Mr. Kane Got Blacklisted Chapter 1265 [Eleven Jewell]

Upon discovering the “truth’ of what was happening, they were immediately filled with righteous indignation.

[She’s being unreasonable. What right does she have to claim this piece of land if the loan was repaid by Ms. White?]

[It’s simple. You just have to show proof that the loan was repaid when this matter is brought to court and make her pay everything back. How can she think that she can take this land away without spending a dime? It’s ridiculous!]

[It took them so long to get the title deed, but how did she manage to get one? I’m sure obtaining such documents is not an easy process, right?]

One of the parents suddenly said, [I heard that Ms. White’s stepdaughter is a celebrity.]

[A celebrity? A celebrity who engages in such underhanded dealings?]

[Tell us who she is. We’ll inform her company of her despicable actions and expose her online. I believe karma’s going to get her back.]

[Is her name Stella Jewell? Is she the one who played the empress in the recent hit drama “The Palace”?]

[What? Is she a superstar? She can easily earn millions from just one show, yet she wants to reclaim the land where we send our children to school?]

[She perfectly confirms my impression of people like her. They would do anything for attention, and there is no limit to their greed.]

[Now we know how she managed to get the title deed so easily. Turns out it’s just “celebrity privilege”.]

[Let’s contact the media and expose her. She can’t just do anything she wants without any consequences.]

Hylde read the messages, and a smile appeared on her face.

'What chances does Stella have against me with these parents on my side?'

In Clouditude International, Stella was looking at the do the parents believe in her explanation so much?] she asked.

Ted replied, [That's because I had someone to it's easy to manipulate them when something goes wrong in this area.]

[What idea?]

Ted briefly explained to Stella, and Stella finally realized that police arrived at the school earlier.

Hylde using the parents as leverage against them was the exact thing Ted wanted, so he paved the way for her in advance.

Fortunately, Hylde did not let him down.

Stella was utterly impressed by Ted's tactics. He was even better than a professional PR person.

Her initial intention was only to reclaim the land and cut step further and wanted to utilize the situation to gain more public attention.

Ted added, [Keegan paid me too much, so I won't feel at ease without doing some extra for you.]

Stella curiously asked, [How much did he pay you?]

[That's confidential,] Ted replied.

Stella was speechless

Keegan came out of the kitchen with a plate of sliced mangoes, as they were still chatting. He sat down beside her and pretended to casually ask, "Who are you chatting with?"

"Mr. Eldrich." Stella used a toothpick to pick up a piece of mango and took a bite. "Why did you finish work so early today?"

"I'm moving today," Keegan said.

Stella was confused.

Suddenly, the doorbell rang.

Keegan put down the plate and went to get the door.

Then, Stella saw Aldor walking in with a few other men carrying boxes in their hands.

Stella sat there in a daze and even forgot about the piece of mango in her hand, as she watched those men place the boxes in her bedroom under Keegan's command.

Stella finally came back to her senses after a while. She put down the mango and pulled Keegan out of her room before glaring at him and said, "What are you doing?" "Didn't you agree to let me stay here?" Keegan asked.
