Chapter 09: Let's Grow Our Pack

Hello guys! I would like to tell that we created a Discord server, just to chill and have fun, All are welcomed to join.

Again Big Thanks too all of the new memebres in Patreon. Thank you for your supprot. For Advace chapters you find in "Damn...I'm hungry," I muttered, feeling a sudden hunger as soon as I appeared inside my home. Before I knew it, I devoured the remaining loaves of bread that were on the small wooden table.

"Wow!...That was unexpected," I commented aloud, surprised by the intensity of my appetite.

I guessed that all the 'milking' from my two daughters and Cotton came back to bite my ass.

I needed energy to sustain myself and keep up with the nutritional demands of my daughters. Bread would suffice for now, and I could still provide them with both my milk and my essences. But that wasn't enough. I wanted us to grow stronger and increase in number.

I decided to save the fruit basket that Cotton had given me for my daughters. They needed the nourishment more than I did.

When I walked out of my cabin, I noticed that I still had a couple of hours until evening. You may ask why I was concerned about the time of day. Well, I wanted to complete my original objective from my venture into the forest before bumping into Cotton's big ass...Ahem.

Quickly cleaning myself in the lake, I wondered if I could buy a skill from the shop that would help with that. I had already cleaned myself in the lake four or five times, and I began to hate it.

A nice warm bath is always welcome, but having to clean myself after each breeding session is excessive. Especially considering that I already knew my life would involve a lot, and I mean a LOT of breeding.

After thoroughly cleaning myself, I shifted into my wolf form. The sensation was exhilarating, especially when my two wolf ears, tail, and...hehehe~my cock changed from human-like to wolf-like.

"Control yourself, Morgana," I scolded myself as I gazed at the forest before me.

With a swift movement, I sprinted off on all fours, my enhanced senses guiding me through the forest. The scent of prey hung heavy in the air, and I allowed my natural hunting instincts to lead the way. My keen eyes scanned the surroundings, searching for any signs of movement or potential threats.

Since I had already used my 'Return' skill, I didn't venture too deep into the forest. By sheer luck, I managed to hunt down two small rabbits. I wasn't sure how I had done it, but my wolf instincts had guided me successfully.

"I wonder what Cotton's reaction would be if she saw me eating rabbit meat?" I let out a soft chuckle. "Should I offer her rabbit meat one day, just to see her reaction?"

I guessed that wouldn't be a good idea. Anyway, when I slew the two rabbits, I gained some experience, and when I checked the system notification, I also saw the experience gained from slaying the two goblins.

I was fortunate to discover that I could grow stronger and level up by hunting monsters. I didn't have to rely solely on breeding. Although, I had no idea how to measure my powers. My status didn't show attributes like strength, stamina, or vitality.

How the hell! Did I know about these attributes? No idea, but I noticed some time ago that I was familiar with navigating the system. Maybe I had used a similar system before I was reborn here? Unlikely.

Anyway, I gathered some rocks and wood and stored them in my inventory. I had twenty slots, and I could store almost anything. A nice bonus was that my inventory was upgradable and had no weight or space limit.

I noted that the rocks and wood stacked, taking up just one slot each, while the two rabbits I hunted each occupied a separate slot. My guess was that items categorized as materials did stack.

Making my way back thanks to the map, I quickly set up a bonfire, which was easier said than done. Igniting the wood drove me crazy, but I managed it, and skinning the rabbits was a breeze thanks to my long, sharp fingernails.

As I watched the meat cooking over the fire, I opened the shop, eager to spend some points. With "2530 BP" in my possession, I swiftly purchased the only available skill in the shop.

[Egg Transfer lv1: This skill allows the Breeder to transfer Eggs from other wombs to her own womb. Consumes 50MP per use]

I smiled, pleased with this skill. When I encounter a female-only race, I can first impregnate their eggs and then transfer them to my womb.

With enough points to spare, I decided to buy the "Living Bandages" item as well.

"Well, I can't stay naked all the time," I mused. "Technically, I'll still be naked, but at least I can cover my private parts."

Confirming the purchase, I took out the item from my inventory. The item was just a roll of white bandages, and when I held it in my hand, it reacted to my thoughts and began to wrap around my body like a snake, covering my breasts, buttocks, cock, and pussy, while also wrapping around my forearms and knees.

"Damn!...I look more seductive with the bandages," I exclaimed, checking out my body. "It's not exactly what I had in mind, but it'll do."

Basically, I looked like a captivating mummy who had just crawled out of her tomb to 'Eat' your soul in the most pleasurable way imaginable.

Step!

Hearing footsteps approaching from the side, I turned to see my two daughters walking towards me. My jaw dropped when I saw their new appearance.

Their bodies had transformed and developed beyond what I had imagined. They stood taller, their curves more pronounced, and their eyes shining with newfound confidence.

"Wow," I breathed, my gaze traveling over their voluptuous figures. "You two have grown into stunning young wolf women."

Ember and Luna stood proudly, their chests puffed out as they basked in my praise. Their bodies had matured, their once slender frames now filled out with soft curves and womanly proportions. Their breasts were fuller, their hips wider, and their legs seemed to go on for miles. Their wolf ears perked up at the sound of my voice, and their tails swayed gently behind them.

Unfortunately, they still couldn't speak. I had been hoping that they would be able to communicate with me once they matured, but it seemed that wasn't the case.

I took out the fruits Cotton had given me and tore off a slice of the cooked rabbit meat, offering them to my daughters. However, they shook their heads, refusing to eat.

"What's wrong?" I asked, my voice gentle and filled with concern. "Don't you like the fruit and meat?"

Both of them stepped forward and sat on the ground at my feet. Their eyes kept shifting from my face to my breasts.

I smiled, understanding their desire. "Hehehe~...you want my milk?"

They nodded eagerly, their eyes filled with hunger and longing. I spread my legs, inviting them, and reacting to my thoughts, the bandages around my breasts vanished.

Ember and Luna's eyes widened as they took in the sight of my exposed breasts, their gazes hungry and eager. They sat on either side of me, their tails swaying gently as they awaited their turn to drink.

I offered a nipple to each of them, and they latched on eagerly, their eyes closing in bliss as they suckled. I stroked their soft fur, my fingers tangling in their manes as they drank their fill.

As they nursed, I could sense their unspoken desires, their eyes flicking between my face and my breasts. They wanted more than just milk, and I understood their longing.

"You two have grown so much," I murmured, my eyes shining with love. "And I know you desire more than just my milk."

At that moment, I heard a familiar ding!

Opening the notification, I saw that it was a new quest.

[New Quest: Grow Your Pack

Objective: Breed at least five new wolves.

Rewards: Rank upgrade, Instant level up, a new skill, and a unique title.

Reminder: Make sure to breed inside the Den and in wolf form for better results. You giving birth to your wolves or your partner giving birth both counts.]

I couldn't help but smile at the timing of the new quest. It seemed like the system was encouraging me to fulfill my daughters' desires. I looked down at Ember and Luna, who were still nursing contentedly.

"I think it's time we took our relationship to the next level, don't you, my dear daughters?" I asked, my voice low and husky.

Their eyes snapped open, and they gazed up at me with a mixture of excitement and curiosity. I could sense their eagerness, their bodies trembling with anticipation.

I leaned forward, my lips brushing against their ears. "Let's make our pack grow together."

Ember and Luna's eyes widened at my words, their hearts pounding in their chests. I sensed their lust intensifying as they began suckling harder, and what had started as a feeding session quickly escalated into something more. But I held back, allowing them to drink their fill.

I let them nurse while I ate the rabbit meat. During this time, Ember couldn't contain herself any longer. She dropped between my legs, almost ripping the bandages when she saw that they were standing between her and my cock.

Chuckling, I removed the bandages, and Ember took my entire shaft into her mouth in one swift motion.

"Ahhh~...Yeah!" Ember's warm, wet mouth enveloped my cock, sending waves of pleasure coursing through my body. I leaned back, my eyes fluttering closed as I savored the sensation. Luna, not wanting to be left out, moved to straddle my face, her dripping pussy hovering just above my lips.

"Mmm, you're both so eager," I murmured, my breath hot against Luna's sensitive flesh. "Come, let mommy taste you."

With a flick of my tongue, I teased Luna's clit, causing her to gasp and grind against my face. At the same time, Ember's head bobbed up and down, her tongue swirling around my shaft as she took me deeper into her throat.

"Ahh, Luna, you taste heavenly," I moaned, my lips and tongue exploring her intimately. With gentle probing, my fingers found Luna's tight anus, and I began to massage it gently, eliciting a sharp gasp from her.

"Mommy knows just what you need," I whispered, my lips never leaving her core.

"Awwo!" Luna let out a soft howl as her body trembled with sensations she had never experienced before. Her hips began grinding against my face, seeking more pleasure. And more I would give.

Gently, I inserted a finger inside her anus, matching the rhythm of my tongue on her clit. Luna's reactions were immediate and intense. Her juices coated my face, and I happily lapped them up, savoring the taste of her pleasure. My fingers continued their gentle massage, ensuring that her pleasure extended beyond her climax.

Ember, inspired by her sister's passionate cries, worked my cock with renewed vigor, her lips and tongue moving in a frenzy of desire. The sensation of her mouth on me, combined with the sight of Luna's ecstasy, was too much to bear, and with a final, desperate thrust, I came, my body convulsing as I released into her waiting mouth.

As the last of my seed spurted forth, Ember swallowed greedily, her eyes locked onto mine as she drank down my essence. She continued to suckle gently, drawing out every last drop until I was completely spent.

"Good girl," I finally said. With a satisfied sigh, Ember released my cock from her mouth, her tongue darting out to lick her lips clean. She looked up at me with a smile, her eyes shining with pride and lust.

Luna, still basking in the afterglow of her orgasm, watched us with a contented smile, her body relaxed and sated. I reached out, caressing her cheek gently before turning my attention back to Ember.

"You both were incredible," I said, my voice filled with warmth and affection.

Ember nuzzled against my hand, her eyes half-closed with contentment. I smiled, pulling them both into a warm embrace.

"Now, let's grow our pack."
