Chapter 02: First Quest?

Emerging from the cramped wooden chamber, I found myself in a small, deserted main hall. The space seemed cozy, with glimpses of a kitchen and bathroom tucked away. Aside from a single, round wooden table topped with a bulging sack of bread, the room was bare.

"Sigh... at least there's something to eat," I muttered, my breath catching as I neared the table, inspecting the bread. My pace was unhurried, and I paid no mind to the cum slowly dripping down my legs, instead reveling in the sight of my body glistening with my own juices.

I gazed down at my naked body, my skin glistening with a thin layer of sweat. The sight of my own desire-slicked form only served to fuel the fire burning within me. I moistened my lips, fighting the urge to touch myself once more.

"Explore first, fun later," I murmured, a mischievous smile tugging at my lips. My eyes flicked back to the bread, and I realized my stomach was rumbling, hungry for more than just physical pleasure.

With a shrug, I tore off a piece of bread and popped it into my mouth, savoring the soft texture and the hint of freshness. As I chewed, my eyes scanned the empty main hall, taking in the sparse surroundings. The lack of furniture and decorations only added to the sense of isolation and mystery.

"Well, I might as well venture outdoors," I mused, wiping a stray crumb from my lips. My feet carried me toward the front entrance, my footsteps echoing on the wooden floor. Without hesitation, I ventured outside.

The instant I stepped out, a gentle breeze caressed my skin, sending a shiver down my spine. The world outside was bathed in the soft luminescence of dawn, casting lengthy shadows across the terrain. I inhaled deeply, reveling in the scent of fresh air and earth.

The surroundings were unfamiliar yet strangely captivating. I found myself enveloped by a dense forest. In the distance, a hill loomed against the horizon, its silhouette stark against the delicate hues of the dawn sky.

"It's breathtaking," I whispered, my voice filled with awe.

As I took a step forward, my feet sank into the soft grass, and that's when I noticed a wooden fence, and upon closer inspection, a faint yellow glow just beyond it.

Immediately, a system window materialized before me.

[Protective Barrier: This barrier will safeguard and conceal your dwelling. Only the Breeder and her progeny are permitted entry.]

"Oh! Nice! I don't have to fret about monsters invading my home. Excellent!" I exclaimed, relieved.

Scrutinizing the area once more, I noticed that the land within the fence encompassed a green field, spanning approximately 450-500 square meters. There was also a small lake to my right and a structure to my left.

Without delay, I made my way toward the wooden edifice. As I walked, my breasts, which I estimated to be a generous B-cup or perhaps a C-cup, bounced gently. My cock twitched against my thigh, leaking pre-cum as I moved.

"Seriously?!" I exclaimed, my eyes widening at the sight of my erection. It stood tall and thick, measuring at least 8 or 9 inches. "I just climaxed three times a mere ten minutes ago," I thought, my hand instinctively reaching down to grasp my throbbing length. "Yet I'm still rock hard."

"And my pussy is drenched as fuck," I added, biting my lip. "Is this the body of the Breeder, always primed for breeding?" Shaking my head, I continued toward the building.

The structure was a modest wooden barn, and upon entering, I noticed that the rear was filled with hay. Another system window appeared, providing additional information.

[Birth Barn: The Breeder can utilize this structure to expedite pregnancy and deliver offspring.

Pregnancy acceleration rate: 50-80% contingent on the offspring's race.

Usage: Once every ten days.

Slots available: 1]

My eyes widened as I absorbed this information, my heart pounding with a mix of exhilaration and apprehension. "Good," I thought, "at least I have the means to give birth swiftly, even with the ten-day cooldown."

Surprisingly, I adapted swiftly to my new life. While I was initially shocked, the notion of engaging in sexual intercourse and bearing my own progeny swiftly became a natural part of my existence. It seemed as though this world was designed for precisely that, and my body, as the Breeder, was ideally suited for this purpose.

Just then, a soft ding resonated within my mind, and before I could question its source, a system window materialized.

[First Quest: Bear your first offspring.

Rewards: First offspring's race-specific building

Failure: System shutdown]

"What the HELL?! Give birth in 24 hours?! Are you freaking kidding me?!" I screamed, not believing that this was my first quest.

It seemed like an impossible task, but my body had other ideas. My pussy was growing wetter by the second, and I could sense it becoming more sensitive. My cock remained rigid, and my breasts were also hypersensitive. It was as if my body was urging me to act, to surrender to my desires.

I took a deep breath, trying to calm my racing thoughts. I needed to think this through and come up with a plan.

"I suppose I have no choice but to venture beyond the barrier and find someone to impregnate me," I conceded, my voice laced with reluctance.

Damn, I can't believe I just said that but what other option did I have? Failing this quest was not an option, especially with such dire consequences hanging over my head.

"Thankfully, I possess the 'Return' skill for emergencies," I reminded myself, steeling my resolve. With that thought, I made my way toward the small wooden gate, ready to step beyond the protective barrier.

As I walked through the dense forest, the silence was broken only by the sound of leaves crunching beneath my feet. The air was crisp, and the scent of earth and trees filled my nostrils. I felt alive, yet vulnerable, exposed to the unknown dangers of this new world.

Thirty minutes of walking and I had yet to encounter any creatures.

"Where are they?" I muttered, a hint of frustration creeping into my voice. "I don't have all day."

Just as I was about to give up hope, I heard rustling in the bushes behind me. My heart skipped a beat as I braced myself for the unknown. Suddenly, a figure emerged, pushing me forcefully to the ground.

"Kyaa!" I screamed, feeling a strong grip on my neck. I struggled to turn my head, desperate to catch a glimpse of my captor, but the grip tightened, forcing me to remain still. I attempted to crawl forward, but my efforts were futile. The figure sitting atop me was too powerful.

"Who are you?" I demanded, my voice strained. "What do you want from me?"

The figure remained silent, its weight pressing down on me. I could feel its hot breath on the back of my neck, sending shivers down my spine. My mind raced with possibilities, and I considered using the return skill to escape. But I hesitated when I felt the figure sniffing my neck, its tongue slowly trailing along my skin.

Sniffing and slowly licking my neck, my body completely surrendered to lust. I could feel my wet pussy leaking more and more by the second, as if begging to be penetrated.

"Please..." I whispered, my voice hoarse with need. "More..."

The figure growled in response, its hot breath sending shivers down my spine. Its tongue continued its descent, while its hand roamed over my body.

I moaned, my hips bucking involuntarily as pleasure washed over me. With each lick and touch, my body responded eagerly, my skin tingling with anticipation. The figure's hand slid lower, teasing the sensitive skin of my inner thighs. I spread my legs willingly, inviting further exploration.

When the licking reached my buttocks, I felt the figure tremble for reasons unknown. At that moment, the grip on my neck loosened, allowing me to turn my head and gaze upon my captor.

It was a woman, a wolf woman to be precise, with long dark hair, two pointed wolf ears, and a large fluffy tail of the same color. Her body was covered in dark fur, except for her face, breasts, and belly. Her features were humanoid, and she possessed a certain rugged charm. Her skin was lightly tanned, and her breasts were larger than mine.

Our eyes locked, and I could see the raw desire burning in her amber eyes. Without a word, she slowly lowered her face between my buttocks. I felt her sniffing my buttocks for a moment before she began to lick my pussy with fervor.

"Ohhh!...Yeah!" The wolf woman's tongue was like a wildfire, igniting flames of pleasure that spread throughout my body. I moaned, my hips bucking against her face as she lapped and sucked at my core. My breasts felt heavy, my nipples hardening as I arched my back, offering myself to her completely.

She focused solely on licking, and I could sense her inexperience, perhaps this was her first time? Nonetheless, the sensation was overwhelming, my body responding eagerly to her touch. I could feel my orgasm building, my pussy throbbing with anticipation. The wolf woman's growls and snarls only heightened the excitement, her primal energy was infectious.

Just as I was on the cusp of climax, she stopped, her face still buried between my buttocks. I whimpered in frustration, my body yearning for release. The wolf woman looked up, her amber eyes locking with mine. For a moment, we simply stared at each other, our heavy breathing the only sound in the forest.

Then, she slowly rose, bringing her hips closer to my rear. That's when I saw it. Right between her legs was a cock.

My eyes widened as I took in the sight of the wolf woman's erection, standing proud and rigid. It was a vivid shade of pink, beautifully contrasting with her dark fur. My pussy throbbed with anticipation, and I felt my juices dripping down my thighs.

The wolf woman's eyes never left mine as she positioned herself behind me, her cock hovering at my entrance. I could feel her hot breath on my skin, and her primal energy was palpable. I was ready, more than ready, to be taken by this enigmatic creature.

I bit my lip, my body trembling with anticipation. "Please..." I whispered, my voice hoarse with need. "I want to feel all of you."

With a growl of approval, the wolf woman gripped my hips, guiding me onto her throbbing length. I gasped as I felt the tip of her cock pressing against my entrance, my body yearning to be filled.

"OH...SHIT!" With a growl, she thrust forward, her cock sliding deep into my pussy. I screamed in pleasure, my body arching off the ground as she began to fuck me. Her strokes were wild and untamed, and I felt like I was being claimed by this wolf woman.

I reached down to stroke my erect cock, heightening the pleasure even further.

"Yes... more... MORE!" My orgasm built swiftly, and I could feel myself teetering on the edge of release. The wolf woman's cock was hitting all the right spots, and I was powerless to resist her primal passion. I came hard, my body shuddering with pleasure as I screamed out my release.

As if responding to my cries, she increased her pace, thrusting harder than ever before. She growled, switching her grip from my hips to my shoulders as she drove into me with even more force. Her breasts pressed against my back, her hard nipples teasing my skin. I could feel her fur brushing against my body, adding to the sensory overload.

Suddenly, she let out a loud howl, biting into my shoulder. With one powerful thrust, she buried her cock deep inside me, unleashing a torrent of hot cum that filled my womb to capacity.

"YESSSS" I felt her warmth spreading through my body, and my own orgasm intensified, my pussy clenching around her cock as I screamed out my release once more.

As we both came down from our highs, the wolf woman slowly pulled out of me, her cock still semi-erect. I lay there, panting, my body still trembling with pleasure. She gazed down at me, her amber eyes softening, and for a moment, I saw a glimmer of tenderness in her expression.

Then, a system notification appeared.

[You have been successfully impregnated; Wolf-kin offspring]

A sly smile found its way to my lips, as I lay there, basking in the afterglow of our intense encounter, I couldn't help but feel a sense of accomplishment. I had done it – I had successfully completed my first quest and gotten myself impregnated. The thought sent a thrill through me, and I couldn't wait to see the outcome.

Suddenly, the wolf woman stood up, her face wearing a serious expression as she scanned the area.

'Danger!' was the first thought that crossed my mind. After all, I had been moaning and screaming at the top of my lungs.

She reached out, attempting to grab my arm, but it was too late. I had already activated my 'Return' skill.

"Sorry"

She stood there, shocked, watching as a soft golden glow enveloped me before I vanished from her sight. I reappeared back in the safety of my home, my body still trembling with pleasure. The wolf woman's cum was still warm inside me, and I felt a sense of satisfaction wash over me.

Drawing in a deep breath, I attempted to process everything that had just transpired. The encounter with the wolf woman had been intense, primal, and utterly exhilarating. I was amazed at how quickly I had adapted to this strange new world.

As I looked down at my body, I noticed that my cock was still hard, and my pussy was leaking some of that hot wolf cum. I couldn't suppress a chuckle at the absurdity of it all. My body was still responding to the encounter, even after it had ended.

Taking a steadying breath, I rose to my feet, surprised at how well my body had held up. I felt no pain or discomfort, and I could move freely.

I opened the system notification, reading it once more.

[You have been successfully impregnated; Wolf-kin offspring]

"Hehe... I'm going to become a mother,"
