

Read Mr. Kane Got Blacklisted Chapter 1155 [Eleven Jewell]

Mr. Kane Got Blacklisted Chapter 1155 [Eleven Jewell]

When Bella worked as an extra and a freelance actor, she often fantasized about becoming famous one day. Though, she knew that it was just a fantasy. Her schedule was filled with work, and she had no time to dream about being a hit in the industry.

Every day before Bella went to sleep, she would think about how much food the crew would need tomorrow and whether she would have to fork out her own money. She would think about how many more days of work she had for that month and how much more money she could get to provide for her family.

If Keegan had not sent someone to find her, her life would have been dull and busy. But he showed up and pulled her into a colorful world of fame and fortune. Never in Bella's wildest dreams did she think anything like that would happen to her. Everything, including money and fame, became easy for her at that point.

With every blood transfusion she did, Keegan would help her get roles in different movies and sponsorships from various brands. She got everything she asked for with almost no effort.

Soon, Bella began to make a name for herself in the entertainment circle. She also built more connections and gained more popularity during that time.

Bella used to imagine getting paid a thousand dollars daily when she was only paid 200 dollars. Now, she was getting tens of millions of dollars per show, but she was still unsatisfied. Bella always wanted more than what she had, which was human nature.

It was true that Keegan allowed Bella to reach the top, but one mistake could cause her downfall. 'I wouldn't have to do all these things if Keegan hadn't provided me with all these resources and had Elegant Media sign me on,' she thought.

After listening to Bella's little rant, Keegan suddenly sneered, "Our dealings have always been clear-cut. I gave you whatever you wanted. Everything that happened after that was due to your insatiability and recklessness."

Keegan's words hit the nail on the head.

Before the two had reached an agreement back then, Keegan provided Bella with another option-find someone to plan her career, hire an acting instructor, and start from the bottom. That meant Bella could choose how far to go depending on her skills, but she did not want that. Instead, she decided to take a shortcut to success.

Keegan was aware of the dark side of human nature. The easier it was to obtain something, the easier for people to lose their will to fight and become greedy.

Back then, Bella was hardworking and self-motivated. Yet, all that changed when Keegan came into the picture.

Keegan had no interest in advising strangers, so he never stopped Bella's greedy demands throughout the ordeal. He knew her greed would get the best of her and become a problem later. But, in his opinion, Bella was responsible for her own path and should pay the price herself.

Bella's face turned white when she received an incoming call from the police. She was afraid to answer it. Once the relevant authorities provided a final statement about Andrea's case, everything would be over for her. Bella's name would forever be tarnished, and she would be forced to resign as an actor. There was also the possibility that she would have to face jail time.

Bella was greedy for money and fame. She had bought countless likes and followers on her social media accounts in order to be in the spotlight. She also bought many luxury brand items so others would think she was an upper-class woman.

This meant that even though Bella earned a lot of wealth over the years, she had no savings. In fact, she needed money. That was why she always accepted every endorsement offer, regardless of the product or service provided. At the same time, Bella would not have the assets to pay the sponsorship brands for the breach of contract if she lost her career.