

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 770

When the Perfumers' Society invited Lily to join them, they did not mention checking for the certificate. However, they held it against her this time.

She could guarantee that many small perfumers in Hyderland did not have this certificate and were still performing well. It was one thing to have the certificate or not, and another if anyone would check on the status.

Lily was about to speak when Lisa interrupted, "That's ridiculous! Being a qualified perfumer is about talent and hard work. What does anything have to do with the certificate? Does it mean one can only be a perfumer with the certificate?"

"Sorry, this is a matter between Lily and me. You shouldn't interrupt." Noah came today to negotiate with Lily. If she changed her mind and was willing to join the Perfumers' Society, they could resolve the certificate issue. However, if she disagreed...
