

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 705

Rose noticed Alexander staring at the person who just spoke. She stood anxiously and instinctively took the initiative to start speaking, "Ms. Christian..."

As soon as she started, a crisp voice sounded, "Sorry, I'm late, everyone!"

Lily was panting heavily, looking a little messy, her hair wet with sweat sticking to her face. She was also wearing casual clothes.

The media thought she would attend all dressed up and was startled by what they saw.

Some picked up their cameras and took pictures as they returned to their senses. No matter what, the main character finally appeared.

The reporters and media did not waste their time.

As for why Lily was so messy, everyone wondered if she did not want to come but got forced to show up.

Some reporters had already begun to think of the drama in their minds.

Alexander turned to look at his wife. She was holding a box in her hand while trying to catch her breath.
