'Stop! Control yourself, Morgana, you must withstand this temptation! I kept repeating these words to myself, hoping that somehow I could restrain myself. But it was so bloody HARD!

Especially when Ember kept provoking me, grazing the tip of her member against my drenched hole, while also licking and nipping the nape of my neck.

'Focus!'

I bit my lips hard, As Ember continued to tease me, my body trembled with a blend of desire and apprehension. I couldn't believe that I was about to be impregnated by my own daughter. Yet, as I looked into her eyes, I could see the love and devotion that she had for me, and I knew that this was a part of our bond as mother and daughter.

"!!!" Suddenly, the tip of her shaft slipped inside me, and I felt a surge of pleasure intertwined with a sense of panic. At that moment, the rational side of my brain took over.

"Sorry, sweetheart, I can't right now." It's not that I didn't want to conceive with her and bear her child. It's just that if all three of us became pregnant, who would take care of us?

"Why? Mother" she asked, I could see the confusion and disappointment in Ember's voice as she asked me why I couldn't allow her to breed with me at this moment. It was a valid question, and I knew that I needed to provide her with a clear and honest answer.

"Too dangerous sweetheart, if all three of us were to get pregnant, I don't know how long your pregnancy would last, and I can't risk a situation where I won't be able to protect you due to me being pregnant."

Her eyes grew wide with understanding, and I could see the concern and fear in her expression as she realized the implications of what I was saying. It was a good thing that she was able to understand given the fact that she only managed to talk moments ago.

"I hadn't thought about that, Mother," she murmured, her voice filled with concern. "All I wanted was to breed with you and give you pleasure like you gave me."

"Aww~... my sweet daughter I love you" My heart melted at her words and I found myself slowly reaching, taking her cock from my pussy and pointing toward my other hole.

Ember's eyes widened in surprise as she felt my hand directing her cock towards my other entrance. She looked at me, her expression a mix of desire and uncertainty.

"Are you sure about this, Mother?" she asked, her voice barely above a whisper.

I turned, kissing her lips and gently nibbling on the lower one. "I didn't say you couldn't breed with me, but you just have to use my other entrance. It's my first time there, and I love you and want to give it to you."

Ember's eyes softened as she realized the depth of my trust and affection for her. She smiled, her lips brushing against mine as she spoke. "I love you too, Mother. And I'm grateful for this gift."

With a nod, she began to gently push her cock into my other entrance, her movements slow and tentative as she tried to gauge my reaction.

I bit my lip to suppress a gasp as her cock filled me slowly, stretching my anus, a sensation unlike any I had ever experienced before. It was intense, overwhelming, and yet, it felt right somehow.

"Ahh!..." A soft moan came from below and when I looked down I realized that I was still inside Luna, I felt my own cock hardening as Ember slowly took me from behind.

I wrapped my arms around Luna, pressing my breasts against hers as I claimed her lips. She was taken aback at first but quickly opened her mouth, allowing my tongue to explore her. She moaned into my mouth as Ember began to move her hips, thrusting deeper into my ass while also causing my cock to penetrate Luna's pussy with each thrust.

I could feel Luna's body trembling beneath me, her own pleasure building with each passing moment. As Ember continued her steady pace, I knew that we were all on the precipice of something truly incredible - a moment of pure connection and love that would bind us together forever.

"Ahh!...Fuck!" Unable to hold back, I began to move my hips slowly, thrusting inside her tight hole, while Ember rapidly increased her pace, fucking me hard in the ass. Her entire cock slid in and out of my ass, and she was the same length as me, approximately nine inches.

Ember suddenly bit the nape of my neck, slightly burning her fangs into my skin, at that moment, I felt a primal urge to surrender myself to her, my whole body relaxed opening itself to her as she rammed her entire wolf cock in me, unlike me Ember had balls under her cock, and those balls were now slapping against my wet pussy, creating a very lewd sound echoing throughout the entire den.

As we moved in unison, our bodies slick with sweat and our breaths coming in ragged gasps, I could feel the intensity of our shared pleasure building to a fever pitch. And as Ember continued to thrust into me, I knew that I was on the verge of an experience unlike any other - a moment of pure ecstasy that would leave me breathless and trembling in their arms.

"AHHH!..." Luna cried out in pleasure, her own body shuddering with each thrust of my cock. And as I felt her release mingling with mine.

Ember drove her cock deeper than ever before, and I felt a sudden rush of warmth flood through me, followed by a sense of completion that left me breathless and trembling in their arms. And then, she followed suit, I felt her cock pulsing inside me, her love and gratitude pouring out with each spurt of her essence.

"It's so warm...so filling...me," I cried out in pleasure as I felt her seed inside me, and I couldn't help but curse in my head that I couldn't feel the warmth of her seed inside my womb.

For a moment, we remained locked together, our hearts pounding in unison as we collapsed to the side.

"We love you, Mother," my two daughters said in unison, showering me with gentle kisses.

I smiled wrapping my right arm around Luna's neck and slowly turning so I could move my left arm around Ember, pulling them both into a warm embrace and kissing both of them.

"I love you two, my sweet pups," I murmured, my eyes drifting closed as I recalled the intensity of our passion.

"Mother, can we stay like this?" Ember asked with a blush, she was cute and I couldn't say no to her cuteness.

"Sure, why not, I also want to stay like this," I rubbed my nose against her own, "You're filling me quite well, my little vixen."

"Me too, Mother, I want you to stay inside me," Luna suddenly spoke, her voice soft and shy.

"Of course" her pussy was warm and every few seconds, her inner walls would slowly tighten, as if she were massaging my shaft. Ember, on the other hand, I could sense her cock twitching inside my other entrance. I knew she was eager for another round, but I was too exhausted, and I wanted to get some rest.

I chuckled, pulling them both close to me as we drifted off to sleep, remaining connected like this for the entire night.

"Hmm?...Yawn!" Feeling the sunlight kissing my skin, I slowly awoke, my body still tingling from the events of the previous night. As my eyes fluttered open, I found myself staring into the loving eyes of my daughters, Ember and Luna, their faces mere inches from mine.

"Good morning, Mother," they chorused, their voices soft and filled with affection.

I smiled, reaching out to stroke their cheeks. "Good morning, my sweet pups," I replied, reaching out to caress their cheeks. "How are you both feeling this morning?"

Luna stretched languidly, her body still connected to mine. "I feel incredible, Mother," she purred, her eyes sparkling with contentment. "Last night was beyond anything I could have imagined."

Ember nodded in agreement, her cock still nestled inside me. "I feel the same, Mother."

I couldn't help but blush at their words, my heart swelling with love for them. "It was, wasn't it?" I murmured, my eyes drifting closed as I recalled the intensity of our passion.

As I shifted slightly, I became aware of the intimate connections between us. My cock was still buried deep within Luna's warm pussy, and Ember's cock filled my tight butthole. A shiver ran through me as I realized we were still joined as one.

"I think we fell asleep like this," I said, a note of wonder in my voice.

Luna giggled, her breath tickling my neck. "It seems we did, Mother. And I, for one, am not complaining."

I smiled, reaching out to caress her cheek. "Nor am I, my love. But I think it's time we got up and started our day."

Ember, her eyes sparkling with mischief, leaned in close and whispered, "But Mother, we're comfortable like this. Can't we just stay a little longer?"

I laughed, feeling a surge of affection for my mischievous daughter. "Very well, a little while longer then. But we have a whole day ahead of us, and I want to make the most of it."

As I spoke, Ember slowly began to move her hips, her cock sliding in and out of my ass with gentle thrusts. Luna, sensing the shift in mood, tightened her grip on my cock, her walls contracting around me in a tantalizing rhythm.

"Well..." Ember slowly leaned in, whispering in my ear, "We can let you go if you allow us to eat until our fill."

"Ahh!~" a moan escaped my lips when I felt her breath against my neck "Aren't you big now for my milk?"

"Never!" she bit my ear hard, "Mother's milk is the best thing in this world; I could never have enough of it."

"MILK!" Luna suddenly exclaimed, swiftly pulling herself from my cock with a pop sound, immediately my cum dripped from her, but she didn't care; she dove straight to my shaft, cleaning it before taking the whole length inside her both.

"Luna!" Ember exclaimed, watching her sister's actions, "Not fair."

Luna didn't respond to her sister; she only continued to worship my cock, Ember growled as she slowly pulled her cock from my butthole. I felt a sudden emptiness when she pulled out, and I almost asked her to fill me again, but I held back.

I couldn't help but chuckle at the competitive nature between my daughters, their desire to please me only growing stronger with each passing day. "Alright, alright," I said, gently stroking Luna's hair as she continued to lavish attention on my cock. "You can both have your fill. Take turns."

"NO!" Ember exclaimed, seizing both of my breasts for herself. "Mine!"

Her lips quickly closed around one of my nipples, suckling me with a hunger I never knew, her tongue swirling around the sensitive peak, I couldn't help but moan softly in pleasure. Luna, not to be outdone, continued to worship my cock with her lips and tongue, her hands moving deftly over my body as she sought to bring me even more pleasure.

I closed my eyes, surrendering myself to the sensations they were creating within me. It was a heady mix of pleasure and devotion, and I knew that I was truly blessed to have such loving daughters.

As Ember suckled at my breast, her free hand moved to gently squeeze my other breast and tease my nipple with her thumb.

"Ahh!...Yeah...So good!" I felt my body responding to their ministrations. My sex was already wet from the night before, and I could feel myself growing even more aroused as they continued to explore my body.

Luna, meanwhile, had shifted her focus to my clit, her tongue flicking over the sensitive nub with practiced ease. I gasped, arching my back as a wave of pleasure washed over me, my hips bucking involuntarily against her face.

Ember, noticing that her sister's mouth had left my cock, flashed a sly smile, she let go of my nipple and began squeezing both of my breasts, milking me with her hands.

Since my breasts are always full of milk, some of it began to leak, moving out in slow, steady streams that coated Ember's hands and dripped down onto my stomach. Luna, seeing this, moved her hands to my butt, lifting me slightly, allowing all my milk to slide to my pussy, where she immediately began to lap it up, her tongue now darting in and out of my pussy, tasting my sweet milk as it mixed with my arousal.

I couldn't help but marvel at the sight before me – my two beautiful daughters, their bodies pressed against mine as they worshiped and pleased me in every way imaginable. It was a moment of pure connection, a testament to the love and devotion that we shared as a family.

'I think...This is why I came to this...World'

As Luna lapped up the milk from my pussy, Ember shifted her attention to my cock stealing it from her sister, her lips now engulfing the sensitive head as her tongue swirled around the tip. I moaned in pleasure, my hips bucking involuntarily as I felt the familiar sensation of her tongue teasing the slit, her mouth drawing me ever closer to the edge.

Luna, sensing my growing arousal, increased the tempo of her tongue on my clit, her lips now suckling and nibbling at the sensitive nub as she sought to bring me even more pleasure. As I felt their combined efforts, I knew that I was on the brink of something truly incredible – a moment of pure ecstasy that would bind us together forever.

"Ahhh!...Fuck!" I cried out, my voice hoarse with desire as I felt my orgasm building within me. "Don't stop! I'm so close!"

Ember redoubled her efforts, her lips now sliding up and down my shaft as she took me deeper into her mouth. At the same time, Luna increased the pressure of her tongue on my clit, her fingers now teasing my entrance with a deft touch.

I could feel the tension building within me, my entire body taut with anticipation as they drove me ever closer to the edge. And then, I came.

"Cummming!" I screamed, shooting an absurd amount of cum into Ember's mouth as she continued to suck and lick my cock. At the same time, Luna's tongue never left my clit, her mouth now suckling and nibbling at the sensitive nub as she sought to prolong my pleasure.

Ember swallowed every last drop of my cum, or at least she tried, I didn't stop coming for more than half a minute, she tried her best to swallow every drop, but it was too much for her.

Fortunately, Luna came to her rescue, drinking my overflowing seed right from Ember's mouth before slowly taking my cock from her sister's mouth and putting it on her own.

"Ohhh!...Fuck!" As my orgasm finally began to subside, I collapsed back onto the stone bed, my body trembling with pleasure. That was the most intense climax I had ever experienced. Ember and Luna, their faces now smeared with my seed, smiled at me with a mix of pride and satisfaction.

"That was incredible, Mother," Ember murmured, her lips still wet with my cum. "I've never tasted anything like it."

Luna nodded in agreement, her mouth now wrapped around my cock as she continued to clean me with her tongue. "You're right, Ember. It was amazing."

I smiled, reaching out to stroke their hair as they continued to pleasure me. "Thank you, my sweet pups. I'm so lucky to have you both."

In the end, our little fun continued for two hours, and I could already see that it would quickly develop into a morning routine.
