

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 1017

When Alexander received the call from Margaret, he was in a meeting at the company. He needed to report on establishing new projects and expansion ideas overseas.

Initially, he did not want to answer the call, but as he used his phone to read the data analysis, he had no choice.

After declining the call, he quickly summed up his meeting and returned to the office to call her back.

On the phone, the old lady sounded aggressive.

"Where are you now?"

"I'm in the company."

It seemed like Margaret was in a bad mood.
