

Mr. President's Sweet Wife Novel

Chapter 21 She likes uncle

The both of them were quick to be out of the study room and Layla asked George to help her contact Doctor Wayne. He was Blake's psychologist; he knew more about Blake's situation more than Layla did.

After Doctor Wayne arrived, they headed to the back yard, avoiding Blake Spencer.

After having a conversation with Doctor Wayne, Layla eventually found out that he was the reason why Blake Spencer would sleepwalk.

"I thought that hypnotherapy would help Mr. Spencer get his memories back. I never thought that Mr. Spencer will only remember you and even sleepwalk. I think that you will be a big help in helping Mr. Spencer to get his memories back."

"I am the doctor in charge when he was being sent into the hospital after the accident. Maybe that's the reason why he remembered me." Layla said.

After living under the same roof these days, she found it weird that many people will be following him wherever he goes but he was being sent into the hospital alone back then.

After he woke up, they couldn't contact any family or friends of his.

Layla examined him the next day after he woke up and that's when he started to think that she was his wife.

And the next day, he was nowhere to be found in the hospital.

"I saw how Mr. Spencer behaved when you are around just now, Doctor Layla. He isn't frustrated all the time anymore. That shows that you mean a lot." Doctor Wayne said.

"But I don't think I will be a big help in helping Mr. Spencer get his memories back. He just thought that I was Miss Spencer." Layla said.

"We need to take it slow. First, we got to help Mr. Spencer get his memories back, then everything will be on the right track." Doctor Wayne said.

Layla felt no pressure after she talked to Doctor Wayne because he said to give him three months and if Blake Spencer couldn't remember anything after three months, he would let Layla leave here.

After Doctor Wayne left, Layla saw Blake Spencer standing behind her looking at her intensely.

"Why are you looking at me like that?" Layla asked.

"Did you have a good time talking to that old man?" Blake said sarcastically.

"Yes, I did. To be honest, you don't even need me here, Doctor Wayne is a talented doctor, he can help you get your memories back." Layla said, ignoring his sarcastic remark.

"You like him?" Blake asked, anger was raging inside him after hearing Layla Alexander praising someone else.

"Are you jealous?" Layla looked at Blake.

Blake didn't give her any response. He was jealous obviously.

"I just respect him a lot. Why would you be jealous? He is as old as my father." Lala explained.

"Women like uncles. It's normal for you like him."

The image of her and Doctor Wayne talking so happily at the back yard made Blake very jealous. Because Layla never laughs like that when she talks to him.

"Let's go." Layla said.

After hearing Layla's explanation, Blake's mood was better. He followed right behind Layla and said, "Since you explained to me, I will let this slide now."

Layla stopped after she heard what Blake said, "Wait. You are not my husband or boyfriend, why would I explain to you? There will be nothing to do with you if I like an uncle like Doctor Wayne. Don't get things wrong."

And with that, Layla walked away.

There is a pond in Spencer's mansion and Layla liked to stay there when she was bored.

What a rich Blake is, his garden and backyard are so big that Layla might get lost in it.

There is a small pavilion beside the pond and Layla likes to stay there and watch the fish inside the pond.

And of course, Blake Spencer would always follow her there.

Just like now, he would sit beside her and hand her some cookies.

"Thank you." Layla said and took the cookie.

"Have you forgiven me, wifey?" Blake asked.

"Forgive what?" Layla asked while tilting her head up to look at him.

"About last night." Blake looked at Layla's eyes.

"You were sleepwalking so I won't blame you. But I will help you get rid of Somnambulism. I am your doctor now after all." Layla said.
