

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 692

Furthermore, Damian would treat Nathaniel as his enemy because the latter had a close relationship with Arianna. Damian planned to work his way through Tanner Corporation and finally take control of the entire company.

Then he would bring his mother back to the Tanner family's residence and include her in the family register. In the future, they would be the ones who lead the Tanner family.

When it came to Arianna, Damian would financially provide for her and Eloise if he was in a good mood. If he were not, he would kick them out of the house.

Damian could not accept how he and his mother had suffered for many years. Since he was born, he was someone that his parents were embarrassed by. However, Arianna and Eloise could enjoy their lives in the Tanner family's residence. He believed he should be the one in charge of the entire family because he was the first son of their father.

Nathaniel smiled faintly and got up to his feet.

"You're mistaken."

Damian, lit a cigarette, and handed it over. He closed the door unhurriedly and finally said, "Everyone knows you're the one details of the manufacturing process, and even the targeted sales volume of the product.

and domineering as he was before. He received the

I hope that's next to Damian, appearing to be currying favor with the latter. "I can assure you that it's my capable enough. He's missing right now, while it has been some time since Mr. Derrick came to the office. Once you've completed this project, I'm sure you'll get promoted to at joy, but he could not stop the corners of key, all right? It hasn't been decided yet, right! You're indeed the most thoughtful person I've ever met!" Nathaniel nodded fervently, looking obedient and ready to do anything guard down. He did not feel as