Chapter 05: My Daughters

"Ugh!...turn off the damn light," I exclaimed, half-asleep, annoyed by the light shining on my face.

When I opened my right eye, squinting at the light, I found that it was sunlight peeking through the natural opening in the ceiling of the den.

"Hmm?" I felt something heavy on my chest when I tried to move, and when I looked down, I was shocked.

My daughters had grown significantly overnight! They were no longer the tiny, helpless pups I had cradled just a few hours ago. Now they lay above me, their bodies lengthened and their features more defined. They were on the cusp of adolescence.

I couldn't believe my eyes. The Wolf's Den had indeed accelerated their growth at an incredible rate. I felt a mix of emotions: astonishment, awe, and a hint of concern. Was their growth happening too rapidly? Would they be able to adapt to their new bodies and surroundings?

As I gazed at my daughters, I noticed they were still latched onto my nipples, suckling gently. I smiled, feeling a surge of maternal love and pride. They might have grown, but they were still my babies.

However, as I looked at them, I couldn't help but notice the changes in their bodies. Their breasts were now more pronounced, and their hips had curved, giving them a more feminine shape. Fur covered most of their bodies. They were no longer the innocent, helpless pups I had given birth to just hours ago.

Smiling warmly, I reached out and stroked their hair. They responded by nuzzling my hand, their eyes still closed as they savored the gentle touch.

At that moment, I decided on their names.

Ember, my futa wolf-kin daughter with long silver hair, matching fur, and bright yellow eyes. She was slightly smaller than her sister in almost every aspect. I couldn't see her package, but I could feel something hard poking my thigh.

'hehe~ ...I can already see that she's going to be a wild one,' I thought to myself.

Luna, my female daughter, with short dark hair and red eyes. She developed better than Ember, and her body was more curvaceous, her breasts fuller and more pronounced. She was a bit taller and stronger than Ember, and her fur was a darker, richer shade.

As I stroked their hair, I felt them stirring from their deep slumber.

Their eyes fluttered open, blinking against the brightness that filled our den. I watched with a tender smile as they looked up at me, their expressions a mix of confusion and the nascent awareness of their new forms.

"Good morning, my darlings," I murmured, my voice thick with emotion. They stretched languidly, their movements graceful and full of the untamed wildness that was their birthright. I also noticed that I retired to my human form due to falling asleep.

I wrapped my arms around their back, pulling them to me, and kissed my dark-haired daughter on the forehead, saying, "From now on, your name will be Luna."

Luna looked up at me with a tilted head, her red eyes sparkling with curiosity. Then she began to lick my cheek, tickling me. I giggled softly, turning to my other daughter, kissing her on the forehead. "And you, my little pup, your name will be Ember."

Ember's bright yellow eyes lit up, and she let out a soft yip of excitement, her tail wagging furiously behind her. She nuzzled my cheek, her silver hair a tangled mess as she licked my face like her sister.

I laughed, feeling a sense of joy and contentment wash over me. My daughters were growing up, and they were already bringing so much happiness into my life.

As I held them close, I quickly noticed that their licking began to turn from something innocent to something, well...erotic.

I felt a sudden surge of surprise and embarrassment as I realized that my body was responding to their touch. Ember slowly began descending, liking my neck, while Luna moved up a little behind my ear.

"This is bad," I tried to push them away, laughing nervously, but they only nuzzled me more insistently. Ember's bright yellow eyes seemed to gleam with mischief, and Luna's red eyes sparkled with a newfound awareness.

As they continued to lick and nuzzle me, I felt my nipples hardening, my heart racing, and my rod slowly waking up. I knew that I had to put a stop to this, but I couldn't help but feel a sense of excitement and pleasure.

Suddenly, Luna's tongue darted out, licking my earlobe. I felt a shiver run down my spine.

'Shit!!...Ahh~' Instead of pushing her away, I pulled her closer to me. I wanted more.

The sensation of Luna's tongue against my ear sent a jolt of electricity through my body, igniting a fire within me that I could no longer ignore. My breath hitched in my throat as Ember's lips found the sensitive skin of my neck, her kisses light but filled with an intensity that belied her youth.

I felt Luna raising a little to access my back neck, where her liking turned to a gentle passionate kiss and an igniting small bites.

"Yeahhh!.." The gentle bite on the nape of my neck sent a ripple of pleasure mixed with pain coursing through my veins. It was a sensation that was both foreign and familiar, a primal reminder of the Breeder's instinct to mate, and I WANT to mate.

As if responding to my words, Ember's kisses trailed down my chest, and her hand slipped down my body, her fingers brushing against my thigh. I felt a jolt of electricity run through me.

They were driving me wild. I felt like I was losing control like I was surrendering to my baser instincts.

"Ah, yeah...more," I moaned, my voice barely above a whisper. I felt like I was begging like I was pleading with them to continue.

Then suddenly, I felt Ember pulling out. When I looked down, confused about why she stopped, I saw her sniffing the air for a moment before locking her gaze on my rod.

My cock was hard, standing proudly as my pre-cum kept leaking like a fountain.

I felt a rush of embarrassment and surprise as I realized that Ember had caught sight of my erect cock. Her bright yellow eyes were fixed on it, her gaze unwavering as she sniffed the air again before bringing her nose close to my cock, inhaling its scent.

"!!!" Suddenly, Ember's tongue darted out, licking the head of my cock. I felt a jolt of electricity run through me, and I saw her eyes widening as she shifted her gaze between me and my erect cock.

I was perplexed by her reaction, but when I noticed her licking her lips repeatedly, it dawned on me.

'My new ability imbues my cum with flavor, and it seems she relished the taste.' And I was correct, as in the next moment,

Ember's mouth engulfed my shaft, her hot breath washing over my skin as she began to suckle and lick with intensity as if she had just discovered the sweetest thing in the world. She also found that if she stroked my cock, more sweet fluid would emerge. Thus, she eagerly stroked with force.

I was taken aback by Ember's sudden actions, my mind racing with a mix of shock, surprise, and arousal. I couldn't believe that my daughter, who was just a pup a few hours ago, was now giving me a blowjob sucking on my cock with such intensity. The sensation was overwhelming, and I felt my body responding to her touch.

Luna, sensing my distraction, took advantage of the situation and latched onto my nipple, biting and sucking with a ferocity that left me breathless.

"Oh, my darlings..." I moaned, my voice laced with desire. I couldn't believe that my own daughters were driving me to such heights of arousal. It felt wrong, yet so incredibly right at the same time.

As Ember continued her oral assault, her tongue swirling and her mouth bobbing up and down, I felt my hips bucking involuntarily. My cock twitched with each stroke, and I could feel my pre-cum oozing out, only serving to fuel Ember's enthusiasm. She seemed to instinctively know how to pleasure me, and the knowledge that she was my daughter only added to the intensity of the experience.

Meanwhile, Luna had moved to my other nipple, her mouth working feverishly. Her teeth scraped gently, sending sharp spikes of pleasure straight to my core. I felt my body responding, my nipples pebbling, and my rod twitching with each suckle and bite. The sensation of her fur brushing against my sensitive skin was too much.

"Ahh... Luna, Ember... don't stop, please," I pleaded, even as I arched my back, offering myself to them.

I looked down at Ember, her silver hair cascading over her shoulders, her bright yellow eyes locked onto mine as she continued to worship my cock with her mouth. Her hand worked in tandem with her lips, stroking and squeezing, her movements guided by instinct and the primal need to please.

Luna, sensing my closeness, bit down gently on my nipple, sending a shockwave of sensation straight to my cock.

"I'm... I'm going to cum!" I gasped, my voice hoarse and desperate. I arched my back, thrusting my hips upward, offering myself completely to Ember's hungry mouth.

With a deep growl, Ember took me all the way to the base, her nose pressing against my pubic bone. Her eyes, bright with desire, locked onto mine as she swallowed around me, milking my cock with her mouth and throat.

And then, with a cry that echoed through the den, I came. Rope after rope of hot, sticky cum shot into Ember's throat, and she swallowed greedily, relishing the flavor. Her eyes rolled back in pleasure. Luna, not to be outdone, sucked hard on my nipple, drinking my milk.

"That's it, drink it all, my wild pup." I came hard, and my load was too much for her. Ember tried her best to swallow it all, but some of my cum escaped her lips, dripping down her chin and onto my stomach. The sight was incredibly erotic, and I felt a fresh surge of arousal at the sight of my seed on her face.

Luna released my nipple with a soft pop, her red eyes gleaming with satisfaction as she watched her sister continue to suckle gently at my still-hard cock, ensuring that not a single drop was wasted. I stroked her dark hair, my fingers tangling in the soft strands as I praised her.

"You are both so incredible," I murmured, my voice filled with awe and affection. "I am so proud of you"

Ember finally released my cock, sitting back on her haunches with a contented sigh. Her silver hair was a mess, and there was a smudge of my cum at the corner of her mouth. She looked at me with those bright yellow eyes, a look of pure adoration on her face.

I also noticed that her pink wolf-cock was hard as fuck! leaking pre-cum. I reached out and wiped the cum from her face, bringing my finger to her lips to ensure that none of my seeds went to waste, as it was essential for their growth.

Luna slowly crawled to my crouch, licking the cum that was all over my stomach. When she tasted it, she quickly turned, staring at me with a hungry look.

I chuckled at her reaction, understanding what she wanted. I was sad at first when I realized that they couldn't speak, but again I knew this world was a primitive one, and even their other 'Mother' couldn't speak. Yet, somehow, I could understand them, and I was sure they could understand me too.

"Yes, Luna, you can eat, too," I nodded with a smile, and she quickly resumed her feast, her tongue darting out to lap up every drop of my seed that she could find. Her enthusiasm was infectious, and I felt a renewed sense of arousal as I watched her clean me with such care and attention.

"That's it, my little Luna," I whispered, my voice hoarse with desire. "Take what you need. It's all for you and your sister."

Ember, still sitting back on her haunches, watched with a mix of curiosity and arousal as her sister feasted. Her pink wolf-cock twitched with anticipation, a clear indication of her own growing desires.

When Luna had finally licked me clean, she raised her head, her eyes shining with a newfound hunger. Without hesitation, she crawled towards my still-hard cock, her tongue darting out to taste the remaining cum.

"Oh, Luna..." I moaned, my breath catching in my throat as her tongue swirled around the sensitive head. "You can go in, sweetheart."

Luna's eyes met mine as she took the length of my cock into her mouth, suckling and licking with an expertise that belied her young age. Her hands roamed my thighs until she found my soaking wet pussy. She began to play with my clit, gently rubbing it with her thumb while her fingers slipped inside me.

"Ohhhh!, my little one..." I moaned, my voice laced with desire. "You know exactly what Mama needs."

Suddenly, I found Ember standing above me, her pink shaft mere inches from my mouth.

"Ember... my wild one..." I whispered, my eyes fixed on her hard cock. "Mama wants a taste, too." I opened my mouth, my tongue darting out to lick the tip of her shaft.

"Mmm..." I moaned, savoring the taste of her pre-cum. "So sweet."

"Aww!!" she let out a small howl as she gently slid her cock into my mouth, filling me with her warmth. I sucked gently, my tongue swirling around her length as I savored the taste of her. Luna, still working feverishly on my cock, quickened her pace.

"Ahh...hmm" I moaned, my body trembling with pleasure.

Luna's mouth worked in perfect harmony with Ember's thrusts, her hands never stopping their exploration of my inner walls. Ember's hips moved gently, her cock sliding in and out of my mouth with a slow, steady rhythm. I sucked and licked, my hands caressing her thighs as I encouraged her to take what she needed.

"That's it, Ember... give Mama your milk," I whispered hoarsely, pulling away for a moment.

Ember growled softly, her hips quickening their pace. Her cock twitched within my mouth, and I felt her release building. Luna, sensing her sister's impending orgasm, sucked harder, her mouth working feverishly on my cock.

"Ahh... Luna... yes..." I gasped, my hips bucking involuntarily. "Don't stop, my darling."

Luna's eyes met mine as she took me deeper into her mouth, her hands squeezing my thighs. Ember's thrusts became more urgent, her hips slamming against my face as she pursued her own release.

With a final, deep thrust, Ember came, her hot cum flooding my mouth. I swallowed greedily, my eyes rolling back in pleasure as I drank down her essence. My pleasure peaked, and I immediately climaxed, triggered by the taste of Ember's release. My cock pulsed in Luna's mouth, and I felt my semen spurting forth in hot, sticky ropes that painted the back of her throat.

"Ohhh!....Yeahhh!" I moaned, my voice filled with a mixture of satisfaction and awe. They had brought me to such heights of pleasure, and they weren't even a day old.

Licking my lips, savoring the last drops of Ember's cum, I looked down at my daughters and saw that they still desired more. I realized that my life in this new world would be incredibly exciting.
