

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 741

Since that was the case, Lily could only think about having a studio of her own but could not take further action.

It was not until today that Lisa came looking for her for a customized order, along with the incident with the Perfumers' Society, that Lily considered her plans more seriously.

After all the recent events, she thought of implementing her studio for the first time.

However, Alexander had done everything for her.

Lily stopped the spoon in her hand, looked up at Alexander, and said severely, "Thank you for all of this!"

Perhaps her tone was so severe that Alexander was stunned for a moment.

Seeing her eyes full of gratitude, he could not help but smirk. He caressed her hair, saying, "You're spouting nonsense again."

"It's not nonsense! It's the truth!"

With a sigh, Lily continued, "You have no idea. After meeting Lisa today, I thought about building myself a studio. I was thinking about where it should be, how much it would cost, and whether or not you would agree. I never even mentioned it to you."

"Ultimately, it was all just thoughts. I didn't expect you to have already arranged everything for me. I..."

and down of her mood were indescribable, and she sometimes felt that Alexander was the noblest person felt he was good enough and could not get any better, he would always surprise her wife, silly. If I don't do it for smiled and pinched

I thought you liked this

"We're still going home?"

looked at the want to stay here for the night? Although I arranged a bedroom opened his arms and went to hold arm and pushed him gently, "Nope! I

"Really?"

said meaningfully, "You think I'm hard trap and did not answer—instead, she heard him continue, "Even though you think you're hard, so you can't hold it stood up and packed her empty dessert

their CEO like this,

press conference that day, Rose was jealous and looked at Lily as if she was

was quite