

Mr. Kane Got Blacklisted

Mr. Kane Got Blacklisted Chapter 2141-Larry walked in, closed the door behind him, and called out softly, "Hello, Ms. Hall."

Stella was taken aback. Then, she asked, "Larry? Is there something you need?"

Larry nodded. "Yes. Ms. Hall, today is my son's birthday, and I'd like to give him something. Could you please approve my leave? I only need two hours."

Stella smiled. "Of course, but our company has a dedicated person who handles leave requests for drivers. You can look for Mr. Payton on the second floor, but I'll approve it for you this time. Next time, just go directly to him."

She paused, then looked at his empty hands and asked, "Where is your leave request form?"

Larry looked somewhat embarrassed as he said softly, "I was afraid that you wouldn't approve it, so I haven't filled it out yet." "You're not taking leave without reason, and there's not much for you to do now anyway. A kid only has one childhood, so spend as much time as you can with him."

As she spoke, Stella printed out a leave request form from her computer and handed it to Larry along with a pen, saying, "Fill it out, and I'll sign it for you."

Take it to the HR department to file it, and then you can leave."

Larry took it, placed his thermos on the office desk, and bent over slightly to fill out the leave request form.

From where Stella was sitting, she could see the words he was writing. She was somewhat surprised as she said, "Larry, your handwriting is very nice."

Larry's handwriting looked nothing like his ragged appearance. Stella remembered that his highest educational level was only junior high school, but his handwriting was truly remarkable.

Larry replied modestly, "It's nothing. I watched my son write and learned it from him." "That's pretty impressive too."

Stella finished her water just as Larry had filled out the form. Then, he handed it to Stella for her to sign.

Stella took the pen and read the details.

As Larry grabbed his thermos on the table, he slowly twisted it open. The hot water emitted a faint steam, and through the mist, he watched Stella sign the form with her head lowered. His expression looked somewhat dark and inscrutable.

Stella then signed it and said, "Larry, take the box of chocolates from the coffee table when you leave. It's a gift from a friend, and I haven't opened it. Bring it back for your son. He might like it."

Larry clenched his hand around the thermos, tightened the lid, and reached out to take the form.

"Thank you so much, Ms. Hall," he said.

"Don't mention it. You may leave now."

Larry nodded, took the form, and started walking away. When he was about to leave the office, Stella called out to him, "Larry, wait a moment."

Mr. Kane Got Blacklisted Chapter 2142-Stella wore stockings, and some of the hot water splashed onto them, causing a sudden burning sensation followed by a pickling pain.

She then quickly pulled the stockings away from her skin.

Larry was shocked. He immediately bent down to pick up the broken pieces and apologized to Stella.

Stella waved her hand. "It's fine. Be careful not to cut your hand."

Upon hearing the noise from the next room, Xavier rushed over, saw what happened, and checked on Stella. Ms. Hall, are you okay?' he asked.

Stella nodded, i'm fine. Please ask the janitor to clean this up."

After making sure that Stella was okay, he went out to call for the janitor.

Larry held the thermos cup lid in his hand, looking a bit pale as if he had been startled.

Stella rubbed the area where the hot water had splashed onto her and said to Larry, after seeing him still standing there, 'Go to the back office tomorrow and get a new thermos cup. These glass ones shatter easily and are not safe to use.'

Then, she remembered the chocolates and the voucher in her hand and handed them to him. "You can go now, and don't worry about this.

Someone will come to clean it up later. Don't be late and disappoint your son.

His birthday only comes once a year."

Larry took them, thanked Stella, and turned around to leave.

In Unit 902 of Clouditude International, Felicity pulled Stella aside, glanced at Keegan in the kitchen, and asked softly, "Didn't he lose his memory? Why did you bring him here?" 'Vermont hasn't told her about it?' Stella could not believe it.

She cleared her throat and said, "I brought him here to meet my friends, which could possibly help him regain his memory."

"And with making Jaylene angry too." Felicity's eyes lit up as she said, "Try to charm Keegan later. I'll take a picture and upload it online to annoy her." "How should I do that?" "Pretend to trip and fall in his arms."

Stella's eyelid twitched. "I don't know how. Demonstrate it to me later."

Felicity said with confidence. "Just watch. I'll use Stinky Cucumber as a prop to show you."

Then, she walked over to Vermont and pretended to fall toward him.

Vermont was speaking to Keegan at that time. When Felicity threw herself at him, he thought something was going to hit him and instinctively stepped back.

She then fell onto the carpet with a thud and yelled in pain, "Ouch!"

All of them were shocked.

Stella quickly went over to help her up. Vermont realized what happened and immediately crouched down to check on her.

Felicity kicked him away angrily. "Get out of my face!"

After eating and drinking, Stella brought up what happened earlier that day.

After listening to her story, Felicity said, "That pretentious witch is so stupid and evil!"

"How does it benefit her if you offended the woman and caused Caline to lose a client? Will it not affect her if the company's profit decreases?"

As Vermont poured the wine, he chimed in, "It won't affect her too much.

After all, the Saun family is supporting all her expenses as she's still part of the family."

Mr. Kane Got Blacklisted Chapter 2143-Stella shook her head.

She had asked Trevor about this before.

Jaylene's full name used to be Jaylene Arnold. When Darcie first married Wenham, she did not have Saun as her last name. Later, during a parentteacher meeting, Darcie fell ill and could not attend. So, Wenham went on her behalf.

Wenham had never attended Jaylene's parent-teacher meetings before. Her teachers did not know him, so they had to find out their relationship first. That was when the teachers found out that the father and daughter had different last names.

They only realized that Darcie had remarried then. Being in elementary school, the most talkative and insensitive age, Jaylene's identity as a stepdaughter quickly spread across the school.

She got upset and refused to go to school. She cried and asked Wenham why Trevor had the same last name as him while hers was different. Everyone was saying that she was not Wenham's daughter.

Wenham had always been a soft-hearted person. If Darcie had said it, he might not have agreed. However, Jaylene was only seven or eight years old at that time. He just could not bear to see a little child crying like that. So, he changed her last name.

After Stella explained the whole story, Felicity said, "I've always wondered why your dad could raise Trevor as such a good person, yet Jaylene is nothing like him. It turns out she's been like this since she was little!"

"How could she not know why she had a different last name from them when she was already seven or eight years old? I'm pretty sure that your stepmother taught her to do so!"

"That is the only way she can enjoy the privilege of being the Saun family's daughter and officially become a part of the family as time goes by!"

Felicity was right. People who were not very close with the Saun family all thought that Jaylene was Wenham's biological daughter.

This misconception only ended when the Saun family held a party to welcome Stella back.

Of course, it also had to do with Wenham introducing her to everyone they met.

Whenever they attended events together, he would introduce her to others, saying, "This is my daughter, Stella Hall. She wants to bear her mother's last name because she likes it."

And when someone mentioned Jaylene, he would say, "Jaylene is more like her mother, and Stella is more like me. I mean, like father like daughter, right?"

At first, Stella thought Wenham had said them unintentionally, but she changed her mind as this happened more frequently.

Vermont lifted his gaze at Stella. "You managed to steal that big client from Darcie just like that? Could it be that Keegan helped you?"

Keegan said flatly, "No, I didn't know about it at all."

Felicity thought to herself, 'What's wrong with him? He didn't do anything to help, yet he can speak so confidently.' Vermont did not believe it at all. Keegan was someone who would spend the whole day on set when Stella was filming, and with something as big as this, he refused to believe that Keegan would sit back and do nothing.

Vermont rubbed his stomach with a painful expression. "Why did you hit me right after I ate?"

Felicity reached out to massage his stomach. "You're so fragile."

Vermont was speechless.

Keegan tapped Stella under the table. She looked at him and followed his gaze, noticing a red mark around Vermont's neck.

Vermont met Stella's gaze and suggested flatly, "You two have eaten a lot.

Why don't you take a stroll downstairs to help with the digestion?"

Mr. Kane Got Blacklisted Chapter 2144-Vermont was technically chasing them out of the house.

Unfortunately, Felicity did not catch on as she said, "Stella didn't even eat much.

What's there to digest? What she ate could barely feed the two little ones in her belly, right Stella?"

Stella blinked her eyes. "Not at all. I'm actually very full."

She then turned to Keegan. "What about you, are you done?' Keegan said, "I'm stuffed."

So, they said goodbye and left. Once they got into the car, Stella began complaining.

"Vermont is such a fake gentleman! I told him to have a baby with Felicity first so his mother-in-law would accept him, but he accused me of betraying Felicity.

“I thought he was a good man back then, thinking Felicity had finally found the one for herself. It turns out that everything is just a lie!”

Keegan was not aware of the condition Florence came up with and was puzzled upon hearing what Stella said. After understanding the situation, he remained silent for some time.

Then, he said, “He’s fulfilled the wish he made when he was young.”

Stella got curious and asked, “What wish?” “He wanted to marry a wealthy woman so he doesn’t have to work.”

Stella could not help but burst out laughing.

When Felicity came out of the bathroom and saw Vermont cleaning the table, she went over to help.

As she cleared the table, she asked, ‘ Do you feel that Stella has become more beautiful since she got pregnant?’ “Did she?” Vermont thought for a moment before saying, “She does seem less mean than before.”

Felicity’s eyelid twitched as she glared at him. “You’re the mean one!”

He chuckled. “Wasn’t she mean with me when I was pursuing you?” “You deserve it! Why did you lie to me? Besides, what have you done to pursue me?”

All you do is run your mouth! Who pursues someone by only taking them out to eat every day?”

He then humbly asked, “What is the correct way then?”

Felicity snorted. “At the very least, you should give me flowers, maybe a love letter or even a short note to express your feelings. Otherwise, how could I showcase my worth?”

Vermont said, “I wrote one, but I was too embarrassed to show you.”

Felicity’s eyes lit up. “Where is it?”

Vermont said softly, “It’s on the desk in my bedroom.”

Felicity immediately put down the plates in her hand. “I’ll go check it out.”

Before Vermont could say anything, she ran to his bedroom.

Felicity used to think that pink was too girly for her. But looking at the envelope now, she found it oddly cute.
