"I know you were with that brat, Lily Christian, weren't you? Then she left you," Henry stated as he looked Nathaniel up and down. He did not come here empty-handed, as he knew a thing or two about Nathaniel.

However, Henry did not know about Nathaniel's relationship with the Tanner family. Although Henry knew Nathaniel was working with Tanner Corporation, he had no idea how Nathaniel had managed to clear his debt and turn his life around again.

Whatever the case was, Henry could not care less about it. All he wanted to know was whether Nathaniel could help him.

"It seems like you know quite a lot for someone who has been abroad, Mr. Lodge," Nathaniel said with a low laugh. "Yes, you're right. Everything I am today is all thanks to your niece. Speaking of which, you could have been my uncle!"

Hearing this, Henry narrowed his eyes. "If you manage to help me this time, there might still be a possibility of that."

He implied that as long as Nathaniel could help him, he would help Nathaniel get Lily back. Nathaniel laughed instead. "No, no, you've misunderstood me. That's not what I meant. Although I want to get my revenge on Lily, that's not what I'm asking. I will do my best to help you get what you want.
