

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 626

Alexander smiled and turned Lily's body to face him. He gently placed her one hand on his chest and said warmly, "The heart is not always cold but also warm. How could you be so pessimistic, my love?"

His lovely words made Lily blush, and the one hand he held was motionless, sticking to his chest. Lily's hand felt warm from the heat of his body. "You knew this was a game and accompanied me through it all. Now you're stuck here with me. I'm sorry," she sighed in a low voice.

Alexander's eyes sank, and he leaned down to bite her lips fiercely. It was not a gentle kiss, but a hard bite with his teeth, causing her to gasp in pain. After biting and releasing them, he stared into his wife's eyes and said, "Remember this as a lesson. I'll punish you if you ever talk to me like I'm a stranger again."

Lily was silent. 'He's such a domineering yet touching man.'

She pursed her lips, and they felt numb. Still, the reality is that we're stuck here, and they won't give me the answer I want."

Just now, in the mourning hall, she had already seen through it all. The murderer and the charges were just a conspiracy to seize power from Justin. She could see through it, so Justin. naturally understood as well. What she did not understand was why Justin seemed to let it go.
