

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 786

Although there was a frown on her face, she knew that Nathaniel was right.

Not only did she know Naomi, but the two were also good friends.

After so many years, Eloise never expected this friendship to come in handy.

"Mom, I'm not trying to set you up. You're aware of what's going on. Our fate is on the line, and we're all in the same boat. Of course, we'd have to work together, don't you think so?" Nathaniel asked as he drove.

Eloise shifted herself and let the shadows engulf her as she sighed. She had never thought the day would come when she and her two children would unite and fight against her husband and his second family.

At first, all she wanted was to be a trophy wife and find a good family for her daughter to marry into so she could retire in peace. However, this was all wishful thinking at this point.

Joseph was going to take everything she had to raise another family. How could Eloise willingly let him do that?

sure you can do the

She was still concerned.

on driving, and did

arranged

happen in front of so many shareholders and high-level executives, he wouldn't had everything

of the business world for the past few years, he

it was time to blonde-haired brat even dared to yell at Nathaniel because he believed it was like to be at the top just worried for two of you are siblings, and you're both my children. You two have to be on the same side, she was a little afraid after seeing how the two worked together to deal with happen next? Would they turn against each other to