Biquege, the latest chapter of the Prince of Medicine is updated as soon as possible!

"Yes, a lot!" Seeing her salivation, Wen Xichi also smiled, calming her gently.

The little princess blinked, tears hanging on Bai Nen's face, and smiled:
"Brother, let's go, there is so much delicious."

"Okay!" His Royal Highness nodded and took the little princess's hand. The little brother and sister went out together.

Wen Xichi's eyes fell on their backs, and the corners of her lips were silently ticked. This is very good. At least in this life, she did not drift away, and she was truly happy ...

"Brother, what's that in front of you, it's so pretty!" The little princess stretched out her hand and shook it hard, pointing at a sugar man's stall across the street, under her long eyelashes, her eyes were watery Yes, I can see the excitement, "Brother, let's go and see."

The prince looked at the food in the hands of the people around him. This way, as long as she encountered food, the younger sister would not be able to leave. At this moment, when you see the sugar man, you can also see the corner of her mouth. Flash, it's stuck again.

The Prince felt that he could play alone, really!

It's comfortable without the little magic star of the second brother, but the little girl who is now coming up with this roundworm is not so easy to bring.

"There are too many people over there, it's too slow for your turn." His Royal Highness looked at the group of children around him, and said in a serious manner.

"I'm young, let them all let me." The little princess was petted in the palace, not to mention the two elder brothers, even if they have been training the elder brother's father, the little princess also hurts her heart, what's the good Give it to her first.

So much that what she hears from her father now is "She is young, let her be!"

"But there is a child younger than you." The prince reached out and pointed at the other child who was pulled by the hand of an older child, who was only about two years old, standing steadily beside his brother, more than the little princess. It's only a few years old, only about two or three years old, "Do you want to grab such a small child?"

"But ... brother, I can wait!" The little princess was really reluctant to leave, the sugar was so sweet and so beautiful, she could really wait again, "brother, be a father and emperor, and then a mother, alright? OK, there is an older brother, an older brother, me. "

The little princess's hand was wiped at the corner of her mouth

It's more and more felt that it doesn't matter if she waits until dark, she doesn't grab people, and her mother said that this is not a good boy.

Looking up, looking at the big brother in front, the little princess's soft lips muttered, "Brother, OK?"

The prince actually didn't want to spoil her. She was afraid of spoiling her younger sister, but she was accustomed to petting with her father and emperor. Although she would also tell the little princess on weekdays, at this moment, she was waiting in line. It doesn't seem to have anything to do with other qualities.

In this regard, the Prince feels that he really cares about the father and the emperor. It is obvious that the father and the emperor should care about the character of the younger sister, but now it has fallen on him. The prince heard a few days ago that his mother said, She has been worrying about a lot of things recently, and her hair is about to fall out. At the moment His Royal Highness reaches out and touches her horns, and feels that she has the same problem.

My hair is going to fall out!

It's really sad that I'm so big, why should I lose my hair?

This is really a sad perception.

"Brother, okay?" The little princess said waxy again, still looking at him with anticipation, almost all the little stars in his eyes, His Royal Highness Prince looked soft, and looked back at the prince who could not see far away. Seeing Taifu smiled slightly, knowing that Taifu agreed, Taifu was uneasy about himself and his sister, so he came out with him.

Speaking of which, Tai Fu has a lot of concern for himself, and it seems Tai Fu's hair is going to fall out.

Squatting down, holding the little princess and whispering, "Wait, you can, but don't talk very much for a while. Don't call your father and mother, or your father or mother ... you can't forget it!"

The prince was afraid that the little princess would show her stuff and let people know their identity, so she couldn't have a good time!

"Brother, I know. Don't say I'm a princess, don't say I'm a prince, let alone we live in the palace, so others won't know who we are, and no old monster will find us in the middle of the night, come It 's for kids. "The princess said in a serious manner, and she stretched out her hand with a fat little hand, repeating it seriously.

Some of these words were said by the prince, some were by the little princess.

The little princess is most afraid of this kind of cannibalistic monster, of course, I remember most clearly.

Every night she just thinks about eating people

Old monsters will cry, so I hate this old monster who comes out to eat children at night.

This is the thing that the little princess is most afraid of. Even if it is daytime, the little princess's fat cheeks will shake twice, and she feels a little flustered. A pair of big eyes with water and spirits also carefully looked left and right, Meng's heart hurt, what else could not be promised!

"Okay, this sugar man is fine, let's go back." The little prince compromised.

"Don't go back!" The little princess didn't plan to compromise. She didn't want to go back to the palace because it was so fun outside. There wasn't much fun in the palace. There weren't many people here. Those who saw themselves were respectful, extremely. It's boring, and besides the eldest brother and the second brother, there isn't even a child similar to himself.

Now the streets are full, and you can see a few steps just a few steps. Everyone is having a good time. The little princess is very envious. A little fat finger is stuck in her mouth, and she is full of joy as she squints.

"If you don't go back, you won't wait for the sugarman." The little Prince looked cold.

The little princess was very wronged, she opened her mouth and wanted to cry, but she saw her elder brother's face was cold and her eyes were serious. Even if she looked like this, she wouldn't even be crying, maybe she would be even more angry, she could only whimper twice, very pathetic He softly called out: "Brother, I will be obedient. I listen to Brother the most, and play for a while, don't go back to the palace."

Red eyes, white tender face, how to see how distressing.

"Prince Fu will be angry." The little prince thought that he was soft, maybe he was not too old, and it was too easy to soften.

"Tai Fu isn't angry, Tai Fu is the best." Although the little princess was small, she was very clever. When she heard the words of the elder brother, she knew that she was thinking a little bit, and hurriedly took the little prince's hand and shook again. the best."

"Really don't go back?" The little Prince said helplessly when he saw his sister doing this. "Father and emperor found that you are not in the palace and will be beaten."

"The father does not fight. The father does not fight the second brother. The second brother is not good. The second brother fights with others. I went out to accompany the second brother. The second brother played by himself, not with me." The little princess looked angry. The second emperor was accused of crimes, and he said a lot, and the meaning was very clear. He pushed the pot to the second emperor who was not here.

The rise of the poor second prince is now playing, and suddenly there is a cold war!
