

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 1067

Margaret had a worried look. "My ring. It was the ring your father had gifted me for our wedding. I don't know how I lost it! I had it all this while!" Her face was flustered as she looked everywhere in the car.

"Where did it go?"

"Did you forget to put it on when you left? Maybe it's at home?" Lily suggested.

"That's impossible," Margaret denied instantly, "That's my wedding ring, and I've never taken it off all these years-not even when I go to bed or shower. I would never leave it at home. I must have dropped it somewhere. I remember I still had it on when I entered your house, and we sat on the sofa chatting.

"That ring is what's left of your grandfather, Alex. I must find it! It's even more precious than my life!" Margaret mumbled as she sadly lowered her head to find it.

saying, "It's most likely not in the car. Maybe you dropped it at your sofa, but now it's gone. Since it's not in the back and search at home!" Alexander of time if we turn back now. Why don't we finish what we intended to do and the ring was significant to you," Lily added, "We can always go shopping some other time. Let's go home and find your ring is

Did you find the ring?" Ralph's voice came from the him in? If he finds it, he can send it to us after. Then we can finish and looked at Alexander. Alexander remained silent as the couple's reaction, Margaret became restless and growled, "Isn't that the best way? Why are you hesitating? Is it so difficult to let your uncle into your home? It's not like he's some