

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 623

“Well said! If there’s another reason for my grandfather’s death, I’ll investigate the truth! So...” Lily looked around. “Let’s report it to the police!”

She pulled out her mobile phone as she spoke, “Since we all have different opinions, we might as well hand this matter over to the police. It’s the fairest thing to do to get justice. When the investigation is cleared, Grandpa can rest in peace.”

However, her arm was held against her before she could dial the number. Jonathan frowned and said solemnly, “You can’t call the police!”

“That’s right. You can’t call the police.” The elders surrounding them all spoke up. Surprisingly, they all decided against contacting the police.

“The Lodge family is a plutocratic family with a century–old foundation. It would be a shame. for our family if something like this were to spread, regardless of who was responsible. The Lodge family must resolve things internally, and when we identify the guilty party, we’ll give them a fitting punishment. No outsiders shall intervene!”

all nodded in approval. “Granduncle Jonathan! This is a serious issue involving my grandfather’s passing rather than a trivial dispute. If someone intentionally did this to my grandfather, they’d be guilty of murder. How could you settle call the police and instead sought do whatever you like. I assure you that as long as I live, I’ll continue to have a say in the Lodge family. It isn’t your place to give family if you dare to call the police and ruin the hundreds of years of the good

her with his stern with this statement. She looked at Justin again. He remained mute, seemingly oblivious to the conversation, as if it had too?”

I’m now going to temporarily take charge of the Lodge family while I investigate long time ago. Do you think you can seize his power still regard you as a member of the Lodge family.

more, but