Chapter 616

They must have thought so as they were aiming at her. However, it was too absurd.

She was so angry that she laughed when Alexander gave her a look, "This is ridiculous! Why would I poison my grandfather?

Moreover, I haven't returned to the Lodge family for many years. The last time I returned was during his birthday, and I only stayed for two days! Grandpa passed away yesterday. They actually accused me of poisoning him. When and why would I poison him?"

"All the clues indicate that this is a trap. You know that you're innocent. Since this is a trap, there's no need for a reason.

Moreover, it is easy to find a reason if they want to pin the blame on you!"

He was outraged when he learned about it, but the situation was still unclear. If she was framed, why did that person want to frame her? Who would benefit from this? In other words, who was the perpetrator?

Justin could be excluded as he was the one who reminded her not to go back.

Henry Lodge, who recently returned after being missing for a long time, was the primary suspect.

He suddenly returned, and she had reliable sources that said he held a lot of power in the Lodge family right now.

Even though Justin was the head of the Lodge family, he was still young. Henry's return received a lot of support from the Lodge family elders.

"Are you afraid?" He gently held her hand and lovingly asked her.

"Why should I be afraid of something I didn't do?"

Lily smiled, "I'm curious who was behind all of this. If grandpa's death was not an accident, who's the real murderer?!"

“The real murderer is likely the person who blames you.” Alexander held her hands tightly. and said, “I’ll help you find this person!”

Soon, the car pulled up to the Lodge family’s residence. On their way from the airport, he knew something was not right. To be exact, two cars have been following them since they left the airport. Edward asked him about it, but he told him to ignore the cars and let them follow.

The cars gradually disappeared when they drove into the Lodge family’s compound. It was as if the people in the cars were making sure they got to the Lodge house.

Canopies and white banners were put up along the way, creating a somber atmosphere.

Lily was sad when she received the news of her grandfather’s death. However, the sudden turn of events and conspiracy made her think of many things and dulled her sadness.

It was only when she saw the flower wreaths and the mourning clothes worn by the servants. that the fact her grandfather was gone dawned on her and drowned her in sadness. Her eyes reddened with tears as she had lost her grandfather forever!

Alexander took her into his arms and squeezed her shoulder. He was susceptible to her emotions as usual.

The car drove into the Lodge courtyard and stopped at the parking area. A row of vehicles was parked neatly, and it seemed like this was a big funeral.

Two people were waiting outside as soon as the car stopped. Alexander looked at her and noticed that Lily had stopped crying.

She took some tissues and wiped her tears dry. Her expression was surprisingly calm.

"I can do this," she muttered firmly.

He raised his eyebrows and supported her, "I never doubted it!"

Lily opened the door and got out of the car. She did not fear the troubles she was about to face. She wanted to clear her name and find out the perpetrator if her grandfather was really murdered!

Alexander followed behind her after she got out of the car. Edward stood by Alexander's side. The three of them had only reached the bottom of the steps when a group of people surrounded them.
