Mr. Kane Got Blacklisted Chapter 1143 [Eleven Jewell]

“It’s not okay to look at someone’s phone,” Keegan asserted.

Stella looked at him and asked, “Is it okay to set my birthday as your phone password?”

Keegan did not know what to say to that.

“Come here,” Stella said while she made a beckoning gesture.

“Can you be more polite? Don’t call me over like I’m a dog.” Stella was getting annoyed. “Are you coming over or not?” Never again,’ Keegan mumbled to himself as he got ready to suffer the consequences of his actions. When he walked over, Stella pushed him onto the bed and nestled into his arms.

Keegan paused and whispered, “I haven’t showered yet.”

“It’s better to wash up before intercourse. 80 percent of gynecological diseases are related to having unhygienic sex. The vast majority of people with these diseases get them from partners who don’t pay attention to their personal hygiene,” Keegan whispered.

Stella was a little taken aback after hearing him say that.” You know a lot about this,” she said.

Keegan was very humble. “I read that on an HPV pamphlet the last time I accompanied you to the doctor.”

“Oh...” Stella said and suddenly leaned into his ear. “But I can’t wait any longer.”

Keegan’s muscles tensed up in a flash. He slowly relaxed himself while his ears were flushed red. He swallowed and said, “Why don’t we do it in the bathroom?”

“But I want to do it here.” Stella’s voice was warm and flirtatious. “There’s no stool in the bathroom, and I don’t feel like standing.”

Keegan blushed hard when he heard Stella say that and could not help but think of a few R-rated images. His gaze deepened, and his voice turned husky. “I can hold you up,” he said.

“Then, how am I going to hold my phone?”

Keegan was slightly aroused. ‘I can’t believe she wants to record this moment.’ He thought about it and decided to advise her. “I suggest that you don’t take those kinds of videos with anyone, even with your husband. Women will always be at more of a disadvantage if the videos get leaked. We can have someone install mirrors in here someday if you really want to watch.”

Stella could not hold back her laughter. “Keegan, what kind of crap are you thinking about? Did you think I was going to sleep with you?”

“You used to dress and hug me like this when you wanted sex.”

“Well, it’s clear you didn’t pay much attention. When have I ever asked you for sex in my underwear?”

Keegan did not know what to say. ‘How could she justify this matter with such a straight face?’ he thought.

“Besides, I’m on my period,” Stella muttered. “So, you wouldn’t have a chance at it even if you wanted to.”

“So, what are you doing?”

Stella unlocked her phone and handed it to Keegan.” Satisfied?” she asked.

Keegan took a look at the post Stella had just put out, clarifying her relationship with Marshall. Not only did she thank Marshall for helping her, but in the clarification, she claimed that she had always treated him like a brother. [I hope that people can stop spreading false rumors as it may cause a misunderstanding for the girls who like Marshall,] she added.
