

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 713

Alexander was speechless, not because of what she had said, but the way her body moved while she spoke. She struggled to sit up while hugging his waist and placed her face against his abs.

"I'm so tired!"

'Was this what they meant by the body being the most honest?' Alexander wondered.

He still had his trousers on while he stood stiffly thinking, 'Should I follow her signal or just listen to her and let her rest?' The next thing he knew, Lily had her hand on his abs and was moving downwards, "So hard!"

Alexander was turned on now, so he decided to make the culprit take responsibility for doing this to him! Without hesitating, his hormones got the better of him and he proceeded to lie on top of her.

He pinned her naughty hands down and said, "There's more..."

Before he could finish his sentence, Lily had lifted one of her knees and bent it.

ended up colliding with hormones and his

at the culprit, who

be asleep? He stood up to ease the tension on he was not gentle when he carried her and placed her on her side of the was confused as to why she felt herself being lifted, and when fall asleep?" She sure you're awake?" Alexander still suspicious if she

"I fell asleep?"

had no recollection of what had happened looked around her, and realized she was could only mean that she had not gone downstairs and had fallen asleep on