

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 628

She personally handed the candle to Justin, not thinking that any problems would occur.

“After you brought the candle back, did you light it up yourself, or did you hand it over to the housekeeper?”

Taking a deep look at her as if guessing her thoughts, Justin’s lips moved a little, and he faintly said two words: “Uncle Roger.”

Lily was silent.

Roger did not have to explain himself. He was deeply devoted to Wilfred and had spent many years serving by his side. Nobody in the Lodge family would ever question Roger’s allegiance.

In other words, the doubts about the whole situation fell on the three of them. Since Lily and Justin could not argue, Henry and Jonathan saw this as an opportunity to attack them. At that moment, neither their guilt nor their innocence could be established with certainty.

“This is a conspiracy!” Lily’s hand clenched into a fist. How vicious!

It was not just as simple as framing. She wanted to know who tampered with the candle.

“I must find the real murderer who killed my grandfather!”

“Then what?” Justin asked calmly.

“Make him pay the price!”

“If they dared to do this, they would’ve already cleaned all the evidence,” Standing up, Justin took two steps forward and pointed out the door.

He was pointing in the direction of the corridor, “You know, the Lodge family has never had the habit of installing security cameras. Even if they did it outside grandpa’s room, as long as they weren’t caught red-handed, there wouldn’t be any evidence.”
