

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 726

It was just 10 million dollars.

What was 10 million to the Tanner Corporation? She would soon be the mother of its president, and then Elizabeth could have anything she wanted.

On the contrary, Joseph did not look as happy as she was.

Before going out, he told her the budget should not exceed 6 million.

However, she was like a different person once she got there.

Elizabeth did not even look at him before calling out a 10 million dollar bid for a worthless necklace without a second thought.

Joseph got to his feet with a dark expression.

Before he could leave, he was stopped by Elizabeth, who was beaming for the cameras.

"Congratulations, Mr. Tanner, for buying this necklace at a whopping 10 million dollars. Is it for the lady beside you?" a reporter asked.

Elizabeth chimed in before Joseph could even answer.

"Of course!"

the true Mrs. Tanner, completely

how do I address

trailed off as he looked at Joseph

any longer as he pursed his lips, but Elizabeth held brushed away her stray hairs, and said with a smile, "Do I need to

She smiled ambiguously.

were never made public by

were, they would keep it behind woman admitted their relationship openly, acting like they were rumors are true?

keen on Joseph's answer as she

she had wanted him to get

she felt this was

slowly climbing

to make her the madame of the house? However, Joseph frowned

"No such thing!"

and continued, "My relationship with my wife is fine. She's feeling a little under the weather today, so Ms. Olsen is here to accompany me. As for this necklace, Ms. Olsen was