

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 880

Although Lily did not have a great impression of Arianna, she knew Nathaniel was not a reasonable person either.

"I see. That's how it is." She appeared to have come to a sudden realization and smiled at Damian. "The Tanner family sounds complicated."

Damian did not know how to respond to that.

"As for you..." Lily looked at Nathaniel and took a step closer to him. While looking into his eyes, she asked, "What's your role in all of this? A helper? An accomplice? Or are you merely seeking justice for him because of the unfairness he went through?"

"I found out about this after getting the evidence, and I don't want to see so many innocent people get dragged into this. That's all. I know you have a deep prejudice against me, but trust me, this time. Arianna was the one who planned this."

right!" Damian nodded fervently by weren't for her, I wouldn't have suffered so much and fallen from the top right." Lily smiled. "Still, all this is your family's matter. What does it have to do with me?" When she walked past Nathaniel, she asked again, it have to do with him?" He side of society, but it was

City were empty. Arianna believed they would not have gone out of the country in such a short time. If they did, she would have them. Eloise was still checking the information as she had a clear idea of how many properties Derrick owned and other details she had collected after all while she paced back and forth. Eloise just looked up at Joseph upon hearing his voice but said nothing and continued with her task at and it's difficult for him to move around. I'm guessing he couldn't have gotten far," Joseph