

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 856

The driver's seat was empty, and Alexander was nowhere around. Lily suddenly felt a little flustered and sat upright to look around. She saw him not too far in front of her and felt relieved. Alexander was on the phone, and she could see his side profile.

He stood there with his tall, slender figure, looking focused, but his side profile was desirable. It was unknown when he had occupied Lily's heart little by little. She thought she would not believe in love anymore after her experience with Nathaniel.

Even if she did fall in love, she could not love someone deeply. She now knew how wrong she was. Not only did she fall in love, but she loved Alexander unconditionally because he was worth it.

Alexander felt her burning gaze and turned around. His cold eyes turned gentle when he saw her. Lily smiled at him and got out of the car. He had ended the phone call by the time she approached him.

Lily did not know who he was talking to, but she could deduce that it was an unpleasant call. However, that did not matter, as the couple had received plenty of unpleasant calls recently. She hugged his arm, asking, ' Why didn't you wake me up? Did I sleep for a long time?'

on not sleeping if I didn't go to the studio to pick you up? Go and wash your face. I've already ordered something to eat, so it should arrive soon. Eat first before you continue your sleep." Alexander reprimanded her, but she could see the tenderness in his

"Okay." Lily nodded obediently.

her favorite restaurant. He was being thoughtful as he considered her condition and of food in front of them. Lily picked up the cutlery and said, "You ordered so much. It would be a should eat more, and then it wouldn't be a you kidding me?! This much is enough for me to eat for a whole day. I'm not a pig!"

more like a little hamster hiding her food in her cheeks. Alexander smiled other ways to finish the many dishes, she could not stop eating. The food from this restaurant was delicious and matched a child to share the