

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 761

Since Lily had decided to keep the baby, she needed to get a thorough checkup at the hospital and find out if the baby would be affected by her exposure to chemicals before she was pregnant.

After accessing her file, performing a urine test, and having an ultrasound, Lily's heart calmed down. She had already decided to keep the child, and she knew Alexander was with her. Even more unexpectedly, she felt like a mother already, and she was slowly adjusting to her new role.

"Lily."

When her name was called, the doctor pushed up his glasses with the report in his hand. "You're not pregnant."

Lily, whose smile was ready to declare, "I want to keep it," instead responded with, "What?"

ultrasound states that you're not pregnant," After speaking, he was a little confused and took the report. Seeing the data series, not everything was easy to understand, but it was still obvious whether she was pregnant

"I'm not?"

was calmer, "She took a pregnancy test at home, and other external factors can sometimes give a false positive. However, it's clear from the explanations, she started to get it. Alexander continued talking to the doctor, but she could not determine what they the car silently for a considerable amount of time. One of her hands had been resting on her lower belly since she got home from the hospital, and she appeared to be in a not bad news," Alexander said, holding her he was somewhat disappointed. After all, he was ready to welcome