

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 724

Artwork such as calligraphy, paintings, and vases dominated the front displays.

Prices were not prohibitive, so those interested snatched them up quickly.

Tonight's final auction item was the sapphire necklace that Elizabeth had her eye on.

She wasn't the only one aiming for the necklace, as many socialites were also waiting for it.

Everyone wanted to get their hands on that sapphire necklace.

The starting price was 200,000 dollars, and bidding increased by 100,000 dollars each time.

Although the item didn't start at a high price, countless bids were made, and in the blink of an eye, the necklace was now worth 2.4 million dollars.

Nonetheless, Elizabeth was not worried.

Before they got there, Joseph had already told her that he prepared six million dollars with him.

Therefore, as long as the price did not exceed six million, the necklace would easily be hers without worry! She sipped her wine slowly and looked around with a trace of self-satisfaction on her face.

Tonight, she was going to be the star of the show.

reached 3.6 million, the bids came to a

him nod, she happily

"4 million!"

look in their direction as head up high with a down on me just because I'm a mistress. It's a skill for a mistress to climb the social ladder as I did. Soon, the Tanner Corporation will

"4.2 million."

silence and held up

and Joseph were turned to look at the person holding the

and he casually named his

on her lips for a moment before she quickly raised her paddle without

"5 million!"

fight that man! This necklace

was not going to

who had already promised her 6 million dollars,

her get that was just a

going to be his, so how could he be calculative? It would be embarrassing if he could

"5.2 million!"