

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 698

The press conference was at seven in the evening.

Alexander and Lily's plane arrived at three in the afternoon, and they were immediately on the move.

Once they arrived, they did not return home and headed directly to the company to prepare.

Although Jenny and George knew about this, it was a relatively significant matter this time.

Therefore, the company did not need them, and the headquarters of La Beauté Group would handle it.

All they could do now was worry on their own.

Olivia immediately heaved a sigh of relief when she saw Lily and rushed to hug her.

"You're back! You've only been away for a short time, yet so many things have happened. What the h*ll is going on? You worry me to death! In the recording, did you—"

Jenny, who was beside Olivia, gently patted her shoulder, interrupting her.

Then Jenny motioned for them to speak in the office.
