"I hope you both are ready?" I said in a hoarse voice, gazing at the two magnificent wolf girls lying on the ground. "I won't let you go until I've placed a pup in each of your wombs," I declared with determination.

Ember and Luna trembled at my words, their eyes filled with a desire that matched my own. After our passionate little fun by the bonfire, I brought them to the den and dropped them onto the stone bed in the center. These two seductive devils drove me wild, and they needed to be punished for their insatiable lust.

"Aww!" Ember let out a soft howl, spreading her legs, showing me how much she desired me. She was dripping her love juice all over the stone bed, and her pink cock was in no better condition either.

I growled, my eyes darkening with desire. "You two have been very naughty, and now you will face the consequences."

I moved towards Ember, her scent driving me wild. I nuzzled her neck, feeling her soft fur under my chin. "You first, my little vixen. Prepare yourself for me, spread your legs," I commanded.

Ember whimpered, her eyes fluttering closed as I nuzzled her sensitive neck. Then she obediently spread her legs even wider, exposing her glistening virgin hole and inviting me to claim her.

Taking into account the system's reminder, I was in wolf form for better results.

"So wet," I murmured, brushing my finger against her pink cock, teasing the sensitive tip before descending into her pussy and inserting a finger inside.

"Ahhh!~..." Immediately her walls seized my finger, and she let out a soft moan, her hips bucking slightly.

I growled in response, my eyes fixed on where my finger disappeared into her tight heat. "Greedy little vixen. You want it all, don't you?"

"Aww," she howled, nodding slightly.

I added another finger, stretching her further and feeling her wet heat engulf me. Ember whined, her body squirming as I scissored my fingers, preparing her for what was to come.

"You're so tight, my little Futa," I murmured, my breath hot against her ear. "But I'll make sure you're ready for my cock. I want to give you pleasure beyond your wildest dreams."

"After all this is your first time," I added, giving her a reassuring smile.

With gentle care, I positioned myself at her entrance, my wolf-pink cock throbbing with the need to claim her. "Are you ready, my little vixen? Are you ready to be filled with mommy's essence?"

"Aw!" Ember nodded, her eyes shining with desire.

Grabbing her hips, I brought the tip of my cock to her entrance, gazing into her hungry yellow eyes, I smirked.

"Then let the claiming begin," I growled, my voice deep and primal. With a slow and deliberate thrust, I entered her, feeling the tight ring of muscles yield to my invasion.

"Ugh!!..." Ember gasped, her body tensing as she experienced the initial stretch.

I paused, giving her a moment to adjust to my size. "Relax, my lovely daughter. Let your body welcome me. I'll go at a pace that pleases you."

Suddenly I heard a faint voice inside my head. "P-Please, Mother... Go deeper, I'm ready."

I froze, my eyes widening in shock as I gazed at Ember below me. "Did you just talk?" I asked, my voice barely above a whisper.

Part of me hoped it was real and not just something my mind created due to my lust and desire for my little daughters.

Ember, her eyes shining with a mixture of desire and something akin to embarrassment, nodded slowly. "Y-Yes, Mother. I did," she whispered, her voice soft and hesitant.

A rush of emotions washed over me. I had always hoped that one day I'd be able to talk to my little daughters, but hearing Ember's voice inside my head was something I had never expected. "How?" I breathed, my heart pounding in my chest.

"I don't know, Mother," Ember replied, her voice gaining strength. "The moment you entered me, I was able to sense you and deliver my voice to you."

Does taking her virginity give her that ability? Or did she have that ability before and only needed to fully mature by taking her virginity?

I turned my head, gazing at my other daughter Luna, who was staring at the two of us with lust while playing with her clit. I wondered if she would be able to talk like her sister.

I turned back to my little silver-haired futa. "It seems our bond is even stronger than I imagined," I murmured, giving her a soft kiss on the lips, surprising her. "And I couldn't be happier about it."

A soft whine escaped Ember's throat, and she shifted beneath me, her eyes shining with a mixture of desire and something akin to wonder. "I can feel your emotions, Mother. P-Please take me," she begged, her voice trembling with anticipation.

Hearing her call me, Mother sent a jolt of pleasure through my body, and I thrust forward, burying my cock fully within her. Ember's eyes rolled back as she cried out in delight, her hands clinging to my fur as I began to piston my hips.

I purred, my eyes half-lidded with pleasure as I felt our connection deepen with each thrust. "Your wish is my command, my little vixen. I'll give you everything you desire and more."

Ember whimpered, her claws digging into the stone bed as she arched her back, offering herself completely to me. "Yes, Mother. Take me, claim me, and make me yours forever."

With each powerful thrust, I felt her walls tightening around my cock; she was tight, so fucking tight. "You feel so good, my little futa," I growled, my voice thick with desire. "Your heat surrounds me, pulls me deeper, and makes me want to mark you as mine."

Ember moaned, her eyes shining with devotion. "Mark me, Mother. Brand me with your essence and make me carry your pup. I want to be forever connected to you."

I growled in response, my hips moving in a relentless rhythm. "Tell me again, what do you wish for?"

Her eyes sparkled with desire and devotion as she gazed up at me. "I want to carry your pup, Mother. Mark me, make me yours," she whispered in my head, her voice filled with longing.

Ember's body squirmed beneath me, her cock brushing against my stomach with each thrust. The sensation was intoxicating, and the sight of her desire drove me even wilder.

"Harder, Mom!" she begged, her voice muffled as I pinned her to the stone bed. With a feral growl, I obliged, my movements becoming more aggressive. Each thrust sent shockwaves of pleasure through both of us, and I felt my cock sliding in and out of her womb. The wet, slapped sound of skin on skin filled the den.

As our passion escalated, I glanced over at Luna, who was eagerly masturbating while watching us. The lustful expression on her face fueled my fire even more, and I increased my pace, grinding against Ember's tight heat.

"Ah! Mom... I'm... Oh, fuck!" Ember's eyes rolled back as she came, her juices dripping down her legs and onto the stone bed. Her cum burst from her trembling cock, all over her stomach and mine. Her walls clenched around me, milking my cock as she rode the waves of her orgasm.

I leaned in, biting gently on her neck, marking her as my own. Ember's cries only egged me on further, and I pounded her pussy relentlessly, my own orgasm building.

"You like that, my little slut?" I growled, my hands digging into her hips. "You're so wet and tight. It's impossible to resist you."

"Don't... stop..." Ember whined, her body trembling with aftershocks of pleasure. "Yes, Mother. I'm your little slut, and I love it. Please, don't stop. Take me harder."

How the HELL did you learn those words? You're just two days old. Did you get them from me? Did she somehow receive the language from me? NOOOO!

"You... have a foul mouth, my little daughter," I said, tightly grabbing her hips, I pulled my whole cock out of her, leaving only the tip inside. "I must discipline you."

PAT!

"AHHH!" she screamed as I thrust inside her with force, and I felt my cock kiss her cervix.

Ember's eyes widened in surprise, and a mixture of pleasure and pain flashed across her face. "M-Mother! Ahhh!...Please, Harder!"

PAT!

Again I pulled back only to ram inside her with each powerful thrust, her walls clenching around my cock as she cried out in a mixture of pleasure and pain. "Yes, Mother! Discipline me,"

PAT! PAT!

"I... will." Feeling my own orgasm building, I couldn't hold it anymore. I pulled back and rammed my cock into her womb over and over. At that moment, I felt my cum gathering at the base of my cock before shooting inside her womb, marking her as mine.

"Ugh....take it all...get pregnant."

"AHHH!" Ember cried out, her body shaking with the force of her third or fourth orgasm, her walls tightening and warping around my cock to ensure that all my seed was secured inside her.

Suddenly, a notification sound rang inside my head. I could already guess what it was, but seeing it with my own eyes brought a sense of pride and satisfaction.

I held Ember close, my cock still buried deep within her. As I gave her a long passionate kiss, I said, "We did it, my little daughter. You're pregnant with my child."

She smiled and returned my kiss, our lips locking in a passionate embrace. I couldn't help but feel a surge of pride and satisfaction. My little futa daughter was now carrying my pup, and the bond between us had strengthened even further. I pulled back slightly, gazing into her eyes, which now shone with a mixture of love and devotion.

"We did it, my little vixen," I whispered, stroking her soft fur. "You're going to be a mother soon, and our family will grow stronger."

Ember nuzzled against me, her eyes sparkling with joy. "Thank you, Mother," she murmured. Then it hit me: she was speaking out loud, not inside my mind.

"You... can speak out loud now?" I asked, my eyes widening in surprise.

Ember nodded, a mischievous smile playing on her lips. "It seems so, Mother," she replied, her voice soft and melodic. "It's like our connection has unlocked a new ability within me."

'Maybe,' I said, turning slowly to my other daughter, who was gazing at her sister in shock. 'She didn't expect to hear her sister's voice, I bet.'

Sensing me staring at her, Luna turned, and our eyes met. She instantly laid on her back, spreading her wet little pink lips for me.

Since I had already impregnated Ember, it was Luna's turn, and I couldn't help but laugh at her eagerness. She had been ready from all that masturbation while watching us.

I gently pulled out of Ember, and her body trembled slightly as I did so. She let out a soft whine of protest but quickly composed herself as she saw the look in my eyes. I turned my attention to Luna, approaching her with my eyes never leaving hers. Her crimson eyes were filled with desire and anticipation, and I could sense her need for me to claim her just as I had done with Ember.

I knelt between her legs, gently parting her folds with my fingers. Luna whimpered softly, her body trembling with desire. I could smell her arousal, and it only served to heighten my own lust.

"You're so wet, my little pup," I murmured, brushing my finger against her sensitive clit. Luna gasped, her hips bucking slightly as I continued to tease her.

I looked up at her, meeting her gaze. "Are you ready for me, my lovely daughter?" I asked, my voice low and husky. Luna nodded, her eyes shining with desire.

With a growl, I positioned myself at her entrance, feeling her warmth against my throbbing cock. I glanced over at Ember, who was watching us intently, slowly stroking her own pink cock. She gave me a small smile, her eyes filled with love and pride.

I returned my attention to Luna, slowly pushing into her. She let out a soft gasp, her body tensing as she adjusted to my size.

Relax," I whispered, stroking her fur gently. "We'll go slow, okay?"

She nodded, and I slowly continued pushing inside her. I felt resistance, but I didn't stop. She screamed as I tore her hymen. I paused, gazing into Luna's eyes. I could see the pain mixed with desire in her eyes, and I knew that I had to be gentle with her.

"I'm sorry, my little pup," I murmured, stroking her fur softly. "I know it hurts, but it will get better. Just breathe and relax."

Luna nodded, her eyes still filled with a mixture of pain and desire. I continued to move slowly, allowing her body to fully adjust to my size.

As we found our rhythm, I couldn't help but think about how incredible it was to be sharing this moment with my two beautiful daughters. Our connection was growing stronger with each passing moment, and I knew that our family was destined for great things.

I looked over at Ember, who was watching us with a mixture of love and desire in her eyes. She smiled at me, her eyes sparkling with pride. I knew that she was proud of me for taking such good care of her sister, and I couldn't help but feel a sense of accomplishment.

As our passion continued to build, I felt my own orgasm approaching. I looked down at Luna, seeing the love and trust in her eyes. I knew that I wanted to give her everything, to make her feel as loved and cherished as possible.

With a growl, I thrust into her, feeling her walls tighten around my cock. Luna cried out, her body trembling with pleasure. I knew that she was close, and I wanted to make sure that she experienced the same pleasure that Ember had just experienced.

I leaned in, biting gently on her neck, marking her as my own. Luna's cries only served to fuel my fire even more, and I continued to thrust into her, harder and deeper with each passing moment.

"AHHH!...MOTHER!" she cried, speaking for the first time. And when I heard her calling me mother, I snapped.

PAT! PAT!

"UGH!...I love you, daughter," I growled, my thrusts becoming wild and untamed, burying my entire length inside her. Her womb welcomed me eagerly, ready to bear my child.

"I'm....Cumming!" I warned, feeling my climax approaching. And as soon as I spoke, Luna's inner wall clutched at my cock so hard that I felt every fiber of her pussy. It made sliding in easy, but pulling out was almost impossible.

"Ahhh~!...Y-Yes...Mother...take me!..." She moaned, her body shaking with the force of her second or third orgasm in a row. "Breed me....Mother!...I want to have your pups."

As I felt my release approaching, I looked into Luna's eyes and saw the same mixture of love and desire that I had seen in Ember's. "I love you too, my little one," I growled, my voice thick with emotion. "And I'm going to give you what you desire."

With that, I thrust into her with all my might, feeling my cock slide deep into her womb. Luna cried out, her body arching off the stone bed as she experienced the most intense pleasure of her young life.

"Ahhh! Mother, yes!" she cried, her voice hoarse with passion. "I can feel you so deeply. Mark me, brand me, make me yours forever!"

With a final, powerful thrust, my cum burst with force, filling her womb to the point that some of it began to slip outside.

[Congratulations. You have successfully impregnated Luna for the First time: Wolf-kin offspring]

As I collapsed onto Luna, my body spent from the intense passion we had just shared, I couldn't help but feel a sense of satisfaction and fulfillment. Our family was growing, and I was determined to provide them with the love, care, and protection they deserved.

"I...Love you...Mother!" Luna managed to say, her chest heaving as she wrapped her arms around me, pulling me closer.

"I love you too," I smiled, gently kissing her forehead.

"Eh?" Suddenly I felt something wet against my love entrance. I turned to see Ember licking me gently, then she slowly ascended, giving me a few licks around my anus before licking around the base of my wolf tail. She then made her way up, licking my fur.

"Ahhh!...Yeah!" I shivered as Ember's tongue made its way up my body, her soft licks sending waves of pleasure through me. "Ember, what are you doing to me?" I asked, my voice laced with desire.

Ember looked up at me, her eyes sparkling with mischief. "I'm marking you as mine, Mother. Just as you marked me."

Then she dropped her weight on me, her hard nipples brushing against my back. I felt her slowly spreading my legs, and then I felt something hard probing at my breeding hole.

"Ready, Mother?" she whispered seductively in my ear. "Are you ready to have my child...Mother?"

Well...Shit!...Perfect!
