

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 1025

Hannah's parents had no attainments of learning kickboxing.

Instead, they were more focused on business.

Not only did their business grow into what it was today, but they also maintained it reasonably well.

Coupled with what their ancestors had done, they had shares in various industries.

They had just expanded their branch to Kingsland in recent years.

They had initially planned to make Kingsland their headquarters and develop it here.

That was why Heather had no interest in business and was always impatient when it came to it.

She had no choice but to deal with the affairs that came along with it patiently.

To certain extent, Hannah knew a little more about businesses than Heather did.

Although Hannah would occasionally sign things, she did not do it perfunctorily.

the project details and occasionally point out some

necessary

the car, her gaze turned cold, and every word from her mouth sounded

Her aura was domineering.

not tell the difference. She strode to the building, and as soon as she walked in, people bowed their heads

"Ms. Riggs, Ms. Riggs..."

sparing a second glance, she walked

in through what you and Mr. Brey discussed the other day. We can't delay this new project any longer. I explained, she began to lay

at the documents with a frown before

Heather's assistant but was none the wiser that the person before her was not the "Ms. Riggs"

formal wear, she had it tailored to look professional can do whatever she wants, yet I'm my sister's asking, "Did you...not get a fine. Just leave everything here. You

Hannah waved lightly.

moment before she backed

to her thoughts for