

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 777

Lily lowered her gaze to look at the ring on her finger. It was magical how such a small band that encircled her finger seemed to do the same to her heart. She used her finger to rub the ring lightly, then looked up at Alexander, smiling.

"I like it."

After deciding on the rings, the two got up and headed out of the VIP room.

The sales advisor had already taken Alexander's card to check out the rings while Alexander was on his phone, talking business.

Other customers looked at jewelry in the store, and Lily left first.

"Mom, I think this looks good. It doesn't necessarily need to be a jade ring. Diamond rings are fine too."

"You youngsters know nothing about rings. Gold is valuable, and jade is priceless. No matter how expensive diamond rings are, how could they compare to jades?"

The old lady sounded displeased.

Lily did not listen in on their conversation, but they captured her attention because what they said was too surprising.

The jewelry store only sold diamond rings.

Jade rings were better than diamond rings in such a store would make things awkward for the sales advisors. It would

why don't you look around and see if you like anything old lady sitting by the counter with displeasure written all over her face. ησνελεβσσκ.ζσm The middle-aged woman who stood by and this too. This ring looks great, doesn't it?

The

rings? Show them to me. Anyhow, I want something different from have them, but advisors would remind the customers about the

it was risky for them to move such expensive rings around, so it was rare such expensive rings and might feel awkward about not being able to words might sometimes offend certain customers, especially those feel humiliated, as what trying to say? What's with the price? Do you think I raised her voice, attracting the h*ll are you guys saying? Do you know who my mom was displeased as from the Russell family. Have you heard if she