

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 686

Unlike Nathaniel, Arianna was more concerned about who could benefit her more in her struggle to gain power within the Tanner family. She did not care about the kickboxing aspect of these families.

"That may not be true," Nathaniel remarked while shaking his head.

"What do you mean?" Arianna asked.

"I'm saying Henry would not give in to destiny that easily. He would not concede defeat so quickly," Nathaniel had taken his time to learn about Henry when he conducted his background search on him.

After being banished from the Lodge family, Henry's hatred grew to the extent that he only wanted to return to the family to regain his authority when his father died. Someone like him would not give up and admit defeat that easily.

place all your bets on him? Why do you believe in him so much? From my perspective, we should try to mend merely waiting for an

leave the Lodge

I've already sent out our people to spread the news about Lily using poisonous content in her perfumes. Very soon, we will destroy her reputation in the perfume industry, and she won't be able to are you so happy about?" Arianna snapped when she well or otherwise? The company won't credit you if they're popular amongst the consumers, but you'll take the fall was why Damian had continued to tolerate Nathaniel as his assistant manager, even though Nathaniel though Damian was very confident in himself and that this issue would proceed without difficulties, what Damian was planning. He only honestly don't care if your ship sank, but make sure you don't mess up my plans along the way," Arianna told him.