Chapter 71

I didn't have to work these three days. After cleaning up the house, Zhang Fan went to the bank. Before leaving last night, Li Xiao asked his assistant to give Zhang Fan three stacks of money. At that time, Li Xiao said, "this is the treatment fee. If you want to buy the house in my hand, I won't give more. If you don't buy it, let's talk about it."

Zhang Fan is a little embarrassed to take it. He drives someone else's car and eats and drinks. When he went out, the assistant put the money in a small bag, stuffed it into Zhang Fan and sent him out of the door.

If Zhang Fan just graduated, he would sleep with 30000 in his arms at night. I've seen the world now.

After the bank went to work in the morning, Zhang fan set out for the bank. After hesitating for a long time, he called Shaohua: "Shaohua, are you busy? I have something to consult you."

A few days ago, when Shaohua's mother was treated, Zhang Fan had no words to talk with Shaohua. Everyone is not a fool, but there is a best friend Jia SuYue between them, so Shaohua resists Zhang Fan a little. If it weren't for her mother's treatment, she would never have had contact with Zhang Fan again.

"Doctor Zhang, I'm at work. What's the matter?" Shao Hua looked at Zhang Fan's phone and didn't say whether he was busy or not. If he invited him to dinner, he would have no time.

"Well, I want to consult about handling the loan. I don't know what kind of procedure it is."

Shao Hua is a business manager. He mainly makes loans and receives loans. He has tasks every month. As soon as he heard that Zhang Fan was looking for something serious, he said, "where are you? Why don't you come to my unit and I'll tell you."

"I'm right at the door of your unit."

"Wait a minute." With these words, Shaohua went downstairs to receive Zhang Fan.

"Doctor Zhang, this way, please." After all, he is in the unit, and Zhang Fan comes to work. Shaohua's etiquette is very standardized.

He led Zhang Fan to her office. After sitting down, he asked, "Dr. Zhang, what are you going to do with the loan?" Because Zhang Fan's profession is a doctor, he is an excellent customer.

"Well, a friend's house is for sale. She suggested that I take over, but I don't have enough money in my hand. I'll ask about the loan first, but I'm not sure whether I can borrow or not." Zhang Fan looked at Shaohua's business appearance, and his heart was cool.

Although what Zhang Fan said was uncertain and Shao Hua was not disappointed, it was not important whether she did business or not. The important thing was to help Zhang Fan. If her mother's arm were not Zhang Fan, she didn't know when it would hurt.

"It's all right. I'll tell you first." Shao Hua explained the mortgage in popular language as much as possible.

Zhang Fan hesitated after hearing it again. Shao Hua looked and asked, "which community house is it. How big and how much is it? One square meter. "

"Jinghua Jiayuan is about 120 square meters to more than 140 square meters. More than one thousand square meters. " Assistant Li Xiao told Zhang Fan the house data in the morning.

"What do your friends do? There are many houses. And such a cheap price, will it be a liar. You should be careful. Jinghua Jiayuan's opening price is more than 1000. And now it is a high-end community in the city. So you must be careful. "

Although not particularly familiar, Shaohua, who can be engaged in the financial industry, feels that Zhang Fan is not a reliable friend. Advised Zhang Fan.

"Oh, that community was developed by my friend. She just knew I didn't have a house. She said she would sell it to me at cost price. There should be no problem." Zhang Fan explained.

"Oh! Really. " Shao Hua doesn't believe it. You, a little doctor, say you know the developer and let the developer sell the building to you at a loss. It's really unlikely. Do you want it? Zhang Fan was deceived. Do you want it? Zhang Fan came to boast. Shaohua looked at Zhang Fan a little strangely.

They were talking. Zhang Fan's phone rang, "Zhang Fan, have you come to our unit?"

Wang Qian's phone, she saw Zhang Fan's car parked at the door of the bank. Although she was late for work, no one cared about her anyway. She didn't worry. She went to the door and saw a Cherokee. It was really Zhang Fan's. He called Zhang Fan.

"Sister Wang, I have something to do at the bank. Now in ~ ~ ~ "Zhang Fan doesn't know where Shaohua's office belongs.

"Customer department." Shao Hua reminded me.

"Wait for me, I'm coming." After hanging up the phone, soon I heard the sound of high heels. Wang Qian pushed the door in. When she saw Zhang Fan, she smiled and asked, "what are you doing here? Why don't you call me."

Zhang Fan and Shao Hua stood up. Shao Hua: "Hello, director Wang." Wang Qian nodded. She is an executive of the bank and has a special identity. Sometimes her words are more effective than the bank president.

"Sister Wang, let me know about the loan." Zhang Fan said.

"Loans? What are you doing? "

"Sister Li Xiao, she has several houses and asks me if I want them. I'll learn about the loan first. "

As soon as Wang Qian heard this, she asked, "what's the name of Jinghua Jiayuan?"

"Yes."

When they were talking, the director of the customer department also came. When he saw Wang Qian, he rushed over to say hello.

As soon as Wang Qian heard this, she smiled and said, "what are you hesitating about? I'll ask you. If the interest rate is lower, you can buy one. When the decoration is finished. If you pick up your parents, you'll have a home. "

"I haven't thought about it yet."

"Why hesitate, my silly brother? Even if you don't live in that house, you don't worry about selling it. You know, that community is very popular in tea vegetable city. This is Li Xiao's thanks to you. " She pulled Zhang Fan aside and whispered.

On the other hand, the manager of the customer department and Shao Hua are learning about the situation. With that, Wang Qian said to the manager of the customer department, "Xiao Cui, look at getting a loan with lower interest for my brother. I'll go up first and come down later." She's on one side, Shaohua. It's not convenient for them to work.

"OK, director Wang, don't worry." The account manager said with a smile.

After Wang Qian left, manager Cui said to Zhang Fan, "Mr. Zhang, why don't we go to my office and I'll do one for you." He has learned from Shao Hua.

"No, please. I know Shaohua. Let her handle it for me."

The account manager glanced at Shaohua and said, "well, if you have any questions, please contact me."

Shao Hua looked at the manager and said, "I can't see. You know a lot of people. Even director Wang is familiar with us. " She was very happy because Zhang Fan didn't say she knew the manager, so she asked the manager to handle it.

"No, just ~ ~" Zhang Fan scratched his head and didn't know how to explain. As a result, Shaohua said, "I just said it casually without explanation. I was worried that you were cheated, but director Wang said to let you buy it quickly. It seems to be true. Shall I get you a loan now? "

"I haven't thought about it yet. I'm a little flustered to borrow so much money at once. And my sister is going to take the college entrance examination. I have to prepare money for her to go to school. " Zhang Fan tells the truth.

"It's all right. What's your monthly income?" Seeing that Zhang Fan hesitated, Shaohua began to ask about him. Finally, she was surprised to find that Zhang Fan, who had worked for one year, had a lot of savings.

"Buy it quickly. If you miss the house, you will regret it. And your income is enough for your sister to go to college. " Shao Hua said.
