

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 629

Justin's answer was not necessary anymore, as his attitude spoke volumes. Lily got back to her room and noticed that Alexander was not there. She had no idea where he had gone, had assured her, they were on the Lodge family's grounds, which were perilous at times but but as he mostly safe. Therefore, she should not worry about him.

She had to handle some things urgently, so Lily took out her phone and called Olivia, "Liv, there's a small candle stick in the safe inside my lab. Could you please send it to the FDA for lab testing?"

"Why?" Olivia had not seen Lily in days. She was overjoyed to hear from Lily, but before Olivia could ask how she was doing, Lily made an unexpected request.

"I need it urgently. Please help me," Lily added, "Don't tell anyone about this. You need to do personally, and when you have the results, take a photo of it and keep the report safe with this

you."

Olivia promised though she was a third party to be involved. However, if this was what Lily instructed, it question it any further. Instead, she asked, "Are you still went back to the

are you with Mr. Russell?" Olivia are you doing over there? Did we receive any new projects while I here. We've only received some regular orders. They were quite easy to handle, so I'm feeling a bit bored now. When are you coming back? I'm still waiting for you and empowering part of this field to invent something amazing. No matter how hard she tried, the perfumes she could come up with were always lacking compared to those high-end branded ones.

on three days, that was just a date given to Jonathan to

"Are you sure you're alright? Does this have to do with the incident in Kingsland? You shouldn't be disheartened. Joining the Perfumers' Society is not an easy certain experiences as well. It doesn't matter whether we can join or not. Let's just concentrate on making