxia would starve to death, so he instructed the servants to force open the door.

However, looking at everything in the house, the butler and all the servants were dumbfounded.

Because the house was empty.

Chapter 1474 Siblings Meet

When Xia Wanyuan and Yu Qian received the news of Little Xiaxia's disappearance, the two of them had already arrived in Continent F.

"Have you found her?" Yu Qian's expression darkened. "Go to the valley she liked to go to before."

"Young Master, we've searched everywhere on the island, but we don't see Missy. Furthermore, a small ship has been lost in the warehouse."

There were many high-tech things in the warehouse of the castle. The servants were not qualified to approach these things, but Little Xiaxia often played inside. When Yu Qian developed certain weapons, Little Xiaxia would usually sit by the side and watch him do it.

Everyone felt that Little Xiaxia was still young and it did not matter even if she knew the password to the warehouse. However, no one expected Little Xiaxia to be so bold as to leave the island with the things.

Yu Qian had clearly thought of Little Xiaxia's whereabouts. He narrowed his eyes. "Other than small ships, what else did she take away?"

"Some nutrients, locators, and some medicine. She also took away the smart chip computer you placed in the safe, Terminator," the butler said as he wiped his cold sweat.

They had all seen Yu Qian's attitude towards Little Xiaxia. From the looks of it, Little Xiaxia should have gone after Yu Qian and the rest. The journey was so long. If anything happened to her...

The butler did not dare to continue thinking. He wiped the sweat on his forehead and wanted to cry.

Listening to the butler's report, Yu Qian's aura darkened. "Get someone to search in the direction she left."

"Yes."

After Yu Qian hung up, Xia Wanyuan looked at him anxiously. "How's my daughter?"

Yu Qian tightened his grip on the railing. "She has the Terminator with her. There shouldn't be any major problems. If she really encounters danger, the Terminator will trigger the alarm system. I can sense it. The sensor is very calm now, which means that she's safe."

Although Yu Qian had said so, Xia Wanyuan's eyes were still filled with worry. "She's so young."

Yu Qian was not as worried as Xia Wanyuan. "She's just young. Don't worry too much. I've taught her countless ways to escape. Furthermore, she took away the most advanced products. There won't be any problems easily."

At this moment, in the sea, Little Xiaxia was sitting in the cockpit. She took out the map and looked at it. She reached out and pressed a button. The entire ship began to shrink, and its wings extended, gradually turning into a streamlined plane.

The plane slid from the water to the sky and gradually entered the clouds, flying towards World D.

This new amphibious plane had an automatic protection device, so Yu Qian could only sense that it was driving, but he did not know where it was flying.

About three days later, Yu Qian sensed that the aircraft had stopped moving. There was no alarm, indicating that everything was normal.

On Wuyi Mountain, Little Jiajin leaned towards Jun Shiling with a mud-covered face. "Daddy, wash me up."

Jun Shiling glanced at him and focused on the document again. "Don't force me to beat you up here."

Little Jiajin quickly took a step back and began to cry. "Daddy, you're too much. Other people's sons are doted on. You don't love me anymore. You're biased. You love Brother."

Jun Shiling looked up and glanced at Little Jiajin. Little Jiajin immediately shut up and jumped three feet away. There was no hint of tears on his face. "Daddy, I was wrong. Take your time. I'm going to pick tea. I'll wash my face myself!!"

With that, Little Jiajin ran towards the tea mountain.

At this moment, it had just rained on Wuyi Mountain and the air was filled with a faint mist. Little Jiajin swept the water with his hand as he shuttled through the tea trees.

Unknowingly, Little Jiajin ran deep into the tea tree. He was about to pick some tender tea to coax Jun Shiling when he saw the tea tree move not far away.

Little Jiajin slowly leaned over and saw a corner of a white mesh dress on the tea root.

Just as Little Jiajin was about to continue walking forward to take a look, the tea tree was suddenly pried open and a pair of lively eyes appeared in front of Little Jiajin.

Chapter 1475 Brother

Little Jiajin took a step back in fear, then stopped and looked at Little Xiaxia tentatively.

Little Xiaxia's facial features were too beautiful, and the intelligence in her eyes made one's eyes light up. The ultimate beauty lover, Little Jiajin, looked at her for a while and asked, "Are you a little elf?"

Little Xiaxia smiled until her dimples appeared. "Are you stupid??"

Little Jiajin widened his eyes slightly. "I'm not."

Little Xiaxia opened her clear eyes. She tugged at her dress that was caught in the branches but did not move. She turned to look at Little Jiajin, who was standing at the side. "Brother, can you help me adjust my dress? My dress is caught in the branches."

For some reason, Little Jiajin's heart fluctuated when he heard Little Xiaxia call him brother.

He had heard from the people around him that he originally had a cute and beautiful younger sister, but she disappeared with his mother.

Looking at Little Xiaxia, who was as beautiful as a doll, Little Jiajin thought of the sister he had never seen before.

He walked forward and helped Little Xiaxia with her dress.

Little Xiaxia had fallen into the tea tree when she fell from the aircraft. Now, her dress was wrapped in the branches. Little Jiajin spent a lot of effort to get Little Xiaxia's dress out, but his hand was also injured by the branches.

Little Xiaxia jumped out of the branch happily and smiled sweetly at Little Jiajin. "Brother, thank you."

Little Xiaxia's smile was too healing. Little Jiajin scratched his head in embarrassment. "It's nothing."

Little Xiaxia was about to say something when she saw the wound on Little Jiajin's hand. Her eyes widened. "Brother, your hand is injured."

"It's nothing." Little Jiajin looked indifferent. "It's just a small injury. I'm a man. I'm not afraid of this at all."

Little Xiaxia found a herb from the grass pile beside her, chewed it, and applied it to Little Jiajin's hand.

Little Jiajin was a little embarrassed. He coughed. "Where's your house? I'll bring you out."

"My house is very far from here." Speaking of this, Little Xiaxia looked a little sad.

Initially, she had followed the direction Yu Qian, Xia Wanyuan and the rest left in. However, she did not expect that because she had flown too far, she would be wrapped in a powerful airflow above the sea. When she fell, the aircraft had scattered, and the communicator that contacted Yu Qian and the rest had disappeared.

Seeing that Little Xiaxia was about to cry, Little Jiajin was also sad. "How about this? I'll bring you out and send you to the police station first. The police will help you."

"Okay."

The two children held hands and walked down the mountain. Little Xiaxia was innocent and lively, and Little Jiajin was mischievous. The entire tea mountain was filled with their laughter.

After sending Little Xiaxia to the police station, Little Jiajin returned to the hotel.

Jun Shiling was still in the same position as before he left. He was sitting at the desk and reading documents. He looked up and glanced at Little Jiajin, and his expression darkened.

After being on the mountain for so long, Little Jiajin's body was filled with stains and the mud on his face had formed mud. He smiled with curved eyes and white teeth. "Daddy, I'm so hungry."

"Bring him to wash up. You're not allowed to give him food tonight." Jun Shiling looked at his assistant.

"Daddy!!" Little Jiajin tried to protest, but Jun Shiling suppressed him with a look.

"Bad person!!" Little Jiajin kept kicking his legs in the bathtub. "I did a good deed today and you still won't let me eat dinner!!"

Jun Shiling stood at the door and looked at him. "Other than being mischievous, taking your brother's homework, pulling the butler's beard, and driving 20 teachers away in anger, what else can you do?"

Little Jiajin looked at Jun Shiling angrily. "I saved an especially beautiful little sister on the mountain today!!!"

Chapter 1476 Loneliness

Jun Shiling did not think that Little Jiajin was lying. Although Little Jiajin was mischievous to the point of giving one a headache, there was one good thing about him, and that was that he was quite honest. If he said yes, he did it. If he said no, he did not.

The servant had already helped Xiao Jiajin take a shower. Jun Shiling walked over and picked him up from the bathtub. He took a towel and wrapped it around him. "That's two different things. I'll reward you with a toy tomorrow for helping others, but you ran around today and made so many people look for you for a long time."

"I'm sorry." Little Jiajin, who had just taken a shower, smelled like milk. He hugged Jun Shiling's neck. "Daddy, I'm hungry."

"You can't eat."

"Daddy ~ Daddy ~" Little Jiajin stared at Jun Shiling with his round eyes.

In the end, Jun Shiling gave in. He placed Little Jiajin on the sofa and went to the side to cook for him.

Not long after, Jun Shiling came out with a bowl of steaming shredded meat noodles.

Little Jiajin opened his mouth consciously. "Ah ~"

Although Jun Shiling's eyes were filled with disdain, he still took the chopsticks and fed Little Jiajin a mouthful.

The noodles that were filled with soup spread in his mouth. Little Jiajin smiled happily. "Daddy, your culinary skills have improved again. I like your cooking the most in the world!!"

Helplessness flashed across Jun Shiling's eyes.

Little Jiajin had been mischievous since he was young, but although he was mischievous, he was extremely likable. It was mainly because he was sweet enough to coax the most serious professor into smiling.

"Eat quickly and sleep after eating."

“Mm!!” Little Jiajin ate the noodles and took a sip of hot milk. Suddenly, he thought of the cute Xiaxia. “Daddy, I sent that little girl to the police station. I wonder if she’s back home now.”

“I’ll get someone to investigate tomorrow. Rest well first.”

“Okay.” Little Jiajin ate the noodles in his bowl in big mouthfuls. After finishing the big bowl, he obediently sat on the bed and prepared to sleep after digesting.

At this moment, on the street not far from the hotel, Little Xiaxia was sitting by the roadside, looking curiously at the cars and people coming and going by the street.

Little Jiajin had sent her to the police station, but there were too many people there just now and no one noticed Little Xiaxia. In addition, she had seen someone with a gun.

To Little Xiaxia, who had never been to China, she felt that the people with guns were all bad people. Hence, when no one was paying attention, Little Xiaxia ran out of the police station.

However, there were no servants here, no Yu Qian and Xia Wanyuan. There were only tall buildings and countless pedestrians she did not know.

Little Xiaxia had always been bold, but at this moment, she was still a little afraid. She wanted to eat and missed Xia Wanyuan.

The number of pedestrians and cars in front of her gradually decreased. Little Xiaxia hugged her knees, her eyes red.

If she had known earlier, she would not have run out. Now, not only had she not found Yu Qian and Xia Wanyuan, but she had also lost herself.

The night deepened and the night was a little cold. Little Xiaxia found a tree to lean on and fell asleep in a daze.

After some time, someone suddenly called out to her.

“Young lady, what are you doing here??”

Seeing that it was a young girl in front of her, Little Xiaxia let down her guard. “I...”

“You can’t find your parents??” The girl smiled at Little Xiaxia. “Let me help you find them. Look at your expression. Aiyo, how long have you been hungry? Come, eat some bread to cushion your hunger.”

Chapter 1477 Kidnapped

The nutrient solution and aircraft on Little Xiaxia were scattered in the mountains. She had been running around for the entire day and was indeed very hungry.

Looking at the soft bread in front of her, Little Xiaxia could not help but swallow her saliva. However, thinking of what Yu Qian had told her, she lowered her head again. “I’m not eating.”

Seeing that Little Xiaxia was not eating, the girl placed a student ID in front of her. “Look, I’m a student nearby. Don’t be afraid. I’m not a bad person. If you don’t believe me, come with me to the school over there and ask.”

Following the direction the girl was pointing, Little Xiaxia saw that there was indeed a school not far away. A large number of people were gathered at the entrance of the school.

Little Xiaxia nodded hesitantly. "Okay."

She stood up and followed the girl over. Halfway through, the girl broke open the bread and fed Little Xiaxia a mouthful. "Are you hungry? Eat some first."

The bread that was split open emitted a rich wheat fragrance. Little Xiaxia looked hesitantly at the lively scene around her, then took a tentative bite of the bread.

It smelled so good. Little Xiaxia, who had been hungry for the entire day, could not help but take a bite.

She wolfed down half of the bread. Only then did she realize that the girl had already led her off the original route.

"For..." Little Xiaxia had just said a word when she felt dizzy. The girl's face began to blur. Little Xiaxia blinked and fainted on the ground.

At that moment, the girl squatted down and pinched Little Xiaxia's face to look left and right. Her young face uncomfortably showed that she was experienced in doing this. "She's so good-looking. I made a killing this time."

At this moment, her phone rang. The girl pressed the answer button.

"Where did you go? Get back here. Why is it so difficult for you to get some medicine? My addiction is already acting up." The man on the other end of the line sounded very impatient.

"Honey, guess what I picked up on the street today??"

"I don't care what you picked up. If you don't get back here, I'll beat you to death."

With that, the man hung up.

As if she was already used to this way of interacting, the woman did not have any other reaction. She picked up Little Xiaxia, hailed a taxi, and returned to the rented house.

Seeing the girl return, the man, who was experiencing a relapse, grabbed her hair and was about to hit her. The girl hurriedly handed the little Xiaxia in her hand to the man. "Look at this. It's top-notch. Spider and the rest will definitely like it."

The man pulled Little Xiaxia's face impatiently and was stunned on the spot.

Although Little Xiaxia was young, her facial features were as exquisite as if they had been carefully carved by a god. One could already imagine how beautiful she would be in the future.

Seeing that the man was interested in Little Xiaxia, the girl moved the man's hand away from her neck. "Look at how beautiful this child is. Doesn't Spider and the rest like this? They'll give us as much money as we want from such a top-notch person. Won't we have our medicine then?"

“At least you’re useful.” Looking at Little Xiaxia’s beautiful face, the man sneered. “I’ll let you off today. Tomorrow, we’ll set off to find Spider and the rest. If we can’t sell her for a good price, see how I deal with you.”

“Okay.”

The man casually threw Little Xiaxia into the corner, locked the door, and brought the woman into the bedroom.

Little Xiaxia woke up in the early morning.

Chapter 1478 Meeting

After so many years, no matter when Little Xiaxia woke up from her sleep, her eyes were filled with bright lights and Xia Wanyuan’s warm embrace. She had never been as dark as now.

Little Xiaxia tried to move, but she realized that the back of her shoulder hurt especially.

Thinking of the girl she had seen before she fainted, Little Xiaxia guessed that she had met a bad person.

She tried to stand up, but her hands and feet were tied. Little Xiaxia struggled for a while, but not only could she not break free, but she also knocked down a chair at the side, disturbing the people in the bedroom.

The bedroom door opened with a swoosh. Li Fei stood at the door and looked at Little Xiaxia fiercely. “If you dare to move again, I’ll throw you down from here.”

Little Xiaxia’s eyes were filled with tears. “Let me go. My Uncle Yu will give you a lot of money.”

To someone like Li Fei, who took illegal drugs all year round, Little Xiaxia’s beauty had no age limit in his eyes. Looking at Little Xiaxia’s pitiful eyes, not only did Li Fei not feel pity, but he also had other thoughts.

He slowly walked up to Little Xiaxia and reached for her chin. Just as he was about to touch her, Liu Ting came out.

“What are you doing? Don’t tell me you don’t know that Spider and the rest like natural young ladies? Don’t you want to exchange her for money? Her face can be exchanged for our wealth for the rest of our lives.”

Liu Ting’s words dispelled Li Fei’s thoughts. He glared at Little Xiaxia, then turned and entered the bedroom.

At this moment, in a certain living room in Continent F, Chu Yi looked at Yu Qian and Xia Wanyuan, who were sitting not far away, unable to hide the surprise in his eyes.

“I really didn’t expect the legendary Nether Continent’s governor to be you. You hid it quite well.” With that, Chu Yi looked at Xia Wanyuan beside Yu Qian. “This person hid it very well too. Who would have thought that the famous Madam Jun was actually the governor’s wife? How disrespectful.”

Xia Wanyuan pretended not to hear Chu Yi’s deliberate mockery. She sat quietly and glanced at the woman beside Chu Yi.

This woman was very beautiful and looked very unfamiliar. Xia Wanyuan had never seen her before.

“Where’s Feng Wuyou?” In the silence, Xia Wanyuan suddenly spoke.

Chu Yi did not answer, but the woman beside him pursed her lips and smiled. “You’re talking about that Su Yao, right? She disobeyed Young Master and has long been thrown into the desert to die from the sun.”

Hearing this woman’s words, Xia Wanyuan frowned. She glanced at Chu Yi’s expression. Chu Yi was even more depressed than three years ago.

Chu Yi lowered his head, thinking about something. Xia Wanyuan did not want to stay here anymore. She looked at Yu Qian. Before she could speak, Yu Qian put the teacup in his hand aside. “Let’s go.”

After Yu Qian and Xia Wanyuan left, the assistant walked to Chu Yi’s side. “Young Master, should I reveal the news of Yu Qian and Xia Wanyuan’s appearance to Jun Shiling?”

The corners of Chu Yi’s lips curled up slightly. “Why should I tell him? I’m looking forward to the alliance meeting in a week. I wonder what kind of scene Jun Shiling will see his wife standing beside the esteemed guest he personally invited?”

“Okay.” The assistant nodded and retreated respectfully.

“Young Master.” Seeing that everyone had left, the woman beside Chu Yi held Chu Yi’s arm and wanted to lean on him. However, Chu Yi glanced at her and she was frightened by the coldness in Chu Yi’s eyes. The woman’s outstretched hand paused in midair.

“You want to be thrown into the desert too?” With that, Chu Yi stood up and walked to the backyard.

Thinking of Feng Wuyou’s tragic state back then, the woman’s heart turned cold.

Chapter 1479 Father and Daughter

Not long after Xia Wanyuan and Yu Qian left the Chu family, Yu Qian’s expression changed.

Seeing Yu Qian stop, Xia Wanyuan glanced at him. “What’s wrong?”

“The aircraft fell.”

As soon as Yu Qian finished speaking, Xia Wanyuan’s expression changed. “What about Xiaxia?”

Yu Qian did not speak. He turned around and strode away. “To China.”

Hearing that she was going to China, Xia Wanyuan’s heart skipped a beat and she followed Yu Qian.

At that moment, at the foot of Wuyi Mountain, Little Jiajin was packing her things and preparing to return to China with Jun Shiling.

“Daddy, did you find that sister?”

“I’ve already gotten someone to look for her.” Jun Shiling took the coat and put it on Little Jiajin.

“Daddy, that sister is especially beautiful. Really, I think her eyes are as beautiful as Mommy’s.” Thinking of Little Xiaxia’s lively eyes, Little Jiajin actually missed her a little. “Daddy, I want to play with her again.”

Little Jiajin leaned on Jun Shiling’s shoulder. “Daddy.”

“Say it.”

“I love you.” Little Jiajin turned his head and smiled at Jun Shiling with curved eyes.

A hint of warmth appeared in Jun Shiling’s eyes. He stroked Little Jiajin’s head. “Good boy.”

The two of them got into the car. The chauffeur stepped on the accelerator and headed towards the airport.

When they reached a traffic light, the chauffeur stopped the car and waited. A car behind suddenly hit them, stunning Xiao Jiajin, who was already asleep.

In the car behind, Li Fei shouted at Little Xiaxia fiercely, “If you move again, I’ll chop off your claws!”

Liu Ting pushed Little Xiaxia to the side and persuaded Li Fei, “Alright, drive quickly. If not, we might have to compensate. I don’t think the car in front is cheap.”

“Unlucky.” Li Fei spat, then turned around and started the car.

The green light had already lit up. The chauffeur stepped on the accelerator and continued walking, but Li Fei’s car overtook them first. The chauffeur shook his head and thought to himself, If not for Jun Shiling being in a hurry to go to the airport, I would have made this ignorant person go bankrupt today.

Little Jiajin was woken up. He lay in Jun Shiling’s arms and looked out. Caught off guard, he saw two bright eyes in the car beside him.

Just by looking at each other, Little Jiajin patted Jun Shiling’s arm excitedly. “Daddy, that sister is in the car beside us. She’s in danger. Save her quickly!!”

Jun Shiling glanced at the car that had already passed in front of him and frowned. “Stop fooling around.”

“Daddy, I’m serious. Get someone to chase after the car in front.” Little Jiajin was anxious. He jumped out of Jun Shiling’s arms and wanted to snatch the steering wheel from the driver.

Jun Shiling could not do anything to him. He pressed him into the seat and instructed the chauffeur, “Follow the car in front.”

“Yes.”

Li Fei quickly noticed the car following behind. He thought that they were here to ask him for compensation and sped up to shake off the car behind, but he could not shake it off.

Near the suburbs, Li Fei stopped the car, took a steel pipe, and got out. He knocked on the chauffeur’s window. “What do you want? If you follow me again, I’ll beat you up.”

The chauffeur did not speak. The car door behind opened and Jun Shiling carried Little Jiajin out of the car.

Meeting Jun Shiling's deep eyes and strong aura, Li Fei instantly understood that this was someone he could not afford to offend. Li Fei cowered. "How much money do you need to repair the car? I'll compensate you."

Jun Shiling ignored him and walked straight to Li Fei's car.

Chapter 1480 Rescuing His Daughter

Li Fei was worried that Jun Shiling would notice the person in the car and hurriedly walked over to stop him. "What do you want??"

Little Jiajin glared at Li Fei. "You bad person. You're a bad person."

Panic flashed across Li Fei's eyes. "What nonsense are you talking about? My wife is in my car. She's changing."

His actions made Jun Shiling suspicious. Jun Shiling carried Xiao Jiajin and took a step forward. His strong aura instantly pressed down on Li Fei. "Move."

Not wanting Little Xiaxia to be discovered in the car, Li Fei went all out. He stood in front of the car and took out a card. "There's five hundred thousand in the card. Take it away. It's enough to repair your car, right?"

Jun Shiling glanced at the car behind him. The car was dark, and he could only see the faint figure of a woman.

He turned his head slightly. "Lin Jing."

Lin Jing immediately got out of the car with a few bodyguards and forcefully pulled Li Fei aside.

Only then did Jun Shiling carry Little Jiajin forward and open the car door.

"What are you doing?" To everyone's surprise, Liu Ting was the only one in the car. She was sitting in the back of the car and looking at Jun Shiling in panic. "How can you treat my husband like this? We're all serious businessmen."

"You're a bad person." Little Jiajin looked around but did not find Little Xiaxia. There was anxiety in his eyes. He looked at Jun Shiling. "Daddy, I really saw that sister in here just now. She must have hidden her."

Jun Shiling replied and gestured for Lin Jing to bring the bodyguards over.

The woman was not in a hurry at all. She sat in the car and did not move. "You're breaking the law. You're trespassing on someone's car."

Just as Lin Jing and the rest were about to break into the car, a large group of police cars roared over not far away. Their sharp voices cut through the sky.

"What are you doing?!" This was a small town at the foot of Wuyi Mountain. The people in the town were not familiar with someone like Jun Shiling, so they did not recognize him at all.

Seeing the police walk over, not only were Li Fei and Liu Ting not afraid, but they also relaxed because they knew that this group of police were familiar with them.

“They forcefully searched our car. We didn’t do anything!!” Liu Ting ran to the police and cried.

“Move!” The police pushed the bodyguards away. “You’re rebelling. You don’t obey the law at all. Do you know where we are?? If you don’t leave, I’ll arrest all of you.”

How could a police officer here push specially trained bodyguards? Seeing that he could not do anything to these people, the captain looked at Jun Shiling. “You...”

Jun Shiling did not hear him finish speaking and placed Little Jiajin on the ground. Then, he reached out and touched the back of the front passenger seat in the car.

“You person, I’m talking to you. Why are you...” The captain cursed and stepped forward. Before he could finish speaking, Jun Shiling had already pulled down the cushion and Little Xiaxia rolled out.

Because she had been cooped up inside for too long and her stamina was weak, Little Xiaxia was already unconscious when she rolled out.

The captain closed his mouth. He looked at the little girl on the ground and then at Li Fei. “What’s going on?”

Little Jiajin quickly stepped forward. “Daddy, Sister is unconscious. Save her.”

Jun Shiling picked Little Xiaxia up and sat back in the car, then instructed Lin Jing, “Go to the nearest hospital.”

“Yes.”

The car was driving quickly towards the hospital. Little Xiaxia subconsciously moved in Jun Shiling’s arms, causing Jun Shiling to look down. What he saw stunned him.
