

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 825

Joseph and Damian remained silent as they left the hospital.

When Damian got into the car, he began, "Dad..."

"Perhaps what you said is right," Joseph said in a grave tone.

He had been thinking about everything that had happened with mixed feelings.

Joseph could not deny that what Stephanie told him had disturbed him greatly. He had never thought Arianna would come here and ask for his brother's seal.

'Why would she need the seal? She said she wanted to run the business on Derrick's behalf.

to take over the company. She promised to take care of her brother and

I've raised, the one I thought had been obedient to me, would do such a thing. What else could she have done?' Damian was surprised by his father's

I was right, wasn't I? It's not that I'm prejudiced against her, but it's the other way around! Look, if she could go and ask for Uncle Derrick's seal upset face, he

words could be understood even if left he drove with a hauntingly gloomy look and later dropped Damian off at this to me. I'll let you

"All right, Dad."

moment, Damian felt let Arianna off the hook if she were connected to it. She would likely be held responsible, and Joseph could solve the incident without his son getting Damian's way, he would have no competitors in

of the