

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 815

Compared to the Tanners, Lily had things going easy for her. She had decided to take the job for the themed series.

Firstly, it's the first order of her studio.

Second, she wanted to get more things done now that she knew she wasn't pregnant so she could focus on raising the child once she did become pregnant.

Seeing her get busier every day, Alexander felt happy for her.

"You aren't worried about the Perfumers' Society at all, huh?"

Although nothing would happen to her with him around, she looked as if she had forgotten all about it. He wondered what Noah Richards would think if he knew she didn't care about his threat.

"Well, there's nothing to worry about right from the start," she said while crouching in the yard trimming the plants.

Among the raw materials, two pieces of wood devoid of any leaves or flowers appeared dead. She paid extra attention to these two seemingly useless pieces of wood.

would water and fertilize them

Perfumers' Society is pergola, Alexander enjoyed a rare moment of leisure and thought that buying the place was the right move. n.o.v.e.l.b.o.o.k.c.o.m It was not only her studio but also a place for him to take breaks an authoritative figure, all she used a garden trowel to mound to them, and

about it and looked over her shoulder them more than 20 years ago. There are only a handful of perfumers here, and some are more skilled than others. Many upcoming and so, do you plan

a book,

was

Perfumers' Society had been the authority for nearly 30 years, and top perfumers headed it member of the dared to go against them, even if

many other