

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 877

The representative probably did not expect Lily to refuse directly. They were taken aback for a moment. "Ms. Christian, why don't you consider our offer first?"

This offer was so tempting that the representative believed almost nobody would refuse. However, Lily did not even bother to listen. "Oh, that's okay. I won't sell them, no matter what the offer is. Thank you for your appreciation, goodbye."

Lily was about to hang up after speaking neatly. Still, the representative could not help but say another sentence, "Ms. Christian, we appreciate those perfumes, but I hope you also know that no matter how talented you are, you can't do much alone.

"Our company can provide the most powerful platform, and as far as we know, your situation in Hyderland is not doing well. It's hard to say whether you can continue to work in this industry."

"Your company won't have to worry about me. Thank you for your concern, goodbye." Then Lily hung up without any hesitation.
