Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 829

Unwilling to give up, Joseph took Elizabeth's perfume for another lab test, and as expected, the results showed a problem with the perfume.

At the same time, they still could not find the perfumer and later discovered he was just an imposter, not a real top perfumer. He was not even an imposter.

The top perfumer Damian wanted to invite to work on the perfume was Charlie Mckenzie, but the person who worked on the perfume was Charlie Mckenzee.

There was just a slight difference in the spellings of their names, but that made all the difference.

Such low-level deception was common in the country and was exposed many times.

However, it was the first time someone pretended to be an internationally renowned top perfumer by making a fake name.

It was a simple deception that one could quickly notice if one paid closer attention.

However, Damian told his friend to get in touch with Charlie's team, which was only possible with the considerable sum of money Damian had spent.

Hence, when the man came, Damian thought he got the right person.

When Damian returned home, he searched on the Internet and found that Charlie had won many awards and that he was a rare talent in the industry.

single photo of him on the web, but Damian was not doubtful at all and accepted him into his team just basic knowledge of fragrances, so it was reasonable to trust that his added an illegal substance to his product this time branch, which focused on the development of fragrances, had not just an internal affair of the company, so it was difficult for Joseph to protect Damian a solution! Your brother can't go to Derrick was anxious.

suppressed the development of the matter and compensated their consumers. He did not place, Dad? Someone has to take the blame," иоveleвоок.¢ом Arianna said as she casually was lazy to get serious with him. She knew about Joseph throwing a tantrum before slapping you saying? How could stared at her go to jail and you're unwilling to replace him, what asking hesitated for a said nothing, his hesitation was enough that Damian or Joseph go to jail, Joseph instantly rejected her suggestion, telling her they could which meant this was