Chapter 618

“No matter what you say, I want to pay my respects to Grandpa first!”

There was no point arguing here. Lily wanted to pay her respect to her grandfather and, if possible, take a look at his body and find out what had happened.

“You don’t have the right!” Henry stepped forward to block the doorway and refused to let her in. He waved his hand and instructed, “Take her down!”

The people surrounding them rushed forward. It seemed like they planned to use force to capture her.

“Wait a minute!” Alexander shouted and stepped forward to block Lily behind him. He stared at Henry and asked, “Aren’t you afraid to be seen as a joke if news of you fighting during Wilfred Lodge’s funeral is spread?”

Henry squinted at him. He looked down at him and said disdainfully, "Who are you? You have no right to interfere with the affairs of the Lodge family!"

"I'm Lily's husband. Mr. Lodge would be my maternal grandfather. Therefore, I have the right to interfere in this matter!"

Alexander said calmly, "If I remember correctly, the head of the Lodge family is Justin. He had not spoken, and you're already jumping up and down. Since when has the Lodge family forgone all etiquette?"

Henry was not angered even though he was looked down on by Alexander. He played with the ring on his little finger before replying unhurriedly, "It looks like your news is outdated. My nephew was indeed the head of the family before this, but I'm back now. It's time for the youngsters to take a break and let me be in charge."

It was precisely the same as what he thought. Justin had lost his authority.

Justin had been the head of the family for quite some time. Why was it so easy for him to be overturned? The whole situation was shrouded with coincidences.

"I want to meet Justin!" Lily said in a loud voice. This uncle of hers was suspicious. However, he was a step ahead of them and seemed to have taken control of the Lodge family. She needed to meet with Justin before figuring out the whole situation.

"Justin is too sad, and he's resting at the moment. You, a murderer, have no right to meet. Justin or your grandfather." Henry said coldly, "You should admit your mistake if you still have a conscience. I might discuss with the elders for a lighter punishment in consideration. that you have half of the Lodge family's blood."

"I can't admit to something I've not done!" Lily stood straight and stepped forward, "I must pay my respect to my grandfather today. I want to see who dares to stop me!"

The death of her grandfather had greatly saddened her. Right now, she felt sad and angry at the same time for such an accusation. Her uncle, who she had not seen for many years, turned the Lodge family upside down as soon as he returned.

What was he planning to do? She stared straight at him and walked toward the house step by step.

“Take her down!” Henry coldly instructed.

At the same time, he confidently turned around and walked back toward the house. He had complete confidence that his people could hold Lily back. After all, they were also members of kickboxing families.

They were all skilled even though they were not from the Lodge family. Lily was merely a girl.

Moreover, she refused to practice martial arts from a young age and left the Lodge family for many years. It should be easy to deal with her!
