

Mr. Kane Got Blacklisted

Mr. Kane Got Blacklisted Chapter 2111-Stella nodded.

She was about to say something else when Jaylene pushed the door open and said, “Ste—Ms.Hall, can you come out for a moment? I need to talk to you.”

So, Stella held her tongue and said to Larry, “The HR department will assist you with your onboarding.Just do whatever they ask.”

Then, she turned around and walked out.

Larry glanced around and heard the HR manager calling him, so he went to fill out his information.

Jaylene waited for Stella in the walkway.

Stella walked over and asked, “What is it?”

Jaylene said flatly, “Trevor’s flight is arriving at eleven.Did you know?”

Stella nodded.

“Are you going to pick him up?”

“Yeah,” Stella responded.

“Let’s go together then.” Stella was taken aback.

“You’re going too?” Jaylene frowned.

“What’s wrong with it? He’s not just your brother; he’s my brother too! We lived together for more than twenty years!”

Stella shrugged her shoulders.

“Whatever.”

She did not care if Jaylene went or not.

She was just a little surprised that Jaylene had gotten smarter.

If they went to the airport separately, Trevor might not necessarily ride in Jaylene's car.

Their relationship had been tense lately, and she must have noticed it.

She only offered to go with Stella because she was trying to ease the tension between her and Trevor.

Although they were not biologically related, their twenty years of relationship was genuine.

Jaylene probably realized that fighting with Trevor was irrational, or perhaps Darcie advised her to please him.

If it was the latter, then her goal was not just to mend their relationship—it would be something more complicated.

Xavier drove the two of them to the airport.

It was halfway through March, and the weather was gradually warming up, with temperatures reaching nearly twenty degrees at noontime.

Jaylene was already wearing her spring clothes, but Stella had a coat that looked somewhat thick.

When they got out of the car to wait for Trevor, Jaylene looked at Stella from head to toe and asked, "Don't you feel hot?"

Stella replied flatly, "My mom said it's good to keep warm during spring. I'm just used to it."

Wearing a coat could cover her belly, although it was not very big yet.

Jaylene adjusted her jacket and asked, "How's Keegan?"

Stella remained nonchalant.

"Ask him yourself if you want to know."

Jaylene chuckled, her voice soft, sounding somewhat disdainful.

Stella could not help but glance at her.

Then, Jaylene said, "Stella, you've been living in Royalpark Villa for so long now, and Keegan still hasn't regained his memory at all.

Wouldn't it be inappropriate for you to continue staying there?"

Stella looked at her.

"What are you trying to say?"

"I don't."

Stella's eyes were cold.

"Jaylene, why don't you make yourself clearer?"

Mr. Kane Got Blacklisted Chapter 2112-Stella laughed. "Did Keegan tell you this?"

Jaylene spoke gently, 'Keegan cares a lot about the relationship between the Kane and Saun families. He also doesn't want to make things too embarrassing for you. Actually, our house isn't very far away from Royalpark Villa.

"If you really want to see him, it won't take long to drive there. This way, you'll get to maintain your image and not put Keegan in a tough position. What do you think?"

It seemed that the flowers from the past few days had really made Jaylene feel elated, thinking that Keegan had developed feelings for her. She ordered Stella to leave the house as if she was Keegan's wife.

"I don't really care where I live, but initially, Keegan was the one who asked me to stay there. If he doesn't want me there anymore, let him come and tell me himself. I'll move out of the house immediately as long as he's the one that says it."

Jaylene chuckled. "Stella, with how polite Keegan is, how could he possibly chase you out of his house? You know him." "This is exactly why I'm confused.

Just a few days ago, he went out of his way and bought me a new bed just to make sure I could sleep better. Why would he suddenly tell you that he doesn't want me to stay with him?

"Jaylene, did Keegan really ask you to tell me this? Or is this just something you made up because you don't want me to stay in Royalpark Villa?"

Jaylene was taken aback as she looked somewhat embarrassed. "I'm just giving you advice from the perspective of the Saun family. If you don't want to listen, forget it."

Stella said nonchalantly, "I can move out of Royalpark Villa, but I've got to hear it from Keegan himself. If he doesn't speak to me directly, I'll think that whoever persuades me to leave has ulterior motives."

Then, she looked at Jaylene, "Jaylene, I'll find out the truth about Keegan's disappearance sooner or later. When I do, I won't spare anyone who harmed him. Whether he remembers me or not, he still belongs to me. Anyone who dares to covet him, I'll tear them apart!"

Jaylene felt tense all over as her breathing became heavy. Then, she said with a stern face, "Don't you think you're being too unreasonable? Keegan is not an object; he has the right to be with whoever he likes."

Stella gazed at her. 'If he dares like someone else, I'll break his legs.' Jaylene paused, pursed her lips, and stopped speaking. Then, she secretly sent the saved recording to Keegan.

The plane landed, and soon, Trevor appeared before them, accompanied by a girl about half a head shorter than him.

The girl wore a leather jacket and a short skirt, with a sports backpack on her back. In her right hand, she held a phone, while her left hand dragged a suitcase. Her long hair reached her waist, partly loose and partly dyed in a few grayish strands, tied into thin braids on one side of her shoulder.

With almond-shaped eyes and an oval face, her high nose bridge gave her a slightly mixed-race appearance. She looked very presentable and not much older than Julian. She emitted a cool and stylish aura.

While Stella was still observing the girl, Jaylene called out, "Trevor, Sonia, over here!" Trevor looked over and said something to Sonia, and they walked toward them.

Jaylene stepped forward and hugged Trevor. "Trevor, welcome back."

Trevor patted her shoulder and looked at Stella. "I told you not to come pick us up. It's not that far anyway."

Before Stella could speak, Jaylene said, "Trevor, the last plane crash traumatized all of US. How could we feel at ease if we didn't come?"

Trevor paused and subconsciously looked at Sonia.

But Sonia remained nonchalant as if the plane crash had nothing to do with her.

Stella nodded and extended her hand. "Nice to meet you."

Sonia shook her hand emotionlessly.

Jaylene spoke warmly, "Sonia, it's been a long time. You've gotten so much prettier now! I could hardly recognize you."

Mr. Kane Got Blacklisted Chapter 2113-Sonia nodded at Jaylene and greeted her, "Hello, Jaylene."

Jaylene held her hand and took her suitcase. "Let's get in the car first. I'll take you to settle down, and then we can have a meal together."

Sonia did not refuse and followed her to the car.

Stella stood in place and watched the two of them walk away. Then, Trevor grabbed her wrist. "Come on, stop looking. They've known each other for a long time. Also, Sonia doesn't have many friends here, so it's normal for her to be close to Jaylene."

Stella shook her head. "I'm not concerned about that. I just feel like she's too young. Is she really as capable as you say?"

Trevor held her hand as they walked. "Don't underestimate Gen z. She's definitely more capable than you think she is." "No, I'm worried that a young girl like her will be corrupted by all the cunning people in the perfume blending department. Putting someone so innocent there seems a bit risky."

Trevor chuckled.

Stella looked at him and asked, "What's so funny?" "If you think this way, others will, too. It's all about catching them off guard and surprising them."

Trevor ruffled her hair and asked softly, "How are my dear nephews and nieces?"

Stella chuckled softly. "They're doing great. I'll show you the ultrasound later."

She paused for a moment before adding, "Trevor, you should hurry up too.

You'd better not be single when my children are grown up. Can you imagine how many presents you'll have to buy and receive none because you don't have a child?" "Do you think I can't afford to buy them presents?" "No, but then Keegan would be getting free stuff from you."

Trevor laughed. "You're right. You should bring this up in front of him next time."

Stella hugged his arm. "Hey, I met some of my old classmates the other day, and there are two beautiful, single ladies. Do you want me to introduce them to you?" "Are you crazy? Your classmates? I've got to be at least five years older than them, right? I'm not like Keegan the pervert, who's into someone much younger than him." "What's wrong with being with someone five years younger?"

They're not minors. You're so close-minded!"

Sonia was temporarily arranged to stay at the Saun residence. Her mother flew to another country for work right after the funeral. They did not settle in Hustuabourg, so they did not have a house in Rivera. Sonia was still young, so they did not want her to live alone.

There was only one vacant room in the Saun residence. It was next to Trevor's room, but it was not very spacious and did not have an attached bathroom, making it somewhat inconvenient for Sonia to live in.

Jaylene generously offered, "Trevor, Sonia can stay with me in my room. My room is big enough for two people."

Stella glanced at her. "Do you think Dad is that petty?"

Sonia, who had been silent, suddenly asked Trevor, "Do you have a room?"
