

Modern Day 821

Chapter 821: Belong to You Princess's Response

Tang Yin snorted in pain. There were biological tears in her eyes, but the corners of Tang Yin's lips curled up.

She did not know if Liu Xingchuan's words were true or false.

Now, she knew that the men she had seen when she woke up were indeed Liu Xingchuan's doing.

Sensing the obvious obstruction and bitterness, Fu Li had an unbelievable guess in his heart, but it was too incredible. He looked up at Tang Yin and realized that she was crying and smiling. He panicked immediately.

"Ah Yin, what's wrong with you? Let's not do it anymore, okay? Don't cry. I was wrong."

Fu Li was about to leave when Tang Yin hugged him even more tightly. "Fu Li, those men back then were found by Liu Xingchuan. Nothing happened between us. He lied to Shi Tian and lied to me."

Hearing Tang Yin's words, Fu Li heaved a sigh of relief. Fortunately, Tang Yin had not suffered those injuries.

However, Tang Yin's unfamiliar reaction just now still confused him. "Then, you and Liu Xingchuan?"

"The three of us have been living together since graduation, and we've been busy with our careers ever since. I'm a workaholic and I always run outside. We get together less often. Nothing actually happened between him and me."

Tang Yin had grown from a small dragon to a gold medal manager. During those years, she wished she could use one day as two. Where did she have the time to think about this? Later on, Liu Xingchuan might have known Shi Tian and felt guilty towards Tang Yin. Even though he was not as busy as before, he had never touched her.

After Tang Yin finished speaking, Fu Li did not move. Tang Yin looked at Fu Li in confusion and realized that his eyes were shockingly bright.

Fu Li hugged Tang Yin tightly, the corners of his eyes filled with joy. "Ah Yin, I really don't care how you were in the past, but do you know? When I think that you belong to me alone, this huge sense of satisfaction really makes me so happy."

Tang Yin also felt Fu Li's joy. She smiled and wrapped her arms around Fu Li's waist. "I'm very happy too."

Tang Yin still wanted to say something, but Fu Li covered her mouth. "Ah Yin, I can't help it. I'll be gentle. Let's continue, okay?"

"..." A helpless smile flashed across Tang Yin's eyes. Even if I said stop, Fu Li wouldn't stop, right?

Fu Li had never felt so happy before. Every cell in his body was cheering. In his arms was the woman he loved the most, the woman who belonged to him with all his heart. Fu Li conveyed all his excitement to Tang Yin.

From the moment he caught a glimpse of her when he was young to now that he had gotten what he wanted, in the long years, Fu Li had never even held the hands of other women. Now, no matter how bad the beauty was, he was like a brat, charging around.

At first, Tang Yin was as happy as Fu Li, but she was still a virgin. Fu Li was too happy. Slowly, Tang Yin could not keep up. "Fu Li."

"Mm, Ah Yin, I'm really so happy. Really. Touch my heart. It's beating so quickly. It's been so many years, but I've never thought of such a scene in my dream. Really, I don't dare to think about it. I'm so happy." Fu Li mumbled into Tang Yin's ear, and Tang Yin's heart softened.

Forget it, let him be, Tang Yin thought. Then, she kissed Fu Li back, causing him to be even more excited.

The sun gradually circled above and set in the west. The bedroom finally calmed down.

Fu Li hugged Tang Yin. Although the two of them were extremely tired, they were still awake.

"Ah Yin, take a rest. We'll go and see my parents tomorrow. They'll definitely like you very much." Fu Li felt that he was really the happiest man in the world at that moment.

"Okay." Since she had chosen to be with Fu Li, Tang Yin would not escape anymore. No matter what Fu Li's parents' impression of her was, she would work hard to make them accept her.

"Sleep for a while. It's been hard on you, Ah Yin." Fu Li had completely lost the elegance and calmness of an adult man. His entire face was filled with a smile.

Tang Yin looked at Fu Li helplessly. "Can't you help me take a shower before sleeping? And change the bedsheets?"

"Huh?!! Oh! I forgot. I'm sorry, I'll get it immediately." Fu Li was really so happy that he could not see the end of it. Only when he heard Tang Yin's words did he react and get out of bed happily to go to the bathroom to water.

The Internet was already in chaos. The past of Tang Yin, Liu Xingchuan, and Fu Li were all overturned by the netizens.

There was even a netizen who exposed anonymously, "Actually, Tang Yin and Liu Xingchuan have been in a relationship since more than a decade ago. It was only until five years ago that Liu Xingchuan and Shi Tian got together. Tang Yin sadly withdrew from the entertainment industry. Until recently, I don't know why she hugged Fu Li, this thigh, again."

[This gold medal manager is quite amazing. How is this nurturing a Best Actor? Is she nurturing her husband?]

[My heart aches for Fu Li. Has she hooked up with Fu Li now, because she didn't succeed in seducing Liu Xingchuan? Can Tang Yin write a book? Can you teach me how to seduce the Best Actor in my thirties?]

[Tang Yin's scheme is also amazing. If she doesn't succeed, she'll change to another. So Fu Li is a spare tire? Such a person can actually be Xia Wanyuan's manager. What kind of taste does Xia Wanyuan have?]

With an intentional person leading the way, very quickly, the comments about Tang Yin became more and more unpleasant. Fu Li's fans stepped down one after another, expressing that they felt that Tang Yin was not worthy of Fu Li at all.

At this moment, the comment that attacked Xia Wanyuan for having bad taste and actually choosing Tang Yin as her manager was personally flipped by Xia Wanyuan and replied.

"Tang Yin is an outstanding woman and an outstanding manager. She's worth all of Fu Li's love."

Xia Wanyuan's words immediately caused a huge commotion.

Chapter 822: Little Cat Princess

The comments that were filled with criticism became a little hesitant because Xia Wanyuan had joined.

After all, Xia Wanyuan's current popularity as a passer-by was really not bad. In addition, with the reputation of being a professor at the Qing University, everyone subconsciously thought that what Xia Wanyuan said was true.

However, there were also some girlfriend fans of Fu Li who felt that Xia Wanyuan had been deceived by Tang Yin.

[Tang Yin is a manager with only two artistes, but in the end, both of them were taken in by her. This woman is so scheming. Could Xia Wanyuan have been deceived?]

[I hope that Fu Li can find an innocent outsider to marry and not find such a woman. What's so good about Tang Yin? Look at her face, she looks like she's seducing men.]

[The person in front, you're too much. Is it wrong to be beautiful? Isn't that An Rao, who's known as the Medusa in the entertainment industry, a fool in private? There's no need to judge a book by its cover.]

The fans' debate was still continuing. Liu Xingchuan, who was in the hotel, had also seen the comments online.

The image in Liu Xingchuan's hand paused on Fu Li's Weibo post. Liu Xingchuan drank a mouthful of wine and his eyes turned red.

He knew Fu Li and Tang Yin's personalities.

If not for the fact that Tang Yin had already entrusted Fu Li with her whole heart, Fu Li would not dare to announce it so openly.

In a daze, Liu Xingchuan seemed to see the bright smile of Tang Yin under the gardenia flower tree back then.

He really loved her, but he was also really selfish.

Liu Xingchuan laughed at himself. Fu Li was right. I'm a disgusting person.

Ding dong. The doorbell suddenly rang. Liu Xingchuan lay on the ground and did not move, but the doorbell kept ringing. Liu Xingchuan had no choice but to open the door with the wine bottle.

"What are you doing here?" Liu Xingchuan glanced at her nonchalantly and drank his wine.

"I came to see how miserable you were." Shi Tian looked at the extremely dispirited Liu Xingchuan resentfully. "After so many years, you finally got your wish. You finally divorced me. Then? Your Tang Yin ran away with someone! Hahahaha."

Shi Tian laughed heartily, but as she laughed, her eyes were filled with tears. "After so many years, even a dog wouldn't bite back. Do you hate me so much?"

During this period of time, the Shi family had offended someone. Their industries had completely collapsed, and even their businesses in the underworld had been implicated. The Shi family had many underground industries that could not be seen in the light, and they had been almost completely wiped out during this period of time.

The Shi family was also arrested and locked up. The entire family was in chaos. At this moment, Liu Xingchuan helped the second branch and completely snatched away Shi Tian's father's power. He even forced Shi Tian to sign the divorce agreement with him.

This most docile dog in more than a decade had now completely counterattacked, making her heart ache.

"Ha." Liu Xingchuan drank a mouthful of wine and did not even look at Shi Tian. "Serves you right. Every day and night I was with you made me feel like I was better off dead."

"Hahahahahaha, what a good 'better off dead'. That's right, the person you love is Tang Yin, that whore who's ridden by a thousand people!! That whore is now under your best brother!"

Pa! Before Shi Tian could finish speaking, Liu Xingchuan slapped her face. "You have no right to say anything about her."

"How dare you hit me!" Shi Tian covered her face in disbelief. Liu Xingchuan, this man who never hit anyone, actually attacked just like that.

"We're already divorced. Whether you live or die in the future has nothing to do with me." Liu Xingchuan looked at the hysterical Shi Tian with no sadness or joy in his eyes.

"Really? Then do you remember how many photos Tang Yin had back then?" Shi Tian's words successfully stopped Liu Xingchuan from leaving.

"I want to see you in the Shi family's villa at this time tomorrow. If I don't see you, your beloved woman's bed photo will be popular on the Internet tomorrow night." Shi Tian scoffed and turned to leave.

Behind her, Liu Xingchuan watched Shi Tian disappear from his sight before turning around and returning to the house.

The lights in the hotel were switched on for the entire night, and the figure on the ground sat there until dawn.

In the manor, Xia Wanyuan glanced at Jun Shiling, who was not far away. She was amused and called out to him, "CEO Jun?"

Jun Shiling looked up at Xia Wanyuan but did not reply.

“Jun Shiling?”

Jun Shiling snorted to show that he had heard it.

“Hubby?”

“What?” Jun Shiling looked at Xia Wanyuan helplessly. “Who are you calling? Who’s your husband? Does anyone know?”

Xia Wanyuan walked over and wrapped her arms around Jun Shiling’s neck before sitting on his lap.

“Who do you want me to call?”

Jun Shiling wrapped his arms around her waist and snorted. “Other than me, no one else.”

“Alright, stop fooling around. I promise that our public announcement won’t be too long later. When the time comes, can everyone see how handsome and charming my husband is?”

From the moment Jun Shiling saw Fu Li’s Weibo in the afternoon, Xia Wanyuan realized that his emotions were not right. After thinking about it, she guessed that it was because Fu Li’s public announcement had agitated Jun Shiling.

As expected, Jun Shiling’s expression eased a little when he heard Xia Wanyuan’s words, but there was still a hint of grievance. “They’re all coveting you.”

“Do you think that no one will covet me after I publicize you?” Xia Wanyuan found Jun Shiling’s expression funny.

“Alright, go to sleep. Don’t be aggrieved.” Xia Wanyuan stood up and pulled Jun Shiling upstairs.

However, Jun Shiling sat still. “Then change into your pajamas. That kitten’s not bad.”

“...” Xia Wanyuan felt that she might have triggered Jun Shiling’s strange hobby.

“Sigh, forget it. Anyway, you don’t pamper me anymore. It’s fine if you don’t publicize it, but now, you can’t even satisfy this little request of mine,” Jun Shiling said and turned his head to the side.

“...You’re so childish, CEO Jun.” Xia Wanyuan was speechless. How did Jun Shiling become more and more childish?

“Alright, you’re starting to despise me now.”

“Put it on, put it on, get up.” Xia Wanyuan had no choice but to kick Jun Shiling’s leg, not knowing whether to laugh or cry. Jun Shiling smiled and grabbed her ankle, then picked her up.

“I knew it. Madam, you’re the best.” Jun Shiling’s eyes were filled with a smile as he carried Xia Wanyuan upstairs to the bedroom.

"I just want to know why you're getting more and more childish, Jun Shiling." Xia Wanyuan leaned into Jun Shiling's arms and recalled that when they had just met, the coldness on Jun Shiling could force people back.

At that time, Jun Shiling was like a walking iceberg. Who would have thought that he would learn to play dumb and act pitiful now?

Jun Shiling placed her on the bed, picked up the pajamas with two furry cat ears on the hat, and put them on for Xia Wanyuan. He felt that his heart had melted from Xia Wanyuan's cuteness.

"You've been in the modern world for so long, have you never heard anyone talk about a theory?" Jun Shiling put on the hat for Xia Wanyuan, and its two furry ears stood up, looking especially cute.

Chapter 823: Puerile Phoenix Fragrant Mountain

"What theory?" The pajamas were soft and comfortable to wear. Xia Wanyuan let Jun Shiling do whatever he wanted.

"A man will become a child in front of the person he loves." Jun Shiling smiled and fiddled with the little ear on Xia Wanyuan's head.

"..." Xia Wanyuan really felt that there were so many strange modern theories. "It's getting late. I have to go to the company tomorrow. Quick, sleep." Xia Wanyuan was really afraid that Jun Shiling would be as excited as last night as he was playing with his ears.

However, Jun Shiling really did not plan to torture Xia Wanyuan tonight. He only quietly hugged her. "What story do you want to hear today?"

"I finished 'An Tusheng Fairy Tale', right? Let's talk about 'Green Fairy' today."

There were fewer types of ancient books. What Xia Wanyuan felt the most in the modern world was that there were too many modern books.

In her previous life, there were no fairy tales, and Xia Wanyuan had never heard of them. However, she was very interested in those fantasy worlds, so Jun Shiling told her a little story every night.

"Okay." Jun Shiling patted Xia Wanyuan's back. "I'll tell the story of the crystal ball today."

Before Xia Wanyuan appeared, Jun Shiling had never read such a book. However, in the study now, Jun Shiling had specially gotten someone to open a small space in the bookshelves to store all sorts of fairy tales, so that he could tell them to Xia Wanyuan after reading them.

Jun Shiling's deep and magnetic voice gradually sounded in the bedroom. In Jun Shiling's account, those dream-like elves surrounded Xia Wanyuan one by one, giving her the best dream.

Whether it was spring, summer, autumn, or winter, Jun Shiling's exercise in the morning had never stopped.

However, it was late autumn and the morning was heavy. Jun Shiling originally did not want Xia Wanyuan to go with him, but Xia Wanyuan insisted, so Jun Shiling could only slowly run in the courtyard with her.

Over the past few days, the greenery in the manor had been changed one after another. The once full garden lotus was now layered with layers of chrysanthemums, with all kinds of colors and shapes.

After the two of them finished their morning run, Jun Shiling held Xia Wanyuan's hand and introduced her to all sorts of chrysanthemums.

Boshu, Da Liju, Taju, Cliff Chrysanthemum, Crate Chrysanthemum, Green Peony, Green Cloud, Ink Lotus, Phoenix Feather, Handsome Flag, West Lake Willow Moon, and other flowers became very easy to distinguish under Jun Shiling's explanation.

After Jun Shiling finished explaining the characteristics of the West Lake Willow Moon, he turned his head and saw Xia Wanyuan looking at him with admiration.

No man could resist the admiration of his beloved woman.

The corners of Jun Shiling's lips curled up. "Why are you looking at me like that?"

"Why do you know everything?" Xia Wanyuan felt that the modern knowledge system was much larger than her previous life.

However, every time she asked Jun Shiling any questions, he would always be confident.

Jun Shiling could even explain the subtle differences between nearly a hundred chrysanthemums in detail.

Xia Wanyuan's admiring tone and gaze were too good for Jun Shiling. He felt that the time he spent reading every day for 25 years was very worth it.

"Madam, you're knowledgeable. If I don't read more, I'm afraid Madam will despise me." Jun Shiling smiled and folded a blooming chrysanthemum beside him, handing it to Xia Wanyuan. "This flower suits you very well."

"What do you mean?" Xia Wanyuan took the light purple flower. There were a few dewdrops on the petals that were very beautiful.

"This flower is called the Puerile Phoenix Fragrant Mountain. The tip of its head is delicate and half-layered, and when the wind and frost are like swords, the bitter gall is like the ashes. The robe and veil are draped in splendor."

Hearing Jun Shiling recite the poem, Xia Wanyuan looked a little embarrassed. "Let's go back. You only know how to sweet-talk."

"Mm," Jun Shiling replied, then led Xia Wanyuan back to the main building.

In the apartment, Tang Yin woke up early in the morning. She endured the discomfort in her body and kept rummaging in the wardrobe.

"Ah Yin, my parents will definitely like you. You don't have to be so nervous." Seeing Tang Yin's flustered look, Fu Li did not know whether to laugh or cry.

“For me, you’ve gone against your parents’ wishes for so many years. I’m worried...” Fu Li had such a lively and outgoing personality in university. It was obvious that he had grown up in a loving family.

In the end, because of her, he had suffered for so many years. When Tang Yin thought about it from another angle, she felt that his mother would not like her.

“Believe me. I like you, and they will like you too, okay?” Fu Li walked forward and hugged Tang Yin.

Tang Yin still wanted to try the red windbreaker. She struggled in Fu Li’s arms for a while and paused, her face flushed red. “Why are you...”

“Ah Yin, stop looking. It’s more important for you to settle my matter first.” Fu Li kissed Tang Yin’s hair.

He had been abstinent for more than thirty years. Now that he had finally eaten meat, Fu Li did not want to touch anything plain anymore.

Okay?” Fu Li turned Tang Yin around and leaned down before she could speak.

In the end, because Tang Yin was soft-hearted, she still let Fu Li do it. However, the result was that when they returned to the Fu family, it was already past the agreed time.

“Look, we’re late.” Tang Yin glared at Fu Li.

“It’s nothing. My parents will understand.” Fu Li smiled and pulled Tang Yin out of the car.

At the entrance of the villa, Fu Li’s parents were waiting.

Tang Yin walked over and was a little nervous. “Uncle, Auntie.”

“Hey, okay.” Fu Li’s mother was a university teacher and looked knowledgeable. She looked at Tang Yin and nodded. “Don’t be nervous. I know that my son likes you for so many years. Now that the two of you are finally together, I can only be happy. Welcome to the Fu family.”

Over the years, if one were to say that Fu Li was bitter, Mrs. Fu, who had given birth to him after ten months of pregnancy, was even more bitter. She did not know how sad she was to see her son in such pain.

Now that she saw how happy Fu Li was, Mrs. Fu could not help but want to cry. Her silly son had finally succeeded in his wait.

Tang Yin did not expect that the Fu family’s parents were so easy to get along with. She had thought that there would be some difficulties.

Fu Li turned around and smiled at Tang Yin. His parents loved him so much, so they would naturally love his wife too.

“Alright, alright. The food is ready. I cooked by myself today. Let’s go in,” Mrs. Fu said and pulled Tang Yin’s arm.

Who would have thought that she would accidentally roll up Tang Yin’s sleeve? Instantly, a red mark appeared in front of Mrs. Fu.

“Auntie, let’s go in.” Tang Yin hurriedly put down her sleeves and looked at Mrs. Fu with a flushed face.

Mrs. Fu was stunned for a moment, then reacted. She glanced at Fu Li, who was smiling happily, and a smile appeared in her eyes. She pulled Tang Yin's hand. "Why are you shy? Let's discuss when to hold the wedding after dinner so that we can carry a grandson earlier."

Chapter 824: The Princess Visits the Company

Hearing Mrs. Fu's words, Tang Yin looked at Fu Li in embarrassment.

As if knowing what Tang Yin was going to say, Fu Li leaned towards Tang Yin's ear. "Didn't you hear what my mother said? The elderly wants to have a grandson. Isn't it normal for the two of us to work hard?"

Tang Yin could not help but glare at Fu Li. However, in Fu Li's eyes, Tang Yin's glance seemed to be seducing him. Taking advantage of Mrs. Fu's diverted attention, Fu Li quickly kissed Tang Yin on the cheek.

However, after the kiss, Mrs. Fu looked at the two of them in surprise.

Fu Li was very calm. What was the big deal about him kissing his wife? However, Tang Yin was very embarrassed. The two of them added up to more than 60, but in the end, they were still so indecent in front of the elders.

Mrs. Fu smiled and did not say anything. She just felt a little emotional. How long had it been since I had seen my son so happy? He had suffered so much abroad all these years.

Mrs. Fu was actually a little angry at Tang Yin in her heart, but seeing Fu Li so happy beside Tang Yin, her anger subsided no matter how angry she was.

It had been a long time since the Fu family had been so lively. Even the smiles on the servants' faces were more enthusiastic than usual.

After dinner, the few of them discussed the date of their marriage.

Ever since Fu Li had told Mrs. Fu that he was bringing Tang Yin home today, Mrs. Fu had gone to a master overnight to choose a few auspicious days.

Fu Li chose the nearest one and it was set to be half a month later.

"Isn't it too rushed?" Tang Yin did not expect it to be so fast.

"No, don't worry, child. Leave it to us." Mrs. Fu had been looking forward to Fu Li's marriage for so many years. Now that it had finally arrived, she was as impatient as Fu Li.

"Okay." Since Mrs. Fu and Fu Li had decided, Tang Yin did not speak further.

She sat by the side and watched Mrs. Fu and Mr. Fu discuss the wedding matters. Suddenly, her eyes burned.

Her first half of her life was lonely and homeless.

Now that she had Fu Li and a pair of reasonable future in-laws, she could tell that they loved her from the bottom of their hearts because they loved Fu Li.

Tang Yin felt that she was still quite lucky.

“What is the bride thinking?” Fu Li could not interrupt his parents’ discussion, so he sat over and accompanied Tang Yin.

“I’m thinking.” Tang Yin held Fu Li’s hand. “Thank you.”

Thank you for liking me. Thank you for waiting for me for more than ten years. Thank you for pulling me out of the darkness without considering the consequences.

“If you really want to thank me, then give me a child early.” Fu Li returned Tang Yin’s hand.

“Screw you.” Seeing that Fu Li was starting to be indecent again, Tang Yin did not want to talk to him anymore.

After breakfast, it began to rain outside again. Xia Wanyuan was wearing a thicker windbreaker.

“Do you need me to accompany you for lunch?” After sending Xia Wanyuan to the company’s entrance, Jun Shiling tidied her collar.

“Yes.” Xia Wanyuan nodded bluntly.

Xia Wanyuan did not want to be like her mother. She had clearly hoped that her father would come and visit her, but in the end, because of the so-called “virtuous and moral” title, she stayed in the palace alone.

She really wanted Jun Shiling to accompany her, and Jun Shiling was willing to pamper her. She felt that there was nothing to be embarrassed about.

Jun Shiling smiled. “Alright, I’ll pick you up at noon. If there’s anything you can’t settle, tell me.”

“Okay.” Xia Wanyuan nodded and pushed open the door.

Shen Qian had been in Lin Xi City recently, so someone else was in charge of receiving Xia Wanyuan today.

Seeing Xia Wanyuan in a cream-colored windbreaker, the originally noisy hall fell silent.

Everyone had always heard that the chairman of the Xiafeng Group was actually that extremely beautiful female celebrity in the entertainment industry, but Xia Wanyuan had only come to the Xiafeng Group a few times. This was the first time many people had seen Xia Wanyuan.

Xia Wanyuan walked in step by step. Her cold temperament made people look at her from afar but not dare to play with her.

It was only when Xia Wanyuan entered the elevator that everyone snapped out of their daze.

“Oh my god, is this Xia Wanyuan? She’s really good-looking.”

“How beautiful. I heard that she’s the chairman. What is she doing here today?”

“Who knows? CEO Shen isn’t around. She’s just a woman. Could she be here to inspect our work? What does a woman like her know?”

Chapter 825: How Imposing of You

Everyone’s discussion was cut off outside the elevator. Xia Wanyuan looked at the time. She had looked at the company’s schedule last night. It was time for the routine meeting.

“CEO Xia, are you here for an inspection today? Unfortunately, CEO Shen isn’t around. The leaders have all sorts of meetings today, so they can’t specially accompany you.” The thin and tall Secretary Li looked at Xia Wanyuan in amazement.

“You were just recruited? I’ve never seen you before.” Xia Wanyuan turned to look at Secretary Li. There was a hint of power in her eyes. Secretary Li immediately felt the space in the elevator become oppressive, avoiding Xia Wanyuan’s scrutiny.

“Yes, CEO Xia. I just arrived last week. My surname is Li. This is my name card. CEO Xia, you can look for me if you need anything.”

Xia Wanyuan glanced at his name card and didn’t reach out to take it.

At that moment, the elevator opened and Xia Wanyuan walked out.

Secretary Li retracted his name card, pursed his lips, and followed Xia Wanyuan.

The routine meeting this week was especially intense.

“CEO Xia, CEO Shen called me yesterday. You changed your contract with Glory World Corporation without permission. The new contract doesn’t suit our company’s interests at all.”

“What are you saying? My name isn’t the final signature on the contract. CEO Shen signed it clearly. Isn’t it too far-fetched for you to push the responsibility to me now?” Shen Qian was not around, and the company’s vice president, Xia Yuan, was sitting at the front of the meeting table.

Everyone knew that the change in the contract was due to Xia Yuan’s secret exchange with the secretary. However, the words signed on the paper were obvious. Furthermore, Xia Yuan was the second largest shareholder of the company. They did not dare to say anything even if they wanted to.

Xia Yuan sat at the table and looked at Shen Qian’s partners smugly.

Speaking of which, it was a coincidence. Back then, when the Xiafeng Group was on the verge of bankruptcy, he was gambling abroad and was engrossed in it. He did not care about any matters in the country, so he did not know about the bankruptcy of the Xiafeng Group.

By the time he returned to China after losing the money, the Xiafeng Group had already been reorganized. His shares had brought him a lot of benefits, and with his status as the second largest shareholder, he still had a lot of power in this company.

Of course, it wouldn’t work when Shen Qian was around. That person’s methods were too unyielding. During this period of time when Shen Qian was not around, Xia Yuan came to the company to be his boss. The others didn’t dare to go against him because of his face.

“Alright, the contract has already been signed. The conditions given by Glory World Corporation are not bad either. Why are you frowning? Quick, tidy up the company. Glory World Corporation is sending people over the day after tomorrow.” Xia Yuan grinned. He was happy when he thought of the large sum of benefits Xuan Li had promised him.

However, the others did not move when they heard him. Anyone who knew a little about business knew that this contract was equivalent to a “slave contract”. The benefits were all given to Glory World Corporation.

“Go! Why? Is my words useless?” Xia Yuan suddenly slammed the table, startling everyone.

“How imposing.” The door of the meeting room was suddenly pushed open and cold air poured in. Xia Wanyuan stood at the door in her high heels and glanced coldly at the people at the meeting table.

“Hey, isn’t this my little niece?” Seeing that it was Xia Wanyuan, Xia Yuan sat on the chair and did not move.

“Where are Bo Ning, Mao Lin, Zhang Hu?” Xia Wanyuan ignored Xia Yuan and looked at the secretary at the side. These three people were Shen Qian’s classmates and his capable partners. Why didn’t I see these few people in the company?

“CEO Xia, they’ve all been sent by Director Xia for research.” The secretary ignored Xia Yuan’s hint and told Xia Wanyuan their whereabouts.

“Ask them to come back immediately. Now.” Xia Wanyuan’s words were powerful and imposing. No one dared to say anything.

“Yes.” The secretary received the order and hurriedly informed the three people.

“Little niece, come and sit.” Xia Wanyuan was still the company’s chairman. Although Xia Yuan was indignant, he still smiled.

Xia Wanyuan glanced at the fat Xia Yuan, then got someone to bring a chair over.

No one knew why Xia Wanyuan was here. They only knew to look at her in a daze.

Xia Wanyuan knocked on the table with her index finger, pulling everyone out of their daze. “Starting from you, report your work for last week.” Xia Wanyuan pointed at the finance head opposite her.

“Ah, oh, oh, okay, okay.” The head minister, who had been named, felt a little panicked for no reason. He didn’t care if Xia Wanyuan could understand and reported according to the prepared information.

Seeing that Xia Wanyuan had ignored him like this, Xia Yuan was furious. He wanted to flick his sleeves and leave, but he was afraid that Xia Wanyuan would do something behind his back. He could only forcefully suppress his anger and sit on the chair without moving.

He did not believe that a little girl like Xia Wanyuan could understand financial reports. She was just putting on an act.

Chapter 826: CEO Xia Conquers the Company

The finance head finally finished reporting according to the prepared materials and sighed heavily.

Under Xia Wanyuan's gaze, his back was almost drenched in sweat on such a cold day.

He had also been a leader in many large companies, but he had never felt so pressured like today.

The finance head secretly looked up and met Xia Wanyuan's cold eyes. He was so frightened that his heart stopped for a moment.

"There's something wrong with your table." Xia Wanyuan looked at him expressionlessly. "Check the cash flow table again."

"Huh? Oh, okay." The finance minister wanted to say how was that possible? This account had been meticulously calculated. However, facing Xia Wanyuan's gaze, he did not dare to retort.

He could only lower his head to check again. Then, he realized that there really seemed to be a problem. He looked up in surprise. How could Xia Wanyuan tell that there was a problem in such a short time?!! This was too amazing.

However, Xia Wanyuan had already looked at the investment head beside him. "Your turn."

Shen Qian was a very strict person and his usual style was very strong. Everyone already felt very painful having Shen Qian hosting the meeting.

However, at that moment, they realized how gentle Shen Qian's meeting was compared to Xia Wanyuan.

At least they did not have to endure the suffocating pressure.

Everyone reported their work fearfully. Xia Wanyuan did not speak. She quietly watched people with her ice-cold gaze, making one's heart turn cold.

Two hours passed, and finally, the last person finished reporting his work. Xia Wanyuan stopped writing on the paper.

"Okay, I just heard everyone's report. I have a few questions to ask."

Xia Wanyuan called out the heads of the investment department, the risk control Department, the marketing department, and the HR department one after another. Every question pointed to their core work.

The departments did not do a good job. The in-charge's casual attempt to muddle through was noticed by Xia Wanyuan.

Everyone underwent Xia Wanyuan's questioning and felt like they were about to cry.

"Go back and reflect on these questions properly. Send the entire report to me." After Xia Wanyuan finished speaking, she looked at the others who were gloating. "The HR department will note down the names I point out next and fire them directly."

Xia Wanyuan said a few names. Other than the parties involved and Xia Yuan, who were very angry, the others were delighted.

The few people that Xia Wanyuan had pointed out were all in their positions without powers. Two of them were even Xia Yuan's trusted aides who usually relied on their status to lord over the company.

"Xia Wanyuan, what are you doing?" Xia Yuan could not sit still. Xia Wanyuan was clearly here to slap his face.

"And you, you're just a shareholder. I didn't give you any other position. You don't have to attend such meeting next time." Xia Wanyuan finally placed her gaze on Xia Yuan, but the words she said almost angered him to death.

"What right do you have?! I'm from this company!" Xia Yuan stood up angrily, but he realized that he could not suppress Xia Wanyuan's aura at all.

"Because I'm the chairman. Leave this place now, or I won't promise I won't use other means." Xia Wanyuan's cold gaze made one's heart tremble. Thinking of Xuan Li's reminder, Xia Yuan was really a little afraid. He was afraid that Xia Wanyuan would really hit him.

"Do you think I'm willing to come to this lousy company?" Sensing the mocking gazes of the others on him, Xia Yuan lost face and left with a flick of his sleeves.

Xia Wanyuan was now a major shareholder, so he did not fight her head-on. After all, Xuan Li had reminded him not to clash with Xia Wanyuan for the time being.

The people who had been called out by Xia Wanyuan to fire had also left with Xia Yuan, including the secretary who had just brought Xia Wanyuan upstairs.

"What is the contract you just mentioned?" Xia Wanyuan got someone to close the meeting room door, then sat on a chair and looked at the remaining people in the meeting room.

Sensing Xia Wanyuan's gaze, everyone hurriedly sat up straight and reported to her respectfully.

In a short period of time, she had grasped the situation of the various departments of the company and wiped out all the vermin. She had even forced back Xia Yuan, who had always been domineering and no one dared to speak up.

At that moment, everyone's attitude towards Xia Wanyuan was completely different from when she first appeared. This ability and means were probably not inferior to Shen Qian's at all. How could anyone dare to be rash?

After hearing her subordinates report about the change in contract with Glory World Corporation, Xia Wanyuan thought for a while. "Arrange it according to this contract for the time being."

The contract given by the Xuan Li was completely a scam. However, it was written in black and white and had a legal effect. The termination fee was ridiculously high.

Since normal methods couldn't resolve it, Xia Wanyuan thought that it was better to follow Xuan Li's train of thought and beat him at his own game. She wanted to think of a way to let the other party terminate the contract first.

In the following time, Xia Wanyuan relied on the reports from the various departments to plan the entire company's business.

After the meeting ended, Xia Wanyuan prepared to leave. Everyone followed Xia Wanyuan out of the meeting room.

When Xia Wanyuan arrived, only Secretary Li welcomed her.

When she left, she was surrounded by the higher-ups of the company.

“Alright, go back to work.” Xia Wanyuan waved her hand.

“Yes, CEO Xia. Goodbye.” Everyone looked at Xia Wanyuan with reverence and worship and bowed respectfully to her.

Chapter 827: CEO Jun’s Parent-Teacher Meeting

The employees in the hall were stunned.

When Xia Wanyuan arrived, they had thought that she was just here to go through the motions and would leave quickly. Who would have thought that Xia Wanyuan had actually stayed for the entire morning?

Furthermore, she was sent away by so many executives. They had never seen these people act so respectfully. Even when Shen Qian was around, everyone wouldn’t have such an expression.

“To be honest, I don’t dare to write a complete report anymore. I’m afraid of being beaten back by CEO Xia.”

“Me too. CEO Xia is really amazing. Isn’t she a celebrity in the entertainment industry? Why does she know so much about business?”

The executives chatted as they walked through the hall. Everyone listened to Xia Wanyuan in confusion. It was really difficult to associate that beautiful young lady with the swift and decisive CEO Xia that the executives had mentioned.

In the car, Jun Shiling had been staring at Xia Wanyuan since she got into the car. He continued to look at her even after she had drunk half a glass of water.

“What are you looking at?” Xia Wanyuan poked Jun Shiling gently, but Jun Shiling held her back.

“CEO Xia, you’re so beautiful.” Jun Shiling stroked Xia Wanyuan’s hand, his eyes deep.

Xia Wanyuan had many different faces. Xia Wanyuan, who had just walked out of the company in a windbreaker surrounded by everyone, had a fierce aura around her. It was as if everyone around her was her foil, and they had to bow down to her wherever she went.

“Oh.” Hearing Jun Shiling’s praise, the corners of Xia Wanyuan’s lips curled up. She had to admit that she liked to hear affirmation from her lover.

“I’m really curious and want to see what you were like when you were in power in my previous life.” Jun Shiling stared intently at Xia Wanyuan.

Just thinking of Xia Wanyuan sitting in the hall and receiving the support of all the officials and the worship of all the people made his heart surge. How magnificent must that Xia Wanyuan be?

As if knowing what Jun Shiling was thinking, Xia Wanyuan smiled. "It's similar to what you imagine. My younger brother is still young. I listen to the government and have to deal with all sorts of matters every day. However, although I have great power, I'm very tired. Other than attending court, I basically lie down and deal with government affairs."

In her previous life, her body had already been exhausted from rushing around all year round. After that, she had barely supported the huge country. In fact, she was both physically and mentally tired. The bad habit of her spine had made her develop the habit of lying wherever she went.

This was also the reason why she especially liked to lie on the sofa in the modern world.

Heartache overflowed from Jun Shiling's eyes. He placed Xia Wanyuan's head on his shoulder. "Then live as happily as you can in this life. You have me."

"Mm." Xia Wanyuan nodded. "I'm quite happy now."

The current her had youth, friends, and relatives. Even though she was very busy, it was much better than the days of dancing on the edge of the knife in her previous life.

Furthermore, she had Jun Shiling, who doted on her to the skies and always supported her. She was very satisfied with her current life.

Jun Shiling hugged her tighter. "I'll give you whatever you want in this life."

A thousand years was already insurmountable, so he would make up for what she had lost previously.

"Even if I want the stars?" Xia Wanyuan was a little amused, but she was also very touched.

"Mm, if you like it, I'll invest more money for people to research and take you to space to look at the stars," Jun Shiling replied seriously. He was even thinking about transferring money to the research institute.

"Don't. I don't have that idea yet." Xia Wanyuan hurriedly stopped Jun Shiling. She had not even gone to everywhere on Earth and was not that interested in space.

Jun Shiling acknowledged. As for whether he listened to Xia Wanyuan, Xia Wanyuan did not know.

After lunch with Xia Wanyuan, Jun Shiling sent her to the school gate and went to Xiao Bao's kindergarten himself.

Perhaps because of their relationship, Jun Shiling had rarely participated in Xiao Bao's activities in the past. Now that they lived together every day, it was different.

The school had a parent-teacher meeting and Xia Wanyuan couldn't go, so Jun Shiling accepted this mission.

Chapter 828: Daddy, Save Me

The kindergarten that Xiao Bao was in was the best noble kindergarten in Beijing. The children here were basically from either rich or noble families.

Although it was called a parent-teacher meeting, most parents actually treated this meeting as a channel to broaden their connections.

Many parents had already arrived in the meeting room. Everyone greeted and chatted.

“Hey, I heard that the only son of the Jun Corporation is in our kindergarten.”

“I heard so too, but I’ve never seen him before. I wonder if I can see the legendary CEO Jun today.”

“I don’t think he’ll come. After all, it’s just a parent-teacher meeting.”

At that moment, there was a small figure squatting at the entrance of the kindergarten.

The guard recognized Xiao Bao. After all, such an exquisite little child was too memorable. “Little friend, it’s cold here. Why aren’t you going in?”

Xiao Bao looked outside, his big eyes a little disappointed. “Daddy agreed to come and attend the parent-teacher meeting with me.”

Xiao Bao’s cheeks puffed up slightly. Other children had their parents accompanying them, but he did not.

It was almost time for the meeting, but no one came to the door. Xiao Bao waited until he felt so wronged that he wanted to cry.

“Hey, little friend, look, is that your parent?” The guard pointed at a figure walking towards the door. Other than their temperament, their facial features seemed to be printed from the same mold.

Xiao Bao wiped the tears from the corners of his eyes and looked up. His eyes lit up. “Daddy!!!” Xiao Bao did not care that it was still raining outside and ran out.

Jun Shiling glanced at Xiao Bao, who was hugging his thigh, and moved the umbrella towards him. “You’re a man, yet you cry all day. What did I teach you?”

Xiao Bao clung onto Jun Shiling’s leg and did not let go, his eyes filled with happy stars. “Daddy, you’re really here.”

I’m also someone who has parents who will attend the parent-teacher meeting!! I’m so happy!!

“Mm, let’s go.” Jun Shiling pulled Xiao Bao’s hand and walked to the meeting room. “Don’t cry all the time, okay?”

“But I’m worried that you won’t come, Daddy.”

“You have to remember that your mother and I will definitely do what we promised you,” Jun Shiling stopped and told Xiao Bao sternly.

“Mm!” Xiao Bao nodded obediently. “Daddy, I love you so much!”

Jun Shiling’s eyes overflowed with warmth. Who did this brat learn the ability to be sweet-tongued from? He always talked about loving this and that, making one’s heart happy.

In the meeting room, the parent-teacher meeting was about to begin. Jun Shiling walked in while holding Xiao Bao's hand, and the noisy hall suddenly fell silent.

Jun Shiling sat on his seat and listened to the various reports of the school quietly like other ordinary parents.

However, other than Jun Shiling, everyone present looked calm, but their hearts were surging.

Xiao Bao sat beside Jun Shiling and hugged Jun Shiling's arm tightly. From time to time, he would lean over and tell Jun Shiling about his school, and Jun Shiling listened patiently.

Two hours later, the parent-teacher meeting ended. When Jun Shiling stepped forward to help Xiao Bao get a form, he was already surrounded by a group of children and parents who were fighting for attention.

"Little kid, are you born in the year of the rabbit? Aiyo, you're in the same year as our Duo Duo. Come and play at our house next time. Our Duo Duo often talks about you."

"This little kid is so good-looking and knows how to play the piano? Our Yiyi is learning this too. The two of you can learn it together when you have time."

"His name is Jun Yin? Our little girl's name is Yin Yin. The two of you really match."

Xiao Bao, who was surrounded by a group of girls in princess dresses and was at a loss, looked at Jun Shiling for help.

Daddy, save me. There are vixens.

Chapter 829: God Fight

Jun Shiling walked towards Xiao Bao. The parents dispersed under Jun Shiling's pressure, but they kept signaling their children with their eyes.

"Hello, Uncle." The young ladies turned and greeted Jun Shiling obediently.

Jun Shiling could not bring himself to be cold to children. He nodded and pulled Xiao Bao out.

"Daddy, let's go." Xiao Bao felt that the way those people looked at him like how he looked at a white rabbit candy. It was strange.

Watching Jun Shiling and Xiao Bao disappear into the meeting room, everyone had an idea.

Jun Shiling's precious son was in this kindergarten. There would definitely be a chance to know him in the future.

There were even some families with girls who had already considered planning a childhood sweetheart route for their children.

"Daddy, did they fancy you?" Xiao Bao held Jun Shiling's hand and jogged to catch up with him.

Jun Shiling glanced at Xiao Bao, who had short legs, and slowed down his pace.

“Daddy, I heard from Auntie An Rao that some bad aunties want to use me to save the country. In fact, their goal is to marry you, Daddy. See how I did today? I didn’t even bother with them.” Xiao Bao puffed up his chest proudly and looked up at Jun Shiling to ask for praise.

Helplessness flashed across Jun Shiling’s eyes. They had taken a fancy to Jun Yin, the future successor of the Jun family, but he was not prepared to let Xiao Bao get involved in this too early. “Well done. Next time, if other women get close to you, you have to ignore them too.”

“Okay!” Xiao Bao nodded. “Daddy, can I eat a candy later?”

“No.” Jun Shiling rejected mercilessly.

Xiao Bao’s joy disappeared.

At Qing University, Xia Wanyuan went to class as usual. The moment she entered, she saw Yu Qian and An Lin sitting at the back of the classroom.

The current An Lin was decked in branded goods. Although she still liked to put on pure light makeup, the sense of money that came from branded clothes, accessories, and bags was very obvious.

An Lin was halfway through her sentence when Yu Qian suddenly turned his head forward. An Lin looked up and saw that it was indeed Xia Wanyuan.

She felt inexplicably guilty. Sometimes, she felt that Wei Zimu liked her very much. Otherwise, why would he give her such an expensive limousine and jewelry? However, sometimes, she felt that it did not feel real at all.

Just like now, every time she and Wei Zimu came to Xia Wanyuan’s class, Wei Zimu would be extremely serious. No matter what she said to him, Wei Zimu would ignore her and listen to the lecture quietly.

“Senior, I...” An Lin reached out to pull Yu Qian’s sleeve. Yu Qian reached for the book, causing An Lin’s actions to miss.

“Junior, it’s time for class. Listen to her properly.” Yu Qian smiled gently at An Lin with endless love. An Lin began to think that she was overthinking.

She wanted to say something, but Yu Qian had already begun to look at the podium seriously. It was clearly an extremely gentle side profile, but An Lin felt a chill rise from the bottom of her heart.

“Okay, then is there anyone else who has a problem with my explanation? There are only ten minutes left. If there are any problems, you can ask.” Xia Wanyuan reserved some time for the students to ask questions.

Yu Qian was the first to raise his hand. Xia Wanyuan only treated him as a normal student and pointed at him.

“I think there’s another explanation for the red date symbol that you mentioned just now, Professor Xia...” Yu Qian spoke confidently.

Regarding Yu Qian's question, Xia Wanyuan also quoted scriptures and searched for evidence from various poems and articles.

The students in the classroom watched in a daze as the experts dueled and the immortals fought.

An Lin watched as Yu Qian spoke to Xia Wanyuan to his heart's content and angrily wrinkled her dress.

Xia Wanyuan is too competitive. She is so young and beautiful, a professor at Qing University, and could sing and dance well. No man would reject such a woman.

Looking at the branded bag worth hundreds of thousands on the table, jealousy flashed across An Lin's eyes. So what if Xia Wanyuan is outstanding? The Young Madam of the Wei family is definitely going to be me, An Lin.

Chapter 830: An Lin Drug

When the bell rang, the person beside An Lin became gentle and amiable.

"Let me take you to a clubhouse in the west of the city for dinner today." Yu Qian accompanied An Lin out of the school.

"Senior, what kind of person do you think Sister Xia is?" An Lin looked straight at Yu Qian with a hint of jealousy in her eyes.

"Xia Wanyuan." Yu Qian smiled. "She's quite a talented person."

"Then, do you like her very much, Senior?" Seeing the smile on Yu Qian's face, An Lin was clearly unhappy.

"Why would I?" Yu Qian's smile widened. "Junior, don't you know who I like?"

An Lin blushed from Yu Qian's affectionate gaze. "Senior, I've been living in your house for a long time and you haven't gone to visit. Why don't we not go out and eat tonight? I'll cook myself, okay?"

Yu Qian smiled and nodded. "Of course. I want to try your skills too."

After receiving Yu Qian's affirmative answer, An Lin smiled shyly and lowered her head to hide the victory in her eyes.

Hence, she did not see the mockery on Yu Qian's face.

When she returned home, the sky was already dark. An Lin switched on the light. "Senior, I didn't touch the other things. I added some small things. You won't blame me for messing up your house, right?"

There were all kinds of flowers in the room. In the warm-colored room, there were some dolls and pink pillows that reflected the feelings of the young girl.

There was a smile in Yu Qian's eyes. "How could that be? I didn't expect you to have such a cute side in private, Junior."

Having achieved her goal, the corners of An Lin's lips curled up. "Senior, sit first. I'll cook."

An Lin poured a glass of water for Yu Qian and smiled shyly at him before walking into the kitchen.

In the living room, Yu Qian looked around and sat on the corner of the sofa.

The fragrance of food quickly lingered in the room. In front of the dining table that was flickering with candlelight, An Lin and Yu Qian sat opposite each other. "Senior, drink some wine."

"No, I don't have much alcohol tolerance. I'll be drunk after one glass." The Yu Qian in the light was as moving as a young master standing in the south.

"How can that be?" An Lin looked at Yu Qian in surprise. "Senior, did you say that because you don't want to drink with me? Forget it then."

Since An Lin had already said so much, Yu Qian could only support his forehead helplessly. "Alright, I'll listen to you, Junior. Whatever you say is good."

Hence, An Lin filled the wine glass in front of Yu Qian. "Senior, please."

Yu Qian really could not stand the alcohol. Before he finished the glass of wine, his eyes had already begun to blur. An Lin drank a mouthful of the wine in the glass and called out tentatively, "Senior?"

"Mm." Yu Qian smiled gently and leaned against the table with his forehead drunk. He gradually closed his eyes.

An Lin put down the wine glass in her hand and a look of smugness flashed across her eyes. Just as she was about to stand up to help Yu Qian, she felt dizzy. She could not find anything to rely on and fell straight to the table.

On the other side of the table, Yu Qian, who had just been too drunk, opened his eyes. His expression was clear and there was no hint of drunkenness.

At that moment, the warm smile on Yu Qian's face was gone. His dark eyes were cold as he glanced at An Lin indifferently, as if he was looking at an unimportant item.

The night gradually darkened. In the Shi family's villa in the south of the city, the originally dazzling living room seemed a little dim.

"Ha, as expected, you're still here. You like your little b * tch so much." Shi Tian was wearing a nightgown, but her makeup was very complete. She looked mockingly at Liu Xingchuan, who was walking in from the door.

Although he was already in his thirties, Liu Xingchuan was still very handsome. Shi Tian leaned on the sofa and looked at him. She suddenly recalled the first time she had seen Liu Xingchuan.

At that time, Liu Xingchuan was the president of the student union. She had just entered university and had scoffed when her roommate pulled her to see the so-called school hunk.

I'm the eldest daughter of the Shi family. I have seen all kinds of handsome men. What school hunk?

However, when she saw Liu Xingchuan walk in wearing a simple shirt, she could clearly hear her heart beating.

Liu Xingchuan had the elegance of a scholar, which was a fatal temptation for her, the eldest daughter of the Shi family.

Later on, she played all sorts of tricks, snatched, stole and used all sorts of methods all to be with Liu Xingchuan. However, when she really became his wife as she had wished, she did not feel very happy.

“Tell me, what can I do to get you to destroy Tang Yin’s photos?” Liu Xingchuan’s words interrupted Shi Tian’s thoughts.

Seeing the disgust in Liu Xingchuan’s eyes, Shi Tian laughed at herself. “I want to marry you again. I want you to be tied to me for all eternity. I want you to be my man for all eternity.”

“Okay.” Unexpectedly, Liu Xingchuan agreed without hesitation.
