Mr. Kane Got Blacklisted Chapter 1076 [Eleven Jewell]

Chapter 1076

Stella was blushing hard. She had fantasized about Keegan begging to have sex with her many times before and could not believe it had happened so easily.

Though the situation they were in was a little strange.

Stella pushed Keegan's hand away and said, "Wait for me to change into my clothes first."

But Keegan pulled her back, nibbled on her ear, and said in a raspy voice, "What did you think I paid 300 thousand dollars for this costume for?"

Stunned, Stella began to speak.

"You—"

Keegan did not wait for her to finish.

He lowered his head, kissed her, and picked her up in his arms.

Stella was afraid of falling, so she subconsciously held onto his neck.

Keegan chuckled and deepened the kiss.

Keegan had always been very conservative when it came to sex.

After all, Stella failed to seduce him even when she wore a fox outfit.

For a long time, she thought that Keegan had no sexual desires.

However, today, she found out he did not have a fetish for rabbit costumes or fox costumes.

Instead, he liked it when she cosplayed one of the characters she played.

When Keegan was on top of Stella, she could feel his passion for the first time.

It was so hot and fiery that her body went limp, and her voice trembled.

There was a hint of eagerness behind his movements, novelebook.com and they were not as gentle as usual due to the intense emotions.

He went straight in before she even took off all her clothes.

Stella furrowed her brows as she felt some pain.

Keegan paused and kissed her forehead before asking in a low voice, "Does it hurt?"

Stella nodded her head and shook it after that.

It was a little painful, but it was bearable.

She liked it more when Keegan was rough with her; she found it sexy.

Keegan held down Stella's hands above her head and grabbed her chin.

He leaned over and whispered, "It probably won't hurt as much if you focus more on my face."

Stella did not reply.

It was clear that Keegan was teasing her about what happened during their first night together.

Stella was not easily swayed.

"Do you think you still look as young as you were four years ago? You're getting older, Keegan. Looking at you wouldn't help with the pain anymore. You should work on your skills and rely less on your emotions."

Her words left Keegan dumbfounded. He narrowed his eyes threateningly and said, "You're right. I should work on my skills. Let's practice tonight, Ms. Jewell."

Stella was taken aback.

She tried to argue, but Keegan was already in her.

'Fuck.I should've stayed quiet.Never provoke a man at times like this, or else you'll be the one who's suffering"On the other end, Marshall looked at the long-unanswered phone and pursed his lips.

He then hung up and called Vermont.

Vermont was lying in bed at the time, ready to get a massage from Felicity.

Though the woman was petite, she was strong.

She also had great technique when it came to massages.

Vermont enjoyed himself so much that he almost fell asleep.

Felicity was the one who called out to him when his phone rang.

He then came back to his senses and picked up the call.

"Mr.Moore, do you not know that you shouldn't be calling people in the middle of the night while they're asleep?"

Marshall laughed and said, "Based on your routine, aren't you supposed to be wide awake right now?"

"That was the old Vermont," the other party replied.

"I'ma family man now.I've gotta take care of my health."

Hearing that, Felicity's eyelids twitched.

'This guy is such a good liar.I get nervous any time someone asks me something in detail"

After that, Vermont asked, "What's up?"

"I wanted to know when we're having the gathering," said Marshall.

“What gathering?” asked Vermont.

Marshall paused and said calmly, “Didn’t you invite everyone to get together and ask Keegan to contact me?”

Vermont was confused when he heard that.

‘When did I set up a get-together, and why do I not know about it? What is Keegan up to?’ Vermont was the best at helping his best friend out in a lie.

“Ah, yes.Are you coming?”

He immediately asked.

“I’m not sure yet.I have two upcoming lawsuits to settle this week.I’ll be there if I finish my work in time,” said Marshall.

He paused momentarily and asked, “Are you guys bringing the girls? Or will it just be us?”

Vermont laughed and said, “It’ll just be us, of course.Where’s the fun if the girls are there?”

This was especially true when Stella was there.

Vermont would play around with Keegan when he was drunk whenever they went out for drinks.

However, Stella would always glare at Vermont for pouring Keegan another drink when she was there.

Marshall was silent momentarily before saying, “Okay, I see.”

After hanging up the phone, Felicity stared at Vermont and said, novelebook.com “Why even bother having a girlfriend if having us at your gathering is no fun?”

Hearing that, Vermont grinned and said, “You can go if you want to.I’m sure it’ll be fun with you there.”

“I’m already tired from dealing with you every single day, and you want me to deal with you when you’re drunk? Are you suggesting I die faster?”

“You’re being dramatic.”

Felicity pointed at her dark circles and said, “Look at me! When I went to pick up my delivery earlier, the person at the counter asked if I was alright because, apparently, I looked awful.”

That statement amused Vermont, but when he saw the dark circles under Felicity’s eyes, he did not laugh.

‘It does look pretty bad’ he thought.

Vermont had always called her over on the grounds of being injured, and she would always respond to his requests out of guilt.

Vermont did not actually want Felicity to work for him; he just wanted to spend more time with her.

However, he knew she would not have shown up if he did not use his body as an excuse. He grabbed Felicity’s hand, and in a low voice, he said, “Thank you.”

Felicity found it a little weird that Vermont was suddenly being so serious.

“It’s not a big deal as long as you get well soon. What did the doctor say the last time you went for a check-up?”

Vermont could not tell her he was fine that quickly, so he said, “The doctor said that my body’s still healing and told me to sleep on my back for the next two days. It doesn’t hurt that much anymore. They told me I can go on with my daily life but can’t take part in extreme exercise.”

Felicity’s eyes lit up at the sound of that.

“Does that mean you’re fine now?”

Vermont was a little disappointed.

“The wound had scabbed over, but...I still can’t...You know...”

“But why? Isn’t the injury healed already?”

Felicity was getting a little anxious.

“Did the doctor say anything about it? Is it not fully healed yet? Or is it a psychological thing?”

“The doctor didn’t say much and just told me to rest.”

Vermont cleared his throat and continued, “They also told me to try stimulating emotions with my girlfriend.”

Felicity frowned.

With a weird expression, she said after a long time, “D-Do you want to find a girlfriend to try it out?”

Vermont’s heart felt stuffy. He could not believe she was asking him to find another girl.

“You’re my girlfriend. Why are you telling me to find someone else?”

“I’m just your pretend girlfriend,”

Felicity muttered in a low voice.

Vermont glared at her and said, “You’re my real girlfriend in other people’s eyes. They’d think I’m cheating if I find another woman. Stella would kill me if she knew I ‘cheated’ on you!”

‘Stella would indeed do something like that’ Felicity thought.

Although Vermont said he did not want to find someone else because he was scared that Stella would kill him for cheating, she felt relieved that he would not look for another woman.

Felicity felt troubled when she thought about the tricky matter.

“What would you do then?” She asked.

Vermont wanted her to propose herself for the position, but he knew she would be mad if he said that out loud.

So he sighed and said, "I guess I'd probably find some videos and work on it myself."

His words took her aback. She immediately understood what kind of videos Vermont was talking about and became shy.

Though, she was curious.

"You mean the non-censored ones?" Felicity asked in a soft voice.

Her question rendered him silent.

'I can't believe she's discussing this with me right now. She really doesn't see me as a man, huh?'

"Boys watch uncensored videos because it's sensual and exciting. Men like me, however, prefer the plot. For example, teacher-student romances, novelebook.com sex with sisters-in-law, sex with a stalker, bondage, coercion... The more taboo the plot, the more stimulating it is."

Felicity blushed, and it took her a while to say, "You pervert!"

Vermont laughed and asked, "Which one do you prefer?"

Something popped up in Felicity's mind, and her cheeks turned red. She glared at Vermont and snorted coldly, "Why would I tell you?!"

"Why are you scared of me knowing? Could it be that you're more perverted than me?" Vermont said slowly.

Felicity did not fall for his trick this time.

Instead, she grunted and said, "Don't worry. You're definitely the more perverted one."

Vermont chuckled for a long time after that. It was a little over 11:00 p.m., and Felicity kept yawning.

"I have to go," she rubbed her eyes and said.

However, Vermont did not want her to go.

“Stella’s not coming home tonight. Aren’t you scared of being alone in that apartment?”

“What’s there to be scared about? I used to live alone.”

“But it’s not safe. Didn’t you hear about that dog in our area that was brought to the basement and abused? What are you going to do when you encounter such criminals?”

Felicity got mad at the mention of this.

The perpetrator was only sentenced to pay the dog owner a few thousand dollars, which Felicity thought was insufficient.

“He should damn well come here and let me slap the shit out of him!” She exclaimed.

Vermont was stunned to hear that.

He believed that Felicity was capable of defending herself since she had body-slammed him—a six-foot and fit man—before.

In his opinion, it was not something an average woman could do.

“I’ve set a timer for the porridge. All you have to do is eat it tomorrow morning,”

Felicity said while she put on her coat and headed for the door.

Vermont realized his words did not work, so he said, “Remember to close your windows. The family downstairs is going to send one of their family members to the funeral home tomorrow. They’ll probably do it in the early morning, so it will be noisy.”

Felicity froze and asked, “Someone died downstairs?”

“Did you not see the messages? They informed us about it in the community group chat.”

“I’m not in the group chat.”

Suddenly, Felicity had difficulty staying still.

“When did they pass? How did they die? Has it been a week yet?”

“I don’t think so.They sent the message to the group yesterday.If I’m not wrong, the person slipped in the bath and hit their head.They then drowned in the bathtub.”Felicity started to become more fidgety at the sound of that.

Mr. Kane Got Blacklisted Chapter 1079 [Eleven Jewell]

Felicity was not afraid of many things, but she was afraid of the dead, especially those who died by drowning.

When she was younger, she attended a relative’s funeral with her mother.Her relative was fishing by the river when he had a heart attack and fell into the water.

It took the salvage team four to five days to recover the body.

Felicity was young at the time and could not help being curious.

At the funeral, she saw her relative being put into the casket.

His body was entirely swollen.

She had nightmares for one year straight after that.

Her dreams always consisted of her dead relative asking her to enter the waters and play with him.

When she heard that her downstairs neighbor had drowned in the bathtub, she was afraid to go home alone.

Vermont saw the odd look on her face and asked, “What’s wrong?”

She returned to her senses and immediately said, “It’s still early.Why don’t we play some video games?”

Vermont gauged her expression and realized that something was wrong.

He pursed his lips and said, “Did you forget? They’re updating the servers. It’ll only be available at 7 a.m. tomorrow.”

Felicity stayed quiet.

Seeing that she did not respond, Vermont asked, “Why don’t we watch a movie? My friend introduced me to this new show. novelebook.com Do you want to watch it with me?”

Felicity took advantage of the situation and immediately said, “Okay.”

So the two of them turned off the lights, turned on the TV, and put on the movie. It was a European film.

When the title played, Felicity hugged a pillow, asking, “What kind of movie is it?”

Vermont handed her a blanket and said, “It’s a romance film.

“Oh,” Felicity responded as she put the blanket on her lap.

The plot was rather cheesy.

The male lead was a leader of a gang who fell in love with the female lead—an ordinary girl.

Both of them were extremely good-looking and had great chemistry.

Though the film was somewhat of a cliché, it was still bearable.

As the show progressed, Felicity noticed the bizarre plot.

When she saw the female lead being handcuffed in bed, she finally realized that it was a different type of romance film.

She wanted to ask Vermont to change the movie, but she saw how much he was enjoying it, so she kept her mouth shut, not wanting to make a fuss.

The scene was very ambiguous, and the male and female protagonists were not fully exposed, but the sexual tension between them was through the roof, it was sexy.

Felicity tried to stop herself from looking.

After three minutes, the scene changed.

That was when she realized what she had watched earlier was just the beginning.

First, the main characters of the movie were in the bathroom.

Then, they were on a cruise.

The story had become irrelevant as all Felicity saw was the male lead humping.

She could no longer stand the plot, so she sneaked to the bathroom.

Vermont saw her leave and smiled in satisfaction.

Felicity stayed in the bathroom for 30 to 40 minutes and came out when the movie was over.

The TV was off, and Vermont sat on the couch, scrolling through his phone.

Seeing that Felicity was out of the bathroom, he asked, "What took you so long?"

Felicity's ears were red as she pretended to be calm and said, "My period came, and my tummy hurt."

Vermont raised an eyebrow and said, "Oh. I thought it was because you were too shy to watch the rest of the movie."

Felicity immediately denied the accusation.

"What's there to be shy about? What they were doing wasn't even exciting enough."

"Really?"

Vermont looked at her and asked.

"I have a few more films like that in my stash. Why don't we put one on to fulfill you?"

Felicity was at a loss for words.

“Maybe some other time. I’m getting sleepy,” she said.

She was about to grab her phone when she tripped on the rug and fell in Vermont’s direction.

Vermont was afraid of Felicity falling, so he hurriedly reached out to catch her, but the sudden impact caused him to fall. Worried that she would get injured, Vermont quickly switched their positions and landed on the ground first. Felicity then landed on top of him.

There was a loud thud. It seemed that Vermont had hit his head on the floor. Felicity quickly held his head and rubbed the back of his head with a nervous look on her face.

Vermont’s heart melted when he saw what she was doing. “Does it hurt?” Felicity asked while she rubbed his head. ‘You could’ve just pushed me away. Why did you fall with me?’

“I wanted to push you, but you were so heavy, I couldn’t do it.’

Felicity elbowed him and got up. “Fuck you!” She said angrily.

Vermont grabbed onto his chest and sat up with a stifled smile. “It actually hurt,” he said.

“You deserved it,” Felicity responded with a lack of sympathy.

Vermont stood up and said warmly, “You can do your thing. I’m going to the bathroom.’ Felicity did not want to talk to him. He smiled and turned around to leave.

After closing the bathroom door, Vermont took a deep breath, looked down at his member, and started to worry. He was convinced that he was not sexually attracted to Felicity before this. Now, he was having a physical reaction to that minor interaction.

Vermont had never felt ashamed of himself with other women before. However, he felt a little embarrassed when facing Felicity's clear eyes. Compared to being worried about his lie being exposed, he was more afraid of scaring Felicity.

Suddenly, he understood what Keegan meant when he said, "To care about someone is not to indulge, but to restrain."

'How much longer am I supposed to hold back? Fuck.'

Vermont took a shower to calm himself down. Felicity had already fallen asleep on the couch when he came out of the bathroom. The blanket she had on earlier was kicked to the side. With her two legs curled up, she turned into a ball. Vermont found it cute. He crouched by the couch and stared at her for a while before calling, "Little miss bandit?" There was no reply. "Felicity Thompson? Felicity—'

The person on the couch did not respond. Vermont looked at her pink pouty lips and could not resist kissing her. He tried to hold himself back, but the more he tried, the more difficult it was for him to stop. His movements gradually intensified.

Only when Felicity let out a short gasp from trying to breathe did Vermont snap back into his senses. He let go of Felicity and stood up. Looking at her unusually red lips, his heartbeat became unbelievably fast. He hurriedly grabbed the blanket and covered Felicity with it. Then, he turned around and went back to his room.

Marshall was staring at his phone screen at the Moore Mansion with a deep gaze. Suddenly, there was a knock on the door. It was Ariel." Marshall, are you asleep?"

"No, Mom,' Marshall turned off his phone and replied.

Ariel opened the door and entered the room. She was in her pajamas and was holding a bowl of yogurt. She slowly walked toward her son and put the bowl on the nightstand. She said, "Gloria told me you didn't eat much dinner earlier. Are you not feeling well?"
