

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 866

If Damian had that number of shares, he would not need to fight with Arianna for power. Even if Joseph gave him everything he had, it would not add up to more than 10% of company shares.

"Just because you don't have it now doesn't mean you won't have it in the future," Nathaniel sounded so sure of himself, "To prevent you from going against your promise, I want you to sign this now so that I can all feel at ease."

"Are you sure?" Damian raised his eyebrows and asked in distrust. If he had 55% of shares from Tanner Corporation, he would get to call the shots as the whole corporation would be his. If that time came, Damian would not have to be afraid of anyone and would not even care about his position in the company.

After all, he only wanted to advance in the company and replace Arianna as an essential person that could support the Tanner Corporation. Still, he had never once imagined he would someday be able to obtain this amount of company shares.

held the pen. If Damian somehow obtained 55% of company shares, it would mean the company would belong to Nathaniel the moment Damian signed the document. Would Damian be willing to give up everything or, at most, the company's managing to give them up?" Nathaniel smiled as he noticed the look on Damian's face. "Well, it's not surprising. It is a huge amount. You can still choose not to sign them over and walk out from here freely. Unfortunately, you'd probably have to spend the rest of your life in aren't severe, your sister has already employed the best lawyers to ensure your sentence will be as long as possible. You better prepare yourself for that. Anyway, it ultimately doesn't matter, does it? Since said was the truth. Damian had already lost everything, even though he was unwilling to give up were no differences. At least, if he chose to sign this contract, he would first be able to walk

Arianna in the process.