

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 857

Lily picked up the phone, glanced at it, and rejected the call to continue eating. It rang again soon after, but she rejected it again. This repeated several times.

"Well, that's annoying. Ill teach them a lesson for you if you want," Alexander noticed his wife's impatient expression and said half-jokingly. He wanted to answer on her behalf when the phone rang again.

Lily once again rejected the call and shook her head, "Then you'll need to teach a lot of people lessons."

After some thought, Alexander raised his brows and asked, "Is it a reporter? IV

The calls were frequent and were not one but many callers simultaneously. The only possibility for this was they were reporters who were eager for news.

dishes. She was already full and had no appetite

it. I'll do the

and placed them into

Mr. Adler?" As always, Alexander could accurately guess the once this news breaks out, I will be troubled for a conclusive evidence to prove that it was she the one who exposed the news. However, she recently fought fiercely with the Perfumers' Society and caused a big stir. Therefore, exposed the news as long as it's the truth. There's nothing to be afraid countertop, looked up at the ceiling, and sighed. Her initial dream was to quietly be a perfumer and make perfumes make a lasting and memorable