

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 1018

The walking stick Margaret held was drilling into the ground, showing her anger.

"Is she hurt?"

Alexander knew his limits, so he calculated each of his moves.

Initially, that fight would never have hurt Heather.

However, she had her pride, so she used all her killer moves to try and beat him. It was inevitable for him to respond and fight back.

His moves were a little heavier than anticipated.

Thus, he expected that she might get hurt.

'Did she go around complaining to people?"

It was a little out of character for someone as strong as her to do such a thing.

Was this her way to get the Russells to put pressure on Alexander?
